PREFACE TO THE SIXTH EDITION

My thanks are due to the profession for the appreciation shown to the previous editions of this book. The contemplated amendments by the Provincial Legislatures deterred me from taking up a recession of this work earlier.

In this edition I have discussed many new topics not included in the previous editions and many portions have been re-written. The case-laws reported up to date have been incorporated. In arranging the case laws I have kept in view the needs of a busy practitioner. The guiding principle is that the prayers in the plantis must always be looked to in assessing court-fees and I have noted the rulings with reference to the same.

Since the publication of the last edition financial conditions have obliged some Provincial Legislatures to amend the Court I'ves Act, 1870. The Bombay Legislature, the U. P. Legislature and the C. P. Legislature and the C. P. Legislature have each made extensive amendments. The Bombay amendment express on 31st March, 1936, and the U. P. amendment in June 1936. The C. P. Amendment which came into force from the 1st July 1935 remains in force till March 1943. The Bengal Amendment Act, XI of 1935, remains in force for three years from the 1st June 1935, so far as the increased duties on Probates and Succession Certificates are concerned. The Bengal Amendment Act (VII of 1935) was designed to remedy evasions of duty.

I have incorporated the principal features of the amendments in the body of the original Act and have also printed the Amending Acts separately. So, in construing the provisions of the Act, reference may be made to the actual language used by the Legislature.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

I am grateful to the legal profession for the kind appreciation shown to this book

The delay in bringing out the Second Edition is due to my want of time. I have thoroughly revised the book with special care and have remedied all the delects. The Amending Acts of all the Provinces have been incorporated.

The extent of difficulty in reconciling the various interpretations will appear from the following observations of the Patia High Court in the Full Bench Case of Krishne Mohan Singha v Raghunandan Panday, I L R 4 Patia Series 336 at page 349, where the learned Chief Justice and "the wording of this Act is in some respects certainly unscentificand difficult to interpret and its interpretation has been the subject of a multitude of decisions in the Courts"

The case-law up to end of June 1925 has been incorporated and the rules have been brought up to date

HIGH COURT,

M. N. BASU.

Calcutta, 15th July, 1925.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION

In this little book I have attempted not merely to explain the various sections of the Acts in the light of the decisions of the High Courts, but also to reconcile the decisions of the several High Courts wherever they appear to be conflicting. How far I have succeeded it will be for the profession to judge

For facility of reference I have divided the topics under various headings and sub-headings. Topics like method of valuation of suits to be instituted in Courts, Death Duties, the sparpent conflict between valuation under the Suits Valuation Act and that under the Cour Fees Act have been discussed with special care.

The latest amendments made by the various provinces up to date have been noted in their proper places, and all the Amendment Acts with complete Schedules punted at the end of the book. The recent amendment of the Legislature of Section 4 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, by Act XIX of 1922, which received the assent of the Governor-General on the 3rd October, 1922, has also been incorporated

The case-law has been noted up to end of October, 1922, and having regard to the importance of the Rules, I have incorporated the Revised Rules of the Government of India and of the several Provinces and High Courts

My thanks are due to Mr I N. De, MA, BL, Vakil, who materially assisted me in-nessing the book through the press.

I will consider myself highly rewarded if this book proves useful to those for whom it is intended.

HIGH COURT.

M. N. BASU.

INTRODUCTION

History:—From the earhest times, even under the History:—From the earhest times, even under the vacatious litigation by making parties in fault pay a fine to the King. A successful suitor was made hable to pay something to the King evidently as a compensation for the expense the State had to incur in paying the judicial officers. Although more modern writters have urged abolition of taxation of litigation there is much that can be said in favour of its retention.

During the earliest years of British rule there was no tax upon litigation in India. The result was that the number of false and vexatious suits went on increasing year after year. To remedy this evil, Regulations imposing taxes on litigation were passed in the several Presidencies

In Bengal, Bengal Regulation XXXVIII of 1795 was passed imposing an institution fee in civil suits. This institution fee was converted into stamp duties by Ben Reg. VI of 1797. Ben Reg. X of 1797 imposed duties on criminal suits, and II of 1798 on applications for review. These Regulations were repealed by Reg. I of 1814, which was followed by Regs. XXVI of 1814, IV of 1817, XV of 1816, XIV of 1824, and II of 1825.

Ben. Reg X of 1829 which

Reg VIII of 1831 imposed nt, and Reg. XV of 1845

exempted Indian officers and soldiers from payment of stamp

In Bombay, the earliest Regulation was Bombay Regulation VIII of 1802 which was followed by Bombay Regulations XIV of 1815, VII of 1816, IV of 1817. These were all repealed by Bombay Regulation I of 1827 which was replaced by Bom. Reg XVIVI of 1827.

In Madras, the earliest Regulation was Madras Regulation III of 1782 This was followed by Mad Reg. IV of 1808, V of 1808, VIII of 1808, XVIII of 1808, II of 1816, II of 1817 and VI of 1817.

All these Regulations of the different provinces were amalgamated into one At XXXVI of 1860, which for the first time enacted the law for the whole of British India This was followed by Act X of 1862, Act XI of 1863, Act X of 1865, Act XVIII of 1865 and Act XXVI of 1867 which made some documents documents hitherto exempt, Itable to stamp duty

Act XXVI of 1867 was repealed by the Court Fees Act VII of 1870 which again was modified in the same year by Act XVII of 1870. Several aditions were made to the Act VII of 1870, by subsequent amendments

By the Devolution Act (XXXVIII of 1920), the various Provinces have been empowered to fix their court-fees in their respective Provinces. In accordance with this Act, several amendments to the Act VII of 1870 have been made by the different provinces in 1922, 1923 and 1926, and later years.

The purpose of all those Acts is the same, viz, to secure recemes to the State but in doing so, they do not farm a litigant with a weapon of technically against his opponent (43 Bonn, 507-13°C).

Need for Amendments—The sections deal with separate topics and are ambiguous when taken in connection with other sections. The reason being that the Act was amended piece-meal and no attempt has been made to keep the amendments in conformity with the amendments of other Acts.

In the case reported m 18 C L J, 308 at page 316, Mr Justice Mookerjee said. "The question raised is of considerable meety and by no meeans free from difficulty which is attitudable to the fact that the Court Fees Act has been amended piece-meal from time to time," and his Lordship said again at p 317, "the mode of interpretation of a Statute like the Court Lees Act, which has been repeatedly amended is not to consider the midwhird sections, but to take them as a whole and to give effect to the legislative intent upon a particular matter."

In Chun Lal v Sheo Choran Lal Lalman, 47 All 756 at p 759, the Allahabad High Court said: "The difficulty is really due to the circumstance that the amendments of the Court Fee Act have not kept pace with the amendments of the Code of Civil Procedure. In 1870, when the Court Fees Act was passed, Act No. VIII of 1859 as amended by the Act of 1860, was in force. Under those Acts there was no such thing as a preliminary decree distinct and separate from a final decree."

In Krishna Mohan Singh v Raghiunaidan, Panday, F. B., 1. L. R. 4 Patina 336 at page 349 the learned Chief Justice said: "the wording of this Act is in some respect certainly unscientific and difficult to interpret and its interpretation has been the subject of a multitude of decisions in the Courts."

S 11 of the Court Fees Act still refers to mesne profits to be ascertained in execution proceedings which is contrary to the provisions of Ord. 20, Rule 12, C. P. C

Sch 11, Art 11, also requires modification in view of modifications in other Statutes.

Scheme of the Act:—The Court Fees Act deals with documents to be filed before the Civil and Revenue Courts and fees payable on certain documents to be filed before Criminal

INTRODUCTION

History:-From the earliest times, even under the Hindu Law, attempts have been made to put down false and vexatious litigation by making parties in fault pay a fine to the King A successful suitor was made liable to pay something to the King evidently as a compensation for the expense the State had to incur in paying the judicial officers Although more modern writers have urged abolition of taxation of litigation there is much that can be said in favour of its retention.

Patna 336 at page 349 the learned Chief Justice said: "the wording of this Act is in some respect certainly unscientific and difficult to interpret and its interpretation has been the subject of a multitude of decisions in the Courts,"

S 11 of the Court Fees Act still refers to mesne profits to be ascertained in execution proceedings which is contrary to the provisions of Ord. 20, Rule 12, C. P. C.

Sch. II, Art. 11, also requires modification in view of modifications in other Statutes Scheme of the Act:—The Court Fees Act deals with documents to be filed before the Civil and Revenue Courts ar fees payable on certain documents to be filed before Crin.

Courts and certain other offices specified in First and Second Schedules to the Act

The Act has no application to cases filed before the High

The Act has no application to cases filed before the High Courts in their "Original Side" and before the Presidency Small Cause Courts, for which fees are prescribed by the rules framed by them under powers and also does not apply to settlement cases under s 105, 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.

The Courts Fees Act by enacting ss 4 and 6 prohibits documents specified in the first and second schedules to the Act from being filed, exhibited, recorded or received in any Court of Justice without being properly stamped. This means that the documents are to bear proper fees before those are filed, exhibited or recorded in the Courts. The documents are to bear court-fee stamps and should not be stamped with non-judicial stamps, and if they are so stamped, they should be deemed unstamped.

There is no clear provision in the Court Fees Act as to what would happen in case a document so filed, exhibited or recored in a Court to found to bear insufficient court-fees. S 28, sub-section 1, merely provides that a document will not be of any validity unless it is properly stamped. There is no provision for its rejection forthwith

It should be borne in mind that a document insufficiently stamped is not a nullity—Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad, 10 Lah 737 (743) P.C.

The Civil Courts remedy such defects by having recourse to the provisions of Ord. 7, Rule 11, read with S 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure The Code of Civil Procedure enjons on the Courts to grant time and if the party so ordered to make up the deficiency fail to do so within the time allowed the document in question is to be rejected. The Courts must allow time but the length of the time allowed for compliance with the order is no doubt in the discretion of the Court The Courts may pass the order on discovery of the insufficiency at any stage of the suit. The order must be made while the case is pending otherwise the deficiency cannot be recovered as after the disposal of the case the Court is functure officient.

[The Bengal Amendment Act provides that these may be recovered as a public demand]

As the Court Fees Act is a fiscal enactment and the subject cannot be charged without express provision of the law, the kinds of documents enumerated in the first and the second Schedules should be deemed exhaustive.

The documents exempted from duty are enumerated in s. 19 of the Court Fees Act, but the documents there set out are not exhaustice. Any document not coming within the list of documents in the first and the second Schedules is also exempt from taxation.

- S 7 indicates the method of computation of fees. Each of the paragraph begins with the word suit, but it should not be considered because that word is used, the memoranda of appeal are excluded from the operations of $ 7. For instance, in a surt for possession of a revenue paying permanently settled estate, the Court fees are to be calculated at ten times the revenue payable as recorded in the Collector's register. The same method of calculation is followed in calculating the fee payable on the incrnorandien of appeal. The amount of ad valorem fees is to be ascertained by reference to Sch. I. Art. 1 of the Court Pees Act which again indicates that the rates of tees prescribed are to be calculated on the value or amount of the subject matter in dispute. There the words mount or value of the subjectmatter in dispute must mean the same thing as prescribed in 5-7 A reference to 5 7, Paragraph IV will make this clear. There although the word sun is used, the words megiorandism of appeal are also used at the end of the paragraph. Although in some cases, for example in sints or appeal relating to redemption, the All diabad and the Madras High Courts have differed from other Theh Court in demandance of valorem court-fees on the decretal amount in an appeal arising out of a redemption suit. They interpret the word "suit" in $ 7, ix meaning a sun and not an appeal
- Sec. 7 (urther provides or passeraphs V. (a), (b), (c), VI, VII, VII, VIII, IN, N. NI a method of valuation for the purpose of assessing court fees. The valuation for the purposes of court-fee is determined in those closes of suds by reference to 87 and the amount of Court Fees payable is then determined by reference to 8ch. I. Article I, and the table of rates (framed in accordance with Sch. I., Art. I.) and the amount thus ascertained is paid on the paint or the menorandium of appeal, etc.

The question of valuation has been dealt with at length under $ 7 in the body of the book

- S. 7, paragraph 1, deals with claims for money which can be ascertained at the time of presenting the plaint. These include claims on mortgages, meme profits, promissory notes, compensation and claims for past periodical payments due but not paid such as past claims for maintanance etc.
- S. 7, paragraph II refers to suits for realization of annuities cte to which a right to obtain relief is to be established and the Act requires that ad valorem Court Fees calculated on ten times the annual claim are to be paid.
- S. 7, paragraph III refers to movable property having a market value

S. 7, paragraph IV (a) refers to movable property having no market value a right to share in the joint family property. The clause does not apply if there had been a disruption of the joint family.

Cl (b) of the same paragraph refers to suits for enforcing

Ci (c) refers to suits for declaration with a consequential relief (and most of the suits fall under this section) Cl (d) refers to a suit to allow an injunction. Cl (e) refers to suits for benefits arising out of land such as easements etc

Cl (f) refers to suits for account but it must be noted that it has been held that merely because books of accounts are to be examined, such examination and determination of the amount in claim based on such examination does not bring a suit for money under this clause

The concluding words of the paragraph allow court-fees to be paid on the valuation by the plaintiff and the plaintiff is required to state that valuation, and on this point all the High Courts are divided as to whether it is the valuation by the plaintiff-whatever that value may be-or a reasonable valuation, the Courts having power to revise the valuation. All these cases have been noticed in their proper places under S 7.

The power of Court to revise the valuation is embodied in Ord 7, Rules 10 & 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is independent of the Court Fees Act Such power cannot be controlled by any provision of the Court Fees Act Then S 12 of the Court Fees Act empowers a Court to decide every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining any fee chargeable under Chapter III, which also contains S. 7. It cannot, therefore, be said that the valuation by the plaintiff is the sole criterion of determining the amount of stamp in cases coming within s. 7, para. iv, although in several cases the High Courts in India have held that the valuation by the plaintiff is to be accepted. (See In the matter of Kali Pado Mukherpi, 34 C.W.N. 870) [The Bengal Amendment Act (VII of 1935) provides for revision of valuation l

It should be further noted that the provisions of s 7, paragraph iv of the Court Fees Act read with s 8 of the Suits Valuation Act do not entitle a plaintiff or an appellant to put one valuation for the purpose of court-fees and another or a higher valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction. The valuations must be the same.

S 7, paragraph v deals with recovery of possession of immoveable property. It is mainly divided into permanently settled estates and temporarily settled estates. As to the former the court-fees are payable ad valorem 10 times the Government paragraph X (a), (b), (c) and paragraph XI for jurisdiction the court-fees shall be the same S 8 of the Court Fees Act refers to appeals arising out of Land Acquisition cases Since the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act by Act XIX of 1921 every order is a decree and Sch I, Art 1 of the Court Fees Act applies, and ad valorem court-fees are payable on the amount in claim.

In assessing the court-fces a further fact is to be borne in view, vis, whether the suit (or appeal) embraces two or more distinct subjects which words have been interpreted to mean distinct causes of action. For example in suing upon two promissory notes or on two mortgages, the duty is to be assessed on the amount due on each (Vide s 17). A suit for possession with mesne profits form one cause of action

In case of reliefs claimed in the alternative the value of the larger of the reliefs determines the amount of the court-fees

The determination of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal depends on the fact whether the appeal is from a decree

If from a decree then, if the memorandum does not come under any of the Articles in Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, ad valorem court fee is payable A memornadum of appeal from a decree passed under s 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is to be stamped as a memorandum of appeal from order under the Notification of the Government of each Province whereby the fee is reduced to a fee as leviable under Sch II, Art 11. A memorandum of appeal from an order not having the force of a decree comes within the provisions of Art. 11 of the second Schedule There are some cases, viz, accounts and claims for mesne profits, the amount of which cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff at the time of filing the plaint. The Code of Civil Procedure allows the plaintiff (vide Order 7, Rule 2) to make an approximate valuation and to pay ad valorem court-fees there-After the final decree the balance of the court-fees is demanded by the Court and paid by the successful plaintiff under s. 11 of the Court Fees Act. In case of failure, the claim for the excess amount found to be due is, of course, dismissed

S 12 deals with decisions of questions as to valuation of suits The section enacts that every question relating to valuation in a plaint or memorandum for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under Chapter III (please note that s 7 is also within this Chapter), shall be decided by the Court and such decision shall be final as between the parties. This has been construed to mean that the decision is final as to amount but not as to category under which the particular plaint or memorandum of appeal falls

The second sub-section expressly authorizes the Court of appeal, reference or revision, to require a party when it considers such a question has been determined to the detriment of revenue to make up the insufficiency and in case of failure to pay, the provisions of s 10 shall apply 1e, the suit is to be dismissed without option.

In this connection it is proper to consider the provisions of a 28 which empowers a higher Court to realize court-fees on a document which have been through mistake or inadvertence filed or used in any office without being properly stamped. Then the higher Court can demand the insufficient court-fee to be paid.

But deficit court-fees can only be realized by a Court while disposed of [But see the B C Act VII of 1935 who allows levy of such court-fees as a public demand]

Refunds -So far I have indicated the sections for the realization of court-fees I now proceed to consider the provi-sions for refund of court-fees. The main section for refund is s 13 of the Court Fees Act This section authorizes refund of court-fees in cases where the suit was disposed of on a preliminary point and such decision was reversed on appeal; in such cases the appellate Court is to order refund of court-fees, paid on the memorandum of appeal presented to the appeal The reason possibly being that it is not fair to charge court-fees which had to be paid owing to the mistake of a Court-fees are also refunded when the plaintiff or the appellant through mistake has overpaid the court-fees on a plaint or a memorandum. This is done under the inherent powers of Court to do justice under s. 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The reason possibly being that the Government is not entitled to it under the Court Fees Act.

Refund of fees are also made where too high a court-fee has been paid in Probates or Letters of Administration or Certificate of Administration under s. 19A of the Court Fees Act and in the manner provided by that section

S. 14 authorizes a Court to grant refunds of court-fees on applications for review presented on or after the 90th day of so much of the fees paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable faul it been presented before the 90th day, i.e., up to half the amount of court-fees payable.

Under s 15 refunds are allowed on an application for rev when the Court modifies its decision on the ground of mis '

Refunds of court-fees cannot be allowed when the case is compromised or remanded on grounds other than those provided in Or 41, Rule 23 of the Code of Civil Procedure and where the case has been remanded in part, the appellant is only entitled to a refund of the corresponding portion. A refund order to be made by an appeal Court under Ord 41, Rule 23, C P C will have to be paid back if on a further appeal the higher Court reverses the remanding order of the lower appellate Court.

Refunds may be made on a rejection of plaint as insufficiently stamped Sale fees and other fees are refunded if the sale be set aside by Court but not in cases where the sale is set aside on account of fraud on the part of the decree-holder, and these refunds are made under rules framed by each High Court.

In all cases of refund the amount of money for the full fee is to be paid back

Distinct Subjects -- S 17 deals with suits embracing two or more distinct subjects in the plaint or memorandum of appeal, the words distinct subjects have been construed to mean distinct causes of action, but it should not be construed to mean that whenever two or more claims are coupled together the fees are to be calculated separately. The cases where the fees are to be calculated separately have been indicated under s 17

See 19 deals with documents which are exempted from taxation, but this is by no means an exhaustive hist. It should be noted that ss. 4 and 6 make documents mentioned in Schedules I and II chargeable with count-fees, therefore documents not included in these Schedules are not chargeable with fees although these may not be included in s. 19.

Duties on probates, etc.

Chapter IIIA ir, Secs. 19A, 19B, 19C, 19D, 19E, 19F, 19G, 19H, 19I, 19I, relates to probate proceedings and the enquiry as to valuation of properties of the deceased including penalties to be paid in the case of under-valuation or of neglect to pay soon after the discovery of under-valuation.

Sch. I, Art. 11 prescribes the duty payable on a probate or letter of administration.

Criminal Courts -S 18 indicates the fees payable on complaints before Criminal Courts.

When a complaint is filed before a Criminal Court the application or petition is to bear stamp under Schedule II, Att. 2 (b) of the Court Fees Act.

S. 31 which is at present S 546A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, authorizes a Criminal Court or a Court of Criminal appeal to pass orders for payment of compensation to the complainant as regards fees paid by him in addition to other penalties ımposed.

Fees for serving and executing process issued by Criminal Courts, in case of offences other than offences for which a police officer may arrest without a wairant are governed by rules made by the High Court under s 20 (n) of the Court Fees Act Such rules have the force of law on being published in the Local Official Gazette

Revenue Courts-The Court Fees Act is not applicable to applications under s 105, B. T Act but the fees are governed by notification issued by the Government

The applications to Revenue Courts are to bear fees mentioned in Sch II, Art 1, cl (a) and (b) of the Court Fees Act, Art 17, clause (i) of the second Schedule applies to summary orders of Revenue Courts

Fees for Revenue Courts for serving and executing pro-cesses are governed by rules framed by High Courts which rules on being published in the Local Official Gazette have the force of law.

Process fees -S 20 deals with fees on processes issued by Civil Courts The processes include serving fees, sale fees, etc.

Ss 22 and 23 deals with number of peons to be employed.

Collection of fees -S. 25 requires that all the fees are to be paid by court-fee stamps.

Use of stamps -Ss 26 and 27 empowers the Local Government to frame rules as to the number of adhesive and impressed stamps to be used in denoting duty and also to frame rules as to the supply and renewal of stamps and keeping accounts of stamps. The number of stamps to be used is governed by rules under these sections.

Fees not paid in the lower Courts-S. 28 refers to realization of fees on documents filed in the lower Court which was through mistake or inadvertence filed or exhibited in the lower Courts with insufficient court-fees. S. 12, cl. ii also empowers the higher Courts to realise deficiency in the lower Courts.

S. 29 refers to stamps on amended documents in cases specified

Cancellation and sale of stamp -S. 30 prefers to cancellation of stamps

S 34 empowers the Local Government to make rules regulating the sale of stamps

S. 35 authorizes the Local Government to reduce the Court fees payable on a document.Rules as to reduction and remission are framed under this section and set out in the Appendices

The Schedules are divided into two parts one for ad valorem and the other for fixed fees. It is important to remember that heading of a group of sections do not control the body of the section of the value of the val for irrespective of the Schedule stion is to be charged.

The first Schedule contains fees on applications for review, fees payable on applications to High Courts at Lahore and Rangoon and deals with ad valorem fees

The second Schedule prescribes fees payable on application to Civil, Criminal and Revenue Courts to and various public offices, application and appeal to sue as pauper and to plaints in special Courts, builbonds and other instruments of obligation. It also deals with applications and appeals under the Divorce Acts It prescribes fees (Art II) on appeals from orders to specified Courts or offices and provides for fees on caveat. It also enacts that certain classes of suits or memoranda of appeal are to bear fixed fees Questions under Sch II, paragraph 17 and Ord. 36, rule 1, are dealt with under Art 18 and 19 of the 2nd Schedule to the Court Fees Act.

THE

(Act No. VII of 1870).

[11th March, 1870].

[As modified up to June, 1935.]

CHAPTER 1.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title

Extent of Act

It extends to the whole of British India; And it shall come into force

NOTES.

Local Amendments,—This Act has been amended in Bengal by B. C. Acts IV and II of 1922 and Acts VII and XI of 1935; in Bihar and Orissa by B and O Act 1 of 1922; in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in Madras by Madras by Madras Vof 1922; in the Punjab by the Punjab Courts Act, 1884 (18 of 1884), s. 71, Punjab and N. W. Code and Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended by Punjab Acts I and VI of 1926; in Assam by the Assam Act III of 1932; in the U. P. by the U. P. Act III of 1932 and also in C. P. S. 4 was amended by Act XIX of 1922.

The Act has been amended in Upper Burma by the Upper Burma Civil Courts Regulation, 1896 (1 of 1896), s 36 as amended by the Upper Burma Civil Courts (Amendmen Regulation, 1903 (5 of 1903), Bur. Code; in Lower Burma the Lower Burma Courts Act, 1900 (6 of 1900), s. 47, Burma Acts XI of 1922 and III of 1926.

The power to amend for each Province has been provided by the Devolution Act XXXVIII of 1920.

Preamble.—This Act has no preamble whereby its purposes can be ascertained, Gavaranga v. Batakrishna, 32 Mad 305: 6 M L T 129 19 M L J 340: 4 I C 503.

Objects and Reasons — For the Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1869, Pt V, p 57; and for Proceedings in Council, see bid, 1869, Supplement, pp. 1179 and 1452, Ibid, 1870, Supplement, pp 52, 378, 421, 427, and 434

Object .-- "The Court Fees Act, 1870, was, as its name imports, an Act primarily passed for the purpose of prescribing the fees which are to be paid in respect of documents to be used in Courts. It also provides in the schedules for the stamps to be used in certain offices of Courts of Justice."

Balkaran Rai v. Gobindanath Tewary, 12 All 129 F.B.: 10 AW N 39

The object of the Act is to lay down rules for the collection of one form of taxation, and this is regarded to be the scope of the enactment, Muhammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282 (289).

"The Courts Fees Act was passed not to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent, but to secure revenue for the benefit of the state. This is evident from the character of the Act, and is brought out by section 12, which makes the decision of the first Court as to value final as between the parties and enables the Court of appeal to correct any error as to this, only where the first Court decided to the detriment of revenue," Rachappa Subrao v. Sidappa Venhat Rao, P.C. 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W.N. 33. 29 C.L.J. 452: 50 Ind Cas. 280: 21 Bom L.R. 489: 17 A.J.J. 418: 36 M.L.J. 437. "The Court Fees Act is essentially a fiscal enactment. Its primary object

The Court Fees Act was passed not to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent but to seeme recome for the benefit of the State, Mahomed Elliyas v Rahima Bebee, 56 M. J. 302: 29 L.W. 42: 114 I.C. 842: 1929 A.I.R. 191 (Mad.).

Scope.—"That Act not only prescribes fees, but provides how these fees are to be ascertained, how questions as to the sufficiency of fees on documents so far as Courts are concerned, are to be determined, and the conditions under which only the documents in the First and Second Schedules to the Act may be received, filed, registered or used, as the case may be, in Courts of India The Court Fees Act also specifies the documents which need not be stamped under the Act for the purpose of being used in Courts," Balkaran Rai v Gobindanath Tewary, 12 All 129 FB (139), 10 A W N 39

The Court Fees Act and the Stuts Valuation Act are fiscal enactments and do not determine the question as to the proper Court for institution of suits (1) If the valuation be contested then the valuation must be determined by the Court, and (2) where the valuation can be ascertamed correctly, the plaintiff cannot be allowed to overvalue or undervalue his claim with a view to choose his forum, Inayat Husain v Bashir Ahmad, 1932 A L J 416 1932 A I R 413 (All) 141 I C 141

Application of the Act.—The general rule is that Acts are prospective, and not retrospective in their operation, Pramothanath Pal Choudhuri v Saurav Dass, 47 Cal. 1108: 24 CWN 1011 To this rule there are two exceptions—(a) where Acts are expressly declared to be retrospective and (b) where they only affect the procedure of the Court, Javaninal v. Muktava, 14 Bom 516 But changes in law or amendments relating to procedure have retrospective effect, Balkrishna v Daph Yesan, 19 Bom 204; Promothonath v Saurav Dass, 47 Cal. 1108: 24 C.W. N. 1011.

A plaint was filed in a Court which was ultimately found not to have jurisdiction in the matter and the plaint was returned to be presented to the proper Court, but before the return of the plaint the Court Fees Act was amended, held, that the plaint must be deemed to have been instituted on the date of new presentation after return of plaint and the court-fee was payable under the amended Aet, Bimala Prosad Mookherjee v. Lal Moni Debi. 30 CW.N. 90: 1926 AI.R. 355 (Cal): 91 IC. 862. Stamp duty on an appeal filed after the Court Fees Act came into operation was held to be leviable according to the provisions of the Court Fees Act, even though the original suit was valued on the principles laid down in the Act XXVI of 1867, Mt. Bhugobutty Kooer v. Mt. Kusturec Kooer, 15 W.R. 272. So, where an appeal was returned because filed without a copy of the decree appealed against, before, but was again presented after the passing of the New Act of 1870, held that the appeal must be filed with stamp of the amount prescribed by the new law of 1870, Aradhun Dey v. Gholam Hossein, 7 W.R. 461. See also G. L. Fagan v. Chandrakanta Banceji, 7 W.R. 452; In re Sreenath, 7 W.R. 462. But where a plaint was presented while the old Act was in force and it was subsequently discovered that the plaint is insufficiently stamped after the amending Act has come into force, held that the amount of counfees must be calculated under the old law, Tora Prasana Chongdar v Nrishingha Macarari Pal, 51 Cal. 216: 28 C.W.N. 683: 30 C.L. J 212: 81 I C 763: 1924 A.I.R. (Cal.) 731.

Where the appeal was presented to an officer not properly all the control of the Patra High Court held, the appeal must be deemed to have been presented on the re-opening date of the High Court when the proper officer was present, and as the amending Act came into operation before that date, the amended Act applied and the increased duty was payable, Anand Ram Pranhans v. Ram Ghulam Sahu, I L.R. 2 Pat 264. 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 365: (1923) A I R 150 (Patna)

Where a party applied for a copy of the decree after Act VII of 1870 came into operation, held that the new Act applied although the decree may have been prepared when the old law was in force, In re Hurchar Mahtoon, 14 W R. 167.

Grant of Probate de bonts non is governed by the law in force at the time of the original grant and not by any interim modification introducing a higher rate, Swaranamoyee v. Sceretary of State, 43 Cal 625: 20 CW N. 472 22 CL J. 370: 30 Ind Cas. 394 "What the Legislature appear to have intended is that where the full fee chargeable under the Court Fees Act on a probate at the time it is granted, has been paid, no further fee shall be chargeable when a second grant is made in respect of that property," Ibid See also In the goods of Ameerun, 15 W.R. 490.

In an application for review of judgment, the fee payable is to be calculated on the court fee paid on the memorandum of appeal or plaint, as the case may be, although the Court Fees Act may have been amended in the meantime and scale of court fees raised, Nanhi Led Agrani v. Jogendra Chandra Dutta, 39 C.L.J. 222; 82 I.C. 297: 28 C.W.N. 403: 1924 A I R 881 (Cal.).

Where the Act does not apply.—The Act has been declared inapplicable to proceedings before officers making settlements and survey when such a case is transferred to a Civil Court inider sec 5 of Reg III of 1872, Bibec Golap Kumori v. Muhammad Kadiruddin, 12 C.W.N. 917. This Act does not apply to applications under Ss 105 (1) and 105 (2) of the Bungal Tenancs Act, ride Sec. 105 (3) of the II. T. Act, and to proceedings before Settlement Officers under Reg III of 1872, Sec. 8 as amended by the Santal Parganas Justice and Laws Regulation, 1879 (111 of 1879) (Bengal Code).

This Act does not apply to court-fees payable under sec. 170 of the Agra Tenancy Act which are to be computed under the Fourth Schedule to that Act. See U. P. Act II of 1901 (U. P. Code, Vol. II). Under sec. 51 of the Land Acquisition Act (I of 1894), no costs are to be levied on copies of awards or agreement furnished to the parties.

For construction of the Act, see Notes under sec. 6, unfra

Government is interested:—The question whether court fee should be paid or not is really a matter that is important from the view of Government and Government alone, Bombay, Boroda and Central India Raileay Co. v. Mitthiu, 1931 A.I. 727 133 I C. 465 1931 A.IR 639 (All): 1931 I.R 633 (All.).

Extent.—Act 7 of 1870 has been declared in force—

- in Upper Burma generally (except the Shan States) by the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (13 of 1898), s. 4 (1), Bur Code;
- in British Baluchistan, by the British Baluchistan Laws Regulation (I of 1890), s. 3, Bal Code;
- in the Santhal Parganas, by the Santhal Parganas Settlement Regulation (III of 1872) as amended by the Santhal Parganas Justice and Laws Regulation, 1899 (III of 1899), Ben Code, Vol. I;
- in the sub-division of Angul, by the Angul District Regulation, 1894 (I of 1894), s. 3, Ben Code, Vol. I
- It has also been declared, by notification under s 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:
  - the District of Hazaribagh, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 570;
  - the District of Lohardugga (now the Ranchi District, see Calcutta Gazette, 1899, Pt. I, p. 44; the District of Lohardugga then included in the present District of Palamau, separated in 1894), see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. Ip. 508;
  - the District of Manbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p 509;
  - the Pargana Dhalbhoom in the District of Singhbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 510;
  - the Scheduled Districts in Ganjam and Vizagapatam, see Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. I, p. 869;
  - the Tarai of the Province of Agra, see Gazette of 3 1876, Pt. I, p. 505.

It has been extended by notification under s. 5 of the same Act to the Kolhan in the district of Singhbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1907, Pt. I, p 655, and under ss 5 and 5A of that Act to the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—The Garo Hills District, the Khasi and Jamtia Hills District, the Naga Hills District, the North Cachar District, the Mikir Hill Tract in the Nowgong District and the Dibrugath Frontier Tract in the Laklumpur District, provided that the Act does not apply to natives of these districts and tracts who are assessed to house tax except in such places and cases as the Deputy Commissioner may withdraw from the operation of the exemption, see Assain Gazette, 1897, Pt. I, p 861, Gazette of India, 1884, Pt. I, p 164, the Lushai Hills, with the same proviso, see Gazette of India, 1904, Pt. I, p 913, and Assam Gazette, 1904, Pt. II, p 787

It has also been applied to the Baluchistan Agency territories by the Baluchistan Agency Laws Law, 1890, s 4 (1), Bal Code

The Act came into permanent operation in Aden on 1st April, 1876, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1876, Pt. I, p 936

British India.—British India shall mean all the territories and places within His Majesty's Dominions, which are for the time being governed by His Majesty through the Governor-General of India or through any Governor or other officer subordinate to the Governor-General of India. Sec. 3 (7)—General Clausers .1ct (X of 1897).

and the fees for the time being chargeable in the Courts of Small Causes at the Levy of fees in Presi-Presidency Towns, and their dency Small Cause Course several offices.

shall be collected in manner hereinafter appearing.

NOTES.

Amendments.-The words "Section 15..... Government of India Act, 1915" at the end of the first paragraph were substituted by see 2 and Sch. I of the Repealing and Amending Act (XXIV of 1917) in place of "Statute 24 & 25 Vict, C. 104, sec. 15."

The number "sixteen" which appeared between the numbers "fourteen" and "twenty" was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (XII of 1891).

Effect of Notification bringing into force the amending Act .- A notification in the Fort. St. George Gazette, dated 5th May 1922, announced that an increase in the Court Fees parable on the original side of the High Court "do come into force from the date of publication of the Fort St. George Gazette." The Gazette was received in the office at 5 P.M. after office hours. Held, that the increased duty is payable even on plaints filed on the 5th May, 1922, In re Court Fees, 46 Mad. 685: 45 M.L. J. 557, 1923 M.W. N. 883 F.B.

Scope.—The words of s 3 of the Court Fees Act must be controlled by reference to s 15 of the High Courts Charter Act, Mahomed Isaak Sahib v Mahomed Mohidun, 45 Mad 849; 43 M L J 436 (437) 70 Ind Cas 813 1922 M W N 511.

The power of the High Court to levy court fees on memoranda of appeal from Original Side is conferred by the Letters Patent which allows it to regulate its own procedure. The provisions of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Maung Ba Thaw v M S V M Chettur, 13 Rang 156.

Cases transferred to the High Court in its Original Side.

In a case transferred to the High Court under s 13 of the Letters Patent of the Madras High Court and tried by the High Court as a suit in its Original jurisdiction, the court fees payable are those payable under the Court Fees Act and not hy the rules framed by the High Court, but in a suit filed in the Madras City Civil Court and transferred to the High Court, the court-fees payable would be those payable to the High Court as a Court of Ordinary Original Civil jurisdiction. Abdul Hakim Sahib v Chattanadha Aiyar, 60 MLJ. 435: 33 LW 318: 132 IC 647: 1931 AIR. 457 (Mad.): 1931 IR. 679 (Mad.)

Manner of Collection.—The court fee shall be collected that the Ch. V of the Court Fees Act in stamps and not in eash, but the amount of fees payable is determined by Rules framed by the High Court under sec. 15 of the Letters Patent, and sec. 107 of the Government of India Act, on original suits and on memoranda of appeals from the original sides.

"The mode of collecting the fees mentioned in s. 3 is dealt with in s 25 which provides that they shall be collected by stamps," Krishna Mohan Suha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat C.W.N. 65; I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.): 87 I.C. 137. See also In re Bhubanescuar Triqunait, 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.).

Presidency Small Causes Courts-

As to the Presidency Small Causes Courts, fees are to be paid under Ch X of the Presidency Small Causes Courts Act.

Chapter X of the Presidency Small Causes Courts Act (Act XV of 1882) deals with fees and costs and s. 77 of the lachapter, saves the application of ss 3, 5 and 25 of the Court Fees Act

Sec 3 of the Court Fees Act provides for the levy of fees in Presidency Small Cause Court, s. 5 provides for the procedure in case of difference as to necessity or the amount of fees in such Courts, s. 25 provides that all fees referred to in s. 3 are to be collected by stamps, Gantat v. Prem Singh, 202 P.L.R. 1912, 15 Ind Cas 122

No document of any of the kinds specified in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed, as chargeable with fees, shall be filed, exhibited, or recorded in, or shall be received or furnished by, any of the said High Courts in any case coming before such Court in the exercise of its extraordinary original civil jurisdiction: or in the exercise of its extraordinary original criminal jurisdiction:

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards in their appellate jurisappeals from the [judgments diction (other than judgments passed in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the Court) of one] or more indges of the said Court, or of a division Court:

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the Courts subject to its superintendence;

as Courts of reference and revision or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as a Court of reference or revision:

unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

NOTES

Amendment.—By section 2 of Act XIX of 1922 the words "judgments (other than judgments passed in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the Court of one" in the third paragraph were substituted in place of the words "judgment of Iwo".

Local Amendments-

The section has also been amended by B and O Act I of 1922, for Bihar and Orssa and by Punjab Act VII of 1922 for Punjab which amendments substituted the word "one" for the word "two" between the words "of" and "or"

Application.—"Sec 4 does not apply to the High Courts in their Ordinary Original Civil, Criminal, Admiralty or Ecclesiastical jurisdiction." Balkaron v Gabindonath, 12 Ali. 129 F.B.: 10 A.W.N. 39

Memorandum of appeal to a High Court to be properly stamped.—See 4 of the Court Fees Act forbids a High Court receive a memorandum of appeal insufficiently stamped, Rain Sahay Rain v Lokshiwarain Singh, 3 P.L. 74: 5 P.L.W. 18: 42 Ind Cas 675, Lakhi Norain v Chowdhury Kirtibas, 18 C.L.J. 133: 19 Ind Cas 971, Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghimandan Pandav, 1925 Pat C.W. N. 65 (72) F.B. I.L. R. 4 Pat. 336: 1925 A.I R. 392 (394) (Pat.) In the last case it was held that s 4 deals with the fées on documents coming before the High Courts in the exercise of their Appellate or Revisional Jurisdiction in cases coming from the subordinate courts, or in their Extraordinary Original Jurisdiction.

Sec 4 is imperative in its terms and a Court cannot accept a memorandum of appeal upon which proper court-fees have not been paid, Pail Shyomiol v. Gaurishonkor, 1929 A I R. 294 (N.) 119 I C 700 In Khatumannessa Bibi v Durjodhom Roy Chowdhiry, 61 Cal 663: 38 C W N. 650: 1934 A I.R. 659 (Cal), the Calcutta High Court while holding that sec. 4 is mandatory, did give time to put in the deficit court-fees in memorandum of appeal filed with a court-fee of Rs. 2 while the proper court-fee payable was Rs. 975

The High Court has full power to refuse to accept a memorandum of appeal when it appears from the endorsement of the stamp reported that the amount of the court-fees padd is insufficient, otherwise the provisions of s. 4 of the Court Fees Act would be enaded, Brijbhukhan v. Tota Raw, 118 IC. 228: 1929 A.I.R. 75 (All.). The Court will be justified in rejecting a memorandum of appeal if filed with a court-fee of eight annas where it should have borne court-fees amounting to Rs 90 as the appellant should at the time of filing the appeal determine whether he should incur the expenses or not, Almaram v. # NOTES.

Amendment.-By section 2 of Act XIX of 1922 the words "judgments (other than judgments passed in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the Court of one" in the third paragraph were substituted in place of the words "judgment of two".

Local Amendments-

The section has also been amended by B and O Act I of 1922, for Bihar and Orissa and by Punjab Act VII of 1922 for Punjab which amendments substituted the word "one" for the word "two" between the words 'of" and "or".

Application.—"Sec 4 does not apply to the High Courts in their Ordinary Original Chil, Criminal, Admiralty or Ecclesistical jurisdiction," Balkaran v. Gobindanath, 12 Al. 129 F B: 10 A.W N. 39

Memorandum of appeal to a High Court to be properly stamped.—Sec 4 of the Court Fees Act forbids a High Court to receive a memorandum of appeal insufficiently stamped, Ram v Lakshimarani Singh, 3 P L J 74·5 P L W 18·42 Ind Cas 675. Laksh Narani v Chovedhury Kirtibas, 18 C L J. 133: 19 Ind Cas 971. Krishna Mohan Sinha v Raghinandan Pauday, 1925 P at C.W. N 65 (72) F B: I L R 4 Pat. 336: 1925 A I R 392 (394) (Pat). In the last case it was held that s. 4 deals with the fees on documents coming before the High Courts in the exercise of their Appellate or Revisional Junsadetion in cases coming from the subordinate courts, or in their Extraordinary Original Junsadetion

Sec 4 is imperative in its terms and a Court cannot accept a memorandium of appeal upon which proper court-fees have not been paid, Paul Shyamila V Gaurislankar, 1929 A.I.R. 294 (N) 119 I C 700 In Khatumannessa Bibi v Durjohdoue Roy Chowdhury, of Cal 633. 38 C.W.N 650-1934 A.I.R. 659 (Cal), the Calcutta High Court while holding that sec. 4 is mandatory, did give time to put in the deficit court-fees in memorandium of appeal filed with a court-fee of Rs 2 while the proper court-fee payable was Rs. 975 memorandum of appeal when it appears from the endorsement of the stamp reported that the amount of the court-fees paid is insufficient, otherwise the provisions of s 4 of the Court Fees Act would be enaded. Briphhukhan v. Tola Ram, 118 IC. 228: 1929 A.I.R. 75 (AII). The Court will be justified in rejecting a memorandum of appeal if filed with a court-fee of eight annas where it should have borne court-fees amounting to Rs. 90 as the appellant should at the time of filing the appeal determine whether he should incur the expenses or not, Atmaram v. Singhai Kasturchand, (1930) 27 N.I.R. 183: 124 I.C. 241: 1930 A.J.R. 224 (Nag.): 1930 I.R. 257 (Nag.).

Powers of a single Judge of a High Court—A single Judge of a High Court may refuse to accept an insufficiently stamped document, but if it has been accepted then he cannot reject it on the ground that it is insufficiently stamped unless the matter is within his jurisdiction, Shahzadi Begani v Alakh Nath, 1935 A.L. J. 681 F.B.

Reference—As there is no mention in schedules 1 and 2 of the Court Fees Act as to the court-fees payable on a reference under s 66 of the Income Tax Act, no court-fees are leviable on such a reference, Commissianer of Income Tax v. Khemchand, 1933 A IR 148 (Sind). 145 IC 254: 27 S.L.R. 243.

No document, etc., shall be filed, exhibited, or recorded in or shall be received or furnished.

The word shall not be filed, etc, mean that such documents cannot come into existence unless the requisite stamp is paid, Sahai Nund v Mungniram, 12 Cal 542

Document — A memorandum of appal is a document within the meaning of this section as well as sections 25, 28, 30 and Schedules I and II of the Court Fees Act, Balkaran v Gobinda Nath, 12 All 129 FB (1890) 10 A W N 39 See also Krishma Mohon Sinha v Raghtunandan Pandey, FB 1925 Pat C.N.N. 65 I L R 4 Pat 336, 1925 A I R 392 (Pat) · 87 I C 137.

"Fuled"—Means that the document has been admitted and put on the files of Court, Mots Shohu v. Chhatrs Das, 19 Cal. 780; Innad Aliv Mishammad Ismail, 20 All 11 (17). Where an appeal is presented with the memorandum insufficiently stamped the Court is not bound to receive the same, Ram Sahay v. Pandri Lachiminarayan, 3 P. L. 74. 3 P. L. W. 18; 42 I.C. 675. But where the document has already been received it is not for the party to say that the document should be struck off from the record. The Court may allow the other party to pay the proper fee, Mancekial Vadilal v. Chandulal Balabhai Shah, 1926 A.I.R 343 (Bom)

Presentation of Appeal.—No appeal is legally presented if the memorandum of appeal is not properly stamped, Shahadat and others v. Hukam Singh, (1924) A.I. R. 401 (L.)

Sec 4 of the Court Fees Act is imperative in its terms and makes it impossible for the Court to entertain a memorandum of appeal upon which the proper amount of court-fees has not been paul. Lakhi Narain Jagdeb v. Chowdhury Kirlibas Das, 18 C.J. I. 333 (136): 19 I.C. 971.

Furnished—Furnishing is made at the time when the Court determines that a grant is to be made and when it is ready to be issued to the party applying for it, Dhinplay Singh v. The Government, 17 W.R. 489. Where a will was proved but there was no actual grant because no stamp duty was paid, held that there was no grant and the grant of probate cannot be proved.

Cross-objection —No cross-objection can be filed in Letters Patent Appeals as Or XLI, r 23, C P C. does not apply, Brojendra v Prasanna Kumar, 32 C L J 48; Kausalia v. Gulab, 21 All 207

Review—Court-fees can be levied on an application for review of a judgment of a Division Bench passed on Letters Patent appeals, Husami Begum v The Collector of Muzaffarnagar, 11 All. 176: (1889) 9 A.W.N. 27.

Orders refusing leave to appeal—It has been held in Ram Chandra Golder and others v Hamidali and others, 56 Cal 482: 33 C.W.N. 32: 1929 A.I.R. 575 (Cal): 117 I C. 595, that a memorandum of appeal against the order of a single Judge arising out of a difference of opinion under sec. 98, C. P. C., need only bear court-fees under Art. 11 of the second Schedule to the Court Fees Act

Power of Deputy Registrar to return Memorandum of appeal.—The Deputy Registrar of the High Court has no power to return the memorandum of appeal for insufficiency of court-fees paid on it. The right course for that officer is, when his request to make good the deficiency is not complied with to lay it before the Court and if the party is willing to pay them the Deputy Registrar is to receive the same and if the time has expired to lay it before the Court, Syad Sunbur Ali v. Kol. Charan, 24 W. R. 258. but the power to return a memorandum of appeal is based on the rules framed by each High Court.

sity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the questior shall, when the difference arises in any of the said High Courts, be referred to the taxing officer, whose decisior thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the Chief Justice of such High Court, or of such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint, either generally of specially, in this behalf.

Courts of Small Causes, the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court [Registrar—in Madvas] whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the First Judge [Chief Judge—in Madras] of such Court.

The Chief Justice hell led.

When any such difference arises in any of the said

The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be taxing officer within the meaning of the first paragraph of this section.

NOTES

Local Amendment.—This section has been thus amended in 1922 in Madras by sec. 3 of Madras Act V of 1922: "In the second paragraph of sec. 5 of the principal Act, the world 'Registrur' and 'Chief Judge' shall be substituted for 'Clerk of the Court' and 'First Judge', respectively."

Application—"When a person tenders a stamped document to the Registrar of the High Court, and asks him to enter his appeal, it is clear that he is, within the meaning of this Act, paying a fee to an officer of that High Court, and in taking that fee, the High Court is acting by virtue of the general powers conferred upon it by sec 15 of the High Court's Charter Act." Hence sec 5 of the Court Fees Act applies and it is competent to the Chief Justice to refer the matter to another Judge for decision, H. Mahomed Ishack Sahib v. Mahomed Mohideen and another, 45 Mad 849–43 M.L.J. 436–70 Ind. Cas 813: (1922) M.W.N. 511: 16 L.W. 210, 1922 A.IR. 421 (Mad) Sec also Perumal Chetty v. Kandasamy Chetty, 46 Mad 592. 44 M.L.J. 146: 17 L.W. 238 (1923) A.I.R. 160 (Madras): 1923 M.W.N. 160–72 IC 925.

Probate Duty.—No doubt has at any time been felt either in this Court or in Bombay that S S applies to probate duty, In re Bhubancaraar Triginnat, 29 CWN, 879 52 Cal. 871 95 IC 529 1925 AIR 1201 (Cal.) See also Gongaram Tillackehand v The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, 52 Bom 61 29 Bom LR 1511 106 I.C 66: 1927 AIR, 643 (Bomba)

Scope.—Sec. 5 does not confer jurisdiction on the judge of the High Court to decide questions regarding sufficiency of court-fees paid in subordinate Courts, Maung Nyi Manng v. The Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Rangoon 335 (338): 1934 A I R 268 (Rang) But see s. 12, cl. is read with s 28 which does confer such power

Difference as to amount of court-fees payable.—A question whether court-fees are payable at the old rate or at the amended rate involves a difference as to the amount of court-fees payable. The words of s. 5 are quite general and there is no reason why their ordinary meaning should be confined to difference as to the amount of valuation only, Gongaram Tullockchand v The Chef Controlling Revenue Authority, 52 Dom, 236–29 Bom L.R. 1511: 106 I.C. 66, 1927 A.I.R. 643 (Bombay)

Officer whose duty, etc.—The Chief Inspector of Stamps is an officer whose duty it is to see that proper court-fees are paid under the Court Fees Act and the decision of the taxing officer on a difference of opinion between the Chief Inspector of Stamps and the suitor is final, Messt Bhageount v. Musst. Dhomwonti, 1932 A.I.J. 244: 140 I.C. 68: 1932 A.I.R. 319. (All.).

Stamp Reporter can revise his report.—If the Stamp Reporter acting correctly in accordance with the rule then prevailing accepts a memorandum of appeal as sufficiently stamped then the Stamp Reporter thereby does not become completely functus officio, if the appeal be registered and can if law is interpreted differently in subsequent proceeding.

question as to whether the document is sufficiently stamped within the period the appeal remains pending unless the matter has been decided by the taxing officer. Such a Stamp Reporter in giving effect to the later view of the law merely correct instruction and does not give a restrospective effect to the later view, Sudheshweri Prasad and other v. Ram Kumar Rai, 12 Pat 694 14 P1. T 180 1933 A.I.R 234 (Patna); 144 I.C. 684 61 R 2 (2) (Pat.)

Decision of the taxing officer final.-The word "final" in section 5 of the Court Fees Act has the same meaning as in section 12, though it is applied to a different subject. In section 5 it is applied to a decision as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, whereas in section 12 it is applied to a decision as to every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under Chapter III on a plaint or memorandum of appeal. The cases in which it has been held that, notwithstanding the use of this word in section 12, an appeal fies as to the decision as to the category in which the relief sought by the plaintiff or appellant falls, do not mean that the decisions which the section declares to be final, are nevertheless appealable, but that the question of category is not a question relating to valuation and therefore is not declared by the section to be final. In both sections 5 and 12 it is used in the ordinary legal meaning of final, could not, in my opinion, be contended that category is not under section 5 of the Court Fees Act for the taxing officer, otherwise he could not decide whether any fee was payable or the amount thereof As to section 5 of the Court Fees Act, there is no provision so far as I can ascertain under which the Court or any Bench of the Court has power to consider the propriety of a decision under that section by appeal, in an appeal, or in revision," Balkaran Rai v Gobinda Noth Tewary, 12 All 129 (152, 153 & 156) FB; (1890) 10 AWN, 39 FB.; Lurkhur Chaube v. Rambhajan Chaube, 23 A W.N. 214 . The decision of a taxing officer as to the amount of court-fees payable and therefore his decision as to the category within which the suit falls, is final and binding under section 5 of the Court Fees Act, Kuar Karan Singh v. Gopal Roy, 32 All. 59: 6 A.L.J. 972; 4 Ind. Cas. 123 The taxing officer's decision cannot be questioned at the hearing of appeal, Rangapai v. Baba, 20 Mad. 398; Kastnri Chetti v. The Court has no power to interfere with the decision of the taxing officer as his decision is final under s. 5 of the Court Pees Act, 1870, T. S Sauminath Aiyar and others v. M.

Decision under s 5 of the Court Fees Act of the taxing officer of the High Court, or of the Chef Justice or the Judge appointed under s 5, is final and is not liable to be challenged by way of appeal or revision, Gangaram Tillockchand v The Chief Controlling Revenue Anthority, 52 Bom 61: 29 Bom I, R. 1511. 106 I C 66: 1927 A I R. 643 (Bonbay)

The High Court has no power or jurisdiction to interfere with an order passed by the taxing officer settling the amount of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal, which order is final and against which there is no appeal, review or revision, Hitendra Singh v Maharajadhiraj of Darbhanga, 7 Pat L.T. 392 92 IC 526: 1926 A IR. 147 (Patna).

Absence of decision by the taxing officer.—It there be no decision by the taxing officer under section 5 of the Court Fees Act, objection as to sufficiency of the court-fees paid, can be raised at the hearing of the appeal, Jugal Pershad Singh v. Parbu Narayan Jha, 3 Cal 914: 8 1C. 1145, Kasturi Chetit v. Deputy Callector, Bellary, 21 Mad 269 The Court can decide a question as to the deficiency in court-fees, when there was no decision by a taxing officer of the question, Kandunni Nair v. Anjunan Islamia, Garakhpore, 1933 A.I.J. 1537: 1934 A.I.R. 56 (All.), where the taxing officer declined to entertain the question and it was held that the Court can consider the question Erroneous decision by the taxing officer.—In the case of Lagan Burt Kuar v Khakhan Singh, 3 Pat.I.J. 22, it was held that the decision of the taxing officer even if erroneous is binding on the party. See also Md. Sadik v. Md. Jan, 11. All. 91 and Badri Pershad v. Kundan Led, 15. All. 117: 13 A.W.N. 45; Krishna Mahan v. Raghmandan Sinoh, 4 Patna 336: 1928 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (75): 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.): 87 A.I.C. 137 supra; but in Anna Narayan Pariji v. Madhyuma Sthitisila Paraspara, etc., 46 Bom. 840: 25 Bom.L.R. 313: 67 Ind. Cas. 364: 1922 A.I.R. 172 (Bombay) the Bombay Hed Court apparently disregarded the erroneous decision of the taxing officer.

Character of the decision of taxing officer.—The decision of a taxing officer under section 5 of the Court Fees Act as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof is not a decree as decree is defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It is not an order as defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, his decision is not the decision of the Civil Court. A further reason for that opinion is that the taxing officer is not a Court within the meaning of that section, Balkaran Rai v Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F.B. (156 and 157): (1909) 10 A.W.N. 39.

Taxing officer is not bound to give advice—The taxing officer is not bound to give advice to the party, Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All 129 F.B: 10 A.W.N. 39

Power of the taxing officer.—The wording of section 5 is 50 explicit and general that it leaves the Court no option The taxing officer has jurisdiction to fix the amount of fee payable and if he decides that the valuation put by the appellants upon the relief was incorrect, he has the power to correct it, even if he has done anything which the law does not empower him to do. The Court Fees Act gives the High Court on jurisdiction to interfere with his decision as to the amount of the fee, Ram Sekhar Prasad Singh v Sheonaudan Dubey, 2 Pat 198-1922 Pat C.W.N. 337 70 I.C. 43: 1923 A.I.R. 137 (Patna)

Under section 5 the High Court has power to alter the valuation of a sut with regard to its own memorandum of appeal, which power, however, is delegated to the taxing officer or the taxing judge whose decision again is final. Even if those officers should make a maintest mistake in the exercise of their jurisdiction, their decision is not subject to appeal officer has no such power]. Krishna Mohan Singh. v. Raghundand Pandey, 1925 Pat. C. W.N. 65 (75) F.B.: 4 Patna 336: 1925 A.I.R. 332 (P.): 87 I.C. 137.

Under section 5 of the Court Fees Act power of the Court to decide disputed questions of court-fees is vested in the taxing officer subject to his power to refer the matter to the taxing judge when a question of general importance arises. This authority extends to all such questions arising in the High Court, whether the deficiency alleged is on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court or on a plaint or memorandum of appeal field in the Court below, Balal Kuar v. Narain Singh, 22 A.I.J. 1038; 84 I.C. 822: 1925 A.I.R. 184 (All).

The Registrar has no power to direct an appellant to deposit any sum of money in Court as a condition precedent to having his case tried, Janak Prasad v Askoran Prasad, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 602: 105 I C 742, 1928 A I R 29 (Patna): 9 P L T 337.

Demand of court-fees not paid in the lower Courts:—The jurisdiction of the taxing officer is limited to cases in which it is alleged that a document filed, exhibited or received in the High Court is not sufficiently stamped and does not extend to cases in which it is alleged that a party paid insufficient court-fee on his plaint or memorandum of appeal in the lower appellate Court. To this class of cases section 12 (in) will apply, Mithoolal v. Musst. Chameh, 1934. A.I., 1957: 150 I.C. 653: 1934. A.I.R. 805 (All). Contra. see Bullinblusan Bakis, Kalachand Roy, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927. A.I.R. 775 (Cal.) where it was held that the taxing officer should make the demand.

Duty of taxing officer.—It is no part of the duty of a taxing officer or of a judge or Court on a question as to the sufficiency of a stamp or a fee to consider whether a planntif or an appellant is asking for more declarations or reliefs than are required for his protection. A plaintiff or an appellant may have reasons, which whether they are good or bad, may not be apparent to a taxing officer or taxing judge for asking for several declarations or reliefs. It is not the province of the taxing officer or the taxing judge to decide what are the declarations or reliefs which a plaintiff or an appellant may require for his protection. To impose upon a taxing officer or the taxing judge such a duty would be to impose upon him a duty hardly, if at all, less onerous or difficult than the duty of deciding the case itself, Balkaran Ren v. Gobind Nath., 12 All. 129 (161): 10 A.W.N. 39.

Power of the Chief Justice,—Section 5 makes it clear that such reference is to be heard by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice may appoint, In the Goods of Harnett Teriot Kerr, 18 C.W.N 121 (128): 18 C.L.J. 308: 21 Ind. Cas. 502; Kochera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 A.L.J. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315

Power of Division Bench.—A Division Bench has no juvisdiction to hear a stamp reference even though it is referred to them by the taxing judge, Khachero v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 A.L.I. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315; Kuldip v. Harihar, 75 I.C. 871: 1924 A.I.R. 161 (P.). Where the Court of first instance rejected the plaint for insufficiency of stamp and on appeal to the High Court, the taxing officer, agreeing with the view of the trial Court required the appellant to pay additional court-fees calculated under section 7, paragraph IV c. the Act, held that the decision of the taxing officer is final that the Devision Bench has no jurisdiction to reopen it:

Character of the decision of taxing officer.—The decision of a taxing officer under section 5 of the Court Fees Act as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof is not a decree as decree is defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It is not an order as defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure; his decision is not the decision of the Civil Court. A further reason for that opinion is that the taxing officer is not a Court within the meaning of that section, Balkaran Rai v Gobinda Nath Tevary, 12 All. 129 F.B. (156 and 157): (1909) 10 A.W.N 39

Taxing officer is not bound to give advice—The taxing officer is not bound to give advice to the party, Balkaran Rai v Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F B: 10 A.W.N. 39.

Power of the taxing officer.—The wording of section 5 is so explicit and general that it leaves the Court no option. The taxing officer has jurisdiction to fix the amount of fee payable and if he decides that the valuation put by the appellants upon the relief was incorrect, he has the power to correct it, even if he has done anything which the law does not empower him to do. The Court Fees Act gives the High Court no jurisdiction to interfere with his decision as to the amount of the fee, Rain Sekhar Prasad Singh v. Sheonandan Dubey, 2. Pat 198: 1922 Pat C.W.N. 337, 70 I.C. 43: 1923 A.I.R. 137 (Patna)

Under section 5 the High Court has power to alter the valuation of a suit with regard to its own memorandum of appeal, which power, however, is delegated to the taxing officer or the taxing judge whose decision again is final. Even if those officers should make a manifest mistake in the exercise of their jurisdiction, their decision is not subject to appeal or review by the Court itself [Per Das J contra. The taxing officer has no such power], Krishna Mohan Singh v. Raghinandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W. N. 65 (75) F. B: 4 Patna 336: 1925 A. I.R. 3392 (P.): 87 I.C. 137.

Under section 5 of the Court Fees Act power of the Court to decide disputed questions of court-fees is vested in the taxing officer subject to his power to refer the matter to the taxing judge when a question of general importance arises. This authority extends to all such questions arising in the High Court, whether the deficiency alleged is on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court or on a plaint or memorandum of appeal field in the Court below, Bahal Kuar v Narain Singh, 22 A.I. J. 1038: 84 I C. 822: 1925 A.I.R. 184 (All.).

The Registrar has no power to direct an appellant to deposit any sum of money in Court as a condition precedent to having his case tried, Janak Prasad v. Askaran Prasad, ILR 6 Pat. 602, 105 IC 742; 1928 AIR 29 (Patna): 9 P.L.T. 337.

Demand of court-fees not paid in the lower Courts:— The jurisdiction of the taxing officer is limited to cases in which it is alleged that a document filed, exhibited or received in the High Court is not sufficiently stamped and does not extend to cases in which it is alleged that a party paid insufficient courtfee on his plaint or memorandum of appeal in the lower appellate Court. To this class of cases section 12 (in) will apply, Mithoolal v. Musst. Chauch, 1934. A.L.J. 957: 150. I.C. 653: 1934. A.L.R. 805. (All.). Contra. see Bulhublusan Bakis. Kalachand. Roy., 31. C.W.N. 1045: 106. I.C. 335: 1927. A.L.R. 775. (Cal.) where it was held that the taxing officer should make the demand.

Duty of taxing officer.—It is no part of the duty of a taxing officer or of a judge or Court on a question as to the sufficiency of a stamp or a fee to consider whether a plaintiff or an appellant is asking for more declarations or reliefs than are required for his protection. A plaintiff or an appellant may have reasons, which whether they are good or bad, may not be apparent to a taxing officer or taxing judge for asking for several declarations or rehefs. It is not the province of the taxing officer or the taxing judge to decide what are the declarations or rehefs which a plaintiff or an appellant may require for his protection. To impose upon a taxing officer or the taxing judge such a duty would be to impose upon him a duty hardly, if at all, less onerous or difficult than the duty of deciding the case itself, Balkaran Rai v Gobind Nath, 12 All. 129 (161): 10 A.W.N. 39

Power of the Chief Justice.—Section 5 makes it clear that such reference is to be heard by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice may appoint, In the Goods of Harrictt Teviot Kerr, 18 C.W.N. 121 (128): 18 C.L.J. 308: 21 Ind. Cas. 502; Kachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 A.L.J. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315

Power of Division Bench.—A Division Bench has no jurisdiction to hear a stamp reference even though it is referred to them by the taxing judge, Khachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All 20: 7 A L.J. 842: 7 Ind Cas 315; Kuldip v. Harihar, 75 IC 871: 1924 A LR. 161 (P.). Where the Court of first instance rejected the plaint for insufficiency of stamp and on appeal to the High Court, the taxing officer, agreeing with the view of the trial Court required the appellant to pay additional court-fees calculated under section 7, paragraph IV of the Act, held that the decision of the taxing officer is final and that the Devision Bench has no jurisdiction to re-open it before the appeal was admitted, Mussi Chandrabati Kocr v. Goorey Lal Singh, 4 Pat I. J. 700: 1920 C.W.N. (Pat.) 179: 52 Ind Cas 508, Chunin Lal v. Sheacharan Lal and others, 47 All. 756: 1925 A I R 787 (All) 23 A I. J 725: 89 I.C. 122.

The High Court has no power or jurisdiction to interfere with an order passed by the taxing officer settling the amount of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal, which order is final and against which there is no appeal, review or revision. Even if the Court is of opinion that the court-fee levied is nexcess of that payable under the law it has no power to order a refund of the excess amount claimed, Hitendra Singh v. Maharajadhiraj of Darbhanga, 92 I C 626: 1926 A I R. 147 (P): 7 Pat L T. 392

Powers of a taxing judge.—A taxing judge must himself decision and he cannot make a reference to a Division Bench, Dhanikdhary Prasad Pandey v Romadhikory Misir, 12 Patna 188: 13 P.I.T. 810: 142 I C 617 1933 A I R 81 (Patna); nor can the taxing judge demand court-fees not paid in the lower Court, Maing Nyi Maing v Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran 335: 1934 A I R 268 (Ran) although in Bidhu Bhisan Bakshi v. Kalachand Roy, 31 C W N 1045, such a demand was made.

Examination of stamp paper.—Examination of the stamp paper itself belongs more properly to the revenue officer of the Government, and consequently the stamp paper itself, if necessary, should be forwarded to the Collector for examination. The Registrar of the High Court is not to examine it, Bhikao Mollav, Rashinone Dossee, 9 W.R. 357.

Provided further that the fee payable in respect of any such document as is mentioned in the foregoing provise shall not be less than that indicated by either of the said schedules before the commencement of this Act.\

[For Bengal only-

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) or in any other Act, a Court may receive a plaint or memorandum of appeal in respect of which are insufficient fee has been paid, subject to the following conditions, namely .-

- (a) no such plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be registered unless the plaintiff or appellant has, before such date as the Court may have fixed in this behalf paid to the Court such reasonable sum on account of court-fee as the Court may direct:
  - (b) the Court shall reject the plaint or memorandum of appeal if the sum referred to in clause (a) is not paid before the date fixed by the Court.

NOTES

Amendment,-By sec. 6 of the Court Fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, VII of 1935 the whole section as amended for Bengal has been transferred from Chapter III and inserted after section 5 in Chapter II

By the amendment the rigid law hitherto in force has been somewhat relaxed Formerly the party was required to pay the whole amount before a plaint or memorandum of appeal could be registered, but under the present law as applicable to Bengal, payment of a reasonable sum in court-fees would entitle a party to have his plaint or memorandum of appeal to be registered but he should pay the whole amount before the case is heard, as otherwise the Court will not be able to record a finding that proper court-fees have been paid (sec. 8B) The Court cannot proceed with the suit or appeal unless it finds that the whole of the court-fees have been paid

Application of the section-Appeals must be valued according to the provisions of the Act in operation at the time of its presentation, and the original valuation under the repealed enactment is to be disregarded; Proceedings, 15th Nov 1870; 5 Mad. H. C. R. Ap. 44,

Statutes which impose pecuniary burdens are subject to the rule of strict construction, and all charges upon the subject must be imposed in clear and unambiguous terms, as they tend to operate as penalties. The subject is not to be taxed unless the language of the statute clearly imposes the obligation, Thaddeut Naphapiet v The Secretary of State for India, 39 C.I. J. 209 (211) 811 C 751: 1924 A.J. Crown must bring a case within the letter of law—There cannot be any equitable construction of a fiscal statute and the Crown seeking to recover a tax must bring it with the letter of law, otherwise the subject is free, Killing Valley Tea, Company, Ltd. v. Retorablencts of the Provisions—The provisions of a statute enacted for the purpose of revenue should not be actional as to their reasonableness in all eventualities, Deopoundan Misra V. Ganno Prasad and others, 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622; 120 L.C. 313: 1929 A LR. 731 (Patna).

In cases of doubt -Where there is doubt in the matter, a Court is bound to decide the matter in favour of the subject as the subject cannot be taxed except by clear and unambiguous language, Anonymaus Case, 10 Cal 274 (282) per Field J, Dayachand v Hem Chand Dharam Chand, 4 Bom 515 F B.; The Deputy Camussaner of Sunghbhum v. Jagadish Chandra Deo, 6 Pat L J 411 · 62 I C 513.

Practice of Court.—In the Full Bench of Krsory Lal Ray Ray v Sharat Chandra Majumdar, S Cal S93 (597), Sir Richard Garth C J. said "There is a very wholesome maxim of law optimus legis interpres consistented, and Mr. Broome in his work on Legal Maxims, 2nd Edition, p 534, says this,—where a statute uses language of doubtful import, the acting under it for a long term of years may well give it an interpretation to that obscure meaning, and reduce that uncertainty to a fixed rule

And I take it, that this principle is especially applicable, where the subject of interpretation is a matter of every day occurrence. And when we find that for a series of 8 or 10 years, a law which imposes a heavy tax upon litigation has received a particular interpretation in favour of the suitor, and a course of practice has prevailed for years, throughout the whole country, in accordance with that interpretation, I think that any Court of Justice ought to be slow in changing that interpretation or course of practice to the prejudice of the suitor, inless it sees clear and weighty reasons for so doing "See also Hightilla Bhurya v Chandra Mohan Banerjee, 34 Cal. 945: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L.J. 235 FB; Budhata Ray v. Ram Charitra Ray, 12 C.W.N. 37. 6 C.L.J. 651; Doculat Ram v. Vitho, 5 Born 1888 (193)

In Baleswar v Bhagirathi, 35 Cal 701 (713): 12 CW.N 657 . 7 C L J 563 the Court held, "It is a well settled principle of interpretation that Courts in construing a Statute will give much weight to the interpretation put upon it, at the time of its enactment and since, by those whose duty it has been to construe, execute and apply it. I do not suggest for a moment that such interpretation has by any means a controlling effect upon the Courts, such interpretation, may, if occasion arises, has to be disregarded for cogent and persuasive reasons, and in a clear case of error, a Court would without hesitation refuse to follow such construction" See also the case of Carparatian of Calcutta v. A Court cannot override the plain language of the statute except upon reference to its general tenor and spirit and the argument must be convincing. Mahade Aan v. Chairman of the Howrah Municifality, 11 C.L.J. 5 The Courts always hesitate to over-rule decisions which a

The above observation is applicable only to cases if a language of the statute be of doubtful import and a practice which is no contractation of the law, even if such practice be the product of the High Court, cannot make lawful that which is unlawful nor can a practice of Court justify a Court in purpose an Act of the Legislature a construction which is contray to the plant wording of the Act," Bunuarilat v. Conduct of Revenue Authorities—Interpretation which has long been acted upon cannot be disregarded by a Court of law and the Court should put upon it the construction first placed upon it when it came into force; but the conduct of the revenue authorities in the past does not bind the Court, Killing Vallet Tea Company v. Effect of decision of Court—When a plea of insufficiency is then all that the Court is to do, is to see whether the court-fee paid already is sufficient having regard to the various allegations in the plaint and in doing so does not decide that those allegations are true, Lalta Prasad v Barmha Din, 30 Ind. Effect of Registration—The mere fact that the plaint or memorandum of appeal has been registered does not prevent the question as to sufficiency of court-fees being raised at a later stage, Radha Kanta Saha v. Return of Plaint.—By the C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882), s 2l, it is enacted that on representation of a plaint court-fees are not to be levied but there is no such corresponding section in Act V of 1908.

Whenever a Court, after a trial has begun or even after it been concluded, thinks it has no jurisdiction to try the suit and returns the plaint for presentation to the proper Court, no fresh court-fees are chargeable on presentation to such Court, Dispute as to the amount of court-fees payable-In cases of dispute as to the amount of court-fees payable the Court is to frame an issue on the point and proceed to try that issue first or determine it at the time of the disposal of the suit along with other issues, Ganga Prosad v Bhawani Sheikh, 62 Ind Cas 853 (Oudh).

Effect of decision of Court-When a plea of insufficiency is taken all that the Court is to do, is to see whether the courtfee paid already is sufficient having regard to the various allegations in the plaint and in doing so does not decide that those allegations are true, Lalta Prasad v Barmha Din, 30 Ind. Cas. 73.

Question as to court-fees to be dealt with at the earliest posible moment, see under's 10, infra

Admission by party as to court-fees payable—A party is not concluded by statements by him or those who come in as plaintiffs afterwards as to the amount of court-fees payable. as the question is not one of fact but is one of law, Girish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I C 80: 1927 A I.R 55 (Calcutta)

Admission by Counsel An admission by Counsel as to the amount of court-frees payable being an admission on a point of law, is not binding on the client, Surain Singh v. Sundar Singh and others, 120 I C 532: 1929 AJR 879 (Lah.).

Deficiency of court-fees not raised in the trial Court-Where the deficiency of court-fees was not objected to in the first Court by defendant before the decision of the suit, such plea could not be raised for the first time in appeal, Il'ilayat v. Umardaraz Ali Khan, 19 All. 165 Where defendant did not raise the question of court-fees and valuation in the written statement, the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council declined to entertain the objection on appeal as to the jurisdiction of the trial Court and observed that the same should not have been allowed to be taken in appeal, and that the Court Fees Act was not passed to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent, but to secure revenue for the benefit of the state..... And a judgment not shown to have been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue cannot be set aside at the instance of a party on the ground of jurisdiction, Rachapa Subrao Jadhav Desai v Shidaffa Venkatrao, 24 CW N. 33: 29 C L.J. 42 S Ol Ind Cas 280: 43 Bom 507: 21 Bom I, R. 459: 17 A L J 418; 25 M L T 298: 36 M I, J. 437 P C

Question as to court-frees not raised in the Lower Appellate Court, not allowed to be taken in second appeal, see Ram Kishen v Dipa, 13 All 580, Ahuad Ali v Waris Hossain, 15 All 123, Wilayat Ali v Unardaraz Ali, 19 All 165, Ranga Pav Baba, 20 Mad 398, Sharan Bibi v Earsin Dewon, 16 Ind Cas 46, but see contra, Kasturi Chetty v. Effect of acceptance of decision by the trial Court —Where the defendant had accepted the decision of the trial Court as the the amount of court-fees payable and had stamped his own appeal to the lower appellate Court in the same way, he is precluded from raising the question of court-fees again in the High Court, Chiunnu Lal v The Bank of Upper India, 106 P.WR 1917 40 IC 904, but the fact that a certain sum was put in in compliance with the order of Court, did not preclude the plaintiff from afterwards disputing the decision of the Court in appeal, Mani Lal v Durga Pressed, 3 Pat. 930: 80 IC 667 1924 A IR 673 (P): 5 Pat. T 425: 1924 Pat.C.W.N. 254.

See also section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887) where the circumstances under which the Courts are to take such questions into consideration are specified Effect of Registration—The mere fact that the plaint or memorandum of appeal has been registered does not prevent the question as to sufficiency of court-fees being raised at a later stage, Radha Kauta Saha v. Debendra Narain Saha, 49 Cal. 880: 27 C.N.N. 567: 1922 A.I.R. 506 (Calcutta): 38 C L.J. 74: 70 Ind. Cas 101.

Return of Plaint.—By the C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882), s. 21, it is enacted that on representation of a plaint court-fees are not to be levied but there is no such corresponding section in Act V of 1908.

Whenever a Court, after a trial has begun or even after it has been concluded, thinks it has no jurisdiction to try the suit and returns the plaint for presentation to the proper Court, no fresh court-fees are chargeable on presentation to such Court, tion as to stamp was taken by the Court to which it was first presented, Lachmi Prasad v. Secretary of State for India, 11 P.L.T. 711: 1931 A I R. 39 (Patna).

Court returning the plaint need not order the value to be amended or pay additional court-fee, Ramanna v Anureddi, 61 M.L. J. 43: 34 L. W. 352: 129 I C. 826 1931 A L R 57 (Mad): 1931 I R. 346 (Mad ).

"By Revenue Court"-When a Settlement Officer, before whom a suit was instituted without court-fees under section 8 of Santhal Pargannah Regulations (Reg III of 1872), returns the plaint under section 5 of that Regulation to be presented to the Civil Court, no institution court-fee can be demanded by the Civil Courts, Bibee Golap Kumarı v Md Kadıruddin, 12 C.W.N. 917

But see contra, Gandaram v Sain, 132 PR 1892, where the plaintiff brought a fresh suit on the point in a Civil Court

Filed.-The word "filed" means something more than "presented" for admission. It means that the document has been admitted and put on the files of the Court, Amjad Ali v. Muhammad Ismail, 20 All, 11 (17), Moti Sahu v Chhatri Das, 19 Cal. 780

Sec 6 of the Court Fees Act is imperative. It requires that in all Courts except in the High Courts in the exercise of their original jurisdiction and in the Presidency Small Cause Court, no document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in Schedules 1 and 2 to that Act, shall be filed, exhibited or recorded or shall be received or furnished by any public officer unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document, .1damalı v Abdul Alı and another, 107 IC 223, 1928 AIR 87 (Sind)

Plaint .- Plaint not bearing praper stamp

Calcutta High Court -When a plaint is presented bearing insufficient stamp but the deficiency is made up within the time allowed, the plaint is to be considered as presented in time, Moti Sahie v. Chhatri Das. 19 Cal 780. Padmananda v Ananta Lal. 34 Cal 20 FB: 11 CWN 38: 4 CL 1 422

C P-A plaint filed with insufficient stamp would be filed in time, even if the deficient court-fee is supplied after the period of limitation but the deficiency should be made good with the sanction of the Court See Mahamed Galif v Abdul Rahim, Receiver, 89 I C. 419 1926 A I R 156 (Nag )

Madras High Court -A suit is not instituted within the meaning of the explanation to section 4 of the Limitation Act by presentation of a document purporting to be a plaint, if that Provakar v. Vishwambar, 8 Bom 313; Gandu v. Konda, 8 3t-62; see contra Jagiiban v. Magdum, 7 Bom. 427.

In a suit for an account the usual valuation for purp of court-fees was made in the plaint, which was filed and ceived in a Munsiff's Court. The Munsiff appointed a comissioner to take an account and the result was that plair was found by the commissioner to be entitled to a much lar Plaintiff then applied for leave to amend the pla which was granted, and the valuation of the suit was accoingly increased As the amount claimed in the amended planwas greater than that over which the Court of a Munsiff or. narrly has jurisdiction, the Munsiff ordered the plaint to returned for presentation to the proper Court: held, that i Munsiff had acted with material irregularity in permitting t valuation of the suit to be revised; and that he ought to ha tried the case, Arogya Udayan v Appachi Rowthan, 25 Ma 543: 12 M L J 35

A plaintiff when the plaint was returned to him, to pa additional court-fees, can reduce the value so as to make the court-fee already paid sufficient for the plaint and represent to the Court which returned it and that Court will then accept it, Neelachalam v Narsing Das, 34 L.W. 252: 1931 M.W.N. 677 134 IC 816 1931 A I R 716 (Mad): 1931 I R. 864 (Mad).

Court-fees already paid to be credited -When the plant which has been returned is presented in a Court of competent jurisdiction, the suit, even for the purposes of court-fee on such plaint should be leviable under the law which was in force a the time when the plaint was originally presented. If the court fee has increased in the meantime the plaintiff must be credited with the court-fee originally paid, Bimala Prasad v. Lal Moni 1926 A1R 355 (Cal) 30 CWN 90: 91 IC 862.

Where a Court after receiving a plaint and cancelling the stamp affixed thereto returns the plaint for presentation to the proper Court under Order 7, rule 10 of the Code of Civil Proce dure, 1908, the latter Court to which the plaint is presented i bound to give credit to the fee already levied by the forme Court, Ganesh Tavanappa Burde v Tatya Bharmappa Mirji, 5 Bom 236 29 Bom L.R. 280. 101 I C 343: 1927 A.I.R 25 (Mad) Sec also Viscostera Sarma v Dr. J. Court returning the plaint need not determine sufficiency of Court on the manufacturity stamped plaint is returned by Court on the ground of its want of jurisdiction and then provided to a Court is not scatted to a Court having jurisdiction, the latter Court is no bound to treat the plaint as sufficiently stamped even though may never have been properly stamped merely because no obje-

Calcutta High Court - Date of institution of suit should be reckoned from the date when the plaint was presented and not from the time when the deficiency in court-fees was made good, Moti Sahu v. Chhatri Das, 19 Cal 780 (782), where the reasons are given. A suit was brought farma panperis on behalf of a minor but the suit was dismissed by the Munsiff under an alleged compromise. An appeal was filed before the District Judge but the memorandum was insufficiently stamped and an application was filed to prosecute the appeal forms pauperis. At the time of hearing of the application, objection was taken that the minor has inherited certain properties whereon the guardian offered to pay court-fees. The appeal Court allowed the guardian to put in court-fees and admitted the appeal court-fees were paid within the time allowed. Held that the ease came within either section 5 of the Limitation Act or Section 582A, C. P. C and the appeal is not out of time. Duraa Charan Nuskar v. Dookhiram Nuskar, 26 Cal 925.

When the plaint is engrossed on a paper not duly stamped but is accompanied by an amount of money sufficient to cover stamp duty, it was held that the plaint was properly stamped, Gozind Kumar Chondhury v. Har Dayal Nag, 3 B.L.R. App. 72 But under the present Act, cash money cannot be accepted, see section 25 of the Court Fees Act.

In the following cases deficit court-fees were paid within the time and the plaint was deemed as if presented in time, Huri Mohan v. Naiminddin, 20 Cal 41, Surcendra Kumar v. Kinif Behary, 27 Cal. 814: 4 C.W.N. 818; Rajkisori v. Madan Mohan, 31 Cal 75; Hubibul v. Mahammad Keca, 8 Cal. 192, where it was further held that a plaint cannot be rejected after registration under section 54 of the Code of Chil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882, & Or. 7 r. 11 of the present Act) infless time is given to make up the deficiency.

See also Bhut Nath v. Chandra Binode, 16 C.L. J. 34, where the plaintiff was permitted to convert an application for damages into a plaint in a suit for damages upon payment of ad valorem court-fees.

Central Province (Naghur).—Where a plaint is presented on paper insufficiently stamped within the prescribed period of limitation and time is given by the Court to the plaintiff to make good the deficiency, which is supplied within the time allowed by the Court, but after the expiry of the period of limitation, the suit is not barred, Mahomed Golif v. Judwid Committee —A memorandum of appeal duly presented to and accepted by the Court, even if the valuation be unsatisfactory and in the end insufficient, is validated by additional payment of court-fees, the result being that the memorandum stands good from the date of presentation. The memorandum is not a nullity, Faizudlah Khan v Mauladad Khan, L R 56 1A. 232 · 10 Lah 737 · 31 Born LR 481 · 33 CWN 781 · 50 CLJ 39 · 57 M L J 281 · 1929 M W N 818 · 117 I C 493 · 1929 A.I.R 147 P C

Limitation—Once a Court has accepted payment of deficit on a memorandum of appeal, no further question of limitation arises. A Court cannot permit the deficiency to be made up and then hold that the appeal is barred by limitation, Jawala Singh v Musst Dhano, 133 I C. 122 1931 I R. 746 (Lahore), Durga Charan Naskar v Dookhiram Naskar, 26 Cal 925 above

An appeal was filed on the last day of limitation with insufficient court-fees. The deficit was supplied subsequently (out of time) and the Court ordered the deficit court-fees so paid to be accepted. The appeal was then heard and admitted under Or 41, Rule 11, C.P. C. and then posted for final hearing A question was then raised whether the appeal was a valid appeal. The High Court held that such a question could not be raised at that stage, Musst Choti v. Hardayal Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 572 (Ali) 1933 A.I.J. 1357: 146 I.C. 753

Court's power to grant extension of time, S. 149, C. P. C.—Under the present Act, the power is exercised under sections 148 and 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908). The principle to be looked to is whether there is a bona fide mistake on the part of the plantiff or the appellant

A Court has power to grant extension of time originally fixed to put in deficit court-fees after the expiry of the original period, Deven Amir Hossain v Nanak Chand, 12 C L J. 62. 14 C.W.N. 882 6 Ind. Cas 424, see also Surendra Prasad v. Aftafuddin Almed, 26 C W N 391 70 I C 43 where extension of time was granted after the dismissal order for non-payment of court-fees was set aside on review, Bhagran Das v. Abu Ahmed, 15 Bom 263

In the following cases plaint was filed with insufficient stamp and it was held that the Court can grant an extension of time and on the deficiency being made up, the plaint was regarded as if filled in time, Brahmamayi v. Andt, 27 Cal 376; Shib Kristna Daren & Ca v. Satis Chandra, 38 Cal 522; Karman v. Cockell, 1 C W N. 670; Bidhata v. Ram Charita, 12 C W N. 37 (43); 6 C L.J. 651; Hem Chandra v. Doarga Pada, 3 Ind. Cas 435; Kishare v. Sabdal, 12 All. 553; Hari Ram v. Akbar Hustoin, 29 All. 749 (case of a mistake in payment of courtiees); Gararanga v. Bata Krishna and others, 32 Mad 305: 19 M.L. J. 340; 4 Ind. Cas. 503

When an appeal was filed in time but was insufficiently stamped and on the deficiency being pointed out to the appellant by the office, he disputed the report and did not make up the deficiency till long after the appeal was barred by time, held he could not get an extension of time, Wodhawa Singh v. Sunder Singh, 21 P.W.R. 1921. 59 FC 689

Time for payment of deficit court-fees should not be extended unless there is a bone fide mistake Lekh Ram v. Ramin, 1 Lah 231: 31. L. J. 370. 57. IC 215, Umed. Ili v. Municipal Cammittee, Ihang Maahinan, 1 L. R. 2 Lah I. 2 L. L. J. 486: 8 P.W. R. 1920. 56. IC 143. 1922. A IR 233 (Lah.) See also Fattch Singh v. Babu Ram, 67. IC 130, Puran (hand and others v. Emperand athers, 1926. A IR. 343. (Lah.). 92. IC 991: J. C. Gaulstun v. Kumar Pramatha Vath Ray, 33. C.W. V. 883. 1929. A IR. 470. (Cal.) The Court may refuse to extend the time if the law is clear and there is no bana fide mistake, Mahomed Suleman v. Ghumandilal, 32. P.I. R. 251. 134. IC 127. 1931. A IR. 343. (Lah.) 1913. I.R. 895. (Lah.)

Section 149. C. P. C. must not be so construed as to multify the appellant deliberately and to sunt his own convenience pays insufficient court-fees on his appeal the Court is not bound to receive the same and extend the time. Ram Sahay Ram Pandey v. Kumar Lakshini Naravan Singh, (1917) 3. P.1, 1. 475. 5. P.1, W. 18; 42.12. G75; Tilan Ram v. Basa Ram, G7.1.C. 106, Singasau v. Gaya Tercari, 1935. A.1R. 201. (Pat.)

Court has power to extend the time allowed under the Limitation Act for supplying Court Fee Stamp, Adamaly v. Abdul Ali and another, 107 LC 223: 1928 A I R 87 (Sind)

The discretion extends to the whole or any part of any fee prescribed and can be exercised at any stage in the case, while finally, upon the extra payment being made, the document is to have the same effect as if it had been paid in the first instance, Faizullah Khan v. Mandadad Khan, LR 56 1A 232: 10 Lah, 737: 33 C.W.N. 781; 50 C.L.I. 39; 31 Bom LR 841; 57 M.L.I. 281; 1929 M.W.N. S18; 171 I.C. 493; 1929 A.J.R. 147 P.C.

In Ahmod Kasimullah v. Khatum Bibi, (1931) 59 Cal. 833 (837) the Calcutta High Court allowed additional court-fees to be put during the progress of the suit

Where the plaintiff was unable to purchase court-fees owing to the fact that the supply was exhausted in the local collectorate and the plaint was therefore presented with deficit courfees, it was held that the plaint must be deemed to have been presented at the proper time, Mahomed Safi Muhammod Ayub v. Delhi House of Multan, 1928 AIR 274 (Lah).

The Court has power under s. 149, C. P. C. to grant tune for payment of the deficit court-fee at any time, either before or after the registration of the plaint and even after the expiry of the period of limitation. The propriety of the discretion exercised by the Court under that section cannot be challenged in revision, Mahoned Galif v. Abdul Rahim, Receiver, 89 I.C. 419: 1926 A.I.R. 156 (Nag.).

An appeal cannot be filed with insufficient court-fees with the knowledge that it is insufficient. The discretion allowed under s. 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure can be exercised only when there is a bona fide mistake or a bona fide misunderstanding of the law as to valuation and cannot include a case where the appellants never cared to find out the proper amount of court-fees they had to pay on their memorandum of appeal, Pathl Shyamlal v Gourishankar, 119 I C. 700 1929 A I R. 294 (N)

In Brijbiukan v Tota Ram, 50 All 980: 26 A L J 199: 118 IC 228 1929 A I R 75 (All) the Allahabad High Court remarked on the objectsonable practice of filing of an appeal on the last day of limitation with an obviously insufficient stamp, but it was held in Jaganiath v Ramgopal, 1934 A I R. 160 (All.): 1934 A I J. 533. 147 I C. 342, that if the Court orders payment of court-fees and grants two days' time to put in the deficit then such extension of time cannot be revised and the plaint is to be deemed as sufficiently stamped in the 1st instance.

Receiving a memorandum of appeal presented with a court-fee of Re I, which was on the face of it insufficient is without jurisdiction. The provisions of s 149 are intended to apply to cases of bona fide mistakes in valuation and not to cases where a party consciously and intentionally puts insufficient court-fee on a document in an attempt to avoid the law of limitation, Inanada Sundari Saha v. Madhab Chandra Mala, (1931) 59 Cal. 388 (392); Akkarajis Narayana v. Akkarajis Narhamina, (1914) 27 M.L.J. 677 In re Sm Khatumunnessa Bibi, 61 Cal. 663: 38 C.W.N. 650: 1934 A.R. 659 (Cal.) some extension of time was granted.

But in Achiet Ram Chandra v. Nagarra Bab Balgya, (1913)

38 Bom. 41: 15 Bom I. R. 902: 21 I.C. 337, a memorandum of appeal was presented with a court-fee of 8 annas while the requisite court-fee was Rs. 205, but the Bombay High Court held that under Or. 7, rule 11 (c), the plaint shall be rejected only if the plaintiff on being required by the Court to supply the requisite court-fee within a time to be fixed by the Court fails to do so 'The appellate Court is to exercise the same power under s 107 (2) of the Code of Civil Procedure Therefore rejection of the memorandum of appeal without grant of time was bad, Panter attlications -An application to sue as a pauper was accompanied by an unstamped plant and the Court held that it can under the powers vested in it by s. 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure permit the requisite stamp to be paid thereon within a time fixed by it and after that has been done the unstamped plaint will be considered to have been validly presented on proper stamp duty on the date on which it was originally filed. Bank of Bihar Ltd v Sr. Thakur Ram Chowdhury and others, 9 Patna 439: 11 P1, T 55 1929 ATR 637 (P) 118 1 C 329 also Doorga Charan Naskar v Dookhiram Naskar, 26 Cal 925; Skinner v Orde, LR 6 1 A 126 2 All 241 4 CLR 331: Maria Thangammal v Travathesicara Ayer, 1915 M W N. 228, where the High Court held that if a Court admits and registers a plaint by a pauper plaintiff on payment of courtfees, it must be taken to have extended the time, an application for that purpose is not necessary

Contro—See Sook Lol v. Dalchand and others, (1923) 1 Ran 196 74 1 C. 835 - 1923 A I R. 256 (Ran ) where the court-fees were paid after limitation on rejection of the application to extend the time.

Facts must be brought to the notice of the Court.—When a party puts in requisite court-fees after the expiry of time and the appeal was registered, that is not an enlargement of time as an application is necessary and the facts must be brought to the notice of the Court The Registrar of the Court of Small Causes cannot grant extension of time under section 148 of the Cole of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Budhan Shah v. Sitanath, 13 C.L.] 78: 7 Ind Cas 578, Farjand Ills v. Abdul Hamid, 60 I C. 493; but see Paicon Kumor Chand. v. Didari Kuar, 5 P.L.] 544: 1 P.L. 544: 58 I C. 216, where it was held that no express orders being necessary, registration of appeal on payment of court-fees after the expiry of the period fixed is implied extension of time

Extension of time after signing the decree—If it be provided in a decree that if the court-free are paid within one mouth then the appeal will be allowed otherwise it will be dismixed, then the time limited by it cannot be extended by the successor-in-office of the judge who signed the decree, Nawab Khajeh Habibullah v Sm Gota Asmater Khatun and others, 27 CWN 720: 37 CLI 395: 74 IC 575: 1923 AIR, 612 (Cal).

The Court is to exercise discretion-In Jai Singh v. Sita Ram, 21 A L J 333 · 74 I C 757: 1929 A I R 349 (All.) it was held that a learned judge has no right to reject an appeal for insufficiency of stamp without exercising any discretion in the matter

Negligence of Counsel-Where the appellant's counsel obviously acted with gross negligence in valuing the appeal, the delay in making good the deficiency that occurred in consequence of sheer negligence cannot be condoned, Gursarandas v. District Board, Jullunder District, etc., 102 I.C. 615: 9 L.L.J. 290: 28 Punj L.R. 338 See Ram Labhaya v Vaid Prakash, 1934 A.J.R. 414 (Lah ), where the attention of the counsel was drawn to the fact of the insufficiency but the counsel did not supply the deficiency and the time was not extended

Misconduct of a pleader's clerk -Where the plaintiff handed over the deficit court fees to the pleader's clerk to be paid into Court, but the clerk instead of paying the same into Court misappropriated it, and filed an application for extension of time, which the Court rejected, the plaintiff on hearing this filed an application for setting aside the order of rejection, which was dismissed, held that the application by the plaintiff is an application to extend the time and that under the cir-cumstances of the case as the plaintiff did everything and did pay the amount to the pleader's clerk time should be extended, Adit Prasad Singh v. Ramharakh Ahir, I.L.R. 4 Patna 180: 1925 Pat C.W N. 147: 91 I C. 213: 1925 A.I R. 435 (Pat.).

Calculation of time.—Where deficit court-fees were ordered to be paid within a week, the date of the order is to be excluded in computing the week allowed to put in the deficit court-fees, Goral v. Bahorni, 15 C.L. J 120. Where the order was to supply the deficit court-fees within a month, otherwise the appeal will stand dismissed, but the last day of the time allowed fell on a holiday and the court-fees were supplied on the re-opening date, held that the court-fees were supplied in time, Amir Mondal v. Mohan Chandra, I.L.R. 3 Pat. 337: 80 I C. 1930: 1924 A I.R. 663 (Patna)

Admission of appeal-Subject to objection-An order of appeal Court excusing delay in payment of court-fees on a memorandum of appeal, is according to the practice of the Madras High Court, made subject to objection at the hearing, Acharath Parakhat v. Acharath Bappu, 23 Ind. Cas. 949. 38 Bom 41: 15 Bom I. R. 902: 21 I C 337, a memorandum of appeal was presented with a court -fee of 8 annas while the requisite court-fee was Rs. 205, but the Bombay High Court held that under Or. 7, rule 11 (c), the plant shall be rejected only if the plaintiff on being required by the Court to supply the requisite court-fee within a time to be fixed by the Court fails to do so The appellate Court is to exercise the same power under s. 107 (2) of the Code of Civil Procedure Therefore rejection of the memorandum of appeal without grant of time was bad

Pauper applications —An application to sue as a pauper was accompanied by an unstamped plaint and the Court held that it can under the powers vested in it by s 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure permit the requisite stamp to be paid thereon within a time fixed by it and after that has been done the unstamped plaint will be considered to have been validly presented on progressing buty on the date on which it was originally filed, Bank of Bilar Lid v Sri Thakur Rom Chawdhury and others, 9 Patin 439: 11 PLT 55 1929 A 1R 637 (P) 118 IC 329 See also Doorga Charan Naskar v Dookhiran Naskar, 26 Cal 925; Skinner v Orde, L R 6 I A 126 2 All 241 4 C LR 331; Maria Thangaminal v Iravatheswora Ayer, 1915 MWN 228, where the High Court held that if a Court admits and registers a plaint by a pauper plaintiff on payment of courfices, it must be taken to have extended the time, an application for that purpose is not necessary.

Contra—See Sook Lal v Dalchand and others, (1923) 1 Ran 196: 74 I C 835 1923 A I R 256 (Ran) where the court-fees were paid after limitation on rejection of the application to extend the time

Facts must be brought to the notice of the Court.—When a party puts in requisite court-fees after the expiry of time and the appeal was registered, that is not an enlargement of time as an application is necessary and the facts must be brought to the notice of the Court. The Registrar of the Court of Small Causes cannot grant extension of time under section 148 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Budham Shah v. Stanath, 13 C L J 78-7 Ind Cas 578, Farjand Alli v. Abdul Hamid, 60 I C 493; but see Pawan Kumar Chand v. Dulari Knar, 5 P.L J. 544: 1 P.L.T 544: 28 I C 216, where it was held that no express orders being necessary, registration of appeal on payment of court-fees after the expiry of the period fixed is implied extension of time.

Extension of time after signing the decree—If it be provided in a decree that if the court-fees are paid within one month then the appeal will be allowed otherwise it will be dismissed, then the time limited by it cannot be extended by the successor-in-office of the judge who signed the decree, Nawab Khajeh Habibullah v. Su Gota Asmater Khatun ond others, 27 C.W.N 720: 37 C.L.J 395: 74 I.C 575: 1923 AIR 612 (Cal.).

The Court is to exercise discretion—In Jai Singh v Stta Ram, 21 A L, J 333: 74 I C. 757: 1929 A IR 349 (All) tt was held that a learmed judge has no right to reject an appeal for insufficiency of stamp without exercising any discretion in the matter

Negligence of Counsel—Where the appellant's counsel obviously acted with gross negligence in valuing the appeal, the delay in making good the deficiency that occurred in consequence of sheer negligence cannot be condoned, Gursarandas v District Board, Iullinder District, etc., 102 IC 615 9 L.L.] 290. 28 Punj L.R. 338 See Ram Labhaya v Vaid Prakash, 1934 A IR 414 (Lah), where the attention of the counsel was drawn to the fact of the insufficiency but the counsel did not supply the deficiency and the time was not extended

Misconduct of a pleader's clerk—Where the plantiff handed over the deficit court fees to the pleader's clerk to be paid into Court, but the clerk instead of paying the same into Court misappropriated it, and filed an application for extension of time, which the Court rejected, the plantiff on hearing this filed an application for setting aside the order of rejection, which was dismissed, held that the application by the plantiff is an application to extend the time and that under the circumstances of the case as the plantiff did everything and did pay the amount to the pleader's clerk time should be extended, Adut Prasad Singh v Ramharakh Ahir, 1 L R 4 Patina 180: 1925 Pat C WN, 147: 91 I C 213 1925 A 1R 435 (Pat) 1925 Pat C WN, 147: 91 I C 213 1925 A 1R 435 (Pat)

Calculation of time—Where deficit court-fees were ordered to be paid within a week, the date of the order is to be excluded in computing the week allowed to put in the deficit court-fees, Gopal v Bahorni, 15 C.L.J 120 Where the order was to supply the deficit court-fees within a month, otherwise the appeal will stand dissunsed, but the last day of the time allowed fell on a hohday and the court-fees were supplied on the re-opening date, held that the court-fees were supplied on the re-opening date, held that the court-fees were supplied in time. Amir Mondal v Mohan Chandra, 1 L.R. 3 Pat. 337, 80 I C 1930 1924 A.I.R. 653 (Patria)

Admission of appeal—Subject to objection—An order of // appeal Court excusing deby in payment of court-fees on a memorandium of appeal, is according to the practice of the Madras-High Court, made subject to objection at the hearing, Acharath Parakhat v. Acharath Baptu, 23 Ind. Cas. 949. allowed to prejudice the substantial rights of the party in favour of whose opponent the amendment is allowed and if the party applying is acting malafide or by his blunder has done some injury to his opponent which cannot be compensated for by costs or otherwise, Mani Lal v Harendra Lal, 12 CLJ. 556 The Court allowed amendment by insertion of another prayer in the following cases: Bai Anope v Mulchand Girdinar, 9 Bom. 333 (insertion of a prayer for accounts); Sardar Singhiji v. Ganțat Singhiji, 14 Bom. 395 (prayer for injunction inserted); Abulkadar v Mahomed, 15 Mad. 15, (prayer for possession inserted).

But where the objection is not taken for the first time in appeal and the plaintiff elected to take an issue and to allow the suit to proceed subject to the risk of an adverse decision, the Court refused to allow amendments, Narayana v. Shankunni, 15 Mad 255 Where the plaintiff had an opportunity but did not avail himself of it, the Court refused to allow amendment, Raj Narayan v Shama Nanda, 26 Cal 845 Where the plaintiff has put a bona fide valuation on his claim, he cannot afterwards be allowed to alter the valuation, especially if the effect of such valuation be to oust the jurisdiction of the Court; but such bona fide valuation would not affect the plaintiff's rights to recover a larger amount if such amount be, on enquiry, found due to the plaintiff, Arogya v Appachi, 25 Mad 453: 14 M L J The proper valuation in the case of an amended plaint is that ascertained at the date of the original filing of plaint, Moro Biswanath v Ganesh Vithal, 10 Bom H C A C 444, Khelat Chunder v Nasseebunnissa, 16 WR 47

When an application is allowed to be amended so as to convert it into a plaint and proper court-fees paid thereon, the plaint was held to have been presented on the date when the application was presented, Bhutnath v. Chandra Binode, 16 C.L.J. 34

But mere payment of court-fees without actually amending the plaint is not amendment of the plaint, Rebati Raman Basak v. Harish Chandra Basak, 24 C W N 749

Amendment of valuation.—Power of Appeal Court—Appeal Court cannot give option to the plaintiff to limit his claim to the extent of court-fees paud, Vall. Ise Amanji. v. Mahmad Adam, 16 Bom L.R. 763—26 Ind Cas 746. The Chief Court (Burma) refused to allow amendment of the valuation, so as to bring the valuation within the jurisdiction of the Chief Court, Thein Yin v. Foucar Brothers Co. Ltd., 4 L. B.R. 120; but if the plaintiff at the initial stage of sust abandons a portion of his claim, he cannot be compelled to pay court-fees upon that claim under the penalty of having his whole claim dismissed, Ram Prostad v. Bhiman, 27 All. 151; 214 A W.N. 198:

1 A.L.J. 577. The Punjab Chuef Court allowed the Defendant-Appelant, who had filed an appeal insufficiently stamped, to abandon a part of his claim in appeal and to restrict the dispute to the amount on which he paid court-fees, Dunin Chind v. Abdul Alzin, 131 P.L.R. 1911-10 Ind. Cas 207. 11 PR 1912.

Where a sut was framed as a sut for declaration but was found in the appeal Court as one coming under s 7 IV (e) of the Court Fees Act, the appeal Court refused to allow anendment as there is no allegation that a fresh sut would be barred, Hakim Rei v Firm Ishor Das—Gurkhi Rei and others, ILR. 8 Lahore 521. 9 L.L.J. 400: 102 1C 46: 1927 A I R 499 (Lahore).

Assessment of court-fees.—If a plaintiff succeeds in his suit instituted forma faut-frist then the assessment is to be made on the value of the properties at the date of the application for permission to sue in forma paut-frist and not at the disposal of the suit, although the value of the property may have decreased during the pendency of the suit, Abubakar Tarmahomed v Fatma Bai, 27 SLR 240: 1933 AIR 354 (Sind) See also Kaman Mada v Mullai, 911.C 302 1926 AIR 159 (Mad)

As to procedure ofter the opplication is admitted —See Or XXXIII, r. 8; all court-fees in respect of the suit are excused but not fees in respect of service of processes

In case the full court-fee is paid subsequently either during the pendency of the enquiry into pauperism or after the rejection of the petition to sue as pauper but within time allowed to pay the court-fees, the suit is to be considered as instituted on the day the petition to sue as pauper was presented, Skinner Orde, 2 All. 241: L.R. 6 I.A. 126. 4 C.L.R. 331; Janakdhary V. In Alayakamma s Subbaraya, 28 Mad 493: 15 ML J 219, it was held that "the payment of stamp duty, however, relates back to the date of presentation of the plaint, as a proper plaint, in the absence of any evidence to show that there was fraud in putting the plant without a stamp"

A flaintiff who is unable to foy court-fees may continue it in forma payeris.—A plaintiff who is unable to pay the additional court-fees demanded of him may be allowed to prosecute his sunt in forma payeris, even if the suit has been registered and issues framed on the court-fees as originally paid, if the plaintiff is not otherwise prevented by the provisions of rule 8, Or 33 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Subbarao v Venkataratnam and others, 53 Mad 43: 1929 A IR 828 (Mad.). 30 LW. 637: 57 M L J. 677. Defence formå panherus—Although there is no provision in the Code of Civil Procedure, a Court has power to allow a defendant to defend in formå panheris—as the power to allow such a request is not taken away by the Code and the Court can exercise such power, Doorga Charan v Nittokally, ILR. 5 Cal 819-6 CL R 120

Review—When an application for review is presented in a suit in forma fauferis that application is not liable to any court in forma Bib v Nama Bib, 20 All 410 18 A WN 95 But in Punjab unless a petitioner has been declared a pauper in a previous stage of suit or appeal, he cannot file a review forma fauferis, Karom Knan v Bida Khan, 91 PR 1892.

Affeol formă fouțeris — See Or. XLIV, C. P. C. (Act. V. of 1908). Where the appeal was admitted and registered without objection by the opposite party and a deficiency in courftees was subsequently discovered, the appellant was allowed to make good the deficiency and it was held that the appeal was in time. Phirga Charan v. Dookhirani, 26 Cal. 925, Sevo. Dutt. v. The Collector of Labore, 144 P.W.R. 1909. Muhammad Farzand .lli v. Rahat .dh and others, 40 All. 381. 16 A. L. J. 309-45 I.C. 29. When an application for leave to appeal in formă pauferis is rejected the aspeal goes with it, the Court may under 5.149, C. P. C. allow or desallow time to put in the court-fees, Vertennes v. Raewon, 13 Ran. 50.

Cross-objection—See Or XLI, r 22 Proviso of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 An application for leave to file a petition of cross-objection in forma paiperss can be entertained under the Code of Civil Procedure, Gobinda Rom v Radha Ballabh, 12 C.L.J 173

Recovery of court-fees by Government in Pauper Suits,—The Government cannot attach and sell the decree itself in favour of the pauper plaintiff to realize the court-fees due to it. Sections 273 and 284 (Or. XXI, rr. 53 and 64) do not contemplate such a sale, Jatindra v. Dravika, 20 Cal 111.

An application for leave to file a suit forma pauperis was filed before the amendment of the Court Fees Act and leave was granted after the amended Act came into operation. The suit was decreed and on the question as to the amount of court-fees to be realized by Government, held that the plaint must be deemed to have been presented on the date the application for leave was presented, hence court-fees are payable on the old scale and not under the Amended Act, Kaman Toda and others w Malli and another, 49 ML I 538

Sec 35 of the Code of Civil Procedure is wide enough to enable a Court to order the payment to Government of court-fees in a suit in formâ pauferis as costs in the suit, although the Government may take the amount as revenue, Elumalais Naicker and another v. Kuppammal and others, 58 M.L.J. 623 1930 M.W.N. 289. 1931 A.I.R. 249 (Mad.): 53 Mad. 716: 31 L.W. 633: 128 I.C. 156: 1931 I.R. 12 (Mad.)

Precedence—See O XXXIII, r 10, C P C (Act V of 1908) and section 411, C P C (Act XIV of 1882), which have been construed to mean that "though it indicates the manner in which Crown may proceed to realize the debt (courtees), it does not preclude the Crown or its representative from urging its prerogative and insisting on its right to precedence over all other creditors," Gyonadabala v Butta Kristo, 33 Cal 1040 10 C W N 857 (861), The Collector of Krishna v Gajjala Sreeramamoorthy, 80 I C 935

Separate suit—Government need not bring a separate suit, but where the sale of a portion is subject to a mortagage, then the claim of the mortgage is superior to the claim of the Government as the property of the mortgagor is liable to pay courtees and not that of the mortgagor, Dost Mukammad v Mani Ram, 29 All 537: 27 All W N 157 4 A L J 720 See also Or 33, rule 13, C P C

Mode of Realization.—The Court is entitled to recover court-fees as a charge upon the property in possession of the successful plaintiff in a pauper suit, if its attempts to recover the same from the defendant personally fail. This may be done by an application in the proceeding under Or XXXIII, it ID and I3 and not by a separate suit, Babu Girija Krar vy Secretary of State, 4 Pat. I, 166. The Collector cannot sell

Pauber's claim admitted in part -Where the pauper plaintiff's claim was admitted in part by the defendant who offered to pay the part admitted to the plaintiff at any time he would ask for it, the High Court ordered that under the circumstances of the case, the subordinate judge should grant application of the plaintiff to sue as a pauper and at the same time issue an miunction on the plaintiff and the defendant not to take the admitted amount out of Court till such time as proper orders are passed with regard to court-fees after the termination of the suit, Provash Chandra Lahrry v The Chairman of the Municipal Commissioners of Howarh, 57 Cal 980 34 CW N 188 (191): 125 I C 102, 1930 A I R 147 (Cal) 1930 I R 486 (Cal)

Character of Claim by Government-It is a first charge (Order 33, rule 12) In a suit by wife claiming her dower debt against the mortgagee decree-holder of the properties of her husband, claiming priority over the mortgage, the wife obtained a money decree, and the Government claimed court-fees under section 411, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) as a first charge and sold the properties in auction, and the sale for realization took place first The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: The decree of 11th of May 1879 did not create or purport to ereate any charge on the mortgaged property in favour of the Government. The Government had no right to attach the property and sell it in execution under that decree, though of course, such interest, if any, as remained in the mortgagor from whom the court-fees were declared to be recoverable, might have been reached by a proper proceeding. The order for the first sale was, therefore, without jurisdiction, and the sale passed . Ragho Prasad and others

I'cloth Assenar, 25 Mad. 733: 12 M.I. J. 405. If there is nothing due to Government in court-fees an order for sale and a sale under that order is ultra vires and a pullity. Balwant v. Claim against purchaser of the decree in favour of the tauter .- A purchaser of the decree in favour of a pauper plaintiff takes the decree subject to the charge in favour of Government under Order 33, rule 10 as to court-fees only and is not liable for the fees due to the Government Pleader, Secretary of State v. Shiva Dutt, 147 I.C. 751: 1934 A.I.R. 438 (All.)

Appeal by Government—In case of an adverse order in realization of court-fees, the Government can appeal to a higher Court under section 47, C P C as if the Government was a party to the suit, see Order XXXIII, r. 11, C P C This rule sets at rest the difference of opinion of several High Courts as to the power of Government to file an appeal against an adverse order.

When the Government cannot claim the court-fees and costs—Where no enquiry was made as to the paiperism of a minor plaintiff who was not properly represented by a next frend, no costs would be given against the estate of the minor and if passed, the order is ultra vires and illegal, Amirchand v Collector of Sholapir, 13 Bom 234

Compromise of suit - The word "fails" in section 412, C P C (Or XXXIII, r 11) applies only to the cases of adjudicated failure; therefore the party who compromises suit without trial is not liable to pay court-fees, The Collector of Kanara v Krishnappa, 15 Bom 77 See also Bai Chandaba and another v. Kuver Saheb, 18 Bom 464 But these authorities were modified by a Full Bench of the Bombay High Court in the case of Sceretary of State v Bhagirathi Bai, 31 Bom 10: 8 Bom LR 689, where the plaintiff was ordered to pay court-fees when he withdrew his suit without leave as the result of compromise, see also Balwant Singh v Rochan Singh, 18 All 253 (255), Reference under Court Fees Act, 4 M L J 98 A suit in forma pauperis for possession of a morety of a house by a widow against her co-widow was compromised by a decree for maintenance of Rs 8 a month which was made a charge upon the house The Government then applied for realisation of court-fees by appointing a receiver to collect the maintenance The High Court held that as the amount of maintenance is not attachable a receiver could not be appointed and refused the prayer, Secy of State for India v Bai Sonm, 57 Bom 507 35 Bom L R 615 146 IC. 340 · 1933 AIR (Bom ) 350, see also Secy of State v Sarvetalli Venkata Lakshmanna, 49 Mad 567

See also Secretary of State v Bhagirath Bai, 31 Bom. 10: 8 Bom LR 659 The word 'withdrawn' has been added by Act V of 1908

Dismissal of Suit by Pauper without trial -A plaintiff who Abdul Karim and others, 12 Mad. 113: 8 M.L.J. 4; The Collector of Trichinopoly v. Swaramakrishna, 23 Mad. 73: 9 M.L.J. 265. See contra—The Collector of Canara v. Krishnappa, 15 Bom. 77.

Return of Paufer Plaint—Where the plaint was returned to be presented to proper Court and the Court ordering the return ordered the plaintiff to pay court-fees, the High Court in revision set aside that order, Collector of Rainagni v.

Janardan, 6 Bom 590

Portion of plaintiff's claim allowed—Where in a suit brought in formé pauperu, the suit was partly decreed and partly dismissed and the trial Court ordered in awarding costs against defendant, that the defendant should pay the entire amount of court-fees payable on the plaint, held that court-fees payable on the plaint should have been apportioned between the plaintiff and the defendant in accordance with their respective success, Chandrareka v Secretary of State, 14 Mad 163 followed in Ganga v Mussi Goura, 38 All 469 14 A L J 657 35 Ind. Where the claim of the plaintiff who was allowed to sue in forma pauperis succeeded as to part, then the defendant is liable only for the court-fees proportionate to that and the rest being payable by the plaintiff. Where the plaintiff claimed maintenance and the defendant totally dented the right to claim maintenance but the Court decreed the suit partially and ordered the defendant to pay the court-fees entirely, held that the discretion of the Court as regards the order as to court-fees has been rightly excressed in view of the fact that the defendant had denied the right entirely, Rohini Kumar Pal v. Knsum Kamini Pal, 32 CWN 48: 105 LC 725

Power of Collector—The Collector of a district may, on sufficient grounds, remit the court-fees recoverable by Government from any party, after judgment, B G R No 3945, dated 14th September, 1877.

Payment of court-fees after limitation in Pauper Suits.— The plaintiff filed an appeal in formd pauperis in time, valuing his appeal at Rs. 2,500 instead of Rs. 230 on which he paid court-fees in the trial Court and the District Judge directed the Sub-Judge to enquire into pauperism and held that the value is the correct value and the plaintiff paid the court-fees within time allowed. The High Court held that the appeal is not time-barred, Bai Ful v. Desai Manorbha, 22 Bom. 849 (856)

An application for leave to sue forma patheris accompanying an unstamped memorandum of appeal, filed in time, was rejected by the District Court within the K'mas vacation. On the re-opening day of the District Court, the appellants applied for and obtained leave of Court to pay the requisite court-fees within three weeks, and paid the court-fees within that time, held that the appeal was in time and must be deemed to have been filed on the original date of filing, and that the rejection of application to present the appeal forma patheris does not lead to a dismissal of appeal and that the appellate Court has power under sections 148 and 149, C. There can be no objection to a petition to sue in forma pauperis, which has not been granted, being registered as a plaint in the suit on full fees being paid. The suit ought not to be dismissed for non-payment of costs incurred by Government in opposing the petition, when no demand for its payment was made at any time either on behalf of Government or by Court, although payment of such costs is a condition precedent under section 413 of the Code of Civil Procedure, (Act XIV of 1882), Mrinalini Devi v Tinkouri, 16 CW N 641: 14 Ind Cas 297 See contra—Aubhaya Charan v Bisseswari, 24 Cal 889, where it was held that when an application for permission to sue forma pauperis is rejected and a full court-fee is paid for the same relief, the suit for the purpose of limitation, must be deemed to have been instituted when the full court-fee was paid and not at the date of presentation of petition for permission to sue in formá fauteris. grades of Courts is the actual value of the property in litigation, Aukhil Chunder v. Mahiny Mohan, 5 Cal 489. 4 C.L. R. 491. See also Kirty Churn v. Aunath Nath, 8 Cal 757. 11 C.L. R. 95.

In those class of cases where, for example, the class of suits indicated in section 7, paragraph xi of the Court Fees Act, the Court Fes Act itself enacts the method of calculation of court-fees, then according to section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the artificial value is to govern the valuation for utrisdiction This is only where there is conflict with the provisions of the Court Fees Act and the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act. In Sailendra v Ram Charan. 25 CW.N. "The procedure 768 34 CL I 94, the High Court said to be adopted in cases of this character is obvious, first, value the suit for payment of court-fees in accordance with the rule embodied in section 7, sub-section (x), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act; then adopt the valuation so determined for the purpose of court-fees, as the value for purposes of suris-See also Harr Sanker and others v Kali Kumar. 32 Cal, 734 9 CWN 690, Bas Varunda Lakshim v Bas Manigavri, 18 Bom 207; Velu Goundan v Kumara Velu, 20 Mad 289 According to the above criterion, when it happens that the suit is not instituted in the Court of lowest grade competent to try it, section 11 of the Suits Valuation Ac saves the litigant, Sailendra v Ram Charan, 25 CWN 768 34 CL I 94 (96): Nildhi Lal v Magha, 7 All 230; Matra Mandal v Hari, 17 Cal 155 But in Nanak v Guranditta, 63 PR 1902, it was held that section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act so far governs section 7 of the Court Fees Act as to indicate that it was not the intention of the Legislature that a plaintiff would be able to put an arbitrary value on the suit, and therefore in a suit for injunction without damages, the court-fees payable is on the valuation for jurisdiction within the limits of the rules under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act

The Court Fees Act is not to be resorted to for the purpose of the valuation of the subject-matter of suus. Dayachand v Hemchand, 4 Bom 515, Rupchand v Valvant Narayan, 11 Bom 511; Amrita v. Naru, 13 Bom 489; Bai Meher v. Magan Chand, 29 Bom 96. But this can only his Meher v. Magan Chand, 29 Bom 96. But this can only his per where the provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act do not require the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and valuation for the purpose of court-fees, to be identical. The plaint alone is to be considered and not subsequent circumstances in the valuation of a suit, Rayabala Dassi v. Radhicacharan, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I. R. 969 (Cal.): 79 IC. 982

court-fees confer jurisdiction on another Court, Gopala Menon v. K. V. Raman Menan, 1932 M W.N. 53

Where there is no basis for valuation.—Where there is no basis for a valuation the plaintiff may make an imaginary valuation but he must pay court-fees on such valuation as the Court may subsequently make The valuation by the plaintiff must be reasonable, Dipchand Dovolatram v Firm of Permanand Chimandas, 79 1 C 582 (Sind) 1924 At R. 144 (Sind)

Different Valuations.—If different valuations are made one for the purpose of jurisdiction and the other for the purpose of court-fees, the planntf should at once be called upon either to amend the valuation so as to bring the case within the special jurisdiction or take back the plannt to be presented to proper Court, but if the defendant did not naise any objection at trial and the Court proceeded to judgment then no objection can be raised at a later stage, Balkrishna Narayan v Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331 22 Bom L R 239 57 1 C 340

The plaintift is not entitled to put a higher valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees (where these should be the same), Jogeshra v Durga Prasad, 36 All 500 12 ALJ 844, 24 IC 679; Manin Lal v Radhey Gopalji, 47 All 501: 23 ALJ 344: 1925 AlR 602 ((All): 87 IC 190

The plaintift is not entitled to put a higher valuation on the plaint for the purpose of jurisdiction and thereby obtain an adjudication from a superior Court, and cannot make a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees in cases where such values should be equal, Kondhaiya Opha v Musst Jagrani Kuar, 46 All 419 22 A L J 349: 79 I C 358, Sriram v. Under sec 8 of the Suts Valuation Act, the plaintiff is debarred from putting one valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and another for the purpose of court-fees, Raykristo Dey v. Berin Behary, 16 C.L.J 194-40 Cal. 245. See also the judgment of Rankin C.J in Kali Pada Mookherjee v. Basawia Kumar Dutt and others, 58 Cal 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal)

Note.—When a suit is separately valued, the court-fees are generally paid in this way, riz, ad rulorem court-fees on a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees plus a court-fee as on a suit for declaration, but the party omits to consider that a court-fee as on a declaration can be paid only when the suit is one for a declaration without consequential relief under Art. 17, Seb. II of the Court Fees Act, and if there be a consequential relief, then the suit is one for declaration with consequential relief.

Conflict of section 7 of the Court Fees Act with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act—In case of conflict of section 7 of the Court Fees Act with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, "the right construction of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act is that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should, in the cases mentioned there, follow and be the same as the valuation for court-fees," Sailendra v. Ram Charan, 34 C.L.J. 94; 25 C.W.N. 768 See other cases under sec 7 (iv) (c), mfra.

The valuation of a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief must not be arbitrary and in case of a dispute as to valuation the Court is to determine the value, Kalicharan v. Shixshankar, 79 I C 113 1924 A I R 295 (Nag) See also Bara Mal. v. Tulsi Ram, 9 Lah 366. 9 L L J 579. 29 Punj. L.R 27: 107 I C 609 1927 A I R 890 (Lah)

The plaintiff cannot put an arbitrary value upon the relief he claims but is bound to assess at the market value of the interest he claims, Kattiya Pillai and athers v. Ramesicami Pillai (insane), by his wife etc., 56 M.L. J., 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286 29 L.W. 584: 1929 A.R. 396 (M)

A valuation cannot be accepted if it appears on the face of it not to be a reasonable valuation, Jogendra Nath Singh v. Radha Prasad, 13 P.L.T. 590: 140 I.C. 817: 1932 A.I.R. 319 (Patna), Ramcharitar Pandey v Basgu Ray, 11 Patna 161: 1932 A.I.R. 9 (Patna); 12 P.L.T. 656: 1931 IR. 399 (Patna): 133 I.C. 687; Nadir Khau Abdullah Khau v. Firm of the Cox's and King's Shipping Agengy Ltd, 25 S.L.R. 15: 130 I.C. 445. 1931 A.I.R. 15 (Sind); Maung Nac and another v. Maung Kha Pu, 142 I.C. 705: 1933 A.I.R. 40 (Ran.)

But in suits for acounts and mesne profits an approximate value is to be given, see Or. 7, r. 2, C. P. C., and see also Manohar v. Bawa, 2 Bom. 219; Gulab v. Abdul, 21 Cal. 365.

Power of Court to revise the valuation.—The Court can revise the valuation if it is capricous and arbitrary See Umatul v. Musst. Nauji, 11 C.W.N. 705: 6 C.L. J. 427 where the Calcutta High Court held that "it is not only within the power of the Court but it is also its duty to take action under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) if it established that the valuation is improper." See Balwant Rai v. Bhima Sankar, 13 Bom 57.

The provisions of the Court Fees Act are controlled by the provisions of Or. 7, Rule 1 (2) and Rule 11, C1. (b), C. P. C. and when the Court finds that the relief has been valued arbitrarily or improperly, the Court can compel the plaintiff to revise the valuation and pay the court-fees theron, Shirondas Matumal v. Hariran and another, 1933 A.I.R. 322 (Sind): 27 S.I.R. 335: 147 I.C. 251. A Court may in a suit for declaration with consequential relief revise the valuation if it be arbitrary, but such revision by Court should be based on evidence, Ramchariter Pandey v. Baspit Roy, 11 Fatna 161: 12 P.I.T. 656: 133 1 C. 687: 1932 A.I.R. 9 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 339 (Patna).

But according to Madras High Court such power is limited to cases mentioned in section 9. The Madras High Court said that "the trial Court cannot refuse to accept the valuation made by the plaintiff under the sanction of verification the amount at which he values the relief sought," nor can it revise it "a power which is limited to cases provided for by section 9 which relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the annual nett profits of the land or the market value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraphs v and vi...... Section 9 provides inter alia that it is competent to the High Court with the previous sanction of the Local Government to frame rules for the valuation of suits referred to in paragraph iv of section 7 of the Act and for determining the jurisdiction of the Court and until such a rule is framed the valuation given by the plaintiff cannot be revised, Channammal v Madarsa, 27 Mad. 480: 14 M L J. 343 See also Samiya v Minammal, 23 Mad 490: 10 M L J. 240; Guruvajayamma v Venkata Krishnamma, 25 Mad 34

But see Krishna Mallar v The Secretary of State for India, 1914 MWN 767 where the Madras High Court held that a party cannot make different valuations

Sec. 151, C. P. C.

Where a plaintiff puts an absurd overvaluation in order to have the suit fixed by a particular Court that Court can interfere with the valuation so made under s 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Rajendra Bakhsh Singh v Misst. Bahu Rani, 107 1C 330 1928 A 1R 260 (Oudh)

In Narayangan; Co-operative Society Ltd., v Mafficuldin Ahmad, 61 Cal 798 38 CW,N 589: 59 CLJ. 233. 149 I.C 3: 1934 AIR 448 (Cal.) FB, the Calcutta High Court held that though Or 7, r 11 which in its clause (b) gives the Courts power in a case of undervaluation of a relief to require the plaintiff to correct the valuation given by him in his plaint and to reject the plaint in case the plaintiff fails to do so, appears in a procedural code, while nothing as to such correction is stated in the taxing statute itself, namely, the Court Fees Act, yet the two enactments have to be read together and simultaneously given effect to when there is nothing in either enactment expressly indicating any contrary intention Sub-section (iv) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act should be read as controlled by Or 7, r. 11 (b) of the C. P Code, but until standards are laid down by appropriate rules framed under s 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, it would not be possible for the Courts to exercise this power except in those classes of cases falling under the clause in which the valuation made by the plaintiff is illegal, palpably absurd, manifestly illogical or arithmetically wrong.

Note.—The Court has power to revise the valuation by the plaintiff in spite of the provisions of the Court Fees Act, under Rules 10 and 11 of Order 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 Sec 7 is within Chapter III of the Court Fees Act. so also is sec 12 of the Court Fees Act and under sec 12 of the Court Fees Act the Court has power to investigate and revise the valuation An appeal Court may revise the valuation made by the trial Court when the question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue. In this connection it is desirable to compare the provisions of sec 7, paragraph iv of the Court Fees Act which enacts that court-fees are to be paid "according to the amount at which the relief sought is valid in the plaint or memorandum of appeal." See also sec 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, where the words are "the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same" The words "as determinable" obviously mean as determinable by Court, the final authority in all disputes between the parties (31 Bom 73) The Court Fees (Bengal Amendment) Act VII of 1935 has given the Court express powers to revise the valuation.

Allegations by the plaintiff are to be considered and not the statements by the deft, in the W S.—The valuation, generally, is the valuation by the plaintiff; the plaint only is to be taken into consideration and not the statements by the defendant in the written statement. "The Court has got to look at and see in each particular case what is the nature of the relief claimed and, for that purpose, it must look at the allegations that are contained in the plaint," Bagola Sundari v Prasanna, 21 C W N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas 797; Manghemmal v. Tolaram, 6 S L R 72: 16 Ind Cas 797; For the purposes of stamp duty the cause of action which is stated in the plaint, and that only, must be looked at, Malendra Chandra Ganguli v. Ashutash Ganguli, 20 Cal. 762; Rajabala v Radhika, 40 C L J. 150: 1924 A I.R 969 (Cal.); Zimatunnessa v. Girindra, 30 Cal 788; Tulsi Bibi v. Furokh Bibi and others, 60 C L J. 137.

C. 129: 1926 A.L.R. 678 (Mad.), where it was held that for the purpose of ascertaining the court-fee payable, the Court must have regard to the allegations in the plaint. It is not material whether these have been denied or not in the written statement. See also Chingacham Vith Saukaran v. Chingacham Vith Gaukaran v. Ram Jutar, 1934 A I R 150 (Lah) 149 I C 982 (20)

Where the plaintiff claims arrears of maintenance only but no declaration as to future right to maintenance, then the courtfee is payable under sec 7 (i) and not under sec 7 (ii) of the Court Fees Act, Missis tharron Dei v. Sewek Lad, 107 I C 552.

1927 AIR. 623 (Oudh).

Claim for Cesses—The court-fees on a plaint claiming an ascertained sun of money as cesses are to be assessed under s 7, paragraph and not under s 7 paragraph w. cl. (f) of the Court Fees Act, Philarband Coal Co x Burrakar Coal Company, 11 P1.T 629: 128 I C 795. 1930 A I R 605 (Patna) 1931 I R 9) (Patna) See also Butto Krishna Roy v The Burraker Coal Co, 10 Patna 458, where it was held that the valuation would be the claim as given in the plaint and the valuation of the appeal whether it be considered as a claim for ascertained amount or for an account, should be the amount of the claim as given in the plaint.

Judge on appeal On further appeal the High Court held that the position of the plaintiff could not be affected by any action taken by the defendants after the suit has been filed and therefore, there neither was nor could have been any omission within the meaning of s 42 of the Specific Rehet Act, the plaintiffs being as a matter of fact in possession at the date of the institution of the suit, Surjan Singh v Baldeo Prosad, 1900 All W.N. 172.

Where the right disclosed by the plaint was a right to see for a mere declaration of title which has ceased upon the death of the vidow after the filing of the suit and is replaced by a right to sue for possession an amendment would substantially after the nature of the suit and rest on an event which did not occur until the suit has been instituted and been dealt with by the Court of first instance. The amendment was refused and the High Court ordered the suit to be tried as it originally stood, Gavinda v., Persindevi, 12 Mad 136 (138).

The remedy to be granted to the plaintiff should be confined to the cause of action with which he comes into Court. The events that transpire since will not enable him either to add to his reliefs nor will they cut down the rights, G Narayanswamy Nadu v Kamru Ramayya, 1914 M W N 870: 16 M L T. 244: 26 I C 475

Where the mortgagee-planniff brought a suit on the mortgage and obtained a decree and advertised the properties for sale in execution, the defendants, who were brothers of the mortgagor claimed an interest in the mortgaged properties. The mortgagor claimed has the claims of the defendants to be also notified in the sale proclamation. The planniff brought a suit for declaration that the properties in mortgage belonged exclusively to the mortgagor (and then in execution purchased the properties limiself and took possession). The trial Court decreed the suit. Upon appeal the District Judge held that as the mortgage had purchased the property himself in auction the declaration cannot be made. Held on appeal by the High Court, that the District Judge was wrong. "The change of circumstances brought about by the plaintiff himself in purchasing the property did not take away the right to one already accrued to him, Wamanrao Damodar v. Rustomji Idalji, 21 Bom. 701 (703).

Exception—"A Court may take notice of events which have happened since the institution of the suit and afford relief to the parties on the basis of altered conditions. This doctrine is of an exceptional character and is implied in cases where it is shown that the original relief claimed has by reason of subsequent change of circumstances become inappropriate, or, that it is necessary to base the decision of the Court on the closure, held, that the court-fees leviable in respect of the claim is under paragraph 1 of section 7, and section 11 of the Act as regards the claim for use and occupation, Chedi Lal v Kirath, 2 All 682.

Instalment Bond —In case of Instalment Bonds the courtfee payable is on the amount claimed and not on the whole bond, Sutto Bhama v Jameeruddi, 4 WR SCC 12.

(See other cases under Sch I, Art. 1 infra)

Interest—No additional stamp is required on account of the claim for interest from mutuation of suit until payment. It stands on the same footing as future mesne profits which do not fall under section 7 of the Court Fees Act, Vithal Hari v Gorund Basdeo, 17 Bom 41 But Court Fees are to be paid on past interest claimed in suit. See also under "interest" under Art. I, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act.

Mesue Profits—In a suit for Washidit (mesne profits) only the court-fee payable is to be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint, Kadir Boksh v Wise, Marsh, 165. 1 Hay 370. When a suit for declaration of title and possession with mesne profits is decreed and the amount of mesne profits is directed to be ascertained in execution held, on an appeal by the defendant, that the menorandum of appeal should bear court-fee stamp upon the amount of the mesne profits claimed antecedent to suit. The case is governed by section 7, sub-section (1), Bunwan Lal v Daya Sawkar, 13 CW 815. 1 Ind Cas 670.

For other cases see under section 11 of the Court Fees Act Money—According to section 7, clause (1) of the Court Fees Act, the fees payable in a suit for money must be according to the amount claimed. Where the plannift sued for recovery of Rs. 1,123-40 alleged to be due to him, after deducting a sum of Rs. 2500 (said to be due by him to the defendant on account of the price of certain goods) from Rs. 3,623-4.0 which he assessed as the amount of damages suffered by him by reason of the defendant's failure to perform certain contracts entered into between the parties, held that the count-fees paid ad valorem on the amount actually claimed are sufficient, Qyani Uddin's Delhi Flour Mills Company, 47 Ind Cas. 992 175 PWR 1918.

But a suit for recovery of purchase price is a suit for specific performance. Bhasya Karlu v Andolammal, (1918) M.W N 896

Mortgages—In suits for sale the court-fees payable are to be computed on the principal plus interest up to the date of suit, Nama Bin V. Hari Bin, 7 Bom I. R. 194 If the suit be against the heir of the mortgager and also for sale not only of the mortgaged properties but also of other properties of the mortgaged in the name of the heir, the suit is for money and it.

be valued at the entire amount claimed plus interest and courffees calculated ad valorem on that basis, Kashinath v. Ganțatreo, 18 Bom 696 When the plantiff sued for sale on a mortgage but the trial Court passed a decree not only on the mortgage but also on two other prior mortgages for which rehef was not asked for, and no provision made in the decree for the sale of the property to satisfy these debts, if paid, held on appeal, that no court-fees are payable in respect of the additional rehef granted in the decree which the High Court amended and the High Court expressed an opinion that the appellant will be able to obtain a return of the additional court-fees which they have been required to pay, Inder Sen v. Rikhai Singh, 30 All 103 (1908) 28 A W N 31: 5 All L. J. 18

The plant in a suit for sale on a mortgage-bond requires ad vulorem court-fees, to such a suit clauses v, vi, ix and x of s 7 are not applicable, Soilendra Nath Polit v, Haricharan Sadhukhan, 58 Cal 829, 52 C.L.J. 589: 130 I.C. 876: 1931

A mortgagee who is one of the several mortgagees interested in a mortgage can sue for his share of the mortgage money by framing a suit to relate to the whole of the mortgaged property and in such a suit it is enough that he pays court-fees for his share of mortgage money only, s. 67 (4) of the T. P. Act does not prohibit such a suit, Banisiam Jashindi V. Gunini Naga Jiyar, 59 M L J 928, 32 L W. 901; 129 I.C. 45; 1930 A I.R. 985 (Mad) 1931 IR 189 (M.).

65 (Mad ) 1951 1 K 189 (M.).

Secural mortgages—When the mortgage sues on several mortgages executed by the same mortgager charging the same properties, the court-fee is payable on the total value of the principal sums payable under the deeds and section 12 of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Thakur Javahir Singh v. Thakur Balvant Singh, 7 O.C. 152; Thakur Javahir Singh v. Baldeo Prosad, 11 O.C. 173 See cases under s. 17, mfra

If a plaintiff has two mortgages on the same property but sues for money due on the later mortgage and asks for a declaration as to the 1st mortgage then court-fees ad railorem will have to be paid on the amount due on the 2nd mortgage plus fees as on a sunt for a declaration on the 1st mortgage, Israen Daval v. Juna Saheb and others, 1935 A. I. J. 168: 1934 All L. R. 1055: 152 I. C. 814: 1935 A. I.R. 100 (All ).

Rent.—Rent is not a sum payable periodically and does not come under paragraph II, Koli Charan v. Maharaja Bahadur Keshav Prosad Singh, 4 Pat L J. 561: 51 I.C. 15

Suit for declaration of title and injunction and rent—In Perumal v Natumal, 6 SLR, 144: 17 Ind. Cas. 44, it was held that a sunt for rent and declaration of title is a suit based on distinct causes of action and so far as the suit relates to rent it is a suit for money and comes under paragraph I of section 7 of the Court Fees Act

Valuation.—The valuation of a plaint in which money decree is claimed, its based on the actual sum claimed after allowing for deductions, such as sums expressly set off in the plaint, D. S. Abraham & Co. v. Ebrahim, 2. Rang. 462: 1925. A.I.R. 65 (R.): 84.I.C. 971

Note.—As to construction of the words "other sums payable periodically" see the cases cited under paragraph II below. The words mean that the claim must be of the nature specified in the paragraph

The distinction between paragraph I and paragraph II of this section is that while the cases referred to in paragraph II are claims for ascertaned sums of money although these may have to be paid periodically the right to which have been estabhished, the cases referred to in paragraph II refer to amounts payable periodically the right to which as to amount payable or otherwise remain to be established.

The period of ten years has been fixed as period for assessment of court-fees for which the liability to pay the maintenance is indeterminate as these continue during the life time of the recipient

PARAGRAPH II.

Construction.

Other sums payable pernodically—The words "other sums payable penodically" in this sub-section must be construed as implying sum payable of the nature of maintenance and amulties upon the rule of pissdem generis, Koli Charan v Kesho Prasad Smah, 4 PLJ 561: 51 IC. 15: Dhanukdhari Teteari v Main Souar, 6 Pat 17: 8 PLT 366: 100 Ind Cas, 913: 1927 A1R 123 (Patha), but in Charusila Dasi v. Muzaffar Shethh, 55 CLJ, 303 (310) rent was held to be an item payable periodically

Future right to an annuity—Where the plaintif sued for arrears of annuity plus future annuity at a certain amount per month, held that the court-fee on arrears was ad talorem on the claim, as for the future annuity the court-fee payable is to be calculated on ten times the amount annually payable. Garya Bat v Har Kuar, 6 A W.N. 228 (1886), where it was also held that excess court-fee paid in the trial Court may be allowed to be credited in favour of the party in appeal Court. See also Marsinhacharya v. Sami Rayacharya, 8 Bom H. C. A A. 55.

Anunity-arrears —Where a plaintiff prays for a declaration of right to receive a periodical payment and also asks for arrears of the sum so payable, court-fees should be calculated under section 7 (ii) of the Court Fees Act, on ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year in respect of the periodical payment plus ad valorem court-fees on the amount claimed as arrears, Shahzadt Begum v Mahbub Ali, 42 All 353 · 18 A.L.J. 328 · 55 Ind Cas 809

Profits of Inan lands—The court-fees on the memorandum of appeal in a suit for a declaration that under an express agreement, the plaintiff is entitled to a share of the net income of certain Inam lands, must be calculated under section 7, paragraph II, *e ten times the average annual profits may be taken to be the value of the relief in respect of future mesne profits, Fakirblan v. Sorabji, P. J. 1883 p. 205

Future emoluments attached to an office-Where the plaintiff valued his claim for payment annually of emoluments attached to a certain office at ten times the annual value, the Subordinate Judge held that the valuation cannot be made under this paragraph as the right to the emoluments is conditional on performance of service and is not a sum payable periodically and returned the plaint to be presented to proper Court This order was upheld by the High Court, Krishna v. Ravi Varma, 8 Mad. 384 But see the case of Garijanund v Sailajanand, 23 Cal. 645 (651) where it was held that an appeal, the subject-matter of which was declaration that surplus charao (offerings to Daily anathy) is payable to the plaintiff by the successor-in-office, was rightly stamped with a Court-fee of rupees ten under clause in, Act 17, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. The plaintiff brought a suit for the office of the sheek and to certain properties attached thereto and prayed for a declaration that the defendant had no right to the office and the properties in dispute as well as for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the property or doing anything in any way inconsistent with the right of the plaintiff. It appeared that the defendant was in possession of most of the properties The High Court held that the suit is not maintainable without a prayer for possession and the plaintiff was allowed to pay additional court-fees and amend the plaint, Abdul Kadar v. Mahomed, 15 Mad 15

Maintenance—Where the plaintiff brought a suit on the ground that according to the terms of the sale-deed executed by her in favour of the defendants, she and her descendants are entitled to a monthly sum of Rs. 100 from the defendants and the reliefs prayed for were (a) it may be declared as against the defendants that the plaintiff and her descendants generation alter generation are entitled to receive from the defendants and their representatives maintenance which is to be a charge on the property mentioned in Schedule A; (b) a decree awarding

Rs 1,800 on account of monthly allowance at the rate of Rs 100 per months for 18 months may be passed, held, that the prayer in respect of (a) being a claim for declaration of right to a sum periodically payable comes under section 7, claus (ii) of the Court Fees Act, and court-fee is to be paid on ten times the amount claimed as payable for one year, Shahaadi Begum v Mahbub Ali, 42 Ali 356: 18 A.I. J 328: 55 Ind Cas. 809. Musst Udobai v Ram Autar, 1934 A.I. R. 130 (Lah.): Musst Jaglaram Kuer v Musst Munda Kuer, 150 I.C. 378. 1934 A.I. R. 240 (Patna)

A sunt by the flauntiff—an illiterate woman—that she is entutled to a maintenance of Rs 150 a year and for amending the document purporting to have been executed by her, whereby she is alleged to have relinquished all her interests in the disputed property for Rs 150 only, is a sunt for declaration with a consequential relief under section 37 of the Specific Relief Act. The valuation is to be made under section 7 (ii), although the suit is not under that paragraph, Musst Bari Bahu v. Kundan Singh, 71 Ind Cas 31: 1922 A 1 R 264 (Nagopre).

If a plaintiff, who was residing on a plot of land the proceeds of which went towards her maintenance under a family arrangement, sues for a declaration that she has a right to continue to receive the same and also prays for an injunction to restrain the defendants from bringing the property to sale in execution of a decree, the suit falls under s. 7, iv (c) and not under s. 7, paragraph 11 of the Court Fees Act, Hanifbai v Tulsidas, 123 1 C 240 1930 AIR 198 (S): 1930 IR 96 (S)

Stat to declare that fayment of maintenance is wrongful— Where the plantuff alleged that the payment of maintenance to defendant No 1 is illegal and wrongful, held, he must also ask for an injunction, and amend his plant which was allowed, Sardar Singh v Ganpat, 14 Bom 395

Valuation.—The valuation of a suit for maintenance and arrears of maintenance with an additional claim to set aside an order dismissing a claim petition, for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the arrears in claim plus the value of the claim petition under s 12 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act does not apply, Janaki Amma v. Uma and others, 1935 A 1R 219 (2) (Mad)

PARAGRAPH III.

A suit for declaration of plaintiff's right over certain moveable property in the possession of the plaintiff, but which are attached in execution of a decree and for setting aside an order refusing a claim thereto can be brought on a stamp of Rs. 30 and need not be stamped according to value of the property attached, Gulzari Mal v. Jadaun Rai, 2 All. 63.

PARAGRAPH IV. (a).

Suit to recover bonds—Comes under this clause, Nero v. Ramabai, 1894 P.J. p. 145, and should be valued at the amount payable under the bond, Chet Singh v. Mul Singh, 10 P.R. 1871.

Suit to recover title deeds.—A suit to recover title deeds is not a suit to obtain possession of land or to deal in any way with the land itself within the meaning of section 12 of the Letters Patent, Juggernath v Biraj Nath, 4 Cal. 322, 3 C.I. R. 375.

A suit to have a sale deed executed and completed or for recovery of the sale deed, is a suit for Specific Performance of a contract. Faguir Chand v. Rain Dutt, 1924 A.I. R. 439 (L.).

(See under specific performance infra )

A suit to recover pronotes standing in the name of the defendant on the allegation that they are really plaintiff's property, but not for the money due under them comes under s 7 iv (a) and not under s 7 (iii) of the Court Fees Act therefore courtees are payable ad valorem on the plaintiff's valuation, Venkata Rao v Sesharattama, (1934) 58 Mad 228: 67 M L J 680: 40 L W 709 1934 M W N 1321: 152 I C 756 1934 A.I.R. 730 (Mad)

Where there is no ouster by the defendant of the plaintiffs from the joint possession of the joint family property, section 7 (iv) (b) applies to the case. The proper test to see whether section 7, iv (b) applies will be whether if the plaint state of affairs continued for 12 years the plaintiff would be barred from suit. Where the plaint is on the footing that the right to a share exists admittedly and has never been denied and the plaintiff is merely suing to enforce that right to share, a mere statement by the plaintiff in an affidavit filed more than a year after the institution of the suit that he is out of enjoyment of the profits does not affect the question—P M Rannakrishna Iyer v. In Sindh the value is the value of the share claimed, Wadhumal v. Chellumal, 6 S.L.R. 250: 19 Ind Cas. 879.

SEC. 7, PARAGRAPH IV (c).

Scope.—"A suit in which the plaintiff in terms prays for a declaratory decree with consequential relief prima facie comes within clause (4), sub-clause (c) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, but if at the same time it comes within any of the other classes of suits specified in the section, it must be treated as a suit of that description and dealt with accordingly."

The Full Bench further held that a suit for a declaration that an instrument of mortgage or sale executed by the plaintiff or a decree that has been passed against the plaintiff for a debt is not binding on him although a mere declaration may be prayed for, is none the less a suit for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, Arunachalam Chetty and another v. Rangasawmy Pillai, FB 38 Mad 922: 28 M L.J 118: 1915 M W.N. 118: 28 I C 79

History of Declaratory Suits is discussed in Deokali Koer v Kedar Nath, 39 Cal 704: 16 CW N. 838: 15 Ind. Cas. But section 42 of the Specific Relief Act is not exhaustive, Robert Rischer v Secretary of State for India in Council, 22 Mad 410 PC; Veerama Chaneni v Soma Pitchayya, 43 Mad 410 (1920) MWN 393. 58 IC 585.

The proviso to s 42 of the Specific Relief Act (Act I of 1877) is as follows.—

"Provided that no Court shall make any such declaration where the plaintiff being able to seek a further relief than a mere declaration omits to do so"

N.B .- This clause deals with declaratory decree where consequential relief has been prayed for. Both are to be taken together and not separately.

Consequential relief.—Means a substantial and immediate redemy in accordance with the title which the Court has been asked to declare, Meerza Hyder v. Hussain Reza, 24 Ind. Cas. 316 1 LW 398

The expression 'consequential relief' in sec 7 iv (c) means some relief which would follow directly from the declaration given, the valuation of which is not capable to being definitely ascertained and which is not specifically provided for anywhere in the Act and cannot be claimed independently of the declaration as a substantive relief, Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, (1932) 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L. J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.): 139 I.C. 32 F.B. See also Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Tan, 9 Rang, 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A I R 319 (R).

Whether the plaintiff must ask for a consequential relief in a suit for declaration depends upon the circumstances of each case. Umarrannessa Bibi v. Janurannessa Bibi and others, 37 CL J 449.

Where the plaintiff frames his suit as one for declaration only when he should have asked for a consequential relicf, the Court cannot insist on his adding a prayer for consequential relief and on his paying court-fees on that basis. Tekait Thokur Narayan Singh v Nawab Saiyid Dildar Ali, 2 Pat, 915: 1927 A I.R. 210 (P.): 80 I.C. 544: 6 Pat.L.T. 191. See also Man

Muhammad Fahimul Huq v Jagat Ballav Ghose, (1922) 2 Patna 391.

 $\begin{tabular}{ll} \textbf{Note.} $-$It is not possible to enumerate all the consequential reliefs that may be asked & I have attempted to treat them at length in the following pages \\ \end{tabular}$

Generally they are removal of an attachment; confirmation of possession, cancellation of a document, suits to declare agreements and documents as not binding, a suit for a declaration coupled with an injunction, assessment of fair rent; the declaration that a record of inplits is null and void, suits for declaration that decrees whether based on mortgage or not is not binding; suits to set aside decrees on compromise, under certain circumstances a claim for possession, cancellation of a previous deed of partition whether based on fraud or not; a suit by a minor under cetain circumstances, suit to set aside a sale under the Putin Regulation, restitution of conjugal rights; removal of a trustee, sint to set aside a deed creating trust, etc

The principle of assessment in a suit for declaration with consequential relief.—The principle of assessment of courtfee is that where a plaintiff asks for a declaration with a consequential relief, he is bound to pay an ad valorem fee proportional to the level, Pandat Brij Krishna

Note.—It is not possible to enumerate all the consequential rchefs that may be asked —I have attempted to treat them at length in the following pages.

Generally they are removal of an attachment; confirmation spessesson, cancellation of a document; suits to declare agreements and documents as not binding; a suit for a declaration coupled with an injunction, assessment of fair rent; the declaration that accord of inghts is null and void; suits for declaration that decrees whether based on mortgage or not is not binding; suits to set aside decrees on compromise; under certain circumstances a claim for possession; cancellation of a previous deed of partition whether based on fraud or not; a suit by a minor under cetam circumstances; suit to set aside a sale under the Putin Regulation, restitution of conjugal rights; removal of a trustee, suit to set aside a deed creating trust, etc.

The principle of assessment in a suit for declaration with consequential relief.—The principle of assessment of court-fee is that where a plantiff asks for a declaration with a consequential relief, he is bound to pay an ad valorem fee proportional to the loss from which he seeks to be relieved, Pandit Brij Krishna v Chowdhury Murh Rai, 4 Pat L J 703 See also Ram Sekhar Prosad Singh v Sheanandan Dobey, I.I. The Court is to look at the nature of the relief claimed and, for that purpose the allegations in the plaint only are to considered, Bagala Sandari v. Pratanna, 21 C.W.N. 3732. Ind Cas 797; Manghammal v. Totaram, 6 S.L.R. 77.

The actual relief is to be looked into in determining the court-fees payable without any consideration whether the suit fails or not without a consequential relief, Brij Gopal v Suraj Karan, 1932 A L J 466: 141 I C 112: 1932 A I R. 560 (All 1): Lakshminarayan Rai v. Dip Narayan Rai, 1933 A I R. 350 (All ) 55 All 274: 1933 A I J 311.

In order to make s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act applicable to a sut, it must be incumbent on the plaintiff to ask for a declaration and to perfect his rights also to ask for a consequential relief, for instance, where the plaintiff seeks relief to which he is not entitled unless and until some decree or document, or altenation of property is avoided. A suit in which a declaration in that behalf is claimed is within s 7, iv (c), Maung Shein v Ma Lon Ton, 9 Rang 401 · 134 I C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (Rang)

Different Valuations.—Where the plaintiff valued the declaration and consequential relief of injunction separately and gave the sum of the two values as the value for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees, the proper course is to return the plaint to the plaintif of ramendment in order to give the value of the consequential relief of injunction under the last sentence of sec 7, paragraph as and to mention that value in the plaint as the value for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees. If along with the injunction relief, additional consequential relief or reliefs are prayed for, they should, of course, be also valued according to law, M. Ainmiddin v. S. E. S. Kaitina Rowther, 1918 M.W. N. 40: 43 Ind. Cas. 955. Krishna v. Secretary of State, 1914 M.W. N. 757. I.O. M.L. T. 516. 25 Ind. Cas. 363. See also Chelasanii Ramata v. The plaintiff cannot put one valuation for declaration and a different valuation for injunchion lut is to put one lump valuation for both declaratinn and injunction and pay ad valoren court-fees on that lump valuation, In re Kalipada Mookherjee. The Judicial Committee has held in Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam, L.R. 35 I.A. 22: 35 Cal. 202: 12 C.W.N. 169: 17 M.L. J. 618 that the value of an action is its value to the plaintiff.

Valuation for jurisdiction and court-fees should be the same, Daw Min Three v. C R M. L Chettyar Firm, 150 J.C 1030.

1934 A I.R. 152 (Rang)

If the plaintiff has omitted to value the relief of injunction in the original Court, he can value it in the appeal Court The fact that by omitting to value it in the original Court, the plaintiff succeeded in having his case tried in a higher Court has no bearing on the question of court-fees, Maung Nyi Maung v. Mandalay Municital Committee, 12 Rang 335: 1934 A I R 268 (Rang)

Account and Inspection of Books .- A suit merely praying for a declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to require the defendant to account to him and to permit lum to inspect the books, is simply a stut for a declaratory decree without consequential relief and therefore comes within Art 17, clause (111) of Sch II of the Court Fees Act, but if he, in addition, prays not only for such a declaration but also for an injunction for the production of books and property in their hands and for a positive decree for an account to be taken by Court, such a suit is "to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential relief is sought for," Manohar Ganesh v Bawa Ram Chandra, 2 Bom 219, Raghunath v Gangadhar, 10 Bom 60.

Attachment.-Declaration as to attachment -A suit for a declaration of plaintiff's right to attach a sum of money in the hands of a third person in execution of his decree against A and also for a decree for such sum against the defendant in the event of his obtaining such money before decision of suit when in fact the defendant did obtain such money, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and ad valorem court-fee is payable, Durgaram v. Wakdu, 1881 P.J. 98 See also Karam Chand v. Uma Dutt Hans Raj, 31 P.L.R. 383 129 I.C. 753; 1930 A.I.R. 755 (L) 1931 IR, 225 (Lah)

Removal of attachment -In a suit for removal of attachment it was held that ad valorem court-fee is payable as the prayer for removal of attachment is a consequential relief, Ostoche v. Hari Das. 2 All. 869

Removal of attachment and possession of a house-Held that ad valorem court-fee is payable as consequential relief had been asked for, Moti Chand v. Dadabhai, 11 Bom H.C. A.C. 186

Restoration of attachment -A prayer for restoration of attachment is really a prayer to set aside a summary order as such suits arise after an objection is allowed, hence court-fee of Rs 10 is payable under clause 1, Art. 17 of the second schedule of the Court Fees, Act, Dayachand v. Hemchand, 4 Bom. 515; Dildar v. Naraiu, 11 All. 365; Govinda v. Gajraj, 13 All 389; Vithal Krishna v Balkrishen, 10 Bom, 610. But see contra, R M L, M. Subramanian Chetty v. Suit to set aside an order allowing or disallowing a claim to attached property-Where a claim was preferred by the plaintiff to the attached property and the claim was lost and the plaintiff then brought a suit to establish his right to the property (although other reliefs were claimed-these were held to be redundant prayers) it was held that the case came under Clause 1. Ar: 17 of Sch II of the Court Fees Act, 1870, Bibi Phulkumari v Ghaushyam, P.C. 35 Cal. 202: 35 I.A 22: 12 CWN 169 7 CLI. 36 This decision over-rules the older decisions, 212, Muftee Jelalooddeen v. Shoharoollah, 22 W.R. 422. 15 BLR Ap 1, Ahmed Mirza v. A Thomas, 13 Cal. 162 Where the plaintiff's property is attached at the instance of a creditor of its ostensible owner and the plaintiff after rejection of his claim to the property brings a suit and asks only for release of his property from attachment, the court-fee payable is rupees ten under Clause 1, Art. 17 of the second schedule of the Court Fees Act. If the ostensible owner is also joined as a party to the suit and a prayer is made against him for recovery of possession, the court-fee payable would be calculated upon the value of the property in accordance with section 7. (1v), (c) of the Court Fees Act, Chandradhari Singh v. Tspon Prosad, 43 Ind. Cas 971: 3 Pat L J. 482.

Valuation—In Madhusudan v. Rakhal Chondra, 15 Cal. 10x, it was held that the amount which is in dispute settles the jurisdiction, i.e., the amount which the execution creditor would recover, if successful, and, not the value of the property in dispute. See also Dwarka Das v. Kameshar Prosad, (1894) 17 All 69 (73)

The valuation of an appeal against decree in a suit by attaching creditor under Or. 21, rule 63 to set aside an order allowing claim to the property attached, is the value of the property sought to be made liable and not the decretal amount, D. Subramaniam v. Nune Narasimham and others, 56 M.L. J. 489

Cancellation.—Suits for Cancellation of Deeds—See sec. 30 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877. Chap V. The prayer that the deed may be set aside is a prayer for a substantial rehef, Tacoorderon V Naturb Syed Ali, 1 LA. 192: 13 B.L.R. 427: 23 W.R. 340. In a vail to declare that a sake deed is fraudulent, for an order to have it cancelled and a copy of the order be sent to the Sub-Registran is a prayer for a consequential relief and the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv), (c) of the Court Fees Act, Parvail Boi W. Radhie Sundar Roy v. Sekingada, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 250: 62 Cal. 479.

Cancellation on the Ground of Fraud.—A suit for cancellation on the ground of fraud, coercion and undue influence falls within this clause and the court-fees are to be calculated advalorem on the valuation by the plaintiff, Somiya v. Minammal, 23 Mad 490: 10 M.L. J. 240; Malikka v Kmiji, 20 M.L. J. 791: 7 M.L.T. 177: 5 Ind Cas 927. See also Wallace v. Lakshmi Ammal, 49 M.L. J. 608: 1925 M.W.N. 826: 1925 A.I.R. 96 (Mad).

The plaint in a sunt for cancellation of a deed of release (graphkhait) and for any other consequential relef to which the plaintiff may be found to be entitled to, is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad rularem on the valuation, Nanak Chand v. Fixon Mal, 35 P.R. 1914: 237 P.L.R 1914: 25 1.C. 435. See also Narain v. Aya Putter, 7 M.H.C.R. 372, in which it was held that ad rularom court-fee was necessary.

A relief to have a registered instrument void or voidable with the possible result of its being delivered up and cancelled and a copy of the decree being sent to the registration office for a note by the registration officer is more than a mere declaration; it is undoubtedly a substantial relief differing from a declaratory relief, Srikrishna Chander v. Mahabir Prasad, 53 Ml 791: 1933 A.L. J. 488 (All.).

A suit for avoiding an instrument, even if there be no prayer for cancellation carries with it by implication a prayer that the Court may further use the discretion given to it by sec 39, so as to order the said instrument to be delivered up and cancelled, Akhlaq Ahmad v. Musst. Karam Italii, 1935 A. L. J. 133-153 I. C. 599: 1935 A.J. R. 207 (All.).

Deed of gift.—A sunt for avoiding a registered deed of gift comes under this clause as the Court is to send a copy of the decree, in case the plantiff succeeds, to the officer in whose office the instrument had been registered under section 39 of the Specific Rehef Act and therefore a consequential relief was asked for and the plant must be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the valuation, Must Nootwoogger v. A sunt for declaration that a deed of gift is invalid and for possession of the properties conveyed by it, is a suit for declaration with a consequential rehef, Mussi Ganga Dei v. Sukhdeo Pravad, 47 Ali 78 22 A. L. ) 945: 84 I C 624: 1924 A. IR. 612 (Ali) See Mathitan Prasad v Ranula, 11 O.W. N. 1292: 152 I.C 709: 1934 A I R. 505 (Oudh), where it was held that if the substance of the prayer is the cancellation of certain deeds, though in form the suit is declaratory, the suit is one for a declaration with consequential rehef and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid.

A suit by a decree-holder to the effect that the deed of gift and a sale deed executed by the judgment-debtor and the judgment-debtor's wife respectively are void and also that the property covered by the two deeds is capable of being sold in execution of his decree, is purely a suit for declaration without a consequential rehef, as the prayer that the property covered by the deeds is to be declared to be capable of being attached and sold is implicit in the prayer that the two deeds conveying the property shall be held to be void and therefore the suit is a pure declaratory suit, Ram Dayal v. Baldea Prasad, 14 O L J. 148: 8 O.W.N. 124: 130 I.C. 344: 1931 A.I.R. 72 (Oudh): 1931 I R. 152 (Oudh):

Trust Deeds -The plaintiff brought a suit against the defendant to set aside the deed of endowment executed by her and to recover Rs 2,50,000 handed over by her to defendant No 1 She valued the suit at Rs 2,50,000 and paid court-fees ad valorem on that. The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed but stamped their memorandum of appeal with a courtfee of Rs. 10 only. The High Court held "that the defendant may not have any personal interest at all and yet the subjectmatter of the appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of the suit" and ordered that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on Rs 2,50,000, Mahomed Masik v. Malkai M. Uawa, 10 Cal. 380

A suit for cancellation of a Sanudayam deed to which the plaintiff was not a party, is a suit for a declaration, but if injunction and accounts are asked for then the suit comes under section 7, cl 1v (c) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem courtfees are payable The recently added provision by the amendment Act in the Madras Council does not affect the question

A suit for removal of trustees on account of their having executed an illegal deed on behalf of the devasyom comes under Art 17, B. Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Vellora Karuppan Vithil v. Kallur Vengayil Chathukutti, 78 I C. 118: 1924 AIR. 611 (Mad).

Suit for cancellation of a deed of Mortgage-Where one of the defendants executed in favour of another a mortgage in contravention of a stipulation in favour of the plaintiff not to alienate the property in any way without paying off the mortgage money, and the plaintiff sued for cancellation of that mortgage making both of them parties to the suit; held that the case fell under s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act as a consequential relief has been claimed, Chuni Lal v. Caucellation of a sale deed.—Where the suit is one for declaration that the sale deed was invalid and might be cancelled, the court-fee payable is ad valorem on the value of the relief claimed Sit Soc and others v. Ma Thin, 1924 A.I.R. 378 (R.): 84 IC 201

Cancellation of instrument affecting land—In Konaram v. Konarpran, 14 Mad 169, it was held that the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valorein on the value of the document as the plaintlifts would be gainers to that extent if they obtained a decree, but in Accadhran Singh v. Dharamraji Kuar, 5 Luck 98 6 O.W.N. 704 it was held that in a suit for possession by cancellation of some documents the court-fees are payable as in suit for possession only

Instrument affecting title—Where the reliefs prayed were:

(1) It may be held by the Court that the disputed properties form portion of the properties left by the husband of the plaintiff and that the defendant No 1 had no title thereto and that she had no right to transfer the same; (2) on determination of relief No 1, it may be held that the defendant No. 1 had no right to execute the sale deed, dated the 3rd August, 1920 and that neither it has affected the title of the planntiff nor has defendant No 2 acquired any right thereby, held that the suit is one for declaration with a consequential relief as the prayers are not co-extensive but are necessary and separate, unless the plaintiff elects to delete one of them. Khrichand Mahlon v. Musst. Meghni, 1 L R 5 Patna 493: 1926 A LR. 453 (Patna): 98 LC 432: 8 P.LT. 296

A suit for a declaration that a registered deed does not affect the tule of the plantiff, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. The relief claimed really comes under sec 39 of the Specific Rehef Act and really asks that the deed be adjudged voidable or declared not to affect the title of the plantiff or he set aside or cancelled, Babu Rao v. Cancellation of a bond executed by 3rd party,—A suit to cancel a mortgage bond executed by a third party in respect of the property to which the planntff in possession is entitled, is a suit for a simple declaration without consequential rehef and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is sufficient, Karam Khan v Doryai, 5 All 331.3 All W N 51 F B | This case was dissented from in Parvan Bai v Viswauath, 29 Bom 207, but it appears that in that case the contest was between the parties to the instrument], see also Jrunachellam v Rangesami, 38 Mad 922 (924) 28 M L J 118 28 1 C 79, Shan Das v Mohant Charan Das, 78 1 C 782 1925 A I R 90 (L), Venkata Raman v Narayausami, 1925 M W N 276 48 M L J 688: 21 L W 649a 87 I C 600 1925 A I R 164 (Madras), Balakrishna Nari v Vishin Nambudri, 132 I C 129: 1931 A I R 375 (Mad), Venkatasira Rao v Satyanarayanamurihy, 56 Mad 212, 139 I C 317 1932 A I R 630 (Mad)

Other documents—A plantuff praying for possession by cancellation of some other documents to which he was no party, cannot be considered to be asking for two reliefs separately, Awadiraj Singh v Mussi Dharamraji Kuar and another, 5 Luck 98 6 O W N 704 120 I C 398: 1929 A IR 419 (Oudh).

Valuation—Where a suit to cancel a mortgage-bond for Rs 4,000 was valued at Rs 50 the Madras High Court on appeal said that the trial Court cannot refuse to accept the valuation made by the plaintiff "under the sanction of verification of the amount at which he values the relief sought nor can it revise it—a power which is limited to cases provided for by section 9, which relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the amount of nett profits of the land or the market value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraph x and vi". . . . Until such a rule is framed the valuation given by the plaintiff cannot be revised, Chinnamal v. Madarsa Rosother, 27 Mad 480: 14 M.I. J. 343.

In a suit for cancellation of a document securing property having a money value, the amount or value of the property for which the document was executed is the amount on which the ad valorem court-fee is to be paid, V N Alagar Alyangar value another, 1925 A.I. R. 1248 (Mad.): 1925

The valuation of a suit to cancel a sale and a promissory not cannot be at the discretion of the plantiff especially if it be manifest from the documents themselves that there is no reasonable ground for placing a low valuation, i.e., if the valuation stated in the document sought to be cancelled be Rs. 700 and Rs. 500 then the suit to cancel the documents cannot be laid at Rs. 100. Manna Nac and another v. Manng Kha Pit, 142 L.C. 705: 1933 A.I.R. 40 (Ran.).

Confirmation of possession.—The plaintiff claiming under a Will applied for a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860, but the High Court refused such a certificate. He brought a suit to confirm his possession by enforcing the will by setting aside the summary order, held that a consequential relief was prayed for, Dutobandhu v. Rajmohini, 16 WR 213·8 B.L.R. Ap 32, Human Kamptu v Debu Lal Singh, 22 C.L.J. 415; Dimanalh Das v Raumanuth Das, 23 C.L.J. 561; Rajabola v. Radhika, 40 C.L.J. 150; 1924 A.I.R. 496 (C.) Joynorayon v. A prayer for confirmation of possession includes a prayer for recovery of possession if the Court thinks that the plaintiff is out of possession and is a consequential relief within the meaning of section 7, w (c) of the Court Fees Act. It is not open to the plaintiff to put an arbitrary and incorrect valuation on the relief sought. The valuation is to be fixed with reference to the value of the subject matter of the relief, Ram Schhar Prasad Singh and athers \( Sheanaudan Dubey, ILR, 2 Pat. \) 193: 1922 Pat CWN 337 \( 69 \) Hold Cas 316 Valuation.—The proper valuation in a suit for confirmation of possession, is the market value of the land and not a fictitious value, Mohabir Lal v Sm Duthim Rajan, 1935 A.I.R. 191 (Pat).

Documents.—Suits to avoid or set aside deeds by Purdanashin lady-fraud —Where a purdanashin lady (the plaintiff in the case) asked that the deed alleged to be executed by her but not in fact executed by her, be set aside as not genuine and also for confirmation of possession; held that the prayer for setting aside the deed is a prayer for substantial rehef and Courts of justice are not justified in substituting therefor a mere deelaration of the plaintiff's title, Tacoordeen v. Navaob Syed Alli, L.R. 1 IA 192: 21 W.R. 340: 13 B.R. 427.

When a person is induced to execute a deed other than what she intended to execute, the document is void and need not be set aside; therefore, in a suit to set aside such a document if the plaintiff—in this case a purulanashin lady—alleges that she is still in possession of the disputed property, all she is required to ask at the time of suit, is a declaration that the deed in favour of the defendant is not her deed. The court-fee payable is Rs. 10. Unarannesso Bib v. Journamesso Bib and others, 37 Ct. J. 499; 76 I.C. 448: 1923 A.I.R. 362 (Cal.).

Suit to set aside on the ground of fraud -A relief praying that a Sankalf deed executed by the plaintiff in favour of the defendant in respect of property in the possession of the plaintiff, be declared invalid and ineffective as against her as the said deed was executed under co-ercion and undue influence exercised by the defendant, is a relief for a mere delaration only and need be stamped accordingly, Musst Paterji v Radhika Baksh. Singli, 142 IC 699: 1933 A I R 127 (Oudh) 10 O W N 133: 1933 I.R 124 (Oudh)

A sunt to declare that the deed of sale executed by the plaintiff is void and inoperative on the ground that the same was executed under undue influence and coercion, is a suit for declaration only and does not require ad ralorem court-fee, Rannag Ali v Jinamuanissa, 9 OW N. 440

Suits to declare agreement not binding—The plaint in a suit for a declaration that an agreement is not binding upon the plaintiffs and for any other relief which the Court considers proper, is to be stamped ad vulorem on the value of the interest of the plaintiff as the declaration of the invalidity of the agreement would afford the plaintiff relief of a very substantial character, Parathavi v, Sunkumani. 15 Mad. 294.

Suits to declare documents not binding—A suit for a doclaration that an instrument of mortgage executed by the plaintiff is not binding, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief within section 7, para, iv clause (c) of the Court Frees Act. The plaintiff is at liberty to put his own valuation, but the case might be different when the relief sought is by a person who is not a party to the bond or decree. In a case like this the suit may be properly regarded as one for declaration only, Artunachellam v. Rangasami, 38 Mad. 922 F.B: 1915 M.W.N. 118: 28 M.L.J. 118: 17 M.L.T. 154: 28 Ind. Cas. 79.

Least — A suit for a declaration that leases executed in respect of debutter properties are illegal, invalid and inoperative and for obtaining possession is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation put by the plaintiff are to be paid on the memorandum of appeal, Sailendra Nath v. Surendra Nath, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 248: 60 C.L. J. 469: 1935 A.I.R. 279 (Cal.)

Forged document—If a plaintiff complains that a sale deed was forged by the defendant, that it was ordered to be registered by the District Registrar erroneously and that it be declared a forged document, the suit is a suit for mere declaration as when a person impeaches a deed as having been forged, to refer to him as being a party to it, is an obvious misuse of words, Negabhusanian v. Venkatafraya, (1934) 68 M L.J. 95: 41 L W. 90: 1935 A I R. 203 (Mad.).

Declaration and injunction.—Suits for ordering demolition of building —A suit for setting aside a lease and to have buildings

Police Act and Injunction -- Where the plaint in substance challenged the validity of the imposition which purported to have been made under ss 15 and 15A of the General Police Act and the mode in which the amounts of imposition are to be realised and contained prayers for declaration and permanent injunction restraining the realization of the amounts by the said method, the Subordinate Judge was of opinion that Rs 1,682 and Rs. 18,301 are the amounts of tax and compensation that remain unrealized and the suit, therefore, relates to plaintiff's hability which should be assessed at the sum-total of these two amounts and therefore, ad valorem court-fees should be paid on the aggregate of the said two amounts.

The High Court held, the reliefs sought for in the plaint come within s. 7, iv (c) and (d) of the Court Fees Act Prima facie, in accordance with the terms of that section, the amount of fees is to be computed according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint but which is not to be an arbitrary valuation In this case the consequential relief sought for is not recovery of the amounts which have not yet been imposed-for these have not yet been realized-but a permanent injunction restraining the realization thereof by a particular process There is no knowing whether by the said process the entire amount yet unrealized will be realized. The value of the injurction to the plaintiff is really the value at which the injury to the plaintiff should be assessed, Gurish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I C 80 . 1928 AIR. 55 (Calcutta).

Right of way and injunction -A suit for declaration of the plaintiff's right of way and drainage over a piece of land and for a mandatory injunction to remove the fences and walls built in defiance of the said right falls within s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, and the valuation should not be less than half the value of the immovable property, In re Venkatakrishna Pather, 25 L.W. 158: 52 M L J. 121 100 I C 263 · 1927 A I R 348 (Mad ).

Right to irrigate lands -A sunt to declare the right of the plaintiff to irrigate his lands with water and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from cutting the embankment falls within s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation should be reasonable valuation and if an arbitrary valuation is made, then the Court has power to correct the valuation. tion of title with a consequential relief as the provisions of sec. 104 (H) make it clear that such suits are brought to obtain consequential relief, viz, the settlement of fair rent, and the plaint or the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with ad valorem court-fee, Trailakyanath v. The Secretary of State for India, 17 C.L. J. 426, 18 Ind Cas. 188.

Sec. 105.-Where a number of tenants were joined as defendants in a proceeding for settlement of rent under sec 104 (2) (now sec 105) of the Bengal Tenancy Act and an appeal by the landlord was preferred under sec 108 of the same Act from the decision of the Revenue Officer making all or nearly all the tenants as respondents, the appeal was dismissed by the Special Judge, on the ground that as many courtfees of runees ten each as there are tenants defendants, have not been paid. The High Court, on a petition by the landlord held, "The proceedings are, under sec. 104 (2) (now, s. 105) and the Government rules, initiated, not by a plaint, but an application, and this application is not subject to an ad valorem application, and this application is not subject to an ab value of court-fee duty, as suits for money are subject under the provisions of sec 7 (1) of the Court Fees Act, but, according to a notification of the Government of India No 5086 S. tue Officer in every proceeding under Chapter X shall be a decree, but that it shall have the 'force of a decree,' which it may have without the proceeding necessarily becoming a suit. None of the rules framed by Government under the Tenancy Act lays down that such a proceeding shall be a suit. Rule 30 (b) merely prescribes that the proceedings shall be dealt with as a suit, that is to say, that the proceedings shall be dealt with as a sun, that is to say in respect of its procedure which is all that the provisions of sec. 189, clause (1) allow Government to regulate by means of a rule. Rule 30 (b) cannot therefore have been intended to lay down that a proceeding under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, shall be dealt with as a suit in respect of the court-fees payable on it If it did, this would be regulating more than the there procedure to be followed by Revenue Officers in the dis-charge of a duty imposed upon them by the Act, and would be ultra vires," Upadhya Thakur v Persidh Singh, 23 Cal 723 1'.B. (1896): Petu Gharai v Ram Khelawan, 18 Ca1 667 over-ruled After this case see, 105 was amended in 1898 by B. C. Act III of 1893 and see (3) was inserted which is as follows:"Every application under sul-see. (1) or sub-see. (2) shall notwithstanding anything contained in the Court Fees Act, 1879. bear such stamp as the Government of India may, from time to time, prescribe by notification in the Gazette of India." The Government of India issued notifications 321, S. R. and 322, S. R., dated 19th January, 1899, which say that such applications shall bear stamp of eight annas for each tenant.

Secs. 105 and 105A.—Afterwards another Notification was issued, i.e., Notification No. 2254F published in the Gazette of India, dated the 10th August, 1918, Part I, page 1253 and Calcutta Gazette, 1922, Part I, page 1451, which provides as follows:—

- S. 105. (a) A stamp of 12 annas for each tenant making or joining or joined in the application and
  - (b) It, at any time during the hearing of the application an issue is raised by the applicant under sec 105A of the said Act, in addition, a stamp to the amount of an ad valorem fee chargeable under Art 1, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act, 1870 as amended by Bengal 105, 105A.—Valuation —An applicant (a zemindar) filed an application under s. 105 of the Bengal T Act, in respect of 39 tenancies which were grouped together under s 60 (4) of the rules framed by the Bengal Government Under the Government Notification the petitioner paid 12 annas for each khatian, i.e., she paid 39×12 annas in court-fees. In her petition the applicant prayed "for settlement of fair and equitable ren claiming inter alia enhancement on the ground of rise in prices of staple food erops; excess rent for excess area and for correction of the entires in the Record of Rights in respect of the toma by incorporation of the hajat (or a portion of the rent kept in abeyance out of grace y the landlord) with the jama recorded.

On objection by the A S O the applicant paid Rs. 20 for each application in question. On appeal the Special Judge held that the proper court-fees payable would be 12 annas for each tenancy plus ad valorem fees not exceeding Rs. 20 on the valuation to be put on the reliefs asked for in respect of each of such tenancy. On further appeal the High Court held that the prayer for settlement of fair and equitable rent and for enhancement on the ground of rise in the price of staple food crops and additional rent for additional area comes within the scope of s 105 of the Bengal T Act The prayer for correction of Record of Rights by incorporation of hajat comes either under s 106 or s 105A of the Bengal T Act and therefore the court-fees payable would be ad valurem on the valuation subject to a maximum of Rs 20 for each tenancy plus 12 annas for each tenancy. The valuation of a suit if the amount is payable periodically, would be ten times the amount of rent or the difference in the amount of rent as the ease may be. The mode of valuation provided in s 7, ix (cc) of the Court Fees Act does not apply to a case like the present, Charusila Dassi v. Mazaffer Sheikh and others, 59 Cal 997: 55 C L J. 303: 143 I.C. 37: 1932 A.I R 674 (Cal): 1933 I.R. 329 (Cal.).

Sec. 105B.—When any issue is raised under sec. 105A, the party raising it shall pay in addition to any other court-fees which he may be hable to pay, such court-fees as he would have been liable to pay if he had elaimed relief under sec. 106.

Sec. 105.—A suit under sec. 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act is a suit for a decharatory decree within the meaning of Arn. 17, clause (iii) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Sain Chandra v. Gafal Chandra, 12 C L.J. 638: 15 C.W.N. 110? 7 Ind. Cas. 627. In a suit under sec. 106 of the Bengal tenancy Act, the court-fee to be paid is Rs. 10, as in a suit for declaration, Chandi Charan v. Monoranjan, 17 C.L.J. 417: 18 Ind Cas. 275. See also Sailaia Noth v. Chandi Charan, 48 Ind Cas, 552, where it was held that such suits are declaratory suits without consequential relief under Art 17, Clause in, Sch. II, of the Court Fees Act even if the suits are transferred to Civil Courts for trial In a suit under sec 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act ad valorem court-fee is payable on the valuation in the plaint, but the maximum is not to exceed rupees ten. See Notification No 1897F, dated 28th March, 1911, published at page 222, Part I of the Gozette of India for Bengal, and Notification No 311F for East Bengal in the India Gazette, Part I, page 366, but these notifications were altered by Notification No 3789 L R . dated 3rd April, 1922, Calcutta Gazette, 5th April, 1922, Part I, page 689, which fixed Rs 20 as the maximum fee in such cases

But in Chandi Charan v Monoranjan, 17 CL J 417 18 Ind Cas 275, it was held that the above remissions of courtfees are ultra vires

Chapter VII, Part III, Rule 60 (4) of the rules framed by the Government of Bengal provides that with the consent of the Revenue Officer any number of tenants, occupying land under the same landlord in the same village, may make joint applications for the settlement of rent or may be joined as defendants in the same proceedings on a similar application by the landlord, and Rules 60 (1) and 61 provide that proceedings under secs 105A and 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, as amended by B C Act of 1907 and 1908, shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties

Suit by a son governed by Mitakshara Law.—The plaint in a suit by a 11mdu son to recover farmly properties ignoring a mortgage executed by the father, need only be stamped as in a suit for possession on the value of the share of the son; separate court-fees in respect of the mortgage which the plaintiff does not seek to set aside need not be paid, Veemal Naidu v. The Official Receiver, Coimbatore, 117 LC, 800

A suit for the rehel that the joint family property cannot be sold in execution of the decree, is a suit under see, 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and the value of the suit with the value of the interest of the plaintiff is the value of the property and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on that basis, Munshi Mahton v. Lachman Lal, 10 P.L.T. 545. 120 I.C. 765: 1929

A suit that the share of the plaintiff is not liable to be attached and sold in execution of a decree against his father, is a suit for a mere declaration without any consequential relief and no ad volorem court-fees need be paid, Adeshwar Prosad V. Reversioner -- Where on the death of the mother, the widow of the last male holder, the daughter instituted the present suit for recovery of possession as reversioner to her father, on the allegation that the documents executed by her mother were illegal and inoperative and fraudulent and not for legal necessity and that the defendants have no right to resist the plaintiff's claim to possession of those properties on the strength of those documents and prayed that (i) it be declared that the plaintiff was the sole heir of her father, (ii) that it be declared that the defendants had no right to those properties, (111) that her possession be confirmed in respect of two plots and that she may be awarded possession regarding others by ejecting the defendants from their wrongful possession, (iv) that mesne profits be awarded to her which she assessed at Rs 21,000, held, that the widow being dead the plaintiff in addition to the declaration necessarily seeks a consequential relief, viz, possession Therefore the reliefs in the present case clearly come within the purview of sec 7, cl (iv), sub-sec (c), and ad valorem court-fee upon the valuation of the property stated in the plaint must be paid as this valuation determines not only the jurisdiction of the Court, but also the amount of court-fees payable, Khetra Mohan v Ganesh Lal, 6 Pat L. J 101 (105) 61 Ind Cas 565 2 Pat LT 607. See also Harbans Sahu v Mt Lalmons Kocr, 62 Ind Cas, 36 1922 AIR 62 (Patna) 3 P.L. T. 22

A reversioner sumg to recover properties from the alienee from the widow after her death, need not ask for a declaration that the alienation is oud or is not binding on him. He might claim possession leaving it to the defendant to plead and prove circumstances which will make the alienation binding on him. Such a suit, therefore, comes under sec. 7, iv. c) of the Court Fees Act, Ramissimen Prasad of Gobind Das, ILR 2 Pat. 125. 3 Pl.T. 704. 1 Pat.L.R. 1: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 291. 68 Ind. When the reversioner is a farty—If a suit by reversioners, who were parties to a decree which will be binding on them?

so long as it subsists, seek to set aside the decree, the plea that the reversioner is not concerned to set aside the whole of the decree so long as the widow is alive and that as the exact value of the widow's life interest cannot properly be estimated, therefore, the provisions of Art 17 (b), Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, are applicable, was not accepted by the High Court, as the decree cannot be treated as consisting of separate and melependent parts with reference to the widows and the reversioners. The valuation was made under the provisions of s. 7. (a) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees on that valuation was levied, Venkata Narasumha Raju v. Suit for declaration and for appointment of a Receiver--See also under Art. 17, Clause in, Second Schedule.

A relief for the appointment of a receiver is in the nature of a consequential relief, Krishnarao v Musst Chandrabhagabai, 1924 ATR, 316 (Nag) · 79 I C. 668 See also Ray Chand Ghosh v Srinata Khirodamayee Dasi and others, (1917) 27. CWN 457: 75 I C 507 infra under "Administration".

Effect of such an appointment—Where a receiver is appointed, the appointment operates as an injunction against the parties and persons claiming under their restraining them from interfering with the possession of the receiver except by permission of Court, Mahomed Zahuruddin v Mahomed Noorooddeen, 21 Cal 85 (91)

Appointment in a suit by reversioners - A suit by reversioner for a declaration that certain alienations are not binding on them, and for the appointment of a receiver, is one for a declaration with a consequential relief as the prayer was made to preserve the property from being wasted, and therefore ad valorem court-fee is payable on the valuation by the plaintiff, Dodda Sanalappa v Sakrarva, 36 Ind Cas 831; Harbans Sahu v. Lalmoni, 3 P.I.T 22 62 Ind Cas 36: 1922 A.I.R. 62 (Patna). Where the reversioner sued for a declaration that certain alienations made by the Hindu widow will not affect their interest after her death, for appointment of a receiver and for restoration of the property to status quo ante to certain arbitration proceedings, the plaint is to be stamped with ad talorem court-fees calculated on the valuation of the suit by the plaintiffs, Lakshmi Das v. Musst Draufadi, 134 P.W.R. 1913: 232 P.L.R. 1913: 95 P.R. 1913: 19 Ind. Cas 839 The plaint in a sint contained two prayers—1st, that certain sales by the official receiver in favour of the defendants be declared null and void and not valid in law: 2nd, that a fresh receiver be appointed and the properties be made over to him. On the first prayer the plaintiff paid rupces ten as court-fees, ie, for the declaratory relief and valued that rehef for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rupces 38,000 and on the second prayer, he valued the relief at Rupces 100 and paid ad valorem court-fee, on that valuation, ie, Rs 7-8, held that the proper court-fee, has been paid on the plaint and court-fees ad valorem on Rupces 38,000 need not be paid, Ram Saeuny v Subramania, 32 M L J 447, 40 1 C 620. But a simple suit for injunction and for appointment of a receiver cannot be valued and therefore can be filed if the plaint is stamped with a court-fee of rupces ten, but where it is capable of valuation the Court is to call for additional stamps, Mamathanath v Robullimoni, 27 All 406: (1905) 25 All W N 6: 2 A L J 84.

A suit by a reversioner for declaration that certain alienations and a deed of partition, are not binding upon him and also praying for the appointment of a receiver for the management of the property, is a suit for a declaration with consequential relief, Chhairaghi v. Kalap Dei. 54 All. 232: 1931 A.L. J. 837: 135 I.C 237: 1932 A.I.R. 114 (All)

Suit to set aside compromise.—A compromise is just as binding on the parties thereto as a decree after a contentious trial, but it is equally well settled that a consent decree cannot have greater validity than the compromise itself, cimrita Sundari v. Serajuddi, 19 C.W.N. 565 (570). Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside an adoption and thereby to set aside the deed of solonama (deed of compromise) entered into between the parties and no valuation was put upon the plaintiff brought on the deed of control of the set in this way, i.e., to seek to set aside the solonama and thereby aim at possession the immoveable property and bring her suit upon a stamp rupces ten as if it was a suit for setting aside

A suit for possession of certain shares in a Zamindary after cancellation of a compromise and the decree based thereon, against a Hindu widow and the altenee from her is not a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and the plaint need only be stamped as in a suit for possession only, Awadhraf Singh v. Dharamraji Kert, 5 Luck 98 6 O.W.N. 704: 120 I.C. 398: 1929 A.I.R. 419 (Oudh).

The plaintiff previously had instituted a suit for possession of immoveable properties with past and future mesne profits or in the alternative for past and future maintenance. The suit was compromised and the plaintiff withdrew the claim as regards the immoveable properties and obtained a decree for maintenance on a reduced scale and a decree was passed on the terms of the compromise. The plaintiff then instituted a suit to set aside the compromise and the decree based on the compromise on the ground of fraud etc., held the proper court-fee is that payable under Art 17-A, of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act as amended in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922 as the effect of setting aside the compromise decree will be that the suit which has been withdrawn and in respect of which full court-fees on the value of the property have been paid would have to be proceeded with and that the setting aside of the compromise decree would not by itself give any property to the plaintiff but would only give her the right to prosecute a suit which according to her has been terminated in a manner which is not binding on her owing to fraud and other circumstances set out in the present plaint. An order granting permission to withdraw a suit or appeal is not a decree within sec 2, C. P. C. Kulandai Pandichi v. Indram Ramaswami Pandia Thalavan, 108 Ind Cas. 539: 51 Mad. 664: 55 M.L.J 345: 27 L.W. 286: 1928 A.I R. 416 (Mad ). See Radha Krishna v. Surajket v. Chandra Mal. (1933) 1934 A.L.I. 955: 1934 A.I.R. 1071 (All.); but a suit to declare that the compromise entered into was the result of collusion and that the decree is null and void and also that the plaintiff is in possession of the property, is not necessarily a suit for a declaration with consequential relief and if the prayers be for declaration only, then court-fees as in a suit for declaration need be paid, Lakslimi Narayan Rai v. Dip Narain Rai, 55 All. 274: 1933 A.L.J. 311: 1933 A.L.B. 350 (All.).

Where a compromise has merged in the preliminary decree which has again merged in the final decree, then a prayer for cancellation of the compromise and the preliminary and final decrees, is not a prayer relating to distinct subjects, Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, 54 All 812: 1932 A L J. 684: 1932 A I R 485 (All.): 139 I C 32 F.B

A suit for a declaration that the compromise was illegal and in the alternative for a declaration that the lands are walf property and also for an injunction to restrain the defendant from interfering with its management falls unders 7, para iv, (c) of the Court Fees Act and is to be valued at one lump sum and not separately and ad valueren court-fees paid on the lump valuation, Gurdroure Mahant Texala Singh, 32 P.L.R. 193 133 I.C. 120 1931 A.I.R. 307 (Lah): 1931 I.R. 744 (Lah)

Suit to set aside decree and sales thereunder.—In Manohar Lal v Jadunoth Sungh, 33 I A 128: 28 All 585, it was held that if the result of a previous decree be found in a later suit to be not good against one of the parties to it, then it is not necessary to set aside the decree altogether but the proper decree to make was that the previous decree was not binding on the particular plaintiff concerned. The plaintiff brought a suit for declaration that a certain share inherited by her from her mother is not affected by decree and sale; and if she is found not to be in possession then the same be awarded to her She valued the rehef at Rupees 1,025 but paid a court-fee of rupees four and annas eight calculated at ten times the Government Revenue, held that ad valorem court-fees on Rupees 1,025 are payable as the property is a Mokararı property, Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 Ind Cas. 928 (Pat ) Where the plaintiffs who are Hindus governed by the Mitakshara School, sued for a declaration that the decrees in favour of the decree-holder-defendant, amounting to over Rupees 22,000, obtained by defendant-decree-holders against themselves and their relatives was bad so far as they are concerned as they never took the loan, were not benefited by the loan, and the plaintiffs were not properly represented in the suit by the defendants-decree-holders and that share in the ancestral family property amounting to annas three and valued at Rupees 9,000 was improperty sold in execution of the said decree, and prayed that (i) the orders be declared fraudulent, (ii) the decrees be set aside, (iii) sales be declared fraudulent. (11) possession of the properties be given to them They paid court-fees calculated on ten times the Government revenue. trial Court dismissed the suit holding that court-fees should be paid on Rs 22,000 The High Court on appeal, following the dictum of the Privy Council in Phul Kumari v Ghanshyam, 12 CWN 169 35 Cal 202 where their Lordships said that "the value of the action must mean the value to the plaintiff. But the value of the property might quite well be Rupees 1,000 while the execution debt Runees 10,000. It is only if the execution debt is less than the value of the property that its amount affects the value of suit," held that the court-fees payable are on the value of the property, ie, on Rupees 9,000 and set aside the order of the trial Court, Ganesh v Sarada, 19 C W.N. 895: 42 Cal 370, 30 Ind Cas, 111 See also Venkappa v Narasinha, 10 Mad 187

If it he incumbent on the plaintiff to ask for a deeree to be set aside, then such a prayer is a consequential relief and comes within s 7, iv (e) of the Court Fees Act, Maung Shein v Ma Lon Ton, 9 Ran 401 134 1 C 1263: 1931 A I.R. 319 (Rang)

A fetief for the cancellation of a decree, or for the setting aside of a decree is not a declaratory decree only. The effect is not merely a declaration as to a person's character or status as contemplated by $ 42, Specific Rehef Act, but the effect will be to render the decree void and incapable of execution and will free the plaintiff from all further liability under it. The claim is therefore, not merely for a declaratory relief falling under Art. 17 (iii), Sch. II. Nor does the rehef fall under $ 7, iv (c). There is no prayer for a declaration that the decree is void or for a declaration of any sort, so the rehef that the decree be set aside cannot be regarded as a consequential relief in any sense of the word. The court-fees in respect of the prayer for cancellation of the decree is payable under Sch. I, Art I on the value of the decree, Kalu Ram v. Bahu Lad, $4 All. Att. 1 932 A I I, 584 185 (All 1: 139 I C, 32 F.B.

Shift to set aside decrees as fraudulent — Suit to set aside a mortgage decree valued at Rupees 10,000 as fraudulent and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from executing it by sale of the mortgaged properties, should be valued at the sum sought to be realized under the deeree, because if the injunction is granted, plaintiff is benefited to the extent of the decree and not the value of the mortgaged properties and advaloren court-fees are to be paid on that valuation, Musst Nation, 11 C.W.N. 707 (711): 6 C.L.J. 427.

A rent-decree was obtained by the 1st defendant against the 2nd defendant and the holding was advertised for sale; thereupon the plaintiff brought this suit for declaration that the rent decree is fraudulent and collusive and to save the holding from liability of auction-sale. The plaintiff afterwards withdrew his 2nd and 3rd prayers when the question arose whether the suit is maintainable as a mere declaratory suit. The Calcutta High Court said "The plaintiff is bound to ask for a consequential relief, namely, either to have the fraudulent decree set aside or to have a perpetual injunction granted to restrain the 1st defendant from executing it. As pointed out by this Court in the case of Cour Mohan v Dinanath, 25 Cal 49, it is necessary for the plaintiff to ask for a consequential relief in a case of this description, because if consequential rehef is not asked for it would be open to the decree-holder to proceed with the execution of the deeree" and their Lordships held that the valuation for the purpose of court-fees should be at the amount at which the decree sought to be set aside was obtained, and the plaint was allowed to be amended, Thakur Prasad v Punkal Singh, S C L J 485 See contra, Rafiguddin v Asgar Ali, ILR 1 Patna 1. 63 Ind. In a suit in which plaintiff asked for a declaration that a decree obtained against him and a sale held thereunder are yord on the ground of fraud, held, if sale takes place, the loss to the plaintiff was the value of the interest in the property, and therefore court-fee ad valorem on the value of the share, is to be paid whatever may be the amount of the decree (prayer for redemption considered as a prayer for consequential relief), Brij Krishna v. The former case was explained in Umatul v. Nouji, 11 C.W.N. 705 (707): 6 C.L.J. 427, as rupees ten was payable only because no consequential relief was prayed for. Sea ble Gaucthilal v. Valuation — A suit, to set aside a sale under Public Demands Recovery Act coupled with a claim for a share in the property sold, is to be valued on the value of the entire property to be sold and not on the value of the share claimed, Pran Krishna v Nitya Gapal, 1924 A I R 239 (Cal); 50 Cal 892 See also Rajlakshini v Katyayam, 38 Cal 639 (667), which was a cage of setting aside a consent deero.

Where a decree affecting immoveable property is sought to be set aside, the subject-matter of that decree is the value of the immoveable property in that suit. In such a case the statutory value should be adopted and not the market value of the property, Fenkatanarasinha Raju v Chondraya and others, 53 M L J 267 · 26 L W 159 105 Ind Cas 171; 1927 A I R 825 (Madras)

A sunt to set aside a decree falls under section 7, 1v (c) of the Court Fees Act and the plaintiff can put his own valuation. Under section 7, 1v (c) of the Court Fees Act, a Court cannot reject, for the purpose of jurisdiction, the valuation made by a party for the purpose of court-fees, even if his valuation is arbitrary, Pilla Kakkadu v Pedulla Chenarayya, (1918) MW N 562-51 Ind Cas 536 24 ML T 254 But if possision is asked for in addition to declaration that a decree is void then the court-fee payable is only as regards relief regarding possession and no separate of xalorem court-fee is payable on the amount of the decere in respect of which the declaration is sought, Raja Gopala v Piyaya Raghava, 25 Ind Cas, 683-38 Mod. 1184

A suit for avoiding a mortgage decree to which the plaintiff was not a party, is not a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief but a suit for mere declaration and the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the property mortgaged, Sikhi Dial v. Durga Das, 113 I C 908 1929 A I R 448 (Lah)

A suit by a Zarpeshgular to set aside a sale in execution of a rent decree against the landlord on the ground that the same is not binding on him and that nothing passed to the auction purchaser by the said sale and also for an injunction restraining the auction purchaser from taking possession is to be valued at the Zarpeshgi money (in this case Rs. 300) and not at the sale price (in this case Rs. 40) inasmuch as the sale had already taken place and if the auction purchaser takes

s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees ad valoren on the valuation is payable, Tula Ram v. Dwarka Das and another, 50 All 510: 26 All L J. 316: 115 I.C. 655: 1928 A l R. 248 (All)

A sunt for a declaration that a decree is not binding on the about the suntifier and also that the joint family property which they have obtained by right of survivorship is not open to attachment in execution of the said decree, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential rehef as the result of the declaration would be to save the planntiffs from payment of the decretal amount, i.e., the consequential rehef is simplicit in the declaration asked for Lallo Pershad v Sahebdin Singh, 8 Luck, 668: 11 OW N. 617: 1934 OLR 396, 1934 ALR 212 (Oudh): 150 I C. 722.

If the substance of the plant in a suit be to declare that a moragage by a father governed by the Mitakshara law of inherence and the decree based thereon, is not binding on the plantiff (the son), who was a party to the 1st suit be for a mere declaration though in form it is not, then the suit comes under Sch. II, Art 17-A (Madras Amendment) and not under $7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, The Secretary of State for Midia in Council v A R. Lakhanna, 64 M.L. J. 24 1933 M.W. 144: 141 I.C. 80. 1933 A.R. 430 (Mad.): 1933 I.R. 67 (Mad.)

Declarations as regards decrees—If the suit be for a declaration that the decree is null and void then according to som decisions it is a suit without a consequential relief and it governed by Art 17, Clause iii of Sch II of the Act, Shrima Sagarji Rao v S Smith, 20 Bom 736. The Calcutta High Court took the same view in Zinnatunnessa v.Girindra, 30 Cal 788, Bagala Sundari v Prasanna, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 In Cas 797. The former case was explained in Umatul v. Nauji II C.W.N. 705 (707) · 6 C.L.J. 427, as rupees ten was payabh only because no consequential relief was prayed for See also Ganeshilal v. Beni Pershad, 22 P.W.R. 1911: 47 P.L.R. 1911 O.P.R. 1911.

A suit for establishment of title as regards a decree !! which the plaintiff was not a party and in execution of which the properties in question were attached, is substantially a sui for mere declaration and any additional prayer as to the order of attachment and-sale of properties are null and void as mer suplusage and the court-fees need not be paid under s 7, iv (or the Court Fees Act, Karam Chand v. Uma Dutt Hans Rai 31 P.I. R. 383; 129 I.C. 753: 1930 A.I.R. 755 (Lah.): 1931 J.F. 225 (Lah.).

A suit for a declaration that the decree in favour of defendant no 1 against defendant no 2 is null and void, virtuall includes a prayer for setting aside the decree and therefor includes a consequential rehef, hence court-fees are to be computed under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act on the amount of the decree in favour of the defendant no 1, Pandharmath Krishna v Marati Ganesh and another, 145 I.C. 206: 1933 A I R. 214 (Nag)

Valuation—A suit, to set aside a sale under Public Demands Recovery Act coupled with a claim for a share in the property sold, is to be valued on the value of the entire property to be sold and not on the value of the share claimed, Pran Krishna v Nitya Gapat, 1924 A I R 239 (Cal); 50 Cal 892. See also Rajlakshim v Katyayani, 38 Cal 639 (667), which was a case of setting aside a consent decrease.

Where a decree affecting immoveable property is sought to be set aside, the subject-matter of that decree is the value of the immoveable property in that suit. In such a case the statutory value should be adopted and not the market value of the property. Venkatanarasinha Raju v Chandraya and others, 53 M L J 267 26 L W 159 105 Ind. A suit to set aside a decree falls under section 7, 1v (c) of the Court Fees Act and the planntiff can put his own valuation Under section 7, 1v (c) of the Court Fees Act, a Court cannot reject, for the purpose of jurnsdiction, the valuation made by a party for the purpose of court-fees, even if his valuation is arbitrary, Pilla Kakhadu v Pedulla Chenarayya, (1918) M.W.N 562: 51 Ind Cas 536 24 M.L.T 254 But if possession is asked for in addition to declaration that a decree is void then the court-fee payable is only as regards rehier regarding possession and no separate ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount of the decree in respect of which the declaration is sought, Raja Gopala v Vijaya Raghava, 25 Ind Cas, 683: 38 Mad 1184

A suit for avoiding a mortgage decree to which the plaintiff was not a party, is not a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief but a suit for mere declaration and the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the property mortgaged, Subh Dial v. Durga Das, 113 I C 908 1929 A I R. 448 (Lah).

A suit by a Zarpeshgidar, to set aside a sale in execution of a rent decree against the landlord on the ground that the same is not binding on him and that nothing passed to the auction purchaser by the said sale and also for an injunction restraining the auction purchaser from taking possession, is to be valued at the Zarpeshgi money (in this case Rs. 300) and not at the sale price (in this case Rs. 40) inasmuch as the sale had already taken place and if the auction purchaser takes possession, the plaintiff will be deprived of his Zarpeshgi money, Sitaram Singh v. Maharajh Kesho Prasad Singh Bahadur, 12 PL.T. 550: 131 IC 808: 1931 AIR 195 (Patna): 1931 IR. 248 (Patna).

Madras Amendment, S. 7, iv (a).-A suit by the plaintiff who was a minor at the date of the previous suit, on the ground that the decree in the 1st suit is void and not binding on him as he was not properly represented in the 1st suit, is a suit coming under s. 7 (iv) (a), (Madras Amendment) so far as the decree in the 1st suit is concerned. The proper prayer as regards decree being for a declaration that the decree is not binding upon the plaintiff in the subsequent suit. If possession of the property be asked for as the main relief, then such cases being specifically provided for in s 7, paragraph V, the suit is to be valued and court-fees paid under that paragraph. Anant Krishna Aiyar, J. s. 7 (iv) (A) is quite different from s 7 (iv) either (a), (b) or (c) and the proviso has been added only to s 7 (iv) S 7 (iv) (A) is a quite different provision of law, and the proviso does not operate with reference to s. 7 (iv) (A). Venkatasiva Rao v Venkatanarasımlıa Satyanarainmurty, (1932) 56 Mad 212: 63 M L I 764 · 36 L W 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C 317 1932 A1R 605 (Mad): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad)

A suit by the vendor to set aside a deed executed by him as also for possession comes under s 7, iv (a) and court-fees are to be paid accordingly. The suit does not come under s 7, v, of the Court Fees Act and no additional court-fees are payable on that basis, Thagachi Annual v Mahammad Maideen Maricovi, 56 Mad. 401 64 M L J 127. 142 1 C. 29; 1933 AJR. 231 (Mad.)

A suit on the allegation that the father (defendant no. I) became insolvent and the dots of the father and the sales by the Official Receiver (defendant no 7) are not binding and these may be set aside and asking for a declaration to that effect, is a suit for declaration coming within Art 17-A of the second Schedule (Madras Amendment) and not under s. 7. (a), (Madras Amendment) of the Court Frees Act, Annamalai v. Krishiappa, (1934) 58 Mad 385; 67 M.L.J. 858; 40 L.W. 837; 1934 M.W.N. 1373; 1935 A IR. 66 (Mad.).

Suit on behalf of a lumatic—Where the wife of a lumatic, sued as manager of the properties of the lumatic to set aside a deed of gift executed by her husband on the ground that the deed was null and void, held, that the suit is one for declaration with consequential relief and court-fees ad valorem are payable on the valuation under section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act. The suit was framed as a sun for declaration with a consequential relief for possession, Ganga Dei v. Sukhdeo Prosad, 22 A.L.J. 945: (1924) A.I.R. 612 (All): 84 I.C. 624.

Minors-Suits by.- The principle seems to be that when the minor is not bound by the deed or when it is null and you against him he need not sue to set aside the deed, in such cases a simple declaration is sufficient but when he is bound by the deed and he must have it set aside before he can obtain relief he asks for, his suit comes under this Article and ad valorem court-fees are payable.

A person who was a minor at the date of the execution of a mortgage deed need not sue to set aside the mortgage. It is sufficient if he sues for a declaration that the mortgage is void as against him, Yu Hock Tun v Yu Hock and others, 11 Ran 66: 143 IC. 541: 1933 AIR 109 (Ran): 1933 IR (Rang)

A suit by certain minor members of a Malabar tarward on the ground that a decree obtained against the Karnarvan and also certain minors represented by him is not binding on them and for recovery of the properties sold in execution of that decree, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and the court-fees payable would be Rs 100 for declaration plus ad valorem court-fees on half the value of the properties under the rules of cl (5) are to be paid as provided by the amending Act as applied to Madras Presidency, Bala Krishna Nair v Krishna Nambudri, 1930 M W N 509, 132 I C. 129. 1931 AIR 38 (Mad)

In a suit by a minor for a declaration that a mortgage-deed executed in his name by his guardian is invalid against him and also for cancellation of the deed and injunction to restrain the defendant from enforcing the terms of the deed, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the hability under the deed of the minor and the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is also to be determined by the same criterion The plaintiff cannot be allowed to fix a lower and arbitrary value, Devidar v. Ramlall, 7 N.L.R. 190. 13 Ind. Cas. 864 A suit by a member of a Malabar targed on attaining majority to set aside a karar entered into during his minority by the adult male members of the tarwad, is a sint for mere declaration and not one for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, because though a transaction, which is valid may, under certain circumstances, be cancelled by a Court, at the instance of a person not a party to it on the ground that it would throw a cloud upon his title, it is not true that such a person must get rid of the transaction by having it actually cancelled, in order to rely on its invalidity as against him. A karar is binding only if consideration passed in a valid exercise of power by the Karnarvan otherwise it is void, Chingacham Vittil Sankaram v Chingacham Vittil Gopala, 30 Mad. 18: 1 M.L.T. 412

Plaintiffs who are minors, in a suit to set aside a partition arrangement entered into among all the members of a tarward, so far as their shares are concerned, are to pay court-fees on the valuation of the shares of the property to be partitioned and not on the value of the whole property, Govindan Nair v. Thatta Khandiyil Madham, 62 M L J 712; 1932 M.W.N. 579: 1932 A I R 491 (Mad ).

A suit by the plaintiff (a minor at the date of the first suit) for a declaration that the decree (mortgage) passed against him is not binding on him as having been obtained by fraud and that the old case be re-started from the point at which his guardian confessed judgment, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and hence should bear ad valorem courtees, Harnem Singh v. Hyar, 1925 A.I.R. 346 (Lah.): 86 I.C. 680 26 P.I.R. 73

If a minor on coming of age sues to set aside certain mortgages and the decree based thereon, on the ground of collusion and negligence of the guardian, then the sun falls under s 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Srikrishen v Satuerain, 32 PLR 729 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.1R. 132 (Lah).

A suit by minors on attaining majority praying for a declation that the release executed by their mother as their guardian is invalid and for an injunction is a suit for cancellation of a document and falls within, s. 7, iv. (c) of the Court Fees Act. Doraissyami Reddiar v. Thangavelu Middlar, 1929 A.I.R. 668 (Mad.): 119 I C. 38

A minor need not sue to set aside a transaction by a guardian to recover possession of a property, he can pray for possession and injunct the transaction and in such a suth the should not be considered as suing for cancellation of the deed, therefore 5.7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Vecroarghavalu v. Srecramulu, 1928 M.W.N. 389: 112 I C 96 1928 A.I.R. 816 (Mad.); see also Vennal Naidu v. The Official Receiver, Coimbatore, 117 I.C. 800: 1929 A.I.R. 307 (Mad.).

A suit for recovery of certain property and also for a declaration that the deed of gift, by virtue of which the defendants obtained possession was ineffectual against the plaintiff owing to his minority, is really a suit for possession and the relief as to cancellation was ancillary to the main relief. Therefore a court-fee of Rs 10 for the cancellation of the deed and ad valorem court-fees in five times the assessment (being non-permanently settled land) were sufficient, Afsal

Husain v. Shafiquinnissa, 7 O.W.N. 571: 126 I.C. 688: 1930 A.I R 368 (Oudh): 1930 I R. 416 (Oudh).

A suit for a declaration by a minor on his attaining majority that the petition of compromise and the decree based thereon are ineffectual and void against the plaintiff on the ground of fraud is a suit for mere declaration within Art 17, Cl in of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act as the plaintiff did not ask for any consequential relief and no ad valorom court-fees are necessary as the question as to court-fees is to be decided on the plaint, although the suit may be dismissed for the absence of a prayer for consequential relief, Radha Krishna v Rein Navain, 53 All 552 1931 A.L. J. 235: 131 I.C. 604: 1931 A.I.R. 369 (All): 1931 I.R. 412 (All).

A suit for a mere declaration by a minor suing through a new guardian that in the previous suit for partition of the joint Hindu family property he was not effectively represented by his guardian who was negligent and did not look after his interest in the case, is a suit for a mere declaration and need be stamped accordingly, although the object of the plaintiff may be to frustrate the effect of a decree passed against him, Srikrishia Chandra v. Mahabir Prasad and others, 55 All 791 1933 A LI 673 - 1933 A LI 8 488 (All) 149 IC 198 FB

Partition.-Cancellation of a previous deed of partition -The plaint in a suit for declaration that the previous partition carried out under the terms of the previous decree be reversed and all the properties be brought to hotchfot for a fresh partition, must be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee as the suit is for a declaration with a consequential relief, 212, that the properties be restored to their original state as joint property and then brought under partition, Huro Gazerie v Dukhi, 5 Ind Cas 582 Where the plaintiff sued for cancellation of a previous deed of partition on the ground of fraud and unfairness, for declaration of exclusive title to a hardware business, its assets and properties acquired from its income, for declaration of joint title to other properties, for partition and accounts, and other incidental reliefs and the trial Court cancelled the deed of partition, and determined the question of title to properties in suit and rendered the defendant hable for accounts, held that the case does not come under clause in of Art 17 of Sch II of the Court Fees Act, but the suit is a suit in which consequential relief has been claimed and the plaint or the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem courtfees, Satis Chandra v Kali Dasi, 26 CWN 177 34 CLJ 529; Ratanchand Rewachand v Anondbai, 145 I C 777, 1933 A.I.R. 53 (Smd)

A suit for partition against father and step-brother on the allegation that the prior registered deed of partition between the parties were voidable having been obtained by pressure and that the said partition deed is not binding on him, is substantially a suit for declaration that the prior deed of partition was not binding and for reliefs following such declaration Therefore, the court-fees are payable under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act so far as the immovable properties are concerned and so far as the movable properties are concerned the plaintiff may value the suit in his own way. Art 17 (b) of the second Schedule is not applicable, Sundara Ganapathi Mudali v Deirasi Kamana Mudoli, 1930 M.W.N. 358, 129 I.C. 824; 1931 AIR 94 (Mad.) Partition and possession on declaration of title -The court-fee stamp in a suit for partition and possession of the plaintiff's share of joint family property is an ad valgrem fee on the value of the plaintiff's share, Balarant v Laxman, P.J 13 (1892). Where the suit is to establish plaintiff's title to a third share and possession and partition, it was held that ad valorem courtfees are payable, (this was a suit by an auction purchaser), 11'alliullah v. Durga Prasad, 28 All 340: 26 All W.N. 38: 3 A L T 181; Makhan Lal v. Suria Prosad. (1885) 5 A W N 48

or a decree for immoveable property then an ad valorem courtfee is payable, Govinda v Parmestvar, 49 Ind Cas 115. "If in the very forefront of their claim the plaintiffs ask the Court for declaration of their title and possession, then it seems to us that they are claiming under the guise of a partition suit, a declaration of their title which is the proper subject-matter of a title suit and therefore ad valorem court-fees are payable," Rachhya v Musst Chandoo, 6 PL J 662: 3 PLT 293, 1922 (Pat.) CW.N 65: 65 Ind Cas 294, 1923 A I R 113 (Patna). Followed in Kanhaiya Lall v Baldeo Das. 85 IC. 538: 1925 AIR 703 (Patna)

Madras Amendment -A suit for a declaration that the defendants are joint tenants and for an injunction and partition comes under s. 7, iv (c) and the valuation should be at half the value calculated in the manner provided by paragraph V of sec. 7. Bethasami Naicker v. Nagammal, 59 M L J. 899: 1930 M.W N 656: 33 L W. 68: 129 LC. 625: 1931 A LR. 69 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 289 (Mad.).

A suit in which the main relief is possession and in order to succeed in this relief, the plaintiff asks that the obstacles, i ethe prior partition and alienations be declared as not binding on the plaintiff is one for declaration with consequential relief; the valuation should be under s. 7, iv (c) (Madras Amendment) at half the value of the immoveable property affected by the declaration. Such a case does not come under s. 7, iv (a) (Madras Amendment), Karaga Gowda and other v Somapha Gowda and others, 140 I.C. 585: 1933 A I.R 93 (M.): 1932 M W.N 1322

When the plaintiff is not in possession of any part of the property-"If the plaintiff is not in possession of any part of the property, she is not entitled to sue for partition without at the same time suing for possession of her share-a course entailing payment of ad valarem court-fees both on the plaint and the memorandum of appeal," Rangamons v. Iogendra, 9 CL J. 128 A suit for partition is not a substitution of a suit for ejectment Where the plantiff has got his name registered under the Land Registration Act, the weight to be given to that depends upon the facts of each case. Loke Nath v Dhakeswar, 21 C L J 253 In a suit for partition if it is established that he is not in possession at all of any portion of the joint property, that there had been a complete ouster, he must sue for recovery of possession and partition and pay ad valorem court-fees upon a plaint appropriately framed for the purpose. The true distinction between two classes of cases, is that in one class, the plaintiff really prays for ejectment, in the other he claims a division of lands, on part of which he is in actual occupation and over the remainder of which he is in constructive possession through the co-owners There is no foundation for the contention, that mere denial of the title of the plaintiff converts a suit for partition into a suit for possession, Bidhata Ray v. Ram. Chariter, 12 CWN 37 (41) 6 CLJ 445 10 Ind. Cas. 464. Rajam Kanta v. Rajabala, 29 CWN 76 52 Cal. 128

Where it appears that the defendants are not in possession of a portion of the property then a suit for partition is really a suit for recovery of that portion and a court-fee ad valorem on that share must be levied, Dipchand Rai v Chhetri Lal. 1 Pat LT 529, 56 Ind Cas 570 See also Hassan Khan v Ahmad Khan, 1935 AJR 30 (Pesh)

Effect of symbolical possession-Where there is a complete ouster, the plaintiff has to sue for recovery of possession and pay ad valorem court-fees upon a plaint appropriately framed for the purpose. In a suit for partition symbolical possession amounts to actual possession, Sabjan Bibi v. Asanulla Sheikh, 54 Cal 524 31 CWN 406: 101 IC 622 1927 A1R 411 (Cal)

Suit for declaration of title with recovery of possession, —A suit by plaintiff for declaration of title and recovery of possession of certain revenue paying estates on the allegation that although there is a valid mortgage decree on the properties still the sale of these properties in execution being in contravention of the previous adjustment of the decree, is a nullity and therefore, the decree against the principal mortgagor under Or. 34. r. 6. C P. C. is inoperative, is a suit for possession of land within the meaning of section 7, v (a) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fees payable are on ten times the Government Revenue Such suits are not suits to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential rehef is sought. The Calcutta High Court said. "The plaintiffs do not seek to set aside the decree nor do they seek to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential relief is sought. Their contention is that although the decree was validly made, the circumstances which led up to the sale held at the instance of the decree-holders could not in law pass their title to the execution-purchaser, and on that basis, they seek to recover possession of the property. No doubt, they seek a declaration that the personal decree could not have been made against them. This declaration, however, can only be consequential to the success of their substantial claim in the sunt." Radha Kanta Saha and others . Debendra Narain Saha and others, 49 Cal 880 27 CWN 567. 33 CL 1 74: 70 Ind. Cas 101: 1922 A I R 506 (Calcutta).

In a sut for possession and Wasilat the plaintiff obtained a decree declaring his right to possession upon death of his father, held that as the decree had given consequential relief, i.e., relief from the operation of conveyances and mortgages, which on the face of them affected the plaintiff's interest, on appeal from the decree the memorandum should bear an advalorum duty, A B Miller v Athore Ram, 15 WR, 412.

Where the plaintiff claumed that he was joint owner of the property in suit with the defendant and that the property lad been sold without his concurrence or authority, but framed the suit as one for recovery of possession and for cancellation of sale deed, the Allahabad High Court held that the suit was a suit for possession only, as the prayer for declaration is superfluous and allowed the plaint to be amended (The case Dhakestear Prasad v. Fito Chowdhury, 3. Pat L. J. 448: 46. Ind. Cas. 385 is not applicable as there the declaratory relief was necessary). Ruh Narain v. Bishwar Nath, 44. All. 629: 20. All L. J. 887: 68. Ind. Cas. 265: (1921) A.IR. 338 (Allahabad). See also M. Ganaa Dei v. Sukhdeo Prasad, 22 A. L. J. 945: 84. I. C. 624: 1924. A.I. R. 612. (All.): 47. All. 78; In re. Secthayamna, 48. Mad. 652: 47. M.I. Where the plaintiff asks for a declaration as his first relief and possession as his second reflet, it must be taken that in the opinion of his legal advisers the declaration is a necessary relief, Tula Ram v. Drarka Dar, 26 All L.J. 316: 1928 A.J. R. 218 (Allarbady): 115 I.C. 655: 50 All 510. A plaint (or memorandum of appeal) in a suit for declaration of title and recovery of possession, requires ad volorem court-fees and not ten times the Government-revenue in a revenue paying estate, Rasik Behary v. Hriday, 1922 (Pat ) C.W.N. 162: I.L.R. 1 Pat. 471: 66 I C 769.

A suit for possessin of Math properties on the allegation the plantiff is a chelo of the deceased Mohant and that the defendant Mahant had taken a wrife thereby incapacitated for continuing as a Mahant, is a suit for declaration with a consequential rehef as the plantiff before he obtains a decree for possesion, must have it decided in his favour that the defendant had vacated office of Mahant and secondly that the plantiff had succeeded to that office and a finding and a declaration to that effect is necessary, Rom Bhusan v Bachu Rai, (1934)

Against licensee—Where the plaintiff sued for a declaration of his title and possession of the land and for removing the defendant (a licensee) and for a permanent injunction on the defendant, restraining him from coming upon the land after removing him therefrom, the plaintiff valued his suit at Rs 100 for ejectment and injunction and claimed Rs 46 as damages and paid court-fees ad valorem on that valuation, and the defendant objected that the suit should be valued at Rs 2,200—the value of the land, held that as the defendant is a mere heensee he has no interest in the land. The valuation made is therefore sufficient, Basiran v Canesh, 24 CWN (levit (notes) Where the plaintiff sued on a stamp of Rupees ten for a

Where the plaintiff sued on a stamp of Rupees ten for a declaration of his title to land worth more than Rs 19,000 in the possession of the defendant, that the demarcation by the Revenue Officer is e-roneous and for a declaration of his title thereto, the Court was satisfied that the plaintiff. Zamindar, wanted to get possession of the land by way of declaration and thereby deprived the adversary of the benefit of the pleading open to him in an ejectment suit, held that the plaintiff ought to pay ad valorem court-fees on the plaint, but having regard to the circumstances of the case, refused to allow the plaintiff to put in additional stamp, Chakalinga Peshana v. Declaration of title as an adopted son and possession—Where a challenge is thrown on the plaintiff's title as the adopted son of a certain person and the plaintiff comes into Court in order to meet that challenge and claims a declaration of his title as an adopted son, and also seeks to recover possession of his adoptive father's property, the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and not under sec 7 (v) of the section, Ugra Mohan v Lachim Prosad, 5 Pat L J. 341: 56 the Case of Rachapta Desai

Possession after declaration that a decree is not binding,-A suit for a declaration that certain decree was of no legal effect against plaintiff and for possession of the portion sold in execution, is a suit for declaration with possession as a consequential Therefore, court-fee is payable only for the relief regarding possession and no separate ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount of the decree in respect of which the declaration is sought. In such a case the question is whether one relief is to be taken as consequential to the other or as independent of each other The Madras High Court said: "The learned District Judge was clearly mistaken in his statement that sec 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act regulated the valuation of the whole suit, since part of the relief claimed was for possession and it had to be valued in accordance with sec 7 (v) notwithstanding that a declaration also was asked for. That is recognised in one of the cases cited by the learned District Judge, Chinnammal v Madrasa Rowther, 27 Mad 480 14 M L.J. 343" Raja Goral v Vijova Raghava, 38 Mad 1184 25 Ind Cas, 683: 12 L W 824 See also Shama Prosad v Sheoperson, 5 Pat.L.J. 394 2 Pat L W 173: 41 I C 95 where it was held that the case comes under sec 7 (iv) (c) and the plaintiff must put a reasonable valuation and pay court-fee ad valorem on that valuation See also Iswari Dial v. Kishen Das, 1 A W N 5 But where in order to succeed in a suit for possession, it is necessary for the plaintiff to obtain a declaration that a document or decree is void or inoperative, the court-fee to be paid must be calculated on the actual value of the property, Lagan Burt v. Khakhan, 43 Ind Cas. 962 (Patna): 3 Pat.L.J. 92,

The test is whether the plaintiff includes amongst the reliefs claimed not merely a request for possession, but also as paring the way of such request, the rehef of declaration of title, Tularan v. Divarka Das and others, 50 All. 510: 26 A L.J. 316: 115 I C. 655: 1928 A L.R. 248 (All.).

In a suit for declaration of title and possession, "if the principal relief elaimed is one for possession another relief for declaration is merely ancillary to it, in that case it is enough to pay the court-fee on the relief for possession. On the other hand, if the principal rehef is for declaration and the plaintiff's right to possession depends on his being entitled to the declaration, then the relief for possession must be regarded as a consequential rehef and the court-fee would be payable according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or the meniorandium of appeal" * * * In the present case it is necessary for the plaintiffs to get a declaration about the mortgage decrees against his father, of the said decrees not being binding on him before he could be entitled to a decree for possession, therefore, the relief for possession is a consequential relief, Deoray v Kinij Behari and others, (1929) 5 Luck 474 124 1C 420 1930 A1R 104 (Outh)

Patni Sale.—A suit for reversal of a sale held under Patni Regulation (Reg VIII of 1819) under section 14 of that Regulation, is not a suit for pure declaration within the meaning of Sch II, Art 17, clause (iii) of the Court Fees Act, but is a suit for a declaration with a consequential rehef, as under the provisions of sections 14 and 15 of the Regulation VIII of 1819, a suit for reversal of a putni sale is not a suit for a declaratory rehef within the meaning of Art. 17 of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Fara Prasona Chongdar v. Nrisingha Moorari Pal and others, 51 Cal. 216: 28 C.W.N. 683: 39 C.I. J. 212: 1924 AIR 731 (Cal.). See also Bidhin Blutani Bakshi v. Messrs Erskine and Co., 21 W.R. 68: 12 R.L.R. 370; Suresh Chandra Mukhopadhya v. Akkari Singh, 20 Cal. 746 (753).

Police Act.—A plaint in a suit against impositions under the general Police Act and injunction restraining the realization of those impositions, is to be valued at which the injury to the plaintiff is assessed when the amounts of imposition are not yet realized and ad vulorem court-fees paid on that valuation— Girish Chandra Sanjal v. The Secretary of State far India in Council, 105 LC 80: 1928 ALR. 55 (Cal). Shiddappa, 24 C.W N. 33, 43 Bom. 507: 29 C.L.J. 452, where ad valorem court-fee was paid on the property sought to be recovered but only Rupees ten was paid in respect of properties in the custody of Collector as in a suit for mere declaration because the property in the custody of the Collector should be deemed to be in the possession of the successful party.

A suit for a declaration that an adoption is valid affects title to roperty and if the value is over Rs. 400 ad valorem court-fees are to be paid under C P Civil Circular II-8, Amdu and others v Pissi, 120 I C 408 See other cases under Sch II.

Revenue Sale.-Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside the revenue sale of a certain Taluq in part of which he is interested but framed the suit as one for mere declaration only and stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rupees ten only, held, when the plaintiff asks for relief to have the auction sale set aside the plaint is to be stamped as one for the recovery of the property, Drapu v Ishan, 9 C.L.R. 231. Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside Revenue sale of an estate alleging that he is in possession of the property and prayed (a) that by setting aside the said illegal, unjust and irregular sale, it may be held and declared that the plaintiff's rights have not thereby been destroyed nor has it been jeopardised in any way, (b) that it may be declared that the plaintiff has the right to and possession of the said Taluq and he stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rupees ten, held that this is a suit for a declaration wherein a consequential relief has been prayed for and that the plaint is to be stamped ad valorem as the plaintiff seeks to set aside an alleged illegal auction sale and a declaration of right and possession in respect of the property in dispute, Mahomed Takibuddi v. The Collector of the District 24-Perganas, 6 C.W.N. 157, approved in Tara Prosonno Chongdar v. Nrisingha Moorari Pal. 51 Cal 216, surra. Restitution of Conjugal Rights.—When the plaintiff seek for a declaration that the defendant is lawfully married to him and she should be ordered to hiv with him, the case comes under section 7, paragraph (iv), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act, Aimicul Hossam v. Kharumnessa, 28 Cal. Sof. (In this case injunction was sought against people other than the wife, therefore, it was a case of declaration with a consequential relief ) Generally when reliefs against third parties have to be asked for, a declaration is also necessary

A declaration may have to be prayed for various reasons and not merely for establishment of the fact of marriage. In Gatharam v Moohita Kochin, (1875) 23 WR 179 the Calcutta High Court held, "Whenever the law recognizes that the relation of husband and wife exists, it also recognizes that the husband is bound to live with the wife and the wife with the husband, and if the obligation is denied by either of the parties to the marriage, the Courts ought certainly to declare the right to exist, If also any person should interfere and prevent the wife from returning to her husband, or the husband to the wife, there is no difficulty in punishing this invasion of the rights of others and even compensating the injured party to some extent." The real difficulty arises when one comes to deal with a refusal to perform the conjugal duties by one of the parties to the marriage after the existence of the matrimonial relation has been ascertained See also Gajendra Nath Saha Chowdhury v Sm Sulochana Chowdhurani, 39 CW.N. 131: 60 CL J. 203 1935 A.I.R. 338 (Cal ) which was a case of refusal of conjugal right owing to alleged cruelty by the husband

Valuation — Although in the cases of Golam Rahaman V. Fotima, 13 Cal 232, and Moula Newax v Sajidumessa, 18 Cal 378, the High Court held that a suit for restitution of conjugal rights is incapable of valuation and in the case of Alkemannessa v. Mahomed Hatim, 8 C.W N. 705: 31 Cal 840 it was held that the suit cannot be instituted in the Court of the Munsiff; still in the case of Jan Mahamad v. Mahor, 34 Cal. 352: 11 C.W.N. 458: 5 C.L. (In this case the subject-matter of suit was land held in occupancy right by a raiyat)

Restitution of Conjugal Rights.—When the plaintiff seeks for a declaration that the defendant is lawfully married to him and she should be ordered to live with him, the case comes under section 7, paragraph (iv), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act, Aminul Hossam v. Generally when rehefs against third parties have to be asked for, a declaration is also necessary.

A declaration may have to be prayed for various reasons and not merely for establishment of the fact of marriage. In Gatharam v. Moohita Kochin, (1875) 23 W.R. 179 the Calcutta High Court held. "Whenever the law recognizes that the relation of husband and wife exists, it also recognizes that the husband is bound to live with the wife and the wife with the husband, and if the obligation is denied by either of the parties to the marriage, the Courts ought certainly to declare the right to exist. Removal of Trustee-Where the suit is for the removal of M as manager and for appointment of the plaintiff as manager of the property, held that the plaintiff was not entitled to sue for removal of M without praying for his ejectment from the property, Sanachella v Manika, 8 Mad 516 See also Chokolingapeshana v Achiyar, 1 Mad 40 Where the plaintiffs ask for a declaration that a mutwali had been guilty of misfeasance and asked to have her removed from the mutwallishib and themselves appointed in her place wherehy they would have been entitled to a share in the produce of trust money, the High Court held, "The plaintiffs ask for a distinct and important consequential relief, they ask not only that the defendants may be declared to have wasted the endowment, and thereby to have destroyed the trust, but also that she may be turned out of her mutwalliship and they, the plaintiffs, be appointed in her place. The plaintiffs say that what they claim does not admit of being properly estimated at a money value, but this is not so. Under the toxeliatnama, the mutwallis were to receive six-twentyeighths of the produce of the estate, a very considerable sum and the plaintiffs' claim to this share as an appurtenance to the office of mutwalls was easily to be estimated in money. I am of opinion that the plaint ought to have been engrossed on a stamp of proper value," Delroos Banoo Begum v. Nowab Syed Ashgar Ali, 23 WR 453: 15 B.L.R. 167 (187) P.C. Where although no emoluments are attached to the office of the trustee still if the suit be for the purpose of controlling the endowment and also for removal of the trustee from the management for the misconduct of the trustee, the valuation for the purpose of court-fees was also regarded as valuation for the purpose of purisdiction, Omrao Mirza v Jones, 10 Cal. 599: 12 CLR. 148.

A suit instituted for the purpose (1) that the present Mohant and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed in his place and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed a Committee may be formed to fulfil the object of the Trust, (3) the property of the trust may be made over to the new Mohant and the newly appointed committee and list of the said property be prepared and a scheme be settled. The defendant denied the existence of the trust and claimed tule in himself, held that the suit was one under see 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Article 17, clause (vi) of the Second Schedule to the Court Fees Act applies to such a case. The suit is not one for a declaration with a consequential reliew, therefore, s. 7 (w) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the cases decided with regard to that provision do not apply, Beli Ram and others v Ishar Das, I L. R. 8 Lahore 730: 1928 A I R. 113 (Lahore)

Suit to set aside Deeds—See Mahoned Masik v. Malkoi M Badshah Mehal Saheba, 10 Cal 380, where the plaintiff sued to set aside a deed of endowment executed by her and to recover rupees 2,50,000 handed over by her to defendant No. I. The suit was valued at Rs. 2,50,000 and court-fees ad valorem on that amount paid The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed but stamped the memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only. The High Court held that "the defendant may not have any personal interest at all yet the subject-matter of the suit," and ordered that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees ad valoren on Rs. 2,50,000 Valuation—A suit for declaration and injunction in respect of private debutter property, is a suit for a declaration with consequential relief and therefore such suit falls within sec 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees ad valorem on the value made by the plaintiff are payable [16 C L]. 194) The valuation of the relief sought must be reasonable [19 C L]. 15) This will also be the result where any other consequential rehef is claimed, as in all such cases the sint falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act.

This will also be the case where the trustee is sought to be removed. Where emoluments are attached to the office of the trustee, the prayer is capable of valuation and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation are payable (23 WR 453 PC); but if no emoluments are attached to the office of a trustee and if the suit be for the purpose of controlling the endowment and also for removal of the trustee, court-fees ad valorem on the valuation are payable (10 Cal. 599). In a suit for declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to receive a share in the charao offerings to Baidyanathi, from the successor in office of the defendant and for arrears of the same, the plaint is to be stamped as in a suit for declaration plus ad valorem fees on the amount claimed as arrears (23 Cal. 645).

As regards ancient temples devoted absolutely and in perpetuity to religious purposes, the subject-matter of the suit or appeal, is incapable of valuation as it is a subject-matter for which there is no market (46 Mad 782)

When the trust property is in the hands of a receiver or is in the possession of Court of Wards, the principle enunciated in Shiddappa v Rachappa, 36 Bom 628 affirmed by P.C., in 43 Bom 507 will apply

But the case will be different if the suit falls under see 92 of the Code of Cvul Procedure; then the court-fees payable will be under Art 17, cl (vi) of the Second Schedule of the Court Fees Act as such cases are meapable of valuation for the purpose of court-fees The valuation for jurisdiction will be the valuation made by the plaintiff. In suits of this class no court-fees other than the fixed fees are payable even if the prayer be for removal of the trustee or for an injunction or any other consequential relief.

A claim to remove a Karnavan from management and appoint in his place the plaintiff, is incapable of valuation and it is erroneous to value such a claim as one for the recovery of property (4 Mad. 146 and 314).

A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is the Bara Thakur of a temple and for a r party to prevent them from initiff, rt-fees on the value of the temple property or such portion of it from which the plaintiff had been dispossessed, Manick Chandra Sarn v. Dambhasudhar Sarna and athers, 1930 A.T.R. 41 (Cal. 1930 I.R. 715 (Cal.): 126 IC 267.

Suits arising out of proceedings under the Land Regi tration Act (B. C. Act VII of 1879).—See Art. I7, clause (ii Sch II of the Act. The weight to be given to the registratio of the name of the plaintiff in the proceedings under the Lar Registration Act depends un the facts of each case, Loke Ngi and also for removal of the trustee from the management for the misconduct of the trustee, the valuation for the purpose of court-fees was also regarded as valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction, Omrao Mirza v Jones, 10 Cal. 599: 12 C.I.R. 148.

A suit instituted for the purpose (1) that the present Mohant may be removed and a new Mohant appointed in his place and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed a Committee may be formed to fulfil the object of the Trust, (3) the property of the trust may be made over to the new Mohant and the newly appointed committee and list of the said property be prepared and a scheme be settled. The defendant denied the existence of the trust and claimed title in himself, held that the suit was one under sec 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Article 17, clause (vi) of the Second Schedule to the Court Fees Act applies The suit is not one for a declaration with a to such a case consequential reliew, therefore, s 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the cases decided with regard to that provision do not apply, Beli Ram and others v Ishar Das. ILR 8 Lahore 730: 1928 A I R 113 (Lahore).

Sut to set aside Deeds—See Mahomed Masik v. Malbat M U Badshah Mehal Saheba, 10 Cal 380, where the plaintiff sued to set aside a deed of endowment executed by her and to recover rupees 2,50,000 handed over by her to defendant No 1. The suit was valued at Rs. 2,50,000 and court-fees ad valorem on that amount paid The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed but stamped the memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only. The High Court held that "the defendant may not have any personal interest at all yet the subject-matter of the appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of the suit," and ordered that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on Rs. 2,50,000 Valuation.—A sunt for declaration and injunction in respect of private debutter property, is a suit for a declaration with consequential relief and therefore such suit falls within sec 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees ad valorem on the value made by the planntiff are payable (16 C L J. 194). The valuation of the relief sought must be reasonable (19 C L.). 15) This will also be the result where any other consequential relief is claimed, as in all such cases the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act.

This will also be the case where the trustee is sought to be removed.

259. Where the plaintiff sued the defendant, a co-widow, for leclaration that she is entitled to share equally with the co-widow, the properties left by her husband, held that the plaintiff was bound to sue for a specific share and she must pany advalorem court-fee on her share, Musst Gauesha v Musst Darobati, 20 PR 1975

A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff was the owner of certain Toda Gross Hak annuity of a certain mount received by a certain lady as heir and as such entitled to recover the same, comes within section 7 (iv) (c) and court-fee payable is ad valorem on the valuation by the plaintiff, Bhinatangii Chhatrasangii v Dowlatsongji Hemersongii, 27 Bom L R 247. 1925 A.I.R. 282 (Bom ): 87 I.C. 801.

Succession Act.—There is nothing in sec 387 of the Indian Succession Act which prescribes the nature of a suit brought to contest an order passed under it It is in no sense analogous to one brought under Order 21, Rule 63, C. P. C., and where the action involves consequential relief, court-fee has to be paid on the value of the subject-matter, Ghulam Mahammad v. Hazrat Chani and others, 1933 A.I.R. 13 (Peshawar) · 141 IC. 221.

Title.—Assertion of hastile title—An unfounded assertion of a proprietory right in a Revenue Court which had no juris"erton to determine the proprietory right in the land, cannot "apse of six or twelve years convert what was an occupancy or title into that of an under proprietor, Raja Mahammad

v Dhakeswar, 21 CL J. 253. Where the plaintiff sued, after an adverse order by the Collector, for declaration of his title to the land, alleging, that he is in possession, it was held that he must also seek for possession, otherwise the suit is barred as he does not seek further relief as required by section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Raj Narayan v Shyamnanda, 26 Cal. But the above decision was upset on review and it was found on remand that the plaintiff is in possession and the Calcutta High Court held when the case came back again after remand that if a party be in possession by receipt of rent from tenants then "he must be deemed to be in constructive possession till the tenants refuse to pay him rent Section 89 of the Land Registration Act, clause (a) contemplates a regular suit by the defeated party, either for possession or for a regular suit by the defeated party, either for possession or for declaration of title to immoveable property. Therefore, the plaintiff can sue only for declaration of his title without asking for any further relief, Shyamanand v Raj Narayan, 4 CL J 568 (572): 11 CWN 186 (189)

The effect of the order under section 59 of the Land Registration Act is stated in section 62 of that Act to be that of "settling the actual possession," that is to say, "inf determining that the plaintiff in the present case was not in possession of the property which forms the subject of the present suit." Therefore, a suit for a mere declaration is barred by section 42 nf the Specific Rehef Act, Ram v Janks, 12 C L R, 136. In the following cases it was held that a prayer for possession was necessary, Omurunnessa v Dilwar, 10 Cal 380; Fakir Chand v Anunda Chunder, 14 Cal 586

Succession as Heir .-- Where the plaintiff sued to establish his right as heir of her deceased son and to set aside a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 granted jointly to her as well as to the defendant, with a view to being permitted to draw interest on Government Promissory notes belongiong to the estate of the deceased, held that as consequential relief was to follow the declaratory decree sought, the stamp of Rupees 10 prescribed by Art. 17, clause (iii) of Sch II of the Court Fees Act, is not sufficient for the plaintiff, Mokhoda v. Nahin Chandra, 16 W.R. 259 Where the plantiff sued the defendant, a co-widow, for declaration that she is entitled to share equally with the co-widow, the properties left by her husband, held that the plaintiff was bound to sue for a specific share and she must pay advilorem court-fee on her share, Musst Ganesha v Musst Darobatt, 20 PR 1975

A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff was the owner of certain Toda Giras Hak annuity of a certain amount received by a certain lady as heir and as such entitled to recover the same, comes within section T (iv) (c) and court-fee payable is ad valorem on the valuation by the plaintiff, Bhinsangii Chhatrasangji v. Partition and possession on establishment of title -See under heading "Partition and possession on establisment of title," supra.

Wills .- The plaint in a suit to set aside a will as a forged document and for confirmation of possession, is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem according to the valuation of the subject-matter, Jay Narayan v Girish Chandra, 22 W.R 438: 15 B L R 172 See also Dinabandhu v Raymohini. 16 W.R 213: 8 B L R App 32 Where the plaintiff simply sued for a declaration that the will by the deceased is genuine and that a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 was erroneously granted, it was held, a court-fee of Rupees 10 is sufficient as no consequential relief was necessary, Gangamoni v. Gobal Chandra, 19 WR 214. During the lifetime of a testator a simple declaration as to any will by the testator is sufficient, but after the death of the testator the will becomes operative and the person seeking to avoid it must sue for its cancellation, Hukam Singh v Gyan Devi, 36 Ind Cas 95: 87 PR 1916. 13 P.L.R. 1917: 127 PWR 1916 See also Hakim v Musst Mahtab. 109 P.R. 1893, which was a case of a suit by a reversioner.

A bequest by A to his wife J of his property for hir maintenance was followed by another bequest empowering her to alternate the property J made a gift of the property to one of their sons who sold it away A grandson filed a suit for a declaration during the lifetime of J, that the gift and the subsequent sale are invalid. It was held that on the death of A the will has lost its ambulatory character and that the plaintiff is bound to ask for the cancellation of the will and pay advalorum court-fees, Charao Das v Musst Janna Debi and others, 1929 A I R 811 (Lah): 10 Lah 403: 10 L.L.J 562: 30 P.J.R. 672: 112 LC. 48.

Forged Will—A suit for a declaration that a will set up by the defendant is a forged document and that the planntif is the legal heir of the deceased and for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the property of the deceased, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. If the valuation is erroneous then the party may be allowed to amend, Bura Mall v. This Ram, 107 LC. 669 9 L.ah. 366 9 L.L. J. 579: 29 Punj.L. R. 27: 1927 A.I.R. 890 (Lah.).

When the prayers in the plaint were that the will may be declared to be a forgery; secondly, that the will may be cancelled, and thirdly, that the order of the sub-registrar registering the will may be cancelled, the suit was held to be for a declaration only as the 2nd and 3nd prayers were superfluous masmuch as under sec. 39 of the Specific Relief Act, the Court is hound to perform those acts and therefore the suit does not come under sec. 7 (iv) (c) as there the relief asked for is not a declaratory decree plus consequential relief but comes under Art. 17-A of the Spend School less empedded in Madres Kattura Pilloi and and

396 (Mad): 119 I.C 35

Valuation.—Where a plaintiff sues for a declaratory decree and asks for a consequential rehef, and puts his own valuation upon that consequential rehef, then for the purpose of court-fees and also for the purposes of jurisdiction, it is the value that the plaintiff puts upon the plaint that determines both, Sunderabar V Collector of Belganui, LR 461A 15, 43 Bom 376 23 CW 753 1919 MWN 254: 21 Bom LR 1148: 52 I C 897 PC (but in this case the question about court-fees was not exactly before the Judicial Committee)

In cases falling under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, the plaintiff must value in his plaint the relief sought and the plaint must be stamped according to such valuation, Sit Soc and others v. Ma Thin, 1924 A.I.R. 378 (R.)

Where a plantiff seeks to obtain a declaratory decree with consequential relief [sec 7 (iv) (c) or to obtain an injunction cl (d)] the suit must be valued according to the amount for which the relief sought is valued in the plant, Rajendra Baksh Singh v Musst Bahu Rain, 107 I C. 330: 1928 A I R 260 (Oudh)

The plaintiff is entitled to put his own valuation in a suit for a declaration with a consequential rehet. The valuation of the suit would be the valuation put by the plaintiff under the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act, The Official Trustee of Bengel v Gobardhan Guchon, (1928) 33 C.W.N. 231; 118 I.C. 357

In the absence of rules under sec 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, the Court not having any standard of valuation to refer to, would be unable to revise the valuation by the plaintif, The Narayanganj Central Co-operative Sole and Supply Society Ltd v. Mafizuddin, 61 Cal. 796: 38 C.W.N 589: 59 C.L.J. 233: 149 I.C. 3: 1934 A I R 448 (Cal.) F.B

If a plaintiff values his suit for the purpose of jurisdiction at a certain amount, he'cannot put a different valuation when it is found that the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (e) of the Court Fees Act, Srikishien Dar x. Satuarain, 32 P.L.R. 729: 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.I.R. 132 (Lah.).

In a suit for declaration with consequential relief, the plaintiff may put his own valuation, but the defendant is entitled to object to the valuation and if such objection is taken then the Court is to enter into the question as to the correctness of the valuation, Kirtyanand Singh v. Dinn Manjin, 149 I.C. 109: 1934 A.J.R. 234 (Patna).

It is not necessary for a plaintiff in a suit falling under set of 7, paragraph (iv) of the Court Fees Act to fix any value for the purposes of jurisdiction, as under see, 8 of the Suits Valuation Act the value determinable for the computation of court-fees governs the value for the purposes of jurisdiction, Gobindobin Krishina Salhi v. Hammaya Lingaya Fulindii, (1921) 45 Bom 567, Maung Nyi Maung v. The Mandalay Municipal Committee, (1934) 12 Rang. 335 (339): 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Rang)

Note.—It should be borne in mind that the provisions of sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act, which is in this chapter allows the Court to revise the valuation

The valuation can also be revised under rules 10 and 11 of Or 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sec 8 of the Suits Valuation Act requires that the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same

Sec. 7 (iv) (c), Proviso (Madras) —The proviso merely introduces a downward valuation below which reliefs sought in respect of immoveable property consequential on declaratory decrees shall not be valued, Venkatasiva Rao v Venkatasiva sinha and others, 63 ML J 764-36 LW 225 1932 MWN 992: 139 I.C 317 1932 A.I.R 605 (Mad): 1932 I.R 643 (Mad): 56 Mad. 212 (221).

PARAGRAPH (iv) (d)-Injunction.

This clause applies only to suits for perpetual and mandatory injunction As regards orders for injunction under Order 39, C. P. C., an appeal lies as an appeal from order and consequently ad vulorem court-fee is not necessary.

See also under "Declaration and injunction", supra, under sec. 7 (iv) (c).

In Gangadhar Misra v. Rani Debendrabala, I.L.R. 5 Patna 211 94 I.C 22: 1926 A.IR 249 (Patna) the Patna High Court held that a prayer for an ad unterim injunction in a sunt for declaration is a prayer for a consequential relief.

Stay of Batwara Proceedings.—Suit by an allottee under a private partition to stay subsequent partition proceedings under Bengal Regulation XIX of 1814 and to have his possession confirmed, should be considered as one for a declaratory decree or something in the nature of an injunction and therefore the plaint should not be stamped according to the value of the entire testate, Joyanth v. Lal Bahadaor, 8 Cal. 126; 10 CL.R. 146

Suits under sec. 149 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.—The institution fee in a suit under section 149 (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act is ad valorem on the rent deposited, Trailokya Molinii Dassi v. Kali Prasanna Ghose, 11 CWN 380 (382). But it was said in that case that it could hardly have been the intention of the Legislature that a simple suit such as sec. 149, (1.3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act appears to contemplate, should develop into a suit involving intricate questions of title, a suit contemplated by this section is a suit with reference to the money deposited in Court and for an injunction restraining the paying out of the money. It does not contemplate a suit for the establishment of the relation of landlord and tenant, Haraniah Bancer v. Ananta Dasi, 9 CWN 492. A suit under this subsection is in the nature of an interpleader suit, the question of title and possession may be incidentally gone into, Gurudas Radshit v. Kumud Bandhu Ray, 7 CL J 40 (notes)

"A suit under section 149 (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act is not a title suit and need not be stamped as such It is in the nature of a suit for an injunction under the Specific Relief Act or else a declaratory suit," Jagodamba Devi v Pratap Ghose, 14 Cal 537 (539) See also the case of Rubiunnessa v Goolpan Bibee, 17 Cal 829, where it was also said that the object of section 149 is to prevent tenants being harassed in disputes between rival claimants to the land

In a suit under section 149 of the Bengal Tenancy Act unless the plaintiff establishes his title and possession he is not entitled to the order restraining payment out of the money under clause (3), Kazi Mahomed Mazhar v Sheikh Kadir, 11 CWN 128 (note)

Injunctions.—Where the plaintiff in a suit under section 539, C.P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) asked for possession and also for an injunction which he valued separately at Rs. 100, held that the plaintiff is to pay court-fees ad volumen on that valuation, Thokuri v. Brahima Norain, 19 All 160.

Mondatory Injunctions — Mandatory injunction to demolish a house must be valued separately and ad valorem court-fees are payable thereon, Jogal Kithare v. Tale Singh, 4 All 329

Account and Injunction—A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to require the defendant to account to him and to permit him to inspect the account hook, and also for a positive order in the nature of a mandatory injunction for the protection of defendant's books and property in their hands, should be considered as a suit to obtain a declaratory order where consequential relief is prayed and also a suit to obtain an injunction, Manohar Gonesh v Bacca Rum, 2 Rom 219; Raghunath Ganesh v Gangadhar, 10 Rom 60.

Declaration and infinction by reversioner—In suits by reversioner against Hindu widow in possession, for a declaration and injunction, the court-fees payable must be computed according to the valuation made in the plaint, Kandhaya Ojha v Misst Jagram Kuar, 46 Ali 419: 79 I.C. 358. 22 Alil.L.J 349: 1924 A I R 597 (Alil.).

Injunction against Manucipality—A suit for an injunction restraining a Municipal Committee from demolishing a thara not constructed in accordance with sanction falls within sec. 7 (iv) (d) of the Court Fees Act and the plaintiff is entitled to value the relief at his own valuation and under see 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the valuation for court-fees and for jurisdiction should be the same, Dangara Das v The Municipal Committee, Fazilka, 116 LC 908: 1929 A I R 566 (Lah).

Where the plaintiff alleging herself to be in possession along with others of the piece of land in suit sued the Municipality and the transferee from the Municipality, praying for a declaration of her right to use the same and for a further declaration that the Municipality is not entitled to use it in a manner detremental to her right of user and for an injunction on the Municipality and the transferee probabiting them to use the land in such a manner, held that the valuation for injunction can be a nominal amount permissible under the Suits Valuation Act and the court-fee payable is ad valorem on such value plus Rs. 10 for each of the two declarations, Mussi Mulkinnissa v. Municipal Committee, Delhi, 118 P.L.R. 1904

Valuation of a suit for a permanent injunction restraining defendant from cutting timber in jungle and undergrowth and accounts.—The valuation of suit is the value of the relief sought in the plannt, and the plannt is to stamped with court-fee calculated ad valorem on that valuation, Roi Charan Pandey v. Kunja Behary, 46 Ind Cas. 884; Hari Sankar Dutta v. Kali Kumar Patra, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; Guldo Singhiy v. Lakshman

Singhii, 18 Bom. 100.

Valuation.—The valuation should not be an arbitrary valuation, Mohendra v. Dinabandhu, 19 C.I. J. 15: 21 Ind Cas. 771; Rajabala v. Radhika, 40 C.I. J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. (969) (C.) where it was held that value of the property involved is not necessarily the value for the purpose of ascertaining courters A suit for declaration of title regarding a piece of land and for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the construction of a chabutra was valued for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rs. 1,100 for the land and at Rs. 10 for the relief of injunction; held that under section 7, iv (d) of the Court Fees Act read with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the plaintiff was bound to pay court-fee ad valorem on Rs. 1,100 for injunction, Backham v. The Municipal Board of Mirastore,

The valuation of a suit for an injunction restraining the defendant from enforcing a money decree personally against the plaintiff, must be according to the amount expressed in the money decree. The plaintiff cannot put an arbitrary value in such a suit, Nadry Khain Abdullah Khan v Firm of the Cox's and King's Shipping Agency Ltd., 25 S.L.R. 15 130 I C 445, 1931 A.J.R. 15 (Sind)

Power of Court to increase voluntion—A plaint was filed in a certain Court praying for an injunction, the relief sought being valued at Rs 50. On the objection of the defendant an issue was framed and the question was tried and it was held that the value was Rs. 2,700 which exceeded the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court. The plaint was accordingly returned for presentation to the proper Court. Held, that the Court had no jurisdiction to increase the value of the suit section?, paragraph IV (d) of the Court Fees Act requires that, in a suit for an injunction, the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought, Guricumman v Venkota Krishnoma Chetty, 25 Mad 34, but see United Batul v Must Nauji Koor, 11 CW N 705 6 C1. After the passing of the preliminary decree in a suit for accounts two persons were appointed as referees with the consent of the parties for the purpose of going into the accounts. A decree was passed in accordance with their report. An appeal was filed with a court-fee of Rs 10 on the memorandum of appeal while the appellant claimed that an excess amount should have been awarded. The High Court held that the appeal should be valued and ad velorem court-fees paid on that basis, Mt.

Niamats Bai v Daulat Ram and another, 1933 A.I.R. 633 (Lah): 144 I C 559 14 Lah. 738: 34 P.I.R. 1079.

Appeal-Valuation .- An appeal from a preliminary decree in a suit for rendering of accounts and winding up of partnership must bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of which the relief claimed is valued, Dhupati Srinivasacharlu v. A Perindervamma, 39 Mad 725 30 M L J. 402: 33 I.C. 604; Kanis Mal v. Panna Lal, 28 Ind Cas 262. But if during the pendency of appeal from the preliminary decree, the enquiry as to amount due is completed, and a smaller amount than the value of the appeal from preliminary decree, is found due, then court-fees are necessary in the appeal from the final decree, Kanchan Mandar v Kamala Prasad, 16 CL J. 564: 15 Ind Cas 572 In section 7 the amount of court-fee is to be computed, in the suits for accounts, according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or the memorandum of appeal, Faizulla Khan v Mauladad Khan, 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah 737: 31 Bom LR 841 57 M L J 281: 1929 A J R 147 (P.C.) But this is to be done only when the suit is for accounts properly so called, Mahomedali v. Akbarali, 36 Bom L.R. 1234: 1935 A I R 69 (Bom)

Where the account is for a limited period—If the defence of the defendant be that he is liable to render accounts but only for a limited period owing to the operation of the statute of Limitation, then the defendant appellant can put his own valuation on the memorandum of appeal and is not bound to accept the valuation by the plaintift, Kanhanya v. Seth Rans Sarut, 44 All 542: 20 A.L. J. 416· of Ind. Cas. 841: (1923) All I.R. 228 (Allahabad). See also Kuldip Sahay v. Harihar Prasad Jha, I.L. R. 3 Pat. 146: 75 Ind. Cas. 871: 1924 A.I.R. 161 (Patra).

Where the plaintif loses and is ordered to pay a sum to the defendant—If a plaintif approximately values his relief for accounts at Rs. 200 and on hearing he not only lost his suit but was ordered to pay Rs. 1,400 to the defendant. It was held that the valuation of the appeal should be at Rs. 1,600, the test being the value of the relief granted which is sought to be got rid of, Shitzardas Matumal v. Hariram and another, 1933 A 1 R. 322 (Sind): 27 S.L.R. 335.

Procedure where the caurt-fee is found insufficient.—The appellant whether he is a plaintiff or a defendant, in an appeal arising from an account suit can give the same valuation and pay court-fees on such notional valuation under s. 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act. Even if some of the items in respect of which he was appealing were definite amounts, the actual courteche pays should be supposed to cover actual sums decreed and

Suit—Valuation.—The Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) requires that the plaintiff should only approximately state the amount he claims

V of 1908)

V of 1908)

The plaintiff is, therefore, free to fix any value but the execution of the decree he might obtain is controlled by sec 11 of the Court Fees Act Section 11 precludes execution of the decree in case it exceeds such value until additional court-fee has been paid, Gozinda v Dayobiai, 9 Bom 22

In a suit for account the plaintiff is entitled to value it approximately but if the Court thinks that the suit has been under-valued it can at any time apply section 54, C.P. C. (Or 7, Rule 11) and reject the plaint, Balwant Roo v. Bhima Sauker, 13 Bom 517. This valuation determines the jurisdiction of the Court and also the amount of court-fees to be paid on the plaint at the time of filing the suit, Khushall Chand v. Nagin Das, 12 Bom 675, Schlanushu Scravagor v. Rom Swomi Pilloi, 12 M.I.J. 66, Hardayal v. Rom Deo, (1924) A.I.R. 354 (R.): I.I.R. 2 Ran 408: 3 Bur.L.J. 307.

But the plaintiff cannot afterwards amend the plaint by altering the valuation, especially if such alteration will affect the jurisdiction of Court, Arogon v. Afpachi, 25 Mad. 543: 12 M.L. J. 35; Bai Imba v. Pranjirandas, 19 Bom 198; Bhagabantrai v. Mehta, 18 Bom. 40. But if he places a low valuation and institutes the suit in a Court with a limited pecuniary jurisdiction, and if after enquiry, it is found that the plaintiff is entitled to larger sum which was not in the jurisdiction of the Court to decree the plaintiff is limited to the jurisdiction of that primary Court, Goldy Suigh v. Indra Coomar, 13 C.W.X. 493: 9 C.L.J. 467: "Proberts v. Purna Ch. Bose, 43 Cal V. 504: 8 I.C. 31; Harjibhai V. Ja. 1021.

The reason for allowing the plaintiff to put an arbitrary value can be gathered from the fact that the plaintiff does not know how much is due to him, and as this can be definitely ascertained, only after an enquiry See Gulab Khan v. Abdul Wahab Khan, 31 Cal 365, Manna Lal v. Samandu, 46 P.R. 1906 94 P.L.R. 1906 See also Rishikesh v. Melaram, 94 I.C. 650, 1926 A.I. R 242 (Lahore)

Under sec 7, iv (f), Court Fees Act, the plaintiff is obliged in a suit for accounts to state the amount at which he values the relief sought, and court-fees are payable ad valorem according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint. The plaintiff cannot put one value for the purpose of jurisdiction and then select one or two items and pay court-fees on the selected items with an additional court-fee of Rs 15 on other items, Gourilal and others v Raja Babu, 1929 AIR 626 (P.)

In a suit for accounts the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and valuation for the purpose of court-fees should be the same; the valuation by the plaintiff fixes the jurisdiction of the trial Court which is not ousted if on enquiry an amount exceeding the perunary jurisdiction of the Court is found due, Ishwarappa Monra v Dhanp Gujar, 56 Bom 23; 34 Bom.L.R. 44, 1932 A.I.R. 111 (Bom.): 137 I.C. 702 See Vershi Kanji v Taku Munji, (1935) 37 Bom.L.R. 148 where separate valuations for court-fees and for assessment for pleader's fees were allowed. [This decision seems incorrect]

The plaintiff in a suit for accounts may put an arbitrary valuation. The Court cannot ask the plaintiff to revise the valuation, even if he admits in evidence that a larger amount will be found due and to direct that the valuation be amended. Kandaswom: Pillai v. Arunachalam Pillai, 1932 M.W N. 979: 35 L.W. 846; 1932 A.I.R. 650 (Mad ): 139 IC 105

In Imaget Husein v. Bashir Ahmed, 1932 A.L.J. 416: 1932 A.I.R. 413 (All), the Allahabad High Court held that (1) where the valuation of the suit is contested the value must be determined by the Court. (2) where the valuation can be ascertained correctly, the plaintiff cannot be allowed to put an arbitrary valuation upon his claim, nor can be be allowed to over-value or under-value his claim, nor can be be allowed to over-value.

Valuation of the relief sought.—Section 7 says that ad relorem court-fees shall be paid "according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plain to memorandim of appeal." In all such suits "the plaintiff shall state the amount at which the relief sought" is valued. The proper meaning to be attached to the latter words is that the plaintiff shall truly state the amount at which he values the relief sought, and that it cannot mean that a plaintiff is entitled to put in a fettitions value.

hen the relief is capable of valuation That this is not a mereactive of form becomes apparent when one considers the fact that the valuation affects jurisdiction and decides the Court by which the case is to be tried, Iogeshra v Durga Prasad Singh, 67 All. 500; 12 A.L. I. 844. 24 I.C. 679

The valuation for purposes of court-fees is to be determined and that for the purpose of jurisdiction must follow on same; but the plaintiff in a suit in which a consequential relief is prayed cannot at one and the same time obtain the vices of the highest possible tribunal for the determination in sclaim and evade payment of ad valorem court-fees. If or the purposes of jurisdiction he sets a light value on the rehef by way of injunction, it is doing him no injustice to hold that "the relief sought" on which court-fees must be levied, is the sum total of the two rehefs, Mann Lol v Radhey Gopalji, 47 All 501: 23 A L J 344 1925 A I R 602 (All) See also Balkrishna Narayan v Jankiban, 44 Bom 331 22 Bom L R 289: 57 I C 340, Sadieddra v Ram Chandra, 25 C W.N 768: 34 C L I 94 66 I C 268

Order VII, Rule 1, C P. C requires that a plaint shall contain a statement of the value of the subject-matter of suit for the purposes of jurisdiction. It is not contemplated that the subject-matter shall have two values, one purely arbitrary and fanciful for the purposes of jurisdiction and one in strict con-formity to the real value for the purposes of court-fees In either case the valuation should conform to reality Therefore, when a plaint contains a valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction, it is a natural assumption that the same valuation would apply if it were necessary to have a valuation for an ad valorem courtfee A suit for an injunction and for the appointment of a receiver falls within the purview of section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, and under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the value of such a suit for purposes of court-fees and jurisdiction must be the same If in such a suit the plaint does not state the value put by the plaintiff upon the relief sought, and there is no valuation for the purpose of computing ad valorem court-fees, the value for the purposes of jurisdiction must also be taken to be the value for the purposes of court-fees, Pothi Inna-purnayya Pothi Nagarotnomma minor by next friend, etc. 92 I.C 730 · 1926 A I R 591 (Mad.).

Although it is for the plaintiff to state the amount at which to values the rehef sought, yet, it is open to the Court, if a question be raised as to the true valuation to determine such question and in any event the value sought to be put by the plaintiff must be a reasonable one, but which may not be the value of the properties, Mt. Zalur Bibi v. Sharifuddin Khon, 154 I.C. 850: 1935/A.I.R. 68 (Pat.).

PARAGRAPH V.

Scope.—Sints for possession—A suit for recovery of property on declaration that a deed of gift which is the basis of the defendant's title is not binding on the plaintiff owing to his minority and for cancellation of the same is really a suit for possession, Affall Husain v Shafiquinnessa, 7 O.W.N 571: 126 IC 688: 1930 A.I.R. 368 (Oudh): 1930 I.R. 416 (Oudh).

A suit by a beneficiary under a trust for supplying the want of Barragis, the plaintiff having an interest in the surplus income to set aside alienations by the trustees by way of mortgage, sale and lease, does not come under Art. 17B of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act (Madras Amendment) but comes under sec. 7, paragraph II of the Court Fees Act and not under sec. 7, iv (c) or sec. 7, para IX or sec. 7, para. XI of the Court Fees Act, Penkatolal v. Kosaldap Bavaji, 61 M.L. J. 39: 33 L.W. 206·130 I.C. 449: 1931 A.J.R. 24 (Mad).

Religious land—The fact that the land is "religious land" does not make any difference and render it incapable of valuation with reference to the value of similar lands in the neighbourhood and the plaint is to be stamped according to the value of the subject-matter, Maung Meik v Kumara, 60 Ind Cas 5: (1920) 3 UBR 236

5 7, paragraph V is applicable to suits for possession of immoveable property and no distinction is made between a suit for possession as a beneficial owner and a suit for possession as a trustee or as manager of a religious endowment. The Legislature has laid down certain rules governing the courtiess payable on suits for possession of immoveable property and there is no justification for interpreting the word 'possession as meaning possession as a beneficial owner. A suit for possession by a Mohant comes under this clause. The property excluding the math is to be valued at the market price, the math itself having no market value, Parsottamanand Giri v. A suit for possession may be by a proprietor, underproprietor, lessee, mortgagee or a tenant. There is no justification for qualifying the word 'possession' by reading into s. 7, paragraph V, the word 'proprietory'. A suit by a subsequent mortgagee to recover possession of certain mortgaged properties consisting of houses, groves, etc., from a prior mortgage, is a suit for possession when no offer to return the purchase money is made and therefore does not come under s. 7, paragraph 1X of the Court Fees Act and the plaint is to be stamped at valorem on the value of the properties under paragraph V. Question of title—A suit for possession on the basis of plaintiff's title as an adopted son, is a mere suit for possession and falls within s. 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act as a declaration of title as an adopted son is not elaumed and is not necessary, Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Ton, 9 Rang 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (Rang.). See Maung Po Ln v. Bank of Chettinad, 1934 A.I.R. 313 (Rang.).

A suit for the relief "that on proof of the plaintiff's right in ownership and of possession, and the invalulity of the sale deed, the plaintiff may be granted actual and proprietory possession of the six annas share by ejectment of the defendant." is a suit for possession and mesne profits and the court-fees are payable under s. 7, v (b) of the Court Fees Act as the lands formed part of a temporarily settled estate, Amir Hasan Khan v. Hafiz Mahammad, 1930 A.L.J 1100: 128 I.C 779: 1931 IR. 107 (All.)."

Appeal by the landlord—The plaintiff claiming a jote right in the land sued defendants 1 and 2 as tenants on the land and defendant no 3 as the landlord, for recovery of the possession of the jote. The trial Court passed a decree for possession against defendants 2 and 3 but dismissed the suit against defendant no. 1. The landlord (defendant no. 3) filed an appeal in the High Court on a court-fee of Rs 20 on the ground that he is concerned with a declaration that plaintiff is not his tenant. It was overruled and the High Court held that he mist pay court-fees under s. 7, paragraph V as the suit was a suit for recovery of possession, Haladhar Pal Choxedhary v, Shrikh

"The Court is in all cases bound to adjudicate upon the matters in issue between the parties and it is not necessary for the plaintiff to pray that this should be done. The real rehef which the plaintiff seeks is the delivery of possession of the property by dispossession of the defendant, and if he asks for a decree in those terms when he is not bound first to ask for a declaration before such rehef can be granted, I do not think that, merely because he asks the Court to adjudicate upon the matters in issue, the suit should be treated as a suit to obtain a declaratory decree with consequential rehef," Rominiuman Prasad v Govind Das, 2 Pat 125: 1922 Pat C.W.N 291: 3 P.L.T. 704: 1 Pat L.R. 1; 68 I.C. 700: 1922 A.I.R. 615 (Pat.) Even where the suit was one for a declaratory decree and also for possession, then the suit for possession having been specifically provided for by $7, paragraph V, the suit is to be valued accordingly and court-fees paid under the provisions of that sub-section Venhalastic Rao v. Venhalanarastinha, 63 M.I., 764 36 L.W. 225 1932 M.W. N. 992: 139 I C. 17: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad): 1932 I R. 643 (Mad)

Suit by a succeeding administrator—A decree on award having been passed against an administrator at the instance of the creditor of the estate represented by the administrator, the decree-holder in execution of the decree put up a property to sale and purchased it himself with the sanction of the Court. A succeeding administrator brought a suit to set aside the decree and the sale in execution thereof on the ground that under section 282 of the Succession Act (Act X of 1865), the decree-holder was only entitled to a rateable distribution among the creditors of the estate; held, that the case fell under section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act, Bai Meherbai v. Maganchand, 29 Bonn. 96; 6 Bom L R 853.

Raiyot at fixed rates.—A suit to eject a tenant at fixed rates is a suit for possession within this paragraph and the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees is the value of the subject-matter of suit, i.e., the tenant-right and not of the land itself nor one year's rent, Ram Raj Tewari v. Girnandan, 15 All 63: (1892) 12 All. W.N. 240.

When a landlord claims to eject a tenant, he claims to receive the tenant-right in the holding, and the stamp duty chargeable on the plaint, should be determined with reference to the market-value of that right, Ajodhya v. Daibee, 3. Agra 5. But see Kebul Rain Mindul v W S Wells, 24 WR. 484, where it was held that the stamp is to be paid on the valuation by the plaintiff

Where ejectment is asked for breach of the covenant, and the tutle of the plaintiff, as appearing from the plaint, is complete the court-fee payable is as in a suit for possession under section 7 (v) to be ascertained by reference to sub-clause (e) of the same clause, Mahomed Ibrahim Shahib Khatin v. Bhynnesh A Ismailyi, 1 L.B.R 303 But see sec 7 (xi) (cc) for cases of ejectment of tenants by landlords and of tenants holding over after expiry of the period of written lease, and the cases noted there

Militat and Khudkast—A claim for possession of Milikat does not include a claim for possession of the Khudkast. The test is "would the plaintiff be entitled to the direct possession of Khudkast lands in a suit for possession of Militat sharef....... If the claim for possession of Militat sharef included the claim for the possession of Khudkast lands then clearly there was no necessity for asking for any relief in respect of the Khudkast land." The result is that where the claim for khudkast land is not included in the claim for Militat shares then the claim as to khudkast lands should be sengrately valued.

Suit by a lessee.—Where the lessee sues for possession of land comprised in the lease but of which possession is not given the suit is not a suit for specific performance of contract but is governed by section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act. Ghulam Sabir v Narain Prasad, (1908), 28 All.W N. 201: 5 All L I. 534.

and ad valorem court-fees paid on that valuation, Raghubans Narain Singh v. Khub Lal Singh, 80 I.C. 439 6 Pat L. T. 255.

Suit for possession by mortgagee —A suit for possession by a mortgagee by conditional sale, claiming to have foreclosed the mortgage under Regulation xeii of 1806, is a suit for possession. Tellu Mal v. Lal Sinah. 20 P.R. 1893.

Section 7, v (d) applies to a suit by the usufructuary-moragee to recover possession of the property, and the property is to be valued at the market value, which means in such cases the mortgagee's interest in the property, i.e., the amount of mortgage-money, Mahdi v. Gajadhar, 73 Ind. Cas. 244: 1924 A I R. (Outh) 163

Statt for possession by parties who were not parties to the mortgage deed—A suit by persons not parties to the mortgage bond on the ground that the mortgagor has mortgaged properties in excess of his share in the properties and consequently the mortgaged auction purchaser is entitled to all the properties mortgaged and for recovery of their share in the properties in a suit for possession of those properties, Must Slather Bono Beginn v. Raj Bahadur Singh, 1933 A I R 505 (Oudh) 149 IC 1138

Redemption and possession—Where the suit is one for possession but the Court allowed redemption on payment of a certain sum due as mortgage money, the nature of the suit is not thereby changed, Purna Singh v Kesar Singh, 39 PR. 1907. 119 PLR 1907, but when the mortgagor asks for redemption and possession in a suit for cancellation of the mortgage deed and possession, the suit comes under section 7, paragraph ix of the Court Fees Act, Karaman Singh v Norman Cockell, 1 CW N. 670

Valuation —Valuation for jurisdiction in a suit for possession after a decree for foreclosure in a mortgage by conditional sale is not to be calculated under the Court Fees Act, Ahalyabai Debya v Shania Charan Bose, 1 C.L.R. 473

Suit for partition and separate possession—Suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property comes under this paragraph according to Bombay High Court. It is the market value of the land and houses that determines jurisdiction, Dagdu v Totaram, 11 Bom LR. 1074: 33 Bom. 63.

Suit by retreasoners — A suit by a reversioner on the death of a Hindu widow to recover possession of immoveable property, which was in his possession as a limited owner, is a suit for possession only although the plaint contained a prayer for declaration that the lease is not binding upon him as the institution of the suit indicates his election to treat it as a millity, Bijoy Gopal Moskerige v. Krishna Mahini Debi, (1907) 34 I.A. 87: 34 Ch.l. 329: 4 A.L.J. 329: 9 Bom L.R. 602: 11 C.W.N. 424: 5 C.L.J. 334: 17 M.L.J. 154, Ramakrishnayya v. Specific performance and possession—The plaint in a suit for specific performance of contract and possession should be tamped under section 7, paragraph V according to the value of the subject-matter, Madan Mohan Singh v Gaja Prase. Singh, 14 CL 1, 159: 11 Ind Cas 228

The plaintiff sued for recovery of possession of a mine, for mesne profits and damages allegang that she is a transferree from the grantee from the mother of the 1st defendant, who has since then entered into an agreement with other persons, whom he had authorised to enter upon the land, to grant them a least The planntiff was unable to obtain possession of the property claimed by her, and her suit was in substance a suit for possession, held that the suit fell under section 7, paragraph V and not under section 7, paragraph XI (e) or under section 7, iv (c) of this Act, Sundar Lal Marwari v Jessie Caroline Murroy, 16 C. L. J. 375: 16 Ind Cas 963

Where the plaintiff alleged that the defendant agreed to scill certain land to him and had received part of the consideration money and the present suit is one for possession of the land and also that the defendant may be ordered to execute a sale deed and have it registered on receipt of the balance of the consideration. Definite share of an estate -A definite share does not mean a definite share separately assessed with revenue When land which is the subject-matter of a suit is a definite share (such as five annas) of an estate paying annual revenue to Government, the court-fee should be fixed on the value mentioned, i.e., ten times the proportionate revenue payable annually. It is true that the second part of cl (a) contemplates land which is part of a permanently-settled estate, such part having been separately assessed by the Collector with annual revenue If the Legislature had intended that the definie share mentioned in the lst part of cl (a) must be also a definite share separately assessed with revenue by the Collector, as in the second part of that clause, it would have said so, Binnad Lal v Shvam Lal, 12 C.W N 990, but in Chandra Narayan v Ashintosh, 41 Cal. 812: 18 CW.N 659 19 CL J 342 28 IC 89, the above view was not accepted

Definite share in a subordinate tenure—The plaint in a suit by a subordinate tenureholder to recover possession of a definite share in a permanently-settled area, should be stamped according to clause (a) of paragraph (v) of section 7, Habibul Hossein v Mahomed Reza, 8 Cal 892 10 C L R 385.

A share in an under-proprietary-tenure in a permanently; settled village, is a definite share of the estate as a whole and the court-fee payable in a suit for possession of such share is to be calculated on ten times the revenue payable on the share in suit. The Judicial Commissioner said. "who pays the Revenue to Government is immaterial for the purpose of determining the court-fees payable on such a claim..... "the 5 annas 4 pies share of the subject-matter (the undertenure) is certainly a definite share of the estate as a whole which pays annual revenue to Government, and as such revenue is permanently settled, it follows that the amount of the courtfees payable by the plaintiff in this suit must be calculated with reference to ten times the revenue payable," Swaminalk v. Jang Bahadur Sing, 24 OC 39: 7 O.L. J 403: 58 Ind Cas 132 (133) See contra-Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 Ind Cas. 928 (Patna).

Clause (b).—Fractional share.—When a part of an estate paying annual revenue to Government under a settlement which is not permanent, is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, the value of the subject-matter of a suit for the possession, or to enforce a right of pre-emption in respect of a fractional share of that part, shall, for the purpose of computation of the amount of contr-fee payable in the suit.

be deemed not to exceed five times the revenue separately assessed on that part as may be rateably payable in respect of the same, Government of India Notification, No 1746, dated 4th April, 1889. Definite share of an extate—In a Bhaiya chera village the plaintiff sued to pre-empt certain plots of lands measuring half a kata paying revenue to Government Held, that the property sold was a definite share of an estate paying revenue to Government and the court-fee payable was under section 7 (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, Zaharia v Gopal, 3 A.L.] 511 (1905) 26 A.W.N. 195

In a sut for declaration of right to land and possession of definite shares of estate paying an annual revenue to Government but not permanently, the plaint is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated on five times the revenue payable in respect of the share, Ishri Dud v Kishen Das, 1 AWN 5

Khatar—A khewat khata is not a 'definite share' of an estate, as it is not a 'definite share' of the mahal. It is merely a part of the mahal, but not a fractional share or definite share of the mahal, although it is assessed with a definite share of the revenue assessed upon the mahal. It follows that a fractional share of a "khewat khata" is not a 'definite share' of an estate. So if the suit were for the possession of an entire khewat khata the court-fee would be payable ad valorem under sec. 7 (v) (b) upon five times the revenue assessed upon the khata, a suit for fractional share of khewat khata comes under sec. 7 (v) (d) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees on the market value are to be paid, Alussi, Haliman v. Paramba in Malabar—"In Malabar the assessment is lexical upon the cocomin, areca or jack trees which grow in parambas. If a paramba contains no cocomint, areca or jack trees, no assessment is charged. In fact in Malabar a tree tay is subtifued for the land a seessment, and whether or not a paramba is assessed depends upon the nature of the trees grown therein It is, therefore, evident that parambas should either be classed as lands paying no revenue or as gardens. We are of opinion that the term refers primarily to garden in English sense, ornamental or pleasure or vegetable, and that parambas do not ordinarily come under that category... The Acting District Judge will be informed that in case of parambas the amount of fees payable under Act VII of 1870, is to be computed either under sub-section (c) or (e) of section 7, clause (v) according to the circumstances of each case," Indational Modified of Modified of Modified No. Pullambath Manadly, 12 Mad. 301

Clause (d). Not a definite share of an estate,—The principle seems to be that if the suit be not for a definite share, say a fourth or a fifth share, of a separately assessed estate, then the court-fees payable is to be valeulated on 5 times the revenue assessed on that share, but if the suit be for distinct plots and not a definite share then the court-fee is to be paid on the market value of the share, Reference under the Court Fees. 1ct, 1870, section 5, 16 All, 493: 13 A.W.N. 174.

(a) which uses the disjunctive 'or. The principle underlying the distinction between the two clauses seems to be that the court-frees must be paid on the market value of the distinct plots because they may be the most valuable part of the estate and the rule of proportion not having been applied by the Collector cannot be invoked by the owner." Proviso 1.—The three clauses of the proviso seem to apply only to lands which have been subjected to a survey settlement as ordinarily understood and legally provided for in the Hombay Presidency, the first clause being applicable to land settled for a period not exceeding thirty years, the second to lands settled for a longer period or permanently, and the third to land (ahenated) lands on which the whole or a part of the survey assessment has been expressly remitted, per Birdwood J. in Allachela v. The plaintiff brought a suit on the ground that the defendants are licensee-tenants-at-will of the house they are residing in but the house really belongs to her and she had served a notice on them to quit but they have set up an oral gift by her to them and refuses to vacate the house; that they may be ordered to vacate the house and garden in suit. The trial Court held that the suit is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and that ad valorem court-fee is payable on the value of the house and garden which it found to be in excess of the valuation made by the plaintift and returned the plaint. The lower appellate Court affirmed this decision on appeal. The High Court in revision held that the suit as framed is a suit for ejectment. The prayer for determination of plaintiff's title was only incidentally made in the plaint. The court-fee is payable in accordance with the market value of the subject-matter of the suit. The subject-matter is the right to eject the dejendants and the value of that right is the value at which the defendant's right to remain in the house under license is valued, Musst Barkatininsa v. J. C.—The word 'house' means a building used as a dwelling place and includes the land on which such building is creeted, Mahamed Taher v Pir Biter, 130 I C. 550 1931 A.I.R 6 (Sind): 1931 I R 38 (Sind)

Garden.—For suits for possession of a garden by a tenant on declaration of his occupancy right, see Upendra Chandra Mitra v Sateouri Dhar, 23 Ind Cas 964, supra

A garden primarily means an ornamental or pleasure of vegetable garden, yet it is a question of fact which must be decided in each case, Audathodon Moidin v Pullambath Monally, 12 Mad 301

A few isolated trees on a piece of land will not make it a garden, but where a number of trees are planted on a particular piece of land which is well defined and can be marked off from the rest of the land, it is difficult to see why the particular plot should not be treated as a garden, if the land is used for cultivation of flowers, fruits or vegetables In suits in respect of land on which cocoanut trees have been planted, the question whether it is a garden or not and whether for the purpose of determination of jurisdiction it fell under paragraph (v) (c) or (v) (e) is a question of fact to be determined on the evidence in each case Whether the land is assessed or unassessed it will fall under paragraph (v) (e) if it is a garden, Abdul Rahim Shahib v. Kullappa Gounden, 18 MLT 243 reversed on appeal in Kullappa Gounden v. Abdul Rahim Shahib, 40 Mad 824: 5 L.W. 270. 21 M.L.T 251: 39 Ind Cas 254, where it was held that a garden means an ornamental or pleasure or vegetable garden and the fact that cocoanut trees were planted does not make it a garden.

In a suit for land though assessed with land revenue forming a garden and two houses, the valuation for the purposes of court-fees is governed by section 7, paragraph (v) (c) of the Court Fees Art and is not to be arrived at either for the purpose of court-fees or for jurisdiction by the artificial 30 times jama rule, Musts Bhag Bhari v Jowahir Singh, 25 Ind. Cas. 545: 71 PR 1914: 241 PLR. 1914: 155 P.W.R. 1914

A fruit garden would be a "garden" even though the land is assessed with revenue, Siri Dhar v Amer Nath, 34 PW & 1908 61 PLR 1908 146 PR 1908

A suit for a parcel of land coming within the meaning of the spression "garden" requires court-fees as provided in sec 7, paragraph (v), clause (e) of the Court Fees Act although the land may be assessed for Government revenue, Hokim Bibt Wir Altinde, 24 SLR 24 117 TC 781 1930 A 1R 15 (Sind).

Trees—The trees standing on specific trems claimed in the lant need not be separately valued. They are included in the valuation of the item, Subramania Ayyar v. Roma Ayyar and others, 105 I C 881 1927 A I R 1002 (Mad ) 54 M L J 67. Z T L W 489.

PARAGRAPH VI.

Valuation.—The valuation is to be computed in accordance with paragraph (v) of this section, Simder Singh v. Dhian Singh, 15 P.R. 1919.

The valuation of a sunt for pre-emption of land of the description falling under section 7, v (d) of the Court Fees Act, the valuation for court-fees and jurisdiction is to be determined with reference to the market value of the land at the date of sale and not at the date of institution of sunt (The cases of Sundar Das v Shom Singh, 74 P.R. 1875; Foel v Godar Khan, 161 P.R. 1833 dist on the ground that in those cases the claim for value of improvement had to be considered and the pre-emptor had to pay the value of the improvements in addition to the value of the property sold at the time of sale), Sher Muhammad v Ahmad Said and others, 69 Ind. Cas. 650° (1924) A IR 380 (Lahore)

The valuation of a suit to enforce a right to pre-empt is, in accordance with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, that fixed in the manner provided by sec 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act, Narayan Nair v. Cheri Katri Kntty, 34 M.I. J. 397. 45 Ind. Cas, 80

Valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction—In a pre-emption sure, the subject-matter is the right of pre-emption, the value of which, and not that of the property itself, determines the question of jurisdiction under section 20, Act IV of 1871 (Bengal Civil Courts Act), Nanu Singh v. Rosh Behari Singh, 13 Cal 255.

Valuation for the purpose of court-fee — The bill, as first amended, imposed a fixed charge of Rs 10 on suits relating to rights of pre-emption The effect of that provision would be to reverse the existing practice, under which such suits were assessed according to the value of the property regarding which a right of pre-emption was claimed Further consideration of the matter had led to the conclusion that this practice was in accordance with the principle adopted throughout the Bill; that the valuation of the suits would be regulated by the value of the subject-matter actually in dispute, and should therefore be main-In the cases referred to, the subject-matter was in fact the possession of the property which the litigants claimed a right to purchase, and the application of the above-mentioned principle to such cases was in no way barred or affected by the circumstances that one or other of the disputing parties had to pay a certain amount to a third person as a preliminary condition to obtaining the actual possession of the property to which the suit has reference" Gazette of India, Supplement, dated 12th March, 1870

In a sut for pre-emption in respect of separate plots of land, which did not constitute any definite portion of a distinct revenue-paying area, and were not themselves separately assessed with revenue, the court-fee should be paid on the market value of the land in suit and not as the case where the suit is for a definite fractional share, on five times the Government-revenue. See Government of India Notification, dated 10th, September,

1889 No 4650, Clause 18 in the Appendix

In a sut for pre-emption the court-fee payable is to be ealculated on ten times the land revenue assessed on the land and has no connection with the sale pince of the land or any encumbrance thereon, Chandi Ram and others v. Ram Sukh and others, 1933 A.I.R. 767 (Lah.): 35 P.I.R. 26: 147 IC, 29.

Pre-emption to respect of a recentee paying estate—For the purpose of court-fees a suit for pre-emption in respect of a sale of land paying revenue to Government falls under section 7 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, Sunder Singh v Dhian Singh, 15 P.R. 1919; 43 P.L.R 1919; 49 Jind Cas. 358

The principle seems to be that when the sunt is for a definite share, say a ½th or 115th of a separately assessed receive paying estate, the court-fee may be paid on five times the revenue assessed on that part but if the suit be for distinct plots and not for a fractional part then the court-fee must be paid on the market value, Reference under the Court Feet Adi. 1870-16 All 493: 14 A.W.N. 174. Whether the plaintiff such for pre-emption of shares of two villages out of a large number sold in one and the same transaction, the plaint is properly tamped if the court-fees paid are calculated on five times the ageregate amount of the Government revenue payable for each of the two villages, Durga Prosad v. Purandar Singh, 27 All. 185-24 All W.N. 210. See also the cases of Chamalif Ron

v. Ran. Det, 1 All 552; Mulchand v. Shib Charan Lal, 2 All 676, Sukru v Tufaczul Hossem Khan, 16 All 401 In a suit for pre-emption, the court-fees are to be calculated on the market value of land under paragraph V (d) of section 7 unless the suit be for a definite share of an estate paying revenue to Government or is recorded in the Collector's Register as separately assessed, Musst Inan v Musst Nadir Nishan, 6 PR 1883 There is no provision in the Court Fees Act for the valuation of the fractional part of a holding which is recorded in the Collector's Register as separately assessed with land revenue, Haidan Alli v Sandha, 102 P. R. 1880.

Pre-emption of land not forming a definite share of a revenfaying estate—In a sint for pre-emption in respect of separate plots of land which is not a definite share of the revenue paying estate and were not in themselves separately assessed with revenue, the conti-fee should be assessed on the natiset value of the property, Baija v. Mir. (1894) 14 A.W.N. 174—16 All 493—See also Salamat. Ih v. Nii. Mahamod. Khan and others, 1933. A.I.R. 533. (Oudh.) 10.O.W.N. 1100—147—IC 852—

It is the duty of the Munsarm to see that where pre-emption of certain land out of a larger one is sought, that the plot in dispute is a definite share of the whole as recorded in the Collector's Register or itself is separately assessed with Recvine as under section 7. v (b). Garden—In a suit to pre-empt a garden with a house and our-houses, the High Court held that the term garden" includes a fruit garden though the land might have been assessed to land revenue, and that the value of a suit for possession of such garden to the purposes of the Court Pies. Act must be assessed at the market value of the garden Rebail Lol x Nand Lol, 68 Ind Cas 345 2 L.I. [32] approximg Vision Bhaqibhari v Jacober Sindh, 71 PR 1914—25 Ind Cas 545

Hidigo factory—A claim, therefore, for pre-emption of an indigo factory, although the site of the factory may be laid paying resemite to Covernment must be valued and the Court fees paid thereon according to the value of the buildings constituting the factory and not according to the value of the site Such buildings as constant, the factory would fall within the meaning of the iero "houses" as used in the Court Fees Act, During Steph v B dect or Devist, 23, 34, 31, 248–22 A.W.N. 27

Mortgage,—This prince (the prince) to even if the land is subject to a insufficient mortgag, and remediate possession cannot be obtained or is not sential. Display Single V. Blanct Single, 22 All 10 F B | 6 A.L.1 935 3 Ind Cas 562.

Transfer of equity of reder oftion. In a suit for pre-emption on the transfer of equity of redemption of a house, the courfee to be paid is to be calculated on the market value of the house which is the subject-matter of the mortgage, Ghasita Mal v. Kanshi. Ram, 123 P.L. R. 1903

In case of deficiency, Court to give time.—In a preemption suit when the plaint is insufficiently stamped the Court must give time to make good the deficiency under Order 7, Rule 11, C. P. C., Irwan Das v. Khusabi Ram, 27 P.I. R. 1917: 25 P.W.R. 1917. 39 Ind. Cas 766

As to appeals.—See Hafiz Ahmad v Sobha Ram, 6 All. 488: 3 All WN 179-where the defendants appealed on the ground that they are entitled to a larger amount and that the plaintiffs have estopped themselves by refusing to purchase the same The High Court, at page 490 of the report, said, "We do not agree that the nature of suit has changed in appeal, on the contrary, the subject-matter of the dispute between the parties was the right of pre-emption, the value of which was to be determined in the manner directed by section 7, paragraph (vi) of the Court Fees Act We are of opinion that where an appeal is preferred in a suit for pre-emption, on the ground that the right to pre-empt has or has not been established, as the case may be, no matter what other pleas may be taken, the value of the subject-matter in dispute, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, must be determined as in terms provided in paragraph (vi) of section 7 of the Act But when the question in appeal relates solely to the amount to be paid by the preemptor, then we think that it should be calculated od valorem on the difference between the amounts alleged as sale price on the one side and the other" See also Mathura Prasad v. Karam Singh, 6 OWN 276, 177 IC 480 1929 A LR 240 (Oudh)

A memorandum of appeal against a decree in a suit for pre-emption of an estate assessed to revenue, where the appellant seeks to set aside the whole decree or a reduction of the amount payable, is to be stamped with court-fees assessed on ten times the annual revenue and not on the amount by which the pre-emption money is sought to be reduced, Surain Singh v. Syndor Singh and others, 120 I C. 532: 1929 A I.R. 879 (Lah).

The vendee who appeals against the decree in a suit for pre-emption, is entitled to pay court-fees on ten times the amount of revenue assessed on the land, although his real motive may be to increase the value and the court-fees payable on the difference between the value claimed and the value allowed is far higher than the court-fees payable on ten times the revenue assessed. The High Court said: "It is an anomaly in the law relating to court-fees that a person who appeals only against a part of the decree should pay more court-fees than the one who appeals against the whole of it. But a litigant is entitled to appeal against the whole of a decree though he intends to attack only a part of it," Nazar Muhammad v. Kaluram and others, 9.1.a. 563. 113 IC 538. 1929 A IR 190 (Lah.).

If the vendees appellants in appeal contest the right of the pre-emptors to sue for pre-empton and also claim the balance of the purchase money which has not been allowed to them, the stamp payable on the memorandum of appeal is the stamp originally payable by the pre-emptors, **e*, on ten times the land revenue but if the appeal related to the amount of purchase money only, then ad valorem court-fees on the amount in dispute would have been payable, *Harichand v. *Attar Singh*, 131 IC 751. 1931 A 1R 490 (Lah) 1931 IR 511 (Lah) 182 ea also Ram Labhaya v Yand Prakash*, 1934 A 1R 424 (Lah).

PARAGRAPH VIII.

The plaintiff sued to remove an attachment placed by the Collector of Thana on a cocoanut garden in Salsette in order to levy a fine of Rs 2,340. The Bombay High Court said at page 357 "The word 'value' in the last clause must be construed in the same way as in the previous clauses of the same section, and therefore, in case of land held on assessment for a period not exceeding thirty years, and paying the full assessment to Government (which is the present case), the value must be deemed to be sum equal to five times the survey assessment. The meaning of clause (viii) evidently is that a person suing to set aside an attachment on land shall in no case be called upon to pay a higher fee than he would have to pay if he were suing for possession of the land." The word "Government land" explained Collector of Thana v Dadabhai Bomanji, 1 Bom 352, but in Daya Chand Nemchand v Hemchand Dharani Chand, 4 Bom 515 F B., it was held that a plaint in a suit to restore an attachment of a house which has been reversed at the instance of an intervenient is to be stamped with court-fee of Rupees ten

The valuation for stamp duty of a suit brought by trustees to set aside an attachment should be calculated on the value of the lent claimed by the judgment creditor in the case of a nesignment by insolvent for the benefit of his creditors, Cecil Stephenson v Baumgartuer, 3 Agra 104 Where the suit is for a declaration that a certain property valued at Rupees 400 is not to be sold in execution of the plaintiff's decree for Rupees 1,500 the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the value of the property and not on the value of the decree, Durga Prosad v. Rachla Koer, 9 All. 140. When the only parties to a suit are the execution creditor or his representative on one-side and the claimant objector or his representative on the other, and the sole question between them is whether the property attached in execution of the decree is or is not liable to be sold in execution of the decree then the value means the value of the subject matter of sun, **e*, the value of the property when the value of the decree exceeds the value of the property. But if the suit be under section 283, C. P. C. then the valuation for the jurisdiction within the meaning of Civil Couris Act (xii of 1887) must be the value of the property attached whatever may be the value of the decree sought to be executed, *Duarko*Das* v* Komeshar Prosad, 17 All 69 and the cases cited therem. Stit to set aside an execution sale—A suit to set aside a sale on the ground that the attachment is not binding is virtually a suit to set aside an attachment and the court-fee is to be paid on the value of the land or the value of the decree which even is less, Gangadhar Ayar v Vela Chetty, 14 M L.J. 144

PARAGRAPH IX.

Application.—This paragraph applies only to suits and not to appeals, Nepal Rav v Debi Prosod, 27 All 477, infra In the matter of Mahadeo Provad v Gorakh Singh, 30 All 547, infra In the matter of Mahadeo Provad v Gorakh Singh, 36 All 547, infra Edward Singh, 36 All 547, infra Edward Singh, 36 All 40, infra Reference under Court Fees Act, 20 Mad 367, infra But when the sole question in appeal is the right to redeem, the court-feet payable, are to be calculated under section 7, paragraph (st) of the Court Fees Act, Dhiraj Singh v. Subject-matter of suit.—The subject-matter of the suit is the amount of the mortgage money and not the market value of the lands in suit, Kubari Singh v Atma Ram, 5 All. 332; Keder Singh, v. Malabadal Singh, 31 All. 44: 28 All. W.N. 296: 5 All. L.J. 713: 1 Ind Cas 704, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 5 Mad 288; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 14 Mad. 480; Jalladdeen v. Vijoyasami, 39 Mad. 447: Mandoth v. Puthonpurayil, 15 Ind Cas 587, Rupchond Khemchand v. Balvant Narayan, 11 Bom. 591; Minhammad Khan, v. Ashak Muhammad Khan, 106 PR. 1895 F.B.; Amrila Beptyli v. Naru Bin Gopalji Shamiji, 13 Bom. 489, where it was held that if the mortgage does not say what is due, then the amount found to be due at the date of suit is the subject-matter of suit.

In all suits within paragraph ix of sec. 7, the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage is the determining factor, Sheoram Singh v. Barkau Singh, 8 O.W N. 536: 14 O.L. J. 365: 134 I.C. 597: 1931 A IR 366 (Oudh).

Payments are not to be deducted—In a suit for redemption against a mortgagee in possession, where the mortgage has not paid rent due under the demise and the plaintiff asks for an account in taking which the arrears of rent should be deducted from the amount to be found due under the mortgage, held that the court-fees should be computed according to the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage, Eacheran Pattar v Appn Pattar, 19 Mad 16, Konna Painkar v Karinundera, 16 Mad 328

Improvements.—Where an instrument of mortgage does not expressly secure the amount to be allowed for improvements on redemption of the mortgage, the value of the improvements is not to be taken into account in ascertaining the subject-matter of suit as under paragraph (ix) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, the subject-matter is the charge and not the value of the land mortgaged. By custom of the country, in Kanom demises the value of improvements are payable. Therefore, for valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of the suit for redemption the value must include the value of improvements, Zamorni of Calcuit v. Narayana, 5 Mad. 284 F.B. See also Gorundau Nayar v. K. Ithalithy, 50 M.L.J. 493-1926 A.H. 764 (Mad.)

Suit for recovery of mortgaged property—A suit for recovery of property mortgaged from a mortgage is one for redemption and the suit comes under section 7, paragraph (1x), when one of the questions at issue is whether the mortgage money is paid off, and if not what amount is remaining due, Maruti v Sripati, 1889 P.] p. 58. See also Karaman v Norman Cockell, I. C. W. N. 670.

Redemption.—In a suit for redemption of a known (which not only a mortgage but also a lease) the plant is to be stamped with court-fees according to the Konom debt as originally stood, Reference under the Court Fees let, 14 Mad 480. A suit for redemption of a known and Puran Kardam is a suit for redemption and the court-fees are payable and rulorem on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Sreedhar Nambudri v Persunba Nair, 1925 M.W.N. 747: 1925 A.1 R. 1254 (Mad) + 22 L.W. 408: 91 I.C. 81.

In a suit for redemption the determining factor in calculating court-fees is the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage. A suit for possession against a prior mortgaged in possession for recovery of the land mortgaged by a subside and the claimant objector or his representative on the other and the sole question between them is whether the property attached in execution of the decree is or is not liable to be sold in execution of the decree then the value means the value of the subject matter of suit, i.e., the value of the property when the value of the decree exceeds the value of the property when the value of the decree exceeds the value of the property. But if the suit be under section 283, C. P. C. then the valuation for the jurisdiction within the meaning of Civil Courts Act (xii of 1887) must be the value of the property attached whatever may be the value of the decree sought to be executed, Duratha Das v. Kameshar Prasad, 17 All 69 and the cases cited therein See also Narayana Singh v. Ayyasanıy Reddi, 1914 M.W.N. 910: 29 M.L.J., 728. 27 I.C. 396.

Stilt to set aside an execution sale—A suit to set aside a sale on the ground that the attachment is not binding is virtually a suit to set aside an attachment and the court-fee is to be paid on the value of the land or the value of the decree which even is less, Gangadhar Aiyar v. Vela Chetty, 14 M.L. J. 144

PARAGRAPH IX.

Application.—This paragraph applies only to suits and not to appeals, Nepal Rai v. Debi Prosad, 27 All. 477, nifra In the matter of Mahadea Prosad v Gorakh Singh, 30 All 547, nifra; Raghubur Prosad v Sankar Bakkl. Singh, 36 All 541, nifra; Raghubur Prosad v Sankar Bakkl. Singh, 36 All 40, nifra Reference under Caurt Fees Act, 29 Mad. 367, infra But where the sole question in appeal is the right to redeem, the court-fees payable, are to be calculated under section 7, paragraph (is) of the Court Fees Act, Dhraj Singh v. Rajaran, 6, N.I.R. 160; Gumani v. Banwari, 22 O C 289, 54 Ind. Cas. 733; Sekharan Nair, V. Eacharan Nair, 20 M. I., 120, 3 Ind. Cas. 459. See also Karaman v. Norman Cockell, 1 C. W. N. 670.

Subject-matter of suit.—The subject-matter of the suit is the amount of the mortgage money and not the market value of the lands in suit, Kubuir Singh v Alma Ram, 5 All. 332, Kedar Singh v. Matabadal Singh, 31 All. 44: 28 All. W.N. 296: 5 All I. J. 713: 1 Ind Cas. 704: Reference under the Court Fees Act, 5 Mad. 288; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 5 Mad. 480: Jallaldeen v. Vijoyeaami, 39 Mad. 471: Mandoth v. Puthantpurayil, 15 Ind. Cas. 587; Rupchand Khem-chand v. Balvan Narayan, 11 Bom. 591; Muhammad Khan, 45thak Muhammad Khan, 106 PR. 1895 F.B.; Anrila Bafathi v. Naru Bin Gopali Shamil, 13 Bom. 489, where it was held that if the mortgage is denied and the mortgage does not say what is due, then the amount found to be due at the date of suit is the subject-matter of suit.

Reference to title.—The court-fee payable by the plaintiff in a suit to redeem a kanom mortgage, should be in accordance with the provisions of section 7, clause (xx) of the Court Fees Act. The fact that the plaintiff refers to his title does not make it obligatory on him to pay any additional court-fee, the question litigated being the right to redeem, Kavalapara Moople Nair v Aminalam Amma, 1926 M W N 324 95 I C 26: 23 L W. 738 1926 A I R 667 (Madras)

Mortgage with a clause of sale—In suits for redemption of mortgages with a clause of conditional sale, if the amount due upon the mortgage be unknown the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees calculated on the amount of mortgage, even though the defendant claums that the lands have become his absolute property, Ramchandra v Janardan, 14 Bom 19

Redemption after taking accounts—Where the mortgagor also prays for payment to him, after taking accounts, and after discharge of mortgage debt, of the amount found due to him, then the plaintiff must state the amount due to him and pay additional court-fees on the plaint, Kodi Venkataffa Row v. Barnala Suryonarayana, 12 M.L.T. 493: 17 Ind Cas 442, Vasudeva v Madhava, 16 Mad 326.

The vaule of a suit to redeem a usufructuary mortgage for the purposes of jurisdiction is the principal sum expressed to be secured by the instrument, although there may be a claim relating to excess realisation by the mortgage of profits of the property as, under section 76, of (h) of the Transfer of Property Act, the mortgagee is bound to repay an excess amount realised by him. Section 17 of the Court Fees Act is not applicable to a suit unless the suit embraces two or more "distinct causes of action" and consequently is not applicable to a case of redemption by a usufructuary mortgagor when excess realization is also claimed by him. Seth Gopt Kishen v. Sorabjec, 68 Ind. Cas. 226; 1922 A IR, 259 (Nagpore).

Where in a suit for redemption, a definite amount is claimed against mortgagee in possession, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the principal amount of mortgage money secured, and not on the surplus profits claimed, Daudtram v. Gulab Chand and another, 76 Ind Cas 131: 1924 A.I.R 346 (Nag.)

the court-ices are payable ad vulorem on the amount of principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage as the surplus will be awarded as a result of the accounting under Order 34, rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure and consequently not separately chargeable with court-ices, Musti Wajdi Begium v. Abdul Gam, 24 N I, R 197: 113 I.C 34: 1929 A IR 1 (Nag.).

A sunt for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage plus claim for surplus mesne profits, is a sunt for redemption and the court-fees are payable under sec 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage and no court-fees on surplus mesne profits need be paid in addition, G Pothanna v Satyanandacharlu, 60 M.L.J. 698: 33 L.W 785. 132 I.C 317. 1931 A I.R 479 (Mad.); 1931 II. 669 (Mad.), but in Ram Chand v Bhagwan Das, 1935 A I.R. 8 (Pesh.), 154 I.C 460 the Peshwar Court held that court-fees are payable on each issue m a claim for redemption and mesne profits. (This is wrong as the claim for mesne profits does not form a separate cause of action as regards court-fees.)

Redemption and recovery of Arrears of Rent,—But where the suit is to redeem and to recover arrears of rent, these are really two distinct causes of action, the court-fee is to be computed on the arrears of rent and the principal amount of Kanom debt as it did not appear that the claim of rent was intended to be set off against mortgage debt, Rama Varniah Roja v Kadar, 16 Mad. 415 (418) In a suit by the plaintiff to redeem the Kanom, and to recover the arrears of rent, it was held that for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of the Court of appeal the value of the subject-natter of suit was the aggregate value of the two heads of relief, Konna Panikar v, Kaninakara, 16 Mad. 328

Valuation for jurisdiction—According to section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887) the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction of suits falling under this paragraph and their valuation for the purpose in determining the court-fees payable, may be different.

The valuation of suit for redemption for purposes of jurisdiction is the amount remaining due on the mortgage or claimed on it by the mortgages. It is that amount and the right conscited with it, which is the usual subject of contention in a suit for redemption, Rupchand Khemehand v. Balwent Narayan. Il Bom. 591; followed in Amrita Bin Bapuji v. Noru Bin Gopalji, 33 Bom 489, in which it was held "that where the mortgage itself is denied and the mortgage does not say what he claims in respect of the mortgage debt, the amount found to he remaining due on the mortgage, if any amount was due at that time, when the suit was filed, would represent the true valuation of the subject-matter of suit." Where the plaintiff sought redemption on payment of Rs 266-0-0 but mentioned the sum of Rs 5,257-0-0 as value for jurasdiction, held that the value for the purpose of jurasdiction and court-fees is the amount in lieu of which redemption is sought and the pleader's fees are to be calculated on that basis, Manahar Lal v. Khusi Shoh, 61 P.W.R. 1917.

The cases of Kedar Nath v Matabadal, (31 All. 44) and lalladden v Vipayasami, (39 Mad 447) were doubted in Saroda Sundari v Akramannessa, 51 Cal. 737: 78 I C. 147 28 C.W.N. 710 (712): 1924 A.I.R. 783 (Cal.) where the Court held that valuation for purposes of jurusdetion of a suit for redemption is not the amount of the principal mortgage money, but on the amount ultimately found to be due

The valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Sreedhar Nambudri v. Peramba Nair, 1925 M.WN 747 1925 A.I.R 1254 (Mad). 22 L.W 408 91 I.C 8I See also Grandhi Pathanna v. Simhadri Satyanada Charyulu, 132 I.C 317. 1931 A.I.R 479 (Mad)

The value of a suit for redemption plus damages for the purpose of jurisdiction is the Kanom amount alone and not that amount plus damages claimed, Gapala Memon v K. V Raman Memon, 1932 M W N 53, 1932 A I R 217 (Mad) 35 L W. 64: 138 I C 138

The valuation of a suit for redemption where surplus profits are also claimed, is the amount of mortgage money expressed in the deed of mortgage, Musst Wayth Begum v. Abdul Gani, 24 N L R 197 113 1 C 34 1929 A I R I (Nag ): 11 N.L.J. 232

The valuation of a suit to redeem a usufructuary mortgage and for recovery of surplus profits of the mortgaged property, is the principal amount of mortgage money both for the purpose of court-fees and for jurisdiction, Mahantha Long Singh v. Bisthim Lall Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 625 (Patna)

Appeals,—Allalubadd High Court—Where a mortgagor claims to redeem alleging that the whole of the mortgage debt has been satisfied, but the Court granted a decree for redemption on payment of a certain sum, held, on appeal by the mortgagor, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped under this section, according to the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage and not on the difference between the sum awarded and the sum admitted by the appellant to be due; but where the mortgage is the appellant, the court-fees are to be calculated on the difference between the amount admitted and the amount ordered to be paid by the mortgagor, Pirbbu Narain Singh v. Side Ram, 15 All. 94: (1890) 10 All.W.N

23. but in later cases this view has been dissented from. Section 7, paragraph (ix) applies only to suits and not to appeals. Therefore, the court-fees to be paid are to be calculated ad valorem on the subject-matter of appeal and not on the sum secured by the instrument of mortgage, Nepal Rai v. Debi Prosad. 27 All 447 . 25 All W N. 40: 2 All L. I. 105; followed in Mahadeo Prosad v Gorakh, 30 All 457: 20 All W N. 247: 5 All L. J. 531, where the suit was on the ground that the mortgage money has been satisfied out of the proceeds and nothing remained due and that 4 annas and not 5 annas 4 pies share only has been mortgaged. The criterion laid down in section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, for determining the court-fees payable in respect of a suit for redemption of foreclosure does not apply to appeals in such suits. In case of appeals or cross objections in suits for redemption or foreclosure and in all cases in which the amount declared by the Court to he due at the date of the decree can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and the decree, the subject-matter is the amount at which the appeal or cross objection ought to be valued and future interest should not be taken into account, Raghiubir Prasad v Shankar Baksh Singh, 36 All 40: 11 A L J. 1016: 21 I C 723; modifying Baldeo Singh v Kalka Prasad, 35 All See also Lalta Prasad v Sheoraj Singh, (1917) 39 All 452 · 15 A.L. | 464: 41 IC 346; Prag v. Bhagwan Din and others, 23 A L J 863: 47 All 926: 1925 A.I R. 734 (All): 88 TC 888

Note—But it does not appear why the court-fees should be paid ad valorem on the market value on a memorandum of appeal although the subject-matter of appeal may still be a claim to redeem The wording of Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act does not justify the conclusion

Bombay High Court —Where the money secured amounted to Rs 1,152-15-4 and the Court in decreeing the redemption suit against the defendants ordered Rs 568-9-8 to be paid to Umarkhan and Rs 584-5-8 to More and each of the defendants filed separate appeals and each claimed that larger amounts are due, held that each of the memorandum of appeals must be stamped with court-fees according to section 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act, Umarkhan v. Mahomed Khan, 10 Bom 41: Rai Godal v. Ram Krishna. 10 Bom. 44

Where the appeal in a redemption suit relates only to air tiem in the accounts, the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped as if the whole suit was to recover that amount. Fakir Mahomed v. Manakarajishet, (1883) P.J. 39. Where the principal amount is Rs. 375 and on the contention of the mortgace defendant the Court found that Rs. 1812 is due to the mortgace and the mortgagee appealed on the ground that the accounts were not properly taken and valued the appeal at Rs 375 the mortgage amount, held that the appeal was properly valued, Gofal v. Gangaram, 1891 P 1 218.

Lahore High Court -A memorandum of appeal against a decree for redemption on payment of a certain sum is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the amount of money expressed to be secured by the institument, Fatteh Singh to Babu Ram, 3 Lah L. J. 156 In a suit for redemption, the Court of first instance found that the amount payable on redemption was Rs 570, the Appellate Court reduced the sum to Rs 190 The mortgagee in further appeal prayed that this amount be raised to Rs 1,190. Held, that under Schedule I, Art I of the Court Fees Act, the court-fees payable on the memorandum of further appeal should be calculated on Rs 1,000 the difference hetween Rs 190 and Rs 1,190 which is the value of the subjectmatter in dispute in appeal, Banwari Das v. Nathu Shah, 5 P R 1911: 48 PLR 1911: 59 PWR 1911: 9 Ind Cas. 676; Lekhram v. Ramin Das, 1 Lah 234; 57 IC 215 See also Har Lal v Siri Ram, 32 PLR 591 · 134 I C 124: 1931 A I R. 633 (Lah) 1931 IR 892 (Lah ), where it was held in addition that the subject-matter of a suit may a change in appeal, as in an appeal from a suit for redemption the only question may be the amount payable under the decree

Madras High Court — The provisions as to suits, by or against a mortgager is section 7, paragraph (xt) of the Act are intended to apply to suits and not to cases of appeals therefrom, which latter are chargeable with court-fees on the subject-matter actually in dispute therein as provided for in Schedule 1, Article I of the said Act as the word "suit" does not apply to appeals and the same rule should apply if the appeal be by a defendant, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad 367: 16 M L J. 287; Vasudeva v. Madhara, 16 Mad 326

287; Vasudeva v. Madhava, 16 Mad 326
Where the defendant in appealing against the decree allowing redemption, contended that the plaintiff cannot redeem and if he be found to he so entitled, he can do so on payment of a larger amount, held, that the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped under section 7, paragraph (ix) according to the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage and the court-fee is the same as that on the plaint. If the question be as to the amount payable then only the case comes under Art. I, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and the court-fee are payable on the amount in dispute. In a redemption suit the subject-matter of the suit is the existence of the right to redeem, and any question as to the amount is only incidental to that right, Schharon Nair v. Eacharan Nair, 6 M L, T. 245: 20 M L, J. 120: 3 Ind. Cas. 459.

Nagfore Court.—In Vithoba v. Rausij. 1931 A.IR. 189 (Nag) it was held that if in the appeal not only the right under the mortgage decree to foreclose or redeem be contested but the amount of the decree is disputed and the appellant seeks either to enhance or diminish that amount, then court-fees ad valorem on the amount by which the decree is sought to be enhanced or diminished must be paid.

Ondh Court—Court-fees on the memorandum of appeal should be computed ad valorem on the difference between the amount found to be payable by the Court below and the amount which the appellant claims to be payable in cases of dispute as to the amount payable, Ram Adhin v Hamman, 9 O.C. 153, Muhammod Hussain v. Syed Jahan Begam, 2 O C 87: Basuder Ram v. Sriknshima Gir, 13 O C 62 5 Ind Cas, 941; see also Sangat Baksh Singh v Rawal Dijdeo Baksh Singh, 25 O.C. 30: 67 Ind Cas 968: 1922 A 1 R. 82 (Oudh), Guman v. Banturn, 22 O C 289 54 Ind Cas 733

If the amount declared by a Court to be due at the date of the decree in a suit for redemption or foreclosure can be ascertained by a reference to the judgment and the decree, then the appeal or cross objection should be valued at that sum and future interest is not to be taken into account, Nirman Singh v. Shyam Naran, 6 Luck 34 7 O W N 585 127 I.C. 32: 1930 A I R 329 (Oudh) - 1930 I R 448 (Oudh).

If in an appeal from a decree in a foreclosure suit the amount of the decree is not disputed but the decree is challenged on the ground that the deed is bad for want of registration or that the deed was not executed for legal necessity, or that the suit is barred by limitation, or that the deed is not genuine or that the interest is penal, then ad valorem court-fees on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage is sufficient. Ram Sarup Simply V Gaya Prasad, 8 O.W.N. 835. 134 I.C. 604: 1931 A.J.R. 353 (Oudh). 1931 I.R. 396 (Oudh).

Patna High Court—In case of appeals or cross objections arising out of suits for redemption or foreclosure, when the amount due can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and decree appealed from, it is that amount at which the appeal or cross objection is to be talued and future interest is not to be taken into account, T. K. Rav, dius v. Lachmi Narain Ha. 3 Pat.L.J. 43: 1918 Pat. C.W.N. 264: 44 I.C. 50.

Cross objection to reduce the amount decreed.—The party filing the memorandum of cross objection must pay court-fees calculated ad valorem on the sum by which he seeks to reduce the amount decreed, Mausa Rom v. Umra, 134 P.W.R. 1911: 213 P.L.R. 1911: 11 Ind. Cas. 198

Where no additional relief is claimed against mortgagee .-

Where the plaintiff merely seeks to redeem the proporty without asking for any additional relief against the mortgage, then the suit falls under section 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act, but if he prays that any amount that may be found due to him after taking accounts, and after the discharge of mortgage debt, be paid to him, then he must approximately state the amount so claimed and pay additional court-fees thereon, Kodi Venkutappa v Baruala Surjanarayana, 12 M L,T 493. 17 Ind Cas 442 (Madras).

Conditional sale.—Sunts to have conditional sales declared absolute.—The plant in a sunt to declare a conditional sale declared absolute is to be charged with court-fees calculated advalorem under section 7, paragraph (ix), clause (iii) of the Court Fees Act, Hazara Singh v Mahammad Khan, 134 P.L. R. 1901

A suit for possession of land by a mortgagee by conditional sale who claims to have foreclosed his mortgage under Regulation XVII of 1806, is a suit for possession of "land" within paragraph (v) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act and is not a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose his mortgage under paragraph (ix) of section 7 of the same Act, Telu Mal V. Lel Singh, 20 PR 1893

A suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or a suit by a mortgagee by conditional sale to have the sale declared absolute, falls under see 7 (1x) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage. A suit by the mortgagee to recover possession of the property mortgaged under the terms of the deed of mortgage also falls under see 7 (1x) of the Court Fees Act and court-fee is to be paid accordingly, Henniath v Wilayat Ahmad, 6 O WN 491: 117 IC 766 1929 A IR. 321 (Outh)

Foreclosure Suits,—Allahabad —Where in a foreclosure suit the plaintiff is ordered to redeem a prior mortgage on payment of Rs. 5914-6-5 and the plaintiff appealed against that decree, held that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped advalorem on the amount the plaintiff has been ordered to pay because he wants to get rid of the liability imposed upon him. Baji Lal v. Goverdhan Singli, 31 All. 265: 6 All I. J 155: 1 Ind. Cas 1000; Nepel Rai v. Deb. (1907) 27 AllaW. 40

CP—In foreclosure sun, the plantiff mortgage obtained a decree under section 86 of the Transfer of Property Act declaring the amount due under the mortgage. The defendant mortgager appealed on the ground that so much is not due and that the amount ought to be reduced. Held, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees calculated at abscent under Schedule 1, Art. 1 of the Court

Fees Act on the amount by which the amount fixed in the decree is sought to be reduced and not under section 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Onkar v Lakmichand, (1907) 5 NLR 130 Similarly where the mortgagee-decree-holder appealed on the ground that the amount so decreed should be enhanced by Rs 8,902 which is also payable under the decree, held that court-fees ad valorem on the amount by which the decretal amount is sought to be enhanced are payable, Basdeo v. Daysraunt, 11 NLR 83 29 Ind Cas 609 But when the subject-matter of appeal is the right to foreclose, then the court-fees are payable on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Dhird Sing v Rajarant, 6 NLR 164 F B

Appeal against final decree in a foreclosure suit.—The appeal against an order passed under Order 34, rule 3, C. P. C passed in a suit for foreclosure, is to be treated as an appeal from a decree and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Ramdhans v Chowdhury Magbul Ahmad Khan, 18 O C 114

Appeal by purchaser of a portion of the property—Where the purchaser of the mortgaged property being the defendant in a suit for foreclosure, preferred an appeal against the decree for foreclosure made in the sunt, the amount found due on the mortgage being over a lash of rupees, to exonerate that property Held (for the purpose of calculating court-fees payable on the appeal) that the value of the property affected by the decree only is to be taken into account and as the appellant purchased the property at Rs 2,500 that is to be taken as the valuation for the purpose of court-fees, Japathhar Narain v. Broton, 33 Cal. 1133-10 CW N 1070: 4 CL. J. 121. See cantra, Mahadadji v. Balkrishna, (1881) PJ 106, where it was held that such cases come under section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court-Fees Act.

Further Charge.—In a case where A executed a usurfructuary mortgage and after the death of A his widow executed two deeds of "further charge" and the reversioners wanted to redeem the mortgage by A, the trial Court held that the plaintiffs are also hable to pay the amount secured by the subsequent deeds of further charge. The plaintiffs appealed but paid court-fees on amount of the deed executed by A Held, there being no dispute as to the amount due on the subsequent deeds, the court-fees paid were sufficient, Ram Phal v Deputy Commissioner of Bahraich, 12 O.C. 130-21 Ind. Cas. 600.

When the mortgagee defendant in a suit for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage set up a deed of further charge but the trial Court deereed the suit for redemption on payment of the principal that the the amou increase th the amou increase the amount, Lochman Singh v Bohadur Singh, 16 O C 354.

PARAGRAPH X.—Specific Performance.

Note —As to contracts which cannot be specifically enforced, see section 21, Specific Rehef Act

Scope—Contract of Guorontee.—Suits against defendants to specifically perform their contract of guarantee by causing testoration of village to plantiffs, to do all acts necessary to give them full possession and for compensation, are not suits for specific performance and are not provided for and do not come under section 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act but as suits for compensation such suits fall under section 7 (1) of the Court Fees Act, Chumbai v. The Secretary of State for India, 1890 P.J. 204

Stat by a point furchaser—Where the plantiffs brought a stat for 3|11 share of two plots of land on the ground that it was agreed between the plantiffs and the defendants that the lands should be purchased in partnership Held, that the suit did not fall under section 7 (x) of the Cour Fees Act and cannot be maintained as the plantiffs did not pay their share of the money, Nanda Sing v Sunder Sing, 97 PL R. 1901.

Sut for refund of purchase price—Where the plaintiff offers to perform his part, a sut for refund of purchase price is a sut for specific performance, Bhashya Korhu v Andalammal, (1918) MWN 896 See also Lakshmi Aimmal In re, 1926 AIR 96 (Mad) 49 MLJ 608: 1925 MWN, 826: 91 Ind Cas 729 where the vendee sued to recover the amount paid and damages alleging that the sale is a fraudulent one.

Stil for possession by lessec—A suit for possession by the lessee of land comprised in a lease is not a suit for specific performance of the contract of lease, and the court-fee payable on the plaint is the same as in a suit for possession. But the memorandium of appeal must be stamped according to the value of the relief asked for, Ghulam Sobir v. Norain Prosad, 5 A.I., J. 534: (1908) 28 A.W.N. 201.

Clause (a).—Where the mother of a Hindu minor entered into a contract for sale of his land and the vendor sued for specific performance of the contract and for possession and it was found that the minor is bound by the contract; the suit having been dismissed by the trad Court, held, on appeal by the plantiff that he must pay court-fees upon the prayer for possession and a conditional decree was passed in his favour to take effect upon payment of the requisite court-fee, Krishna Sami v Sundarappayyar, 18 Mad 415. 5 M.L.J. 164.

Suits for specific performance and possession—Where the plantifi asks for specific performance of a contract of sale and possession, held, that the suit is in substance one for possession of the property and ought to be valued under section 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act according to the value of the subject-matter of suit, and it was further held, that it was not necessary for their Lordships to hold that in cases of this description, the plantiff must not only sue for specific performance of the contract and execution of the conveyance by the defendant but also for recovery of possession, Madan Mohan Singh V. Gaja Proad Singh, 14 CLJ 159, 11 Ind Cas 228. See also the cases cited therein and Nathekhan v. Muhammad Khan, 128 P.W.R. 1918-46 Ind. Cas 534.

A sut for specific performance of a contract and for possession is to be valued for the purpose of court-fees under ser. f, paragraph (v) and not on the amount of consideration under sec. f, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act, Ram Bahadur v Banucan Lot, 118 IC 134: 1929 A.1R, 642 (Pat).

Where the plaintiff alleged that the defendants Nos. 2 and 3 having contracted to sell certain property to him, received part of the price, and thereafter sold the same property to defendant No 1 who had notice of the agreement with the plaintiffs, and they asked (1) that the defendants 2 and 3 might he compelled to complete the sale to the plaintiffs and (2) for possession of the property. Held, that the suit is really one for specific performance of a contract and the court-fees thereo. was assessable under section 7, clause (x) of the Court Fees Act 1870 Mr. Justice Tudball observed at pages 295, 296 of the report, "as stated by a Bench of this Court in Mohinddin Ahmed v. Mailis Rai, 6 All. 231, the suit is in substance one for specific performance of a contract and falls frime facie under section? clause (x) of the Court Fees Act, 1870 I have no hesitation in accepting this as the true solution of the case for one simple reason, viz, when a vendor contracts to sell, he contracts a laid down in section 55 of the Transfer of Property Act, to execute a proper conveyance of the property to the buyer, and tender it to him for execution at a proper time and place or payment of the amount due in respect of the price. He also contracts to give the buyer or such person as he directs, such possession in the property as its nature admits. The plaintiff in the present case, are clearly seeking to enforce the contract of sale and they also seek from the vendor to do that which he is bound to do under the contract, ie, to execute and registe a sale deed and to hand over possession of the property. The suit is one in form and substance a suit for specific performance," Nihal Singh v. Sewa Ram, 38 All 292: 14 A L J. 434:

35 Ind. Cas. 275.

Where the defendant promised to transfer property in consideration of Rs 600 in cash and some lands belonging to the plaintiff, but failed to carry out his promise which compelled the plaintiff to bring a suit, the Lahore High Court on appeal held, "According to sub-clause (a) of section 7 (x), court-fees payable in suits for specific performance of a contract of sale will be levied according to the amount of consideration. The court-fees cannot be paid as if the suit was a suit for possession of land, Kundun Lal x Auund Sarup, 73 Ind Cas 709: 1923 A I R. 456 (Lahore). See Gopal Dax v. Parmanand, 60 I.C. 512 (Lahore) where part of the consideration money was paid, but it was held that the suit was a suit for possession.

There may be a suit for specific performance of a contract of a without a prayer for possession. In such a case court-fees ad valorom on the valuation were held to be payable. (In this case the plaintiffs alleged that they are in possession and asked that the defendant may be ordered to (1) execute a conveyance, (2) to return the original deed and (3) register the deed), Faquir Chaud v. Ram Dutt, I.L.R. 5 Lahore 75: 80 I.C. 953: 1924 A I R. 439 (Lah).

A suit to enforce specific performance of a contract to sell land and for possession of the property agreed to be sold is a suit for specific performance falling under sec. 7, cl. (x). (a) of the Court Fees Act. Such a suit is not a suit for possession falling under section 7, cl. (v). (e), nor one embracing "two or more distunct subjects" within the meaning of section 17 of the Act. The delivery of possession is a part of specific performance of the contract of sale, unless the terms indicate that the vendor was not under an obligation to deliver possession, although the decree may have to be executed to obtain delivery of possesv. Stralingam Pillai and others, 224) A.I.R. 350 (M.): 18 L.W.

Clause (b).—Sint to recover possession of a date-garden, of which the plaintiff was in possession as a mortgagee, on the ground that he was ousted by the defendants, does not fall under sec 7 (x) (b) of the Court Fees Act but falls under section 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act, Chela Mal v. Fazi Beg, 33 PR 1880

Clause (c).—In a suit filed in a Sub-Judge's Court the plaintiff prayed that his mouran mokrari right in certain lands be declared and a decree passed against the defendants directing them to grant him a lease, the yearly rent payable under which was to be Rs. 71 The plaintiff valued the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rs. 1,100, but gave no materials or data to support the valuation. Held, that under the provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the suit should have been valued at Rs. 71 for the purpose of court-fees and jurisdiction, and it ought to have been filed in the Munsiff's Court, and at title would accrue after execution of the deed, valuation cannot he made on that basis, Port Conning and Lond Improvement Co, Lid v Roson Ali, 17 C.W.N. 16. 15 Ind. Cas. 46 See also Sailondra Nath. Mitra v Ram Charan Pal, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L. J. 94 66 Ind Cas. 268

Clause (d)—Award.—Where the suit was one for record of the property or specific performance of a naward, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the value of the property in suit, UTh Ila V Thudathlana, UBR, 1999, 2nd quarter When an agreement to refer to arbitration was filed in Court and arbitrators were appointed, but after the award both parties objected on the ground of misconduct of the arbitrators, and one of the parties succeeded, whereupon the other party filed an appeal under section 104, C P. C. (Act V of 1908) Held, that this clause does not apply but court-fees were payable under Art. 17, clause (w), second schedule of the Court Fees Act. Ram Jacavava v. Dezi Ditta Mal, 117 P.R. 1916: 70 P.L.R. 1917: 107 P.WR. 1916: 34 Ind Cas 192. See also cases under Art. 17, clause (iv), second schedule, infra, and under Art. 11 of the second schedule to this Act.

Valuation.—The valuation of a suit for specific performance for court-fees is to be assessed ad valorem on the amount of consideration and the valuation for jurisdiction shall be the same under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Saiyed Ashfaq Hussain v. Saiyed Bunyad Hussain and others, 77 Ind. Cas 874: (1923) A.J.R. 252 (Oudh).

The proper valuation of a suit for specific performance of a contract for sale of land, is the price agreed upon to be paid. Shir: Dial v. Shir. Ram Das, 111 IC 72: 1928 A LR, 635 (Lah.)

Under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the value for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees must be the same except in cases coming under section 7 (x) (d) of this Act.

PARAGRAPH XI.

Application—In a sust under sec. 95 of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1901, to declare the plantiff's status as an occupancy tenant, the plant or memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee of eight annas as provided by Article 5 of Schedule II to the Court Fees Act; sec 7, clause (xu) of the Act does not apply to such a sust, Ratan Singh v Khem Karan, 40 All 358. 16 A.L.J 117: 44 Ind Cas 668

A suit for assessment of rent umplies that no rent was payable previously by the defendant and there being no rent previously payable the clause (xi) of sec 7 does not apply to such a suit, Dhanukdhan Tewan v Mant Sonar, 100 1 C 913 1927 A I.R 123 (Patna). I.L k 6 Pat 17. 8 P.L T 365

Where in a suit a declaration of title is sought and also a rehef against one of the defendants on the ground that he is a trespasser, the suit is not strictly within section 7, paragraph (xi) of the Court Fees Act, Hira Lal Bainerjee V. Surculara Nath Sarbonga and others, 1926 A 1R 504 (Cal): 91 IC 488

Valuation.—In the case of suits failing under paragraph (xi) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act the valuation for the purpose of court-fees must be the same as the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction. There is nothing to indicate that section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act should be read subject to the provisions of section 14, Madras Civil Courts Act, Vannavalli Sesingur Rate v. Narayan Swami Naidu, 26 M. L. J. 573. 22 Ind Cas. 374.

The valuation of a suit or appeal for enhancement of rent of a tenure is to be computed on the annual amount to which the rent is sought to be enhanced minus the amount admitted or awarded in the lower Court, Prasannadeb Raikat v. Purna Chandra Shaha and others, 61 Cal. 513; 38 C.W.N. 527; 152 I.C., 753; 1934 A.I.R. 674 (Cal.)

Clause (b)—Enbancement.—Note that the words used are 'to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy' Compare this with clause (f) where this clause is absent A suit for increased rent for increased area found to be so on measurement is not a suit for enhancement of rent See Ejel Mullick v Felai Mullick, 21 C. L.J. 309 (311); Prataf Mahton v, Musst Wairinmussa, 4 Patna 604.

Valuation.—In a suit for arrears of rent and for enhancement of rent, the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees should be the same, Dhaturi Singh v. Kedar Nath Goenka, 8 P.L.T. 475.

Tenant having a right of occupancy—In Prasamadib Rankai's Case, 38 C.W.N. 527: 61 Cal 513: 152 I.C. 753: 193 AIR 674 (Cal) the Calcutta High Court held that the expression 'right of occupancy' does not include the rights of a tenure-holder and is to be understood in a general sense. So Palamappa Chetti v. Sillmovchi Servai, (1907) 31 Mad 14: 17 MLJ 478 where the Madras High Court held that words 'occupancy of land' seem properly to be applicable to the case of 1908.

Clause (cc) - Scope - Sec 7, clause (xi) (cc) is not confined to cases where the defendant is clearly estopped from denying the plaintiff's title. If a landlord sues a tenant for possession of the immoveable property, the court-fee may be assessed under sec 7 (x1) (ec) of the Court Fees Act. The plea of the defendant that he is an occupancy raiyat, does not remove the suit from the category of sec 7, clause (x1) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, Punyamurthulu Venkata Rattamma 1. Ghalasani Srecramulu, 25 L W 76 52 M L J. 100: 99 I C. 981: 1927 AIR 331 (Mad) A sust for ejectment and a declaration that the plaintiff was absolute owner of the property in suit, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and comes under sec 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and is outside the scope of sec 7 (x1) (cc) of the same Act, Ramalinga Mudaliar v. Ramaswami Iyer, 1929 M W N 239 29 L W 760: 1929 A.I.R 529 (Mad): 110 IC. 577 A suit based on alleged relationship of landlord and tenant comes within sec 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, Sivasubramania Nadar v. Subramania Nadat, 35 L.W. 393: 1932 A.I.R 409 (Mad.) but the suit in its inception must be suit of this description, Haladhar v. Mangal Reza, 34 C W.N. 217. If an inamdar claims both kndivaram and melavaram rights and seeks to eject the tenants after notice by virtue of his kidraram right, then the suit is one for declaration of his right with a consequential relief as the plaintiff seeks a declaration that he is entitled to the kudivaram right and prays for possession as a consequential relief; such a suit does not come under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, In re Majumdar Sobhandir Rao Panthu Garu and others, 56 Mad 314; 63 ML.) 759-1932 M.W.N. 1197: 36 L.W. 701: 140 I.C. 462: 1933 A.I.R. 42 (Mad).

Question of title of plaintiff—The fact that the defendant does not alter the character of the suit and valuation for the purpose of jutis diction and court-fees must be the same under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Ram Chond v Ram Sukh Das, 27 P.R. 1910: 210 P.L.R. 1910: 30 P.W.R. 1910: 5 Ind Cas. 910:

Govind Kumar Sur v Mohini Mohan Sen, 33 C.W.N. 769; but the title of plantiff is not to be decided on payment of court-fees on only one year's rent, Balasidhonton v. Perumal Chetti, 27 M.L.J. 475: 27 I.C. 102 See also Bapurao and others v. Narayan Keshav Ghande, 103 I C 337: 1927 A.J.R. 321 (Nagyur), infra

Ejectment of a tenant-A right of landlord to recover immoveable property from his tenant arises when the relationship of landlord and tenant has ceased between them and the tenant has lost the right to remain on the land; therefore the word tenant in sec 7 (xt) (cc) means on ex-tenant, ie, a person who was a tenant but has at the date of suit ceased to be suit by landlord to eject a tenant after serving him with a notice to quit comes under sec. 7 (x1) (cc) of the Court Fees Act and should be valued and court-fees paid under that article, Govinda Kumar Sur and others v Mohim Mohan Sen and others. 57 Cal 349. 33 CWN 769: 1930 AIR 42 (Cal) 125 IC 726; Mohan v Bhuteswar, 83 IC 1 1925 AIR 142 (All) When the plaintiff landlord sued the tenant for rent and the tenant set up a defence that the relationship of landlord and tenant never existed, the defence was upheld by Courts. The landlord plaintiff then sued to eject the tenant as trespasser, the High Court held that the suit to eject the tenant is really a suit for possession of the land from a trespasser and the plaint is to be stamped as in a suit for possession, Govinda Ram Agarwala v. Dulu Pada Dutt and others, 32 CWN 1113: 116 I.C 374: 1928 A I R 753 (Cal )

Suits to eject the tenant by the landlord are governed by section 7, clause (x1) (cc) of the Court Fees Act and are included in the provisions of section 8 of Suits Valuation Act (VII of 1887) which provides that the valuation of suits for the computation of court-fees and for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be the same The effect of the amendment of the Court Fees Act by Act VI of 1905 is to repeal by implication section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (III of 1873) so far as suits falling under the newly added clause (xi) (cc) to section 7 of the Act of 1870 were concerned, and to apply to them the provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act. Although suits for recovery of immoveable property from tenants have not been expressly withdrawn from the operation of section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, the effect of amendments of section 7 by adding to it clause (xi) (cc) is to bring such suits also under the operation of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and not under section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, so that in the case of such suits the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is the same as that for court-fees, Narayan Swami Naidu v Seshagiri Rao, 39 Mad 873: 2 L.W. 1031: 29 M.L. J. 572. 18 M.L.T 398: 31 Ind. Cas 104. See also Pramatha Amuruddt, 24 C.W.N. 151: 55 I C 178, where it was held the foresons other than the tenants are parties to the suit the court-fees ad valorem on the valuation as for possession, are payable See also Hura Lal Bannerjee v Surendra Nath Sarbanga, 91 I C 488: 1926 A I R 504 (Cal); Musst. Bhagoba Devisingh v, Shanhal Dwarkaprasad, 1933 A.I R, 312 (Nag).

Tenant-who is .- A suit to eject a thicadar after expiry of his lease falls within section 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act All suits by landlord to recover possession of land from a tenant where the tenancy has terminated either by efflux of time or otherwise, come under section 7 (x1) (cc) of the Court Feet Act. The word "tenant" in clause (cc) includes a person to whom that description would apply immediately before the instr tution of the suit but whose tenancy has terminated entitling his landlord to eject him, Ram Charan Singh v Sheo Dutta Singh ILR 2 Pat 260: 4 Pat LT 666 74 Ind Cas. 619: 1923 AIR 380 (Patna). See also Sriram v Jagat Narain, 93 I.C 291; Ram Lal v Musst Bibi Salvia, 1935 A I R. 90 (Patna); Telengo Marandi Majhi v Chandra Mohan Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 664 (Patna): 14 PLT 616 147 IC 1177; Narayan Jha Naroni v Jagni Prasad Jha, 13 Patna 329 1934 A.I.R. 184 (Pat.) 15 PLT. 139

The words landlord and tenant must include ex-landlord and ex-tenant. An action by an ex-landlord against an extenant might ordinartly be described as an action of the landlord against the tenant, Karnani Industrial Bank v. Satya Niranjan Tenant holding over —A suit for recovery of possession of lad against a tenant who "holds over" comes under section I (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, but if the tenant "holds over in defauce of a written notice then he is a trespasser and court fees as in a suit for possession are to be paid. A tenant holding over is a tenant, who after his right to the occupation under a lawful title is at an end continues (having no title at all) in possession of the land without agreement or disagreement of the person in whom the right of possession resides, Narayan V. Bolak Das, 1925 A.I.R. 131 (Nag.): 20 N.L.R. 124: 80 IC. 202 (discussed in Vithaldas v. Ghulam Ahmad, 23 N.L.R. 5: 91.C. 438: 1927 A.I.R. 156 (Nagpore)].

Son of the original tenant—A defendant (son of the tenant who was holding over) who paid rent after the demise of his father cannot be said to be a trespasser on the land against whore the plaintiff landlord has to proceed by way of getting his title established in a properly constituted sunt. (The case was in respected homestead land only and ad *alorem court-fee was not demand d), Ashutosh Pramanic and another v. Jibandhan Ganguli, 1933 A.I.R. 822 (Cal): 147 I.C. 209.

Ejectment from a house-The plaintiff instituted a suit for ejectment from a house of the defendants as tenants holding over. The defendants denied the lease and raised the question of title, which therefore had to be gone into although the plaint was stamped under sec. 7 (x1) (cc) of the Court Fees Act. The trial Court decreed the suit. The defendants appealed to the District Judge where they did not raise the question of court-fees; on second appeal to the High Court the defendants raised the question that plaint should have been stamped as in a suit for possession, although the lease was negatived, held, the question of title having been raised by the defendants independently of their denial of their lease it is clear that in the circumstances of the case, court-fee should have been payable on the market value of the property under sec 7, paragraph (v) of the Court Fees Act As this question has only been raised for the first time in second appeal and as the defendantappellants in their appeal to the lower appellate Court only paid court-fees at the lower rate themselves, the question cannot be re-opened now, no defect of jurisdiction being involved, Bapurao and others v Narayan Keshav Ghande, 103 I C 337 1927 A I R. 321 (Nagpore)

A sunt to eject a tenant from a house after notice to quit, is a suit to eject a tenant and court-fees calculated ad valorem on the rent payable for the year next before the institution of the suit, are to be paid on the plant. The Judicial Commissioner said, "A tenant or a tenant holding over is a trespasser and not a tenant of any kind after be has refused to comply with the proper notice to quit. But the claim in a suit must be regarded with reference to the facts existing when the cause of action accrued and not to the state of things when the suit was filed. Up to the moment he gives rise to a cause of action by refusing to quit on demand, a tenant is still a tenant, and that is the point of time to which the suit for ejectment in consequence of that refusal must be referred, Vithaldas v. Ghulam Almed, 23 N.L.R. S: 99 IC 438-1927 A.LR. 156 (Nagpore).

The court-fees payable on a plaint in a suit to eject a tenant from a house let out to him is chargeable on one year's rent under sec. 7, paragraph (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act as amended and not on the market-value of the house, Dixon Dibagh Rai v. Fatch Singh, 24 P.I. R. 1907. See also Ebrahim Shahib v. Ismailji, 1 L.B.R. 303.

A suit for possession of a house and two years' rent is to be valued at one year's rent for the possession of the house from the tenant holding over plus the amount of two years', rent, Balakrishna Bhimaji v Ramkrishna, 33 Bom L R 263: 1931 A I R 234 (Bom ).

If the defendants be not in possession of the whole of the house but of some rooms in the house then the plaintiff need not put the value of the property at the value of the whole house but can value the rehef at 12 times the monthly rent payable by the defendant, Tayabah v Parbatibai, 26 S.L.R. 29: 1032 A.L.R. 73 (Simd)

Tenont of Fixed Rate—In a suit to eject a tenant at fixed rent the plaint should be stamped with court-fees according to the market value of the inglit, Ajodhya Chowbey v. Dabbe Singh, 3 Agra, Rev 5 See also Ram Raj Tewari v. Girnandan Bhobat, 15 All 63 12 All W N 240

Valuation (cc).—When a suit was brought for possession of leased property on the ground that the tenancy has terminated, the proper value of the suit is not the value of the immoveable property itself, but the amount of the rent payable for the year next before the date of the presentation of the plaint, Mohan Lal v Bhutescar, 83 I C 1: 1925 A.I R 142 (All)

A suit by the landlord for recovery of immoveable properly from a tenant, is to be valued at the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint and the valuation for purpose of jurisdiction is the same as for the purpose of court-fees, Nandan Sing v Debi Din, 12 A L.J. 933; 25 Ind Cas 975.

Where the plaintiff landlord wanted the tenants to vacate the portion of the house occupied by them, the value of the relief claimed by her cannot be the value of the land and the luildings thereon. Either the relief cannot be valued at all of if it is to be valued, it is not unreasonable to value it at 12 times the monthly rent which the portion would yield. Must. Mustikai v. Musts. Vassikai, 104 I.C. 412: 1927 A.I.R 2<sup>‡5</sup> (Sind).

A suit for ejectment and recovering possession of a raison land, is not to be valued as a possible building site on the hypothetical assumption that the landlord would on the some naziar, be willing to allow it to be so used with provisions of the Madras Estates Land Act. Improvement by tenant.—Courts have no power to ask the tenant to pay court-fees for improvements claimed by him, but are hound to determine the amount, in the suit to contest the notice of ejectinent, Wasawa V Isa, 4 PWR. 1915 (Rev).

When the plaintiff sues for redemption of kanom and also prays for deduction of a certain amount claimed as damages for improvement, he is entitled to pay the court-fee after the amount recoverable by way of damage has been ascertained and set off against the amount payable by way of improvement as the words "any sum of money accruing due for rent or otherwise in respect of the tenancy" are wide enough to include damages, Govindan Nayar v. Kankirutholikayi Ithalithy, SO M.I., 1493—1926 A.I.R. 764 (Madras) reversing 1926 A.I.R. 542 (M.)

Clause (d). Claus for Improxements—A suit to contest the notice of ejectment on the ground that the plaintiff to receive compensation for improvements, before he vacates, is to be stamped on the amount of rent payable for previous year, as claim for improvement is incidental to the decree for possession and is not the subject-matter of suit, Nurulla v. Air Singh, 111 PR 1883, see also Reference Under Court Fees Act, 23 Mad 84, Wasaya v. Isa, 4 PWR. 1915 (Rev.).

Tenant-at-null —In a suit to eject a tenant at will the courtees to annas under Schedule II, Art. 5 of the Court Fees Act, Nurjahan v Marfan Mundul, 11 C.L. R. 91 And an application to the Collector under section 25 of the Act of 1859 for assistance in ejecting a rytot should also be stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas as such a proceeding is not a suit, Pyary Mohan Mookerjee v Kina Beven, 11 W.R. 90: 2 B.L. R. AC. 226

Clause (e). Stat against landlord and some others—A suit was brought for recovery of possession of an occupancy holding against the landlord and some others whom the landlord inducted on the land, held that court-fees should be computed according to market value of the land, Farzand Ali v. Mahanth Lal Puri, 32 Cal. 268; but this case was not approved in The Secretary of State for India v. Dinshaw Naoroj and another, 1925 A.I.R. 275 (Sund): 87 I.C. 1002, where it was held that when in order to avoid delay in execution proceedings a person inducted on the land by the landlord is joined as a party, such a sunt falls under section 7 (x) (e) of the Court Fees Act.

A suit for possession by a tenant against landlord and certain other persons claiming melateuram rights under him is governed by section 7 (v) and not by section 7 (xi)(e). The words "occupancy of land" and "ejected" are applicable to the case of ryot or persons in actual possession rather than to persons who are only entitled to the malaxeram rights, Palaniappa

Application.—This section applies to appeals by persons claiming compensation. An appeal by the Secretary of State against the award of the Court requires a court-free of Rs Jones of Secretary of State v. Bostow, 17 Ind. Cas. 764: 17 P. I. R. 1912 Sec also In re. Assistant Commissioner of Labour, (1924) A1R 489 (Mad.): 1924 M.W. N. 108: 78 Ind. Cas. 435: 46 M.J. 150, but in 1921 the Land Acquisition Act (1 of 1894) was amended by Act XIX of 1921 and every award is a decrea appeals will lie accordingly. Sec Roi Bahadur Norsing Dar v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 25 C.W.N. 822 P.C. Sec also The Secretary of State for India in Council v. K.-5

Bonerjee, 97 I.C. 140: 1927 AIR. 45 (Calcutta) where it was held that the provisions of s. 8 of the Court Fees Act may, after the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act, now be regarded as redundant and the discrimination between the claimant and the Secretary of State is no longer warranted.

The Secretary of State for India is not a claimant to any sum awarded by the Collector in a land acquisition proceeding, therefore, 8 8 does not apply to an appeal by the Secretary of State for India to reduce the amount of compensation awarded but the memorandum of appeal is to bear ad valuerem court-fees on the amount in question as the order of the Land Acquisition Court is a decree, The Secretary of State for India v Baijnath, 9 O.W.N 396: 1932 A LR 224 (Oudh)

Section 8 of the Court Fees Act being a special provision as regards appeals from Land Acquisition cases, overrides the general provision of Schedule II, Art. 17 (iv), Puran Chand and others v Emperor, 1926 A I R 343 (Lahore) 92 I C 991

Effect of Amendment.—The court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal preferred against a decision in reference under sec 30, Land Acquisition Act are payable od volorem under Sch 1, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act and 8 8 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to such a case, Mohalinga Kudumbon v Theelhorappa Mudahar, 56 M L J 387 1929 M W N 62. 115 I C 345 1929 A I R 233 (Mad).

NB-Application for compensation under the Land Acquisition Act need not be stamped with court-fees under section 19, clause xxxii of this Act

Scope.—Section 8 deals with the fee payable on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Land Acquisition Act for the time being in force, and under the Act of 1894 such appeals the to the High Court but under older Act the appeal lay to the District Judge, Krishna Mohan v. Raghimandan, 1925 Pat C.WN 65: 4 Patina 336, 1925 ALIR, 339 (Patina): 6 Pat. LT, 262. 87 I.C. 137 (F.B.).

Power of Appellate Court—The appellate Court cannot pass a decree for a larger amount than that stated in the memorandum of appeal unless the memorandum of appeal be amended and additional court-fees put in, Perewal v. Collector of Chitagong, 30 Cal 516.

In cases coming under the Land Acquisition Act (1 of 1894), the amount awarded under the decree on appeal should be limited to the amount for which court-fee has been paid on the memorandum of appeal, Mahomed Ali Amjod v. The Secretary of State for India, 30 Cal 501.

Valuation of appeal.—Statutory allowance—The extra amount of compensation claimed by the appellant in an appeal under s 8 of the Court Fees Act includes also the 15% of the market value and he should pay court-fees on the total amount including the 15% He cannot value his appeal, and at the same time in case of success, not only claim to have that excess market value decreed to him but also claim that the appellate decree should automatically give an additional 15% of the said excess market value. An appeal is different from the claim put forward by him before the Collector, Koppaka Brahmanandam v. The Secretary of State for India, 53 Mad. 48: 57 M.L.J. 357: 1929 M W N 599 30 L W 242, 1930 A LR. 45 (M.): 122 IC 523 but see contra FA 314 of 1917 (unreported) where Rankin C J and Mookerjee J agreed that court-fees on statutory allowance are not leviable In Percival v. The Collector of Chittagong, 30 Cal 516 at page 520, the Calcutta High Court said "under the provisions of s 582 (s 107, paragraph 2), Code of Civil Procedure we ought to restrict our award to the amount stated in the memorandum of appeal, plus the amount allowed by the lower Court and the usual statutory allowance."

Notes.—After the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 by Act XIX of 1921 every decision is a decree, and the provisions of Sch I, Art 1 are applicable to an appeal, hence the 15% awarded must be subject-matter of an appeal before court-fees can he assessed on the same No grounds in any memorandum of appeal are directed against the award of 15% which it is the duty of Court to award. The award of 15% being a duty cast upon Court under s 22 (2) the same cannot be deemed a subject-matter of appeal, hence it is submitted no court-fees can be levied on the same. The market-value of the land is the subject-matter of appeal

Memorandum of Appeal.—The memorandum of appeal against all orders made by the District Judge under the Land Acquisition Act is to be stamped with ad valorem courf-fees. Kasturi v. Deputy Collector of Bellary, 21 Mad 269. See In resistant Commissioner of Labour, 1924 MW.N. 108: (1924) AIR 489 (Mad): 46 MI-J 150: 78 I.C 435; Mahomed Suleman v. Chumandi Lal, 32 PLR 251: 134 I.C. 127: 1931 AIR 343 (Lah.): 1931 IR 895 (Lah.)

Appeal by Secretary of State—A memorandum of appeal by the Secretary of State against an award of compensation by the District Court made under the Land Acquisition Act (1 of 1894) as amended, is to be stamped under Schedule 1, Art 1 of the Court Fee Act if s 8 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to such a case Art 17, cl iv of the second Schedule does not apply as it is not sought to set aside an award, Special Collector of Rangoon v Ko 2: Na and others, 6 Ran 281: 110 I C, 870 1928 AIR 197 (Ran) See also The Secretary of State v. K S Bonerjee, 97 I C 140 1927 AIR 45 (Cal)

Affortionment of award—In an appeal from an order for apportionment of compensation between claimant and the Government the memorandum of appeal should bear court-fee stamp ad valorem on the value of the land claimed because apportionment really means determination of the amount payable by Government, Mangal Das Girdhar Das v. The Assistant Collector of Ahmedabad, 64 Ind. Cas. 582—45 Bom. 277: 23 Bom. I. R. 148 F. B.

Disposal of Compensation—In an appeal from the order of the District Judge made upon a reference by the Collector under sections 18 and 19 of the Land Acquisition Act as to the disposal of compensation money awarded for land taken up by Government under the Act, the memorandum of appeal must be stamped as an appeal from an original decree and not an appeal from an order, Sheo Raton Rai v Mohri, 21 All 354: 12 All W.N. 96; Balaram v Sham Sundar, 23 Cal 531

Investment of award —Where certain debutter properties were acquired under the Land Acquisition Act and the Court ordered, inder section 32 of the Land Acquisition Act, that the compensation money be invested in Government Promissory Notes and the shebant is to draw interest only and against that order, the shebait filed an appeal, and stamped the memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rupees 10, held, that the relief sought could be estimated at a money value, at least approximately, and that the case fell under section 8 of the Court Fees Act and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee calculated on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the plantiff, Trinayam Dast v Krishina Lall Dey, 39 Cal 906: 17 CWN 933 (935): 14 TC 24, Mahammad Ali Raja Avergal v Ahammad Ali Raja Avergal, 26 Mad 287, Shiva Roo v Naqappa, 29 Mad 117.

The above cases in 39 Cal 906 and 23 Cal, 531 were dissented from in Ram Chandra v Ram Chandra, L.R 49 I A. 129 (137) where the Judicial Committee said "the award constituted by statute is nothing but an award which states the area of the land, the compensation to be allowed and the apportionment among the persons interested in land of whose claims the collector has information, meaning thereby people whose interests are not in dispute but from the moment when the sum has been deposited in Court under s. 31, sub-section 2, the function of the award have ceased, and all that is left is a dispute between interested people as to the extent of their interest. But the dispute forms no part of the award and it would indeed be strange if a controversy between two people as to the nature of their respective interests in a piece of land should enjoy certain rights of appeal, which would be wholly taken away when the piece of land was represented by a sum of money paid into Court"

A memorandum of appeal from a decree passed in a contest between a purchaser from a widow (who was alive at the date of contest) and the reversioner as to the investment of the award is to be stamped as in an appeal from a declaration only and atvalorin court-fees need not be paid, Rash Behary Sanyal v. Gosto Behari, (1934) 62 Cal. 331 39 CWN. 110: 60 CLJ 216. 1935 A.I.R. 243 (Cal.)

After the amount of compensation money is paid into Court by the Collector, an appeal in which the subject-matter is that which of the claimants is entitled to the compensation money is an appeal for the recovery of the money from the successful claimant and would have to be valued as a claim for money and ad valorom court-fees paid on that basis, but if the claimant be a widow then if the money be held in trust for her by the Court then the above dictum will not apply as the property in custodia legis and the court-fee payable would be as for a mere declaration, but if any interest paid to the widow be sought.

[But in these cases the language of this section as to an order relating to compensation was disregarded.]

Orders dismissing petitions -But if the District Judge dismisses the petition of the petitioner and refers him to the Civil Court, then the memorandum of appeal by the petitioner, is to be stamped with a court-fee under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Hurrish v Bhoba Tarini, 8 C.W N 321.

Case of several appeals-Where there are a number of appeals, in which the parties are the same and the lands which are contiguous to one another, form one estate, although in occupation of different tenants, who were not parties to appeals, the court-fees payable are to be calculated on the value of the consolidated appeals under s 17 of the Court Fees Act subject to the limitation in proviso under Art 1, Sch I of the Court Fees Act, Kashi Prasad Singh v The Secretary of State, 29 Cal. 140, but see Moosa Soleman Saleji and others v. The Secretary of State for India, 32 C W N 776, where it was held that Court. fees must be paid on each appeal separately estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person, directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

NOTES.

Repeal.—Repealed in Bengal.

Application.—This section applies to suits and not to appeals, Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda, 12 All. 129; 10 A.W.N 39 IF.B.; Hari Ram v. Akbar Hossain, 4 All.L J. 636; 29 All. 749; 27 All.W.N. 253; 2 M.L.T. 373 F.B

Scope.—Section 9 merely lays down the procedure to be followed when the Court is of opinion that the suit has been under-valued. It is not open to Court without any evidence on the point and without following the procedure prescribed by section 9 to hold that the land in suit is worth more than the present value, Hari Pada Chakrabarti v. Divijendra Narain Roy, S. Cl. J. 28 (notes).

If the Court sees reason to think—Charts of valuation— Where the determination of the amount of court-fees payable depends upon valuation, the particular and appropriate provisions of s. 9 of the Court Fees Act should always be followed, 'S 9 begins with the words, 'If the Court sees reason to think hat the market-value of any land has been wrongly estimated. For the purpose of these opening words there is no illegality in any reference to a chart or to a gazetteer or to anything else that will assist. This is not a question of judicial decision. The Court merely sees reason to think that the suit is undervalued and that by itself will hurt nobody. But if the Court wants this matter to be pursued and it is a matter upon which evidence of external facts is plainly necessary—the Court must under-take the investigation in a judicial manner. It says that the Court may issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make a local or other investigation and to report to it. If that commission is issued and if a report is made, it is clear that then the learned Judge has a judicial duty to come to a decision on the basis of the commissioner's report Such a commission is a commission under the Civil Procedure Code and what the commissioner may do and what the duty of the learned Judge 18, 18 laid down quite clearly by the Civil Procedure Code"

"It is very 'nccessary that these investigations should not be embarked without due reason. It will obviously be a hardship to the plaintiff that he should have an extra stage of litigation to go through before he can prosecute his suits " * * * * "There is no power to make the plaintiff deposit the costs of the commission" * * * * * "The proper course is to deal with the matter when the plaint or the memorandum has been filed. If the result of the enquiry is to the effect that the plaintiff's valuation is insufficient, then the plaintiff may be called upon to make the necessary deposit"

A District Judge, if he has any uneasiness as to the amount of court-fees pad, is to take action under s 9 by appointing a commission or by holding a judicial enquiry himself. Charts of valuation may be used for the purpose of opening words of s 9 of the Court Fees Act but such charts should not be used as evidence in themselves, Jalckha Bibi and another v Danis Mohomed and others, 33 CWN 952-50 CLJ 164-1930 ALR 65 (Cal.) See also Badaraniessa Choudhurani v. Rain Chandra Mala Das and others, 33 CWN. 845: 49 CLJ. 562: 1929 ALR 717 (Cal.)

Local investigation—This section as originally drawn, followed the provisions of the then existing law (Act XXVI of 1867) on this subject; but the committee were strongly of opinion that local investigation for the purpose of valuing a suit should be discouraged as much as possible, as, in effect, they entailed to the parties to the suit all the trouble and expense of an extra suit merely to determine the question of the amount due to the revenue They proposed, therefore, to substitute words the effect of which would be to require the Court to determine, in each case, whether such local investigation was necessary or expedient instead of directing the enquiry to be made as a matter of course on the mere requisition of a party to the suit, Proceedings of the Legislative Council, (India Gazette Supplement, 26th February, 1870).

On questions arising as to the proper valuation of a suft, the Court may issue a commission and make enquiry as to the market-value and nett proceeds of the property; the final decision as to valuation rested with the Court, Uma Sauker Ray (Chowdhury v Sayad Mansur Ali Khan, 5 B.L.R. Ap. 6: 13 WR 326 But the Court is not bound to appoint a commissioner to hold an investigation, Hari Ram v Akbar, 29 All. 749: 4 Å L.J. 636: 27 (1907) A.W.N. 253: 2 M.L.T. 373; and a party has no absolute right to adduce evidence before Court after the report of the commissioner. The point must be decided on the facts of every particular case, Girish Chandra v, Sashi, 27 Cal 951. This section does not restrict the Court to Amin's report but allows the Court to appoint an Amin to make a local investigation just as in any other case under the Code of Civil Procedure, Madoacoodan v Ryemonee, 13 W.R. 415.

Parties to the question as to the court-fees payable— A question as to the amount of court-fees payable is a question between the Court and the plantiff and is not a question between the parties at all, Godha Mal and others v Prem Singh and others, 110 I.C. 179: 1928 A I.R. 560 (Lah.).

Onus of proving valuation.—When the defendant assertiat the suit is over-valued, the onus of proving the truth of his assertion lies on him, Umasankar v Mensur Ali, 13 WR 326: 5 B.I. R. (App) 6; Weju Ali, v. Hanuman, 12 WR 484: 4 B.I.R. A.C. 139, Musst Saobudra v. Raja Ram Prabad Singh, 16 WR. 5; Musst Dhunnaa v. Danodar Das, 2 N.W.P. 177. But where, whether any commission had been issued of not, the munsiff finds the value to be within his jurisdiction the Subordinate Judge cannot hold that the munsiff had rojurisdiction to do so, Ishan Chandra Mookerjee v. Lokenath Roj. 6 B.I.R. AC. 72: 14 WR. 451.

Determination of stamp duty on appeal.—Where for the proper of the stamp duty on an appeal, it is impracticable to ascertain accurately what portion of permanent revenue has heen assessed on the lands in dispute in a suit, the appellant should furnish to the Registrar a memorandum giving an estimate of the market-value and the data on which it is founded If the Registrar considers the estimate clearly insufficient, the Court will issue a commission to ascertain the proper market.

value, Exparte Moone Rangoppen, 3 Mad H.C. 352; Dhunnoo v. Damodar, 2 N.W.P. 177.

Power of revision.—The power of revision provided by section 9 relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the annual nett profits of the land or the market-value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraphs v and vi, Chinnanmal v Madarso Rosuther, 27 Mad. 480; 14 M L J. 343.

10. (t) If in the result of any such investigation

Procedure where nett profits or market value wrongly estimated the Court finds that the nett profits or market-value have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee; but, if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or nett profits been rightly estimated.

(ii) In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed

NOTES

Repeal.-Repealed in Bengal

Alteration in law.—This section had another clause repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (XII of 1891), which ran as follows —

Section 180 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be construed as if the words, "the market-value of any property or" were inserted after the word "ascertaining" and as if the words "or annual nett profits" were inserted after the word "damages."

Local Amendment.

The following paragraph has been substituted for paragraph

(ii) by Assam Legislature:—(ii) In such case—

(a) the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is

- (a) the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is Amendment of paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time os the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed; and whether the additional fee is or is not paid,
  - (b) the Court may, if it is of opinion that the estimation has been grossly insufficient, further order that the expenses of the commission, or such portion thereof as the Court may think reasonable, be paid by the party in foult to the Government and the order to made shall have the force and effect of a decree bassed by the Court

Application.—Section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedur, Corder 7, Rule 11 (Act V of 1908)] which directs that a plain shall be rejected in certain cases, applies only to the initial stages of a suit before a plaint has been registered, whereas the application of this section is not susceptible of restriction to any particular stage, Valya Kesava Vadyar v. Suppan Nair, 2 Mad 308; Padmanand Singh v. Anant Lad Misser, F.B. 34 Cal. 20-11 (C.W. N. 38: 4 C.L.). 422, where it was held that section 54 applies to any stage of a suit

Section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure and section 19 of the Court Fees Act have reference to different stages of a sunt. Where the plannt had been valued bona fide and the proper court-fees had been paid so far as such valuation was concerned, but payment of additional court-fee was necessitated by the result of the enquity under section 9 of the Court Fee Act, such a sunt cannot be held to be barred hecause when the additional court-fee called for by the Court was paid the pend of limitation for the sunt had expired, Babu Lal v Asi Kunton, 27 All 197 (1904) 24 All W N 22:1 All L 1, 641; Ghaurd v Hargobind, 27 (1907) A W N 18 · 28 All 411 But seconitra, section 54 applies to any stage of a suit, Kishore Singh v Sabdal Singh, 12 All 553.

Scope.—Sections 9 and 10 provide machinery for assertaining the value of land and liouses, the subject-matter of a suit, when the Court thinks that the value has been wrongly estimated to the detriment of revenue, Krishna Mohan Singhav. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat CWN 65: 4 Pat 336: 6 Pat L T. 262: 87 I.C. 137: 1925 A I R 392 (Pat) F.B.

Section 10 allows a Court to dismiss a suit for non-payment of the additional court-fees where it has jurisdiction to hear and decide the suit. No other Court can dismiss the suit under s 10 When at a subsequent stage of the suit, it is found that the court-fees are insufficient and that the value of the property has been under-estimated, the Court has power to make an enquiry as to the value of the property and if the Court has jurisdiction to decide the case, can dismiss the suit, if the additional contrees are not paid within such time as the Court shall fix and that is because the party disobeys the order of the Court and the suit shall fail for want of prosecution. Where, however, the market value of the property goes beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court which has made such enquiry, then it s the imperative duty of the Court under Order 7. Rule 10.

• C.P.C. to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court.

When the plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court, the plaintiff can take advantage of the court-fees that has been paid on the previously filed plant and he could pay the deficit court-fees in the Court having jurisdiction to hear the case, Ganesh Tacunappa Barde v. Tatya Bharnappa Mirji, 51 Bom. 236: 29 Bom L.R. 280: 100 I C. 343: 1927 A I R. 257 (Bom.).

Construction of the section.—In the case of Mahammad Salm v. Nabian Bib., 8 All. 282 (287), Mr. Justice Mahmood said at pages 286-287: "The object of these provisions, as indeed of the Act, is to lay down rules for the collection of one form of taxation, and this, I regard to be the scope of the enactment, though it contains no preamble at all; and, I hold it as a fundamental rule of construction that statutes which impose pecunary burdens or encroach upon the rights of the subject, or qualify those rights, must be construed strictly. The rule applies with special force to such provisions as provide a penally, whatever its nature may be "

Duty of appeal Const—The District Judge should come to a finding on the true value of the properties in suit for the purpose of court-fees and without coming to a finding on the question he could not hold that the memorandum of appeal was insufficiently stamped in an appeal against a decree of the trial Court rejecting a plant for non-payment of the deficit courtees, America Lal Krusar v Basu, 1926 A J R 427 (Cal). See also Jalekha Bibi and another v Donus Mehomed and others, 33 CW.N 925 50 C L J 164 1930 A J R 65 (Cal)

clause, Muhammad Salim v Nabian Bibi, 8 All 282

The dismissal has the same effect as under section 56 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Or 7, rule 13) in cases of rejection under section 54 (Or 7, rule 11) of the Code of Civil Procedure, Balkaran Rai v Gozinda, 12 All 129: 10 A W N. 39

Clause II.—The word "suit" in clause (n) of section 10, includes an appeal, Dyad Singh v Ram Rakha, 109 PR. 1912: 136 P.W.R 1912 15 Ind Cas 463

Procedure in case of non-payment—Stay of suit until the deficiency is made good—Where the munsiff returned the plaint for want of jurisdiction and the plaint was presented to the proper Court where the Munsarian reported that the court-fee paid was insufficient, whereupon the Court extended the time to pay the deficit court-fees and stayed the suit, the deficiency was paid within the time and the plaint registered, held, that the sub-judge was right in staying the suit under section 10 of the South Court Fees Act, Tajannual Hosain Khan v Norwobdad Khan,

6 M L T 362: 3 Ind. Cas 830; following Horizam v. Akbor, ...

Dismissal of suit—Where upon the proper valuation of a suit an appellate Court finds that there is a deficit in the amount of court-fees paid by the plaintiff on his plaint and memorandum of appeal, the correct procedure for the Court to adopt is to tall upon the plaintiff to make good the deficiency and on his failing to do so, to enforce its order by dismissal of the suit in the appellate Court. In such cases the rejection of plaint is inappropriate, because section 10 of the Court Fees Act enjoins dismissal without option, Brij Krishno Dos v. Murli Rai, 4 Pat I. J. 703: 56 Ind. Cas. 316. Cf. Or 7, rr. 10 & 11 of the C. P. C. 1908.

If, as the result of the enquiry under section 9 of the Courfees Act the Court orders the additional court-fees to be pild within a time, and the plaintiffs fail to do so, then plaint is not to be rejected under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedur (Order 7, rule 11) but the suit tistelf should be dismissed under section 10 of this Act, Walli Amanji v Mahmad Adam, 16 Bon L.R. 763: 26 Ind Cas. 746.

Where the party to an appeal has been called upon to pay the deficit court-fees (due from hum) but not paid in the lower Court and he fails to pay it, the Court is bound to dismiss the suit under s. 10 (ii) of the Court Fees Act The provisions of s. 10 (ii) of the Court Fees Act are mandatory and the pour may be exercised at any time so long as the suit remains before the appellate Court, Bidhu Bhusan Backsh; v. Kalachand Ray, 31 C.W N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 AIR, 775 (Cal.).

But the original suit cannot be dismissed under sections 10 and 12 of this Act before the appeal is admitted, Govinda 1 Parameswara, 1 M.L.J. 528

Penalty for non-payment—The original bill contained no effectual provision as to consequences of the non-payment of the additional fee discovered to be due by the result of the local enquiry as to market value of the litigated property amended bill empowered the Court to fix the time within which such additional fees must be paid and to dismiss the sun mefault of such payment.

The powers conferred by sections 54 (a) and (c) and 55 (of the Act of 1882), read with section 582 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by section 12 of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870), read with clause (ii) of section 10, are intended to be sexercised before the disposal of the case, and not after it by been decided finally so far as that Court is concerned, Mahadot v. Rom Kishen Das and others, 7 All .528: 5 A.W.N. 140.

Question of court-fees to be dealt with at the corliest possible moment.-It is desirable that where the appellate Court has to deal with the question of deficit court-fees it must be done at the earliest possible moment and the expense of printing a paper book should not be incurred till the question is settled, Hitendra Sing v. Sir Rameshwar Singh, 62 Ind. Cas 43: (1921) C.W.N. Pat. 161 · 2 P L T 383: 6 Pat. L.J. 293 F.B. See also Walaiti Ram v. Gapiram and others, 152 IC. 799: 1935 A.I.R 75 (Lah ), where it was further held that the Court if it finds that a document is insufficiently stamped it should stay the proceedings in the suit and fix a time within which the court-fees are to be paid and dismiss the suit if the demand is not complied with. The Court should not while dismissing the suit on the merits add a rider to the decree that the deficient court-fee is to be realized from the plaintiff.

Extension of time -The Court is competent to extend the time originally fixed for payment of additional court-fees, Chini Lal v. Anidhia Prasad, 19 All. 240: (1897) 17 AW.N. 40: Dwarka Nath Biswas v. Kedar Nath Biswas, 2 Ind Cas, 1; Bhagwandas v Haji Abu, 16 Bom. 263; Raskisori v. Madan Mohan, 31 Cal 75; Budrinarain v. Sheo Koer, L.R. 17 I A. 1: 17 Cal 512; Majlis v. Munna Singh, 84 P.R 1876 (See section 148, C P. C).

Abandonment of tortion of claim - Where the plaintiff abandons a portion of the claim at the initial stage of the litigation, the trial Court cannot take action under section 10 (2) and dismiss the entire suit as this state of things was not considered when the Court Fees Act was passed into law; Ram Prosad v Bhimon, 27 All 151 24 All W N 198 1 All. L.J. 577; Duni Chand v Azız Khan, 10 I C 207

Government is interested -The question whether court-fees should be paid or not is really a matter that is important from the view of Government and Government alone, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Co v. Millin, 1931 A.L. J. 727: 133 I.C 465: 1931 A I R 659 (All ): 1931 I R 673 (All.).

In suits for mesne-profits or for immoveable

Procedure in suits for mesne-profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed property and mesne-profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Where the amount of mesne-profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

[For BENGAL only-

Substitution of new Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"11. Where, in any suit for mesne-profits or mesne profits or account, the fee which when amount found due exceeds amount claimed the comprised the whole of the relief to which the Court finds the plaintiff to be entitled exceeds the fee actually paid, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay an additional fee equal to the amount of the excess, and if such additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the suit, or if a decree has previously been passed therein, so much of the claim as has not been so decreed, shall be dismissed:

Provided that, where the additional fee is payable in respect of a portion of the claim which can be reliquished, that portion only shall be dismissed."

[For Madras only in place of para. 2, where a decree directs an enquiry as to meshe profits which have accrued an the property during a period prior the institution of the suit, if the profits accertained on such inquiry exceed the profits claimed no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Caurt shall fix, the claim for the excess shall be dismissed, unless the Court, for sufficient cause, extends the time far payment.

Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits from the institution of the suit, and a final decree is passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry, the decree shall not be executed until such fee is paid as would have been payable on the amount claimed in execution if a separate suit had been instituted therefor.

NOTES

Amendment.—This section has been amended in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922 as indicated above and in Bengal by B C. Act VII of 1935

Application of the section.—The section applies to suits and not to appeals, Balkaran Rai v Govinda Nath Tewori, 12 All 129 19 All W N 139 F B This section also applies to the case of mesne profits for which an amount can be and has been claimed in the plaint and in respect of which some court-fees have already been paid, Rain Krishna Bhikaji v Bhima Bai, 15 Bom 416, Vithal Hari Athvale v Govind Basudeb Thosar, 17 Bom 41, and also applies to the case of past as well as future mesne profits where an amount was claimed and court-fees paid on the estimated amount of past mesne profits only, Dwarkanath v Debendra Nath, 33 Cal. 1232; 3 C. I. J. 9-95 n. Lifjatulla Bhinya v. Chandra Mohan Bannerjee, 34 Cal. 954: 11 CWN 1133 6 C. L. J. 255, Kewal Kishen Singh v Sookhar, 24 Cal. 173; and also to the case where compensation is claimed from the date of suit to the date on which, under the terms of the decree, possession should have been delivered, Chedi Lall v Kran Chand, 2 All 1682 F.B

Where it does not apply—to the case of an interest accruing upon a decree passed in a suit—which is not for messne profits, nor for immoveable property nor for an account but simply a suit for innoney lent. Krishnarav v Antaji Biruyaksha, 12 Bom H. C. 227; Bhacani Prosad v Kutubunnissa, 27 All 559: 2 All I, J. 263 · (1905) 25 All. W N. 84.

Frame of suit.—A claim for possession and mesne may be united or may be brought separately and when separate court-fee for the mesne profits claimed is not necessary, Bebee Syedum v. Synd Allah, W.R. 327, Gap Number which was a case of succession to the office of a religious superior in a Mahomedan religious endowment.

Valuation.—Under the present Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Order 7, Rule 2, paragraph (i), the plaintif is to state approximately the amount of menne profits claimed, and in suits for accounts he is to state approximately the amount which will be found due to him on taking unsettled accounts

Every suit should state approximately the amount claimed and valarem court-fees must be paid on that amount, Naud Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Maravari, 3 Pat.L.J. 67: 1 Pat.L.W. 781: 40 Ind. Cas 579. But court-fees cannot be levied either in the original Court or the Court of appeal in respect of positivature of mesne profits pendente lite, Bhupendra Kumar Chakrabart v Purna Chandra Base, 43 Cal. 650: 13 C.L.J. 132: 24 Ind. Cas, 232; Bunvarilai v Daya Sankar, 13 C.W.N. 815; Ram Krishna v Bhimabai, 15 Bom. 416; Maiden v. Janakramyya, 21 Mad 371.

Account suit.—When a plaintiff is required by the Court Fees Act to place a valuation on his claim and places a valuation which needs only to be approximately correct, it must not be arbitrary or manifestly inadequate The valuation can only be made approximately, and s 11, Court Fees Act makes provision for the payment of additional court-fees if the original valuation should be ultimately found to have been inadequate. But this does not mean that the plaintiff having valued his claim is entitled to select one or two items and to leave the rest for assessment unders 11 after the final decree has been obtained. The plaintiff has to value his suit for the purpose of determining jurisdiction, not necessarily exactly, but in an approximately correct fashion; and the court-fees are payable on the valuation so made, Gour Lol and athers v. Raja Babu, 1929 A IR. 626 (Patna): 11 P.J. T. 561: 123 I.C. 634: 1930 I R. 362 (Pat.).

Final decree.—Under the present Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the amount of mesne profits to be awarded is ascertained in the decree itself. See Order 20, Rule 12, C. P. C. Paragraph (ii) of that rule speaks of a final decret in respect of rents or mesne profits passed according to the result of the enquiry under clauses (a) and (e) of paragraph (i) of that rule; but no form of that final decree is given in the schedule

The procedure prescribed by Order 20, Rule 12 of the Cole of Civil Procedure supersedes section 244 (a) (b) of the Cole of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882), Dawood v. Rahamar, 62 Ind. Cas. 175.

A decree directing that the plaintiffs should get wasilat from the defendants but the same should be ascertained through the intervention of a court-amin and in the course of execution proceedings, was an interlocultory decree only, so far as wasilat was concerned and did not become final until the amount of wasilat had been ascertained by the amin and until his report had been adopted or confirmed by the Court, Hajon Manick v. Bur Singh, 11 Cal. 17.

The memorandum of appeal against a final decree under Order 20, Rule 12 (2), C P C. in respect of subsequent mesne profits, is to be stamped with court-fee calculated ad valorem on the amount of mesne profits in dispute, Pilla Balaramanaidu v. Pilla Sangannaidu, (1922) 42 M L J 184 45 Mad 280: 69 Ind Cas 722: 14 L W 730

Power of executing court—Costs—In Lakshmanan Chettiar and others, R M C T C T Chidambaram Chettiar, 57 Mad 303: 65 M L J 526: 38 L W 572: 1933 M V N 1116: 145 I C 946: 1933 A I R. 787 (Mad), the Madras High Court held that in view of the mandatory provision of sec 11, Court Fees Act, no direction as to payment of additional court-fees need be given in the final decree The costs so incurred by the decree-holder by reason of the payment of the additional court-fee may be deemed to be costs relating to execution and the executing Court has jurisdiction to pass any order relating to it See also Perianan Chetty v Nagapra Mudahar, (1907) 30 Mad 32: 16 M L I. 543.

Section 11 requires the plaintiff to make up the deficiency in court-fees if on enquiry a larger amount than the approximate value is found due, therefore the successful plaintiff is to make up the deficiency found to be due after ascertainment of mesne profits On payment of the court-fees a regular decree comes into existence, Collector of Etawah v Bindraban, 1931 A.L.J. 413: 1931 AIR 538 (All).

Determination of the amount of mesne profits. · · · * mesne prafits Nature with mesne profits "the of wasilat are not proceedings in execution of a decree in regard to any fixed sum, but merely a continuation of the original suit and carried on in the same way as if a single suit was brought for mesne profits by itself," Puranchand v. Ray Radha Kissen, 19 Cal 132 (136) FB

Proceedings for ascertaining the amount of mesne profits on an application for that purpose is not a proceeding "in execution of the decree" and therefore an application for delivery of possession of land decreed will not be barred by lapse of thr years although the claim to possession was barred, Pryag Sing

v Raju Singh, 25 Cal. 203, accepted by the Bombay High Court in Ultam Ram v. Kishordas, 24 Bom 149; Harmonoje Naram Singh v Ram Prosad, 6 C.J. J. 462. But see Ram Kishore v. Gopi Kantha, 28 Cal. 242; Upendra Chandra v. Sakhi Chand, 12 C.W.N. 3, where an application for ascertaining the mesne profits was recarded as an application in execution.

Determination of amount cannot be left open to a future date—Before passing a final decree in a suit for accounts the Court is bound to go into accounts and fix definitely the amount which is payable by one party to the other. It cannot leave the examination of account to a future date and pass a deeve for rendition of accounts to the extent of the sum found to have been received by the defendant without deciding what deduction, fain, he is entitled to make. Nor can the determination of the amount of court-fees be left at the option of the plaintiff. Under $11, Court Fees Act, the plaintiff should be called upon to pay court-fees on the difference between the sum decreed and the value tentatively fixed by him in the plaintif, Harry Period Robson v Administrator-General, Punjab, 11 Lah. 325: 30 P.L.R. 503: 1929 A.I.R. 753 (Lahore) 122 I.C. 467.

Mesne profits subsequent to suit - 'It is manifest that mesne profits antecedent to suit and mesne profits bendente lite stand on very different grounds. In fact as regards the latter, there is no cause of action at the time of the commencement of the suit, and it is only by means of statutory provisions, framed with the obvious purpose of shortening litigation, that they can be awarded in the suit even though they accrued subsequent to the institution of the suit. The mesne profits antecedent to the suit have, on the other hand, accrued before the commencement of the suit, and although, therefore their amount may not be stated with absolute certainty, the amount can be mentioned with some approach to approximation. When, thereforc, a plaintiff institutes his suit for possession and mesne profits antecedent to the suit in a Court of limited pecuniary jurisdiction he may be rightly deemed to have limited his claim to the maximum amount for which that Court can entertain a suit, Bhufendra Kumar Chakrabarti v. Purna Chandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 14 C.W N. 506: 13 C.L J. 132 24 Ind. Cas. 232.

Atomps to be paid on antecedent means profits in appeals.

As to means profits claimed prior to the institution of the suit, the memorandum of appeal must bear the same court-fees as in the plaint; but as to means profits accruing subsequent to the institution of the suit when the decree directs that the same be determined in execution, it is not necessary for the appellant to pay any additional court-fees on the memorandum of appeal, Rudra v. Radhathai, 1883 P.J. 37. The court-fees that have to be paid only upon the mesme profits claimed are antecedent to the suit and a plaint or memorandum of appeal is not hable to stamp duty in respect of mesme profits subsequent to the suit, Bunicarlal v. Daya Sunkar Misser, 13 CWN 815: 1 Ind. Cas. 670 See Ram Krishna Bhikapi v Bhimabai, 15 Bom. 416; Maden v Janakiramayya, 21 Mad 371, but see Pilla Balaramanandu v. Pilla Sankanmadu, (1922) 42 MLJ 184 14 LW 370-45 Mad 280 69 I C. 722, where it is held that on appeal from a final decree under Order 20, Rule 12 (2), court-fees are payable on messue profits subsequent to suit

(b) When the suit is instituted in a Court of limited jurisdiction -The Calcutta and Bombay High Courts have held that if the suit be instituted in a Court of limited pecuniary jurisdiction, the amount of mesne profits to be awarded after it has been ascertained cannot exceed the pecuniary jurisdiction of that Court, ic, the amount of mesne profits that can be awarded by such Court is the maximum limit of pecuniary jurisdiction of that Such Court manns the value of the disputed property, Golap Sing v. The application to execute the decree was made on the 27th June, 1903, and it was dismissed and the court-fees were not paid; hidd, that a second application was in time as it was competent to the Court to order that the execution should begin on court-fees being paid within a certain time, Nathin Bhas Kusandas v Pranjivan Lalchond, 34 Bom 189 12 Bom LR 13 5 Ind Cas 601

The plaintift can state any value, but exceution of the decree, in case it exceeds the valuation, is not to proceed until the difference in court-fees has been paid, Gobinda v. Dayabhai, 9 Bom 22

Where the order to pay additional court-fees is contained in the concluding portions of the decree, the order does not form part of the decree and no amendment is necessary when the Court orders the time to be extended. The 1st part of the section applies to such a case and the meaning of that part is that execution is to be stayed till the additional court-fee is paid, and the Court should fix a time for payment of additional court-fees, Perianan v. Nagappa, 30 Mad. 32.2 M.L.T. 23.16 M.L.J. 543.

Payment of additional court-fees under section 11 is not necessary in order that the execution of a mortgage decree by the appeal Court exceeding the amount claimed in the trial Court, may be proceeded with, Ram Bhujhwan Prasad Single V, Natho Ram, 70 Ind Cas 483-3 P LT, 146: 1922 A IR, 59 (Patna). See also Thakan Choxedhury v. Lachhami Narain and others, 14 Pat. 4: 15 P.L.T. 548: 152 IC 244: 1934 A.I.R. 571 (Patna), F.B.

Rejection of plaint does not preclude the plaintiff from presenting in the same Court a fresh plaint, properly framed and valued, in respect of the same cause of action, Rachapfa Subrao v. Shidapfa Venkalarao, 43 Bom 507: 24 C.W.N. 33: 17 A.L.J. 418: 25 M.L.J. 298. 21 Bom. L.R. 489: 50 I.C. 280: 25 M.L.T. 298 P.C.

Penal sections must be strictly construed and a dismissal of a suit under its provisions cannot operate as a res judicata, Mishammad Salim v. Nabian Bibs, 8 All, 282.

If a decree for possession of immoveable property plus past and future mesne profits be passed then the decree-holder can take out execution of the decree in his favour for possession of the immoveable property irrespective of the question whether the meane profits have or have not been ascertained or whether court-fees have or have not been paid on the meane profits Ramadinga Sethapathi Ambalam. Anduappa Ambalam. 54 Mad 980: 61 M.L.J. 424: 34 L.W. 99: 134 I.C. 181: 1931 AIR 1717 (Mad.).

Effect of late payment of the deficit court-fees.—"It appears to me that whatever the date on which the applicants or their predecessors chose to comply with the Court Fees Act, in a suit for accounts, the date of the decree, for the purposes of Article 182 (of the Limitation Act), must be taken to be that indicated in section 205 (now Order 20, Rule7) of the Code of Civil Procedure, Bhajan Behary Shaha v. Girischunder Shaha, T C W N 959: 19 Ind Cas. 410.

Power of Court to enlarge time for payment of additional court-fees.—The Court has power to enlarge time originally fixed for payment of additional court-fees on applications for ascertaining the amount of mesne profits, Golab Chand v Bahuria Rammurat Koer, 13 C.L.J. 432. (See section 148, C. P. C.).

Power of appellate Court.—The appellate Court has no power to extend the time fixed by the original Court, nor reduce the amount awarded but no special procedure for dismissal for default in payment of court-fees under section 11 of the Court Fees Act is necessary so long as it is Clear that the parties have had fair notice of the nature of the proceedings, Nathers Routher v. Mahomed Rowther, 28 Ind. Cas 890 See 389 Priyanath Bachhar v. Meajan Sardar, 24 C.I.J. 88: 29 IC 571.

Abandonment of part of the claim.—Where the plaintiff analons part of his claim at the initial stage of the suit, if respect of which court-fee already pad is insufficient, he is not compellable to pay the court-fees upon that claim under penally of having his whole claim dismissed, Ram Prosad v. Bhiman, 27 All. 151: 24 All. W.N. 198: 1 All. L. L. 57.

Where a suit for accounts and recovery of account pagers was instituted in a Court of limited jurisdiction and it was found that the sum which ought to be awarded to the plaintiff exceeded the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaintiff ought to be called upon to relinquish the excess and thus place the case formally within the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court of his deliberate choice; the Court may in such case remit the excess, or presum the excess to have been remitted, Golap Singh v. Indra Coomar Haera, 13 C.W.N. 493 at page 499: 9 C.L. J. 367: 1 Ind Cas. 86: 5 M.L.T. 360.

Where the Court insisted upon payment of additional court fees because a large amount was found due and the plaintiff offered to relinquish that portion of his claim but the Court refused holding that it had no power to allow such relinquishment and dismissed the suit, held that the order is erroneous, Sellamuthu Sertagar v Ramaswamy Pillan, 12 M L J. 66 See also under heading "Reduction of claim and value" under Sch I, Art 1 infra

PARAGRAPH II.

Application.—The final provision of section 11 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to the condition set forth in the 1st paragraph of that section, Gonesh Chandra v Pramatha, 11 Ind. Cas. 73.

The second part of s 11, Court Fees Act, has no application until the amount of menne profits payable is determined in execution Part II, s 11, Court Fees Act, whether it applies to appeals or not, applies only to a claim for menne profits accruing subsequently to the date of the suit, of which the plaintiff is unable to calculate the approximate value because he cannot say for how long a period he is likely to be kept out of possession, Dhanukdhari Prasad Pondey v Ramadhikary Mister, 142 I C 617- 1933 A I R 81 (Patra) 12 Patra 188: 13 P.L.T 810, 1933 I.R 162 (Pat).

Construction.- In applying section 11 of the Court Fees Act to a suit for partition and mesne profits, the term "decree" in that section should be taken to refer to the final, and not to the interim decree in the suit. Where in a suit for partition and mesne profits, the Court decrees the elaim and awards a specific sum on account of such profits conditional on payment by the plaintiff of additional court-fees due in respect of the profits, the Court has no power under section 11, paragraph (ii) of the Court Fees Act Act to fix any time for payment and the only penalty which the plaintiff incurs in the event of his not paying the court-fees is that he cannot execute the decree until he pays the additional court-fees Their Lordships proceeded: "The 1st paragraph deals with a ease where the profits are settled by the decree and the penalty under it for non-payment of the additional court-fee is, that the decree should not be executed till it is paid; under that paragraph the Court has no power to fix any time for payment, any order to that effect being mere surplusage..... The 2nd paragraph deals only with a case where mesne profits are ascertained in execution of the decree, the two paragraphs being mutually exclusive." "The word 'ascertained' implies that the exact sum of money representing the profits has been fixed. It is not sufficient for the application of the section to show that a method had been indicated for the purpose of calculating those profits.... It the Court proposes to act under clause (2) it should ascertam the amount of profits in money and state the additional courtees payable and fix a reasonable time for payment of it. Natharsa Rowther v Muhammad Rowther, 59 Ind Cas 385 See also Perianan Chetty v. Nagappa Mudaliar, 30 Mad 32-16 ML, 1 543: 2 ML, 7. 23

Suit—The word "Suit" in the last paragraph of section 11 does not mean the entire suit, Fulchand v Bai Ichha, 12 Bon 98, Kewal Kissen Singh v Sookhari, 24 Cal 173: 1 C.W.N. 243

Part execution of decree—The word 'sunt' in the last part of paragraph (u) of section 11 of the Court Fees Act does not mean the entire sunt. It means the claim in respect of maint profits, Kewal Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 CW.N. 243.

Where there are claims other than mesne profits, the plaintiff decree-holder may obtain execution of that other part without payment of additional court-fees for mesne profits. He need not pay so long as he does not ask for mesne profits, Fulchand v. Bai Ichha, 12 Bom 98

Valuation.—The plaintiff need only state approximately the amount of mesne profits claimed in the suit. See Order Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908). Bhipendra Kunnar Chakravarti v Purnachandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650 13 C. Bungshee Dhar Sein, 15 W.R. 67.

Increase of valuation.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit for mesme profits and valued his claim at Rs, 300, but or enquiry by the Commissioner Rs. 580 was found due, the trail Court passed decree for Rs. 223 only and the plaintiff appealed and valued the appeal at Rs. 357, i.e. on the difference, held, that no second appeal lay to the High Court as the plaintiff do not amend his plaint and the value could not be increased without the plaint being amended, Kah Kamal v. Fazlar Rahaman, 15 C.W. N. 454: 7 Ind. Cas 778.

Forum of appeal.—In case where the Court after investigation finds the valuation should be higher and orders return of the plaint, so long as there has been no acceptance by the

the application of the section to show that a method had been indicated for the purpose of calculating those profits...... If the Court proposes to act under clause (2) it should ascertain the amount of profits in money and state the additional courtees payable and fix a reasonable time for payment of it, Notharso Rowther v. Suit — The word "Sunt" in the last paragraph of section II does not mean the entire sunt, Fulchond v. Bai Ichha, 12 Bon. 98, Kewol Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 C.W.N. 243

Part execution of deeree —The word 'suit' in the last part of paragraph (u) of section 11 of the Court Fees Act doe not mean the entire suit. It means the claim in respect of mean profits, Kewal Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 C.W.N. 243.

Valuation.—The plaintiff need only state approximately the amount of menue profits claimed in the suit. See Order 7, Rule 2 of the Code of Crul Procedure (Act V of 1988). Increase of valuation.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit for meme profits and valued his claim at Rs. 300, but on enquiry by the Commissioner Rs. 580 was found due, the Court passed decree for Rs. 223 only and the plaintiff appealed and valued the appeal at Rs. 357, i.e. on the difference, kell, that no second appeal lay to the High Court as the plaintiff dot amend his plaint and the value could not be increased without the plaint being amended, Kali Komol v. Foelor Rohamer, 15 C.W.N. 454: 7 Ind. Cas 778

Forum of appeal.—In case where the Court after investigation finds the valuation should be higher and orders return of the plaint, so long as there has been no acceptance by the plaintiff of the order to make good the deficiency in court-fees, the original value assigned by the plaintiff must be taken as the value of the suit for the purpose of regulating the jurisdiction of the appellate Court, but after the plaintiff has accepted the order made, the value of the suit must be taken as being in accordance with the fee actually paid by the plaintiff, Gozwami Sri Raman Lalji Maharaj v Bohra Desraj, 32 All 222: 7 All. L. J 203: 5 Ind. Cas 875

Where in a suit for accounts, the plaintiff valued the relief approximately at Rs 600, but the Subordinate Judge passed a decree for Rs 30,830-9-2 and the plaintiffs paid additional courtfees, the defendant appealed to the High Court from the decree of the Subordinate Judge, held, that the appeal lay to the High Court because what the plaintiffs in this account suit demanded was the amount that might be found due to them, and so long as they claim Rs 30,830-9-2 to be decreed to them, they cannot be allowed to say that the subject-matter is only Rs 600 in value, Ibrahim Issaji v Bejanji Jamsetji, 20 Bom 265 But the case would be different if the suit is dismissed or the plaint rejected when the valuation would be the valuation made by the plaintiff, Khusalchand v Nagindas, 12 Born, 675, (677), Bhaavantrai v Mehta Bajurao, 18 Bom. 40, Gulab Singhi v. Lakshman Singhi, 18 Born 100 and Bai Varunda v. Bai Managavri, 18 Born 207

Where the plaintiff valued the land at Rs 2,800 and tentatively valued the claim for meme profits at Rs 1,200 but on investigation the Subordinate Judge found the claim for mesne profits to be at Rs 2,305 held that as the total claim now exceeds Rs 5,000 in value, the value of the suit must be taken to exceed Rs 5,000 and the appeal hes to the High Court, Jagendra Nath Matti v Ram Gopat Das, 103 1.C 639 (641):

Where the plaintiff definitely fixes a certam sum as the amount of his claim, this must be considered as the value of the original suit and the appeal will he accordingly but when he fixes a certain sum as the amount of his claim only approximately or tentatively and prays that the amount of his claim may be accertained in the course of the sunt, then the amount found by the Court to be due to him must be regarded as the value of the original suit for the purpose of determining the forum of appeal, Guldo Khan v Abbul Wahed Khan, 31 Cal 365: 8 C W N 233, applied in Ijjatullah Bhuiya v. Chandra Mohan Bancrijec, F.B. 34 Cal 954: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L. J. 255; Ganqa Kan v. Hakim Rai, 15 Lah 512: 36 P.L.R. 361: 151 LC 703: 1934 A.I.R. 506 (Lah) F.B.

In suits for recovery of money on unsettled accounts the value as determinable for computation of court-fee is the value as given in the plaint, unless it is enhanced by an adjudication of Court in which case it is the latter sum which becomes the value on which the court-fee is to be computed and is also the value for the purpose of jurisdiction, Kalu Ram v. Hanwood Ram, 15 Lah 151 · 36 P.L.R 391: 151 LC 641: 1934 A1R 488 (Lah), FB.

For account suits see Buddha Mal v. Rallia Ram, 9 Lah. 23: 9 Lah W N 1. 29 P L.R 320: 110 LC. 631: 1928 A 1 R 157 (Lah), where the High Court held that if the amount found after enquiry exceeds the pecuniary jurisdiction of the first appeal Court, then appeal lies to the High Court.

The approximate valuation made in an account suit determines the forum of appeal. This valuation continues to determine the forum appeal even if on investigation the amount to be awarded is found to exceed the pecuniary limits of the District Court, Harichand v. Madan Lal, 31 P.L R. 536: 128 IC 491: 1930 AIR. 832 (Lah.): 1931 IR. 59 (Lah.).

The memorandum of an appeal by the plaintiff from a decree awarding mesne profits but claiming a larger amount between the institution of the suit and the delivery of possession need not be stamped with ad valorem court-fees as no such fees can be demanded until the amount has been ascertained, Sheodhin Singh v Narangi Lal Ram Marwari. 11 P.L.T. 703

129 I.C. 662 1931 IR. 118 (Patna).

Appeal from final decree during the pendency of appeal from preliminary decree -Where the plaintiff valued the relief for recovery of possession at Rs 1,020 and of the mesne profits antecedent to the suit at Rs 4,199-8-0 and the trial Court made a (preliminary) decree in favour of the plaintiff to recover possession of the land and to realize mesne profits to be subsequently ascertained and the defendant appealed and valued the appeal at Rs 5,219-8-0, the aggregate of the above sum and valued the appeal at Rs. 5,219-8-0, the aggregate of the above sums and paid court-fees ad valarem on that amount, the mesne profits were subsequently ascertained at Rs. 2,570-1-10 and a final decree for that amount was passed in favour of the plaintiff The defendant filed another appeal against the amount also while the appeal against the first decree was pending, held, it is not incumbent on the defendant to pay court-fees a second time and the High Court said, "If mesne profits had been decreed for a higher sum than what is claimed in the plaint and if the plaintiff had obtained a decree for such sum upon payment of additional court-fees, the defendant might have been called upon to pay the difference between the court-fees payable on the sum ultimately determined and the sum originally mentioned respectively," Kanchan Mandar v. Kamala Prassa Chawdhury, 16 C.I. J. 564: 15 Ind Cas. 572 See Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v Radha Mohan Sikdar, 33 CW N. 743: 1929 A.I.R. 815 (Cal.) where the High Court held that additional courtfees are to be paid on the increased amount decreed

Art. 1 infra

12. (1) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the Decision of questions amount of any fee chargeable as to valuation under this chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit:

(11) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply.

For Bengal only-

12. in paragraph (ii) of section 12 of the said Act, for the words and figures Amendment of section 12 "and the provisions of section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply" the fallowing shall be substituted, namely:-

and thereafter:-

- (a) if the party required to pay is the appellant or petitioner, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) af section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply:
- (b) if the party required to pay is the respondent or the opposite party, the provisions of sub-section (2) af section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply, and, if such party fails to pay the fee required before the date fixed by the Caurt, the Court shall recover the amount of such fee from him as a public demand.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a question relating to the classification of any suit for the purpose of section 7 shall not be deemed to be a question relating to valuation."

NOTES

Effect of the Bengal Amendment—Reference to section 10 had to be deleted consequent on the repeal of that section under the Bengal Amendment Act.

The application of s. 8B requires the Court to stay proceeding with the appeal till the deficit has been realised. Clause (b) makes the provisions of the Public Demands Recovery Ad applicable to the case of respondents who have not paid proper court-fees.

Application.—Section 12 has no application to a question of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal presented to a High Court but only applies to the fees payable in other Courts. It is true the High Court would have powers conferred by cl. (ii) but the fees dealt with are the fees paid in the lower Court. Krishna Mohan Singha v. Raghunaudan Pandey. 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65. 6 P.L.T. 262; I.L.R. 4 Patna 336: 8 I.C. 137: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.) F.B.

"It has been ruled that the section has no application where the question for decision is as to the class under which a suit falls and not merely of valuation in that class," Sunder Mol v. Jessic Caroline Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375 (377): 16 Ind. Cas 963, see also Omrao Mirza v. Jones, 10 Cal 599: 12 CLR. 148; Brojo Coomar Sen v. Eshan Chandra Das, 3 C.L.R. 79. Section 12 of the Court Fees Act has no application, where the question raised before the trial Court was not a question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint, but relating essentially to its jurisdiction to entertain the suit. "Section 12 should be strictly construed and it cannot be applied to bar an appeal where the question raised was one of the class under which the suit falls and not merely of valuation in that class The section was framed for fiscal purposes," Peary Shah v. Suraimal, 16 CL J. 371: 17 C.W.N. 503: 16 Ind Cas 575. See also Venkata Ramani v. Narayansami, 1925 M.W.N. 276: 48 M.L.J 685: 87 I.C. 660: 1925 A.I.R. 713 (Mad.). Section 12 of the Court Fees Act has no application where the valuation is made by the Court for the purpose of determining the question whether the suit is within the pecuniary limits of the Court's jurisdiction, and where on the basis of such valuation the plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court, an appeal les against the order made under Order 43, Rule 1 (a), C. P. C. Chihu Kuri Nara Siuha Charyalu Garu v. Zemindar of Balliti, 1919 M.W.N. 599: 10 L.W. 178. 26 M.L.T. 153: 52 Ind. Cas. 1001

The finality does not attach to a decision, where such decision as to court-fees, was arrived at only incidentally in the decision as to valuation for jurisdiction, section 12 being inapplicable to such cases, Sikandar Shah v. Ghulam Nabi Shah, 151 PWR 1918 47 Ind Cas 7

Section 12 has no application whatever to a case in which the appellate Court has to ascertain the nature of the suit and to determine whether it falls in a particular category. If after hearing the parties the Court found that the appeal was understamped it could have called upon the plaintiff to make good the deficiency within a certain time and if this was not done it could then have dismissed the appeal, Mussi Parineshri v. Panna Lal and another, 32 P.I.R. 244, 130 I C 643: 1931 A.I.R. 378 (Lah.) 1931 I R 323 (Lah.)

Cross-objection —Section 12 has no application to a petition of objection under section 561 (Order 41, Rule 22), C. P. C. Husan Bano v Nizamuddin, (1893) 13 All.W.N. 85.

Rejection of plaint—The procedure set out in Order 7, Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is not applicable to a case in which an appellate Court acts under section 12 of the Court Fees Act, 1870. In such a case rejection of the plaint is an appropriate remedy and the law enjoins a dismissal without option, though it may be that the result of the dismissal, from the point of view of rest judicata, is the same as that of a rejection, Pondit Brij Krishna Das v. Chowdhury Murli Rai, 4 Pat L J. 703: 56 Ind Cas 316.

Construction.—Provisions of a fiscal statute should not be so construed as to furnish a chance of escape and a means of evasion, Raf Rafectear Jiu v Gati Krishna, 39 C.I. J. 217: 82 IC 128: 1924 A I R. 953 (Cal.); Nanhe Lal v. Jogendra Chandra, 28 C W N. 403: 39 C.I. J. 222 (228): 82 I.C. 297: 1924 A I R. 881 (Lah.).

Shall be decided by the Court —The words "every question relating to valuation.....shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint is filed" do not carry with them the meaning that a distinct question or issue relating to valuation must be raised and a formal decision thereon passed by the Court of first instance before a Court of appeal can interfere, Shama Soondary, V Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal 173: 8 C.L. R. 528. Se II Bhusa Balshi v. Kala Chand Row, (1926) 31 C.W.N. 1061

335: 1927 A.I.R 775 (Cal), where it was held that a formal decision is not necessary for the application of this sub-section and in case of deficiency the memorandum should be placed before the Court.

The expression 'shall be decided by the Court' does not mean that an issue shall be raised and decided by the Court. All that it means is that the Court, either the presiding officer or the ministerial officer who is charged with that duty, has to determine what the court-fee is. It cannot be said that where the ministerial officer whose duty it is to see whether proper court-fee is paid or not, decide what the proper fee is, his decision is not a decision of the Court * * * The act of the ministerial officer receiving the plaint etc is an act of the Court when a Court receives a plaint, petition or any other pleading and files it as properly stamped, its act amounts to a decision that the proper court-fee has been paid, In re Lakshmi Ammal, 49 M L J 608 (611, 613): 1925 M.W.N. 826: 91 I.C. 729: 1926 A.I R 96 (Mad).

SHALL BE FINAL.

"Final", meaning of -"I have no doubt that the term "final" in section 5 of the Court Fees Act has precisely the same meaning as the term "final" in section 12 of that Act. But the subject to which the term is applied in section 5 is different from that to which it is applied in section 12. In section 5 it is applied to a decision as "to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof," whereas in section 12 it is applied to decision as to every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under the Chapter (Chapter III) on plaint or memorandum of appeal, Balkaran Rai v. Gobind Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 (152): 10 (1890) All WN 39 FB; Muhammad Sadik v Muhammad Jan, 11 All 91 considered

If there be no doubt as to the class in which the suit falls, and the section of the Court Fees Act which applies to it, the decision of the first Court as to the valuation, which depends on the value of the property, is final; but if, there is a dispute as to the class in which the suit falls, that is to say, the section of the Court Fees Act which applies to it, an appeal will lie. The provision as to finality attaches to the value of the suit and not to the value of the stamp to be used, Raj Kristo v. Bama Sundari, 23 W.R. 296.

The decision of the trial Court as to valuation is final only between the parties The Court of appeal can correct the valuation when the decision of the trial Court is to the detriment of public revenue, Gajendra Nath v. Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131: 60 C.L.I 201. 1935 A 1R 338 (Cal.).

Decision as to valuation—"According to the terms of the section, it is only the decision of a Court on a question relating to the valuation of a suit that is final but the decision of the special Judge in this case does not dispose of any question relating to valuation far less any question relating to the valuation of a suit," Upadhyaya Thakur v. Pershidh Singh, 23 Cal 723 (729) F B

Under section 12 of the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870) the decision of the Court of first instance upon a question of valuation, not affecting the question of category is final, Wilayar dlt Khon v Unuardaraz Ali Khon, 19 All 165 (168): 17 All WN 33, but see Kanaram v Komappan, 14 Mad 169, where the trial Court erroneously estimated the value and the High Court held that it is not precluded by section 12 from revising it, and reversing the decree

An appeal would lie from the decision of a Court in respect of the class in which a suit falls, but no appeal shall lie from a decision in respect of the valuation of the suit in that class, Dada v Nagesh, 23 Born 486

If the appeal Court holds that the suit is rightly classified by the Court of first instance, the latter Court's valuation must be upheld as final, but if the appeal Court be of opinion that the suit has been wrongly classified, the decision of the lower Court as regards valuation must necessarily be set aside, should such valination be different from what would have to be placed on the suit if rightly classified, Mahna Singh, Bahadur Singh, 100 PR 1919: 50 Ind Cas 125; Barca Mangal Das v. Moliant Nironjan Das, 56 PR, 1895, approxed.

Where the Court calls upon the plaintiff to make up courtere on his plaint and the plaintiff contends that the court-fee already paid is sufficient, the High Court will not interfere in revision. It is for the plaintiff to inake up his mind whether he will pay or not. If he fails to comply, the plaint will be rejected and unless the order is final under section 12 the plaintiff will have a right of appeal. If the order is final neither an appeal nor revision will he, Churi Lal v. Roshan Lal, 120

The scheme of the Act appears to be that in the subordinate Courts under section 12 the trial Court alone has power to decide what is the proper valuation for the purpose of determining the fee payable on the plaint and the Appellate Court alone has the like power with regard to the memorandum of appeal presented in that Court, even if the trial Court has arrived at a different valuation, and each Court's decision is final subject to the provisions of the second clause of section 12, Krishna Mons Sinha v Raghunandan Pandey, FB 1925 Pat C.W.N. 65 (78): 1925 A I R 392 (Patna) 6 Pat L T 262; I I, R, 4 Pat, 336 87 I C 137.

Objection to valuation—Objection as to valuation was entertained in appeal Court in admitted cases of under-valuation. In Sheo Govind Rewell v. Abhai Narayan Singh, 5 B LR. Ap 17, the High Court held, that as the under-valuation is admitted the Court of appeal below was right in entertaining the question as to valuation as it affected the jurisdiction of the trial Court,—decided on April 26, 1870. In Kaladdin Guru Bakas v. Raghopi, 1 Bom H CAC 62), it was held that an objection as to improper valuation cannot be raised for the first time in appeal Court. See also Wilayat Ali Khan v. Umardaraz Ali Khan, 19 All 165 and other cases cited at page 31, supra

Powers of Taxing Officer.—The taxing officer can make an order only in respect of a document filed, exhibited or received in the High Court which are msufficiently stamped but not in respect of court-fees not paid in the lower Courts To such cases see [2, clause (ii) is applicable, Mithoo Lal v. Massi Chamelli, 1934 A L J 957. 150 1 C. 653 1934 A I R. 805 (All J) but in Bulan Bhusan v. Kalachand, (1926) 31 C WN. 1045: 106 I C 335: 1927 A I R. 775 (Cal.), the Calcutta High Court upheld a demand by the Taxing Officer as to court-fees not paid in the lower Courts. The Hon'ble Judge said that the memorandum of appeal is to be registered in the High Court on payment of requisite court-fees for that Court and the memorandum of appeal is to be placed before the Hon'ble Court before the appeal is dealt with under Order 41, Rule II, C P C

Order not final if the party had no notice.—The decisions of the Court in order to be final must be between parties to the suit on record and after they have had an opportunity of being heard, and not a decision based on the Munsarim's report before the filing of the plaint or the memorandum of appeal, and consequently before any parties are before the Court, Anjad Ah v. Muhammad Ismail, 20 All 11 (1897) 17 A.W.N. 157 F.B.

Power of appellate Court.—Under section 12 (i) of the Court Fees Act, a decision on the question of court-fees by the Court of first instance is final between the parties though it can be re-opened by the Appellate Court itself under clause (2) of the section, only in the interest of revenue, Tekana v Alaguri, 25 Ind Cas 506. "Section 12 of the Court Fees Act was evidently framed for fiscal purposes as it is manifest from the second clause of the section which shows how a Court of appeal may review the recision of the primary Court upon a question of this character only when there has been a loss of the public revenue," Peary Shah v Suraj Mal, 17 C W N 503-16 C L.J. 371 (374) 16 Ind Cas 575 See also Shama Soondary v. Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal 173-8 C LR 528

An appellate Court may, under second part of section 12 of the Court Fees Act, set aside an order as to the value of the property for the purpose of protecting the revenue and return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court, Mussi Ladli Begum v Ramdas and others, 1925 A I R 488 (Patna): 1925 Pat CW N 167. 6 Pat LT, 448: 90 Ind Cas 321

The High Court is not bound by the decision of the lower Court.—In decading the amount of court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal, the High Court is not bound by the decision of the Court of first instance, as to the stamp payable on the plaint, Motigarvi v Prannwandas, 6 Bom 302; Kashinath Narayan v Gorandabin Piranji, 15 Bom 82

Case of review.—The finality of the decision by the Court is this taken awa by the Act itself as by the second clause of this section the Court of appeal is authorized to demand additional court-fees when the question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue; and by section 28 of the Court Fees Act, an appeal Court is authorized to demand additional court-fees whenever an insufficiently stamped plaint or memorandium of appeal has been received by the Court below through mistake or inadvertence.

The finality of the order of the 1st Court may also be set aside by the Court iself by review, or in revision by the High Court or on appeal by the appeal Court

The order of demand by the Court may be set aside on review by the Court making the demand either on the application by the plaintiff or its own motion, but before the order of demand fructified by non-compliance into a recorded order of rejection, because there is nothing in section 12 of the Court Fees Act to prevent a Court from reviewing its own orders; on the contrary section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) empowers it to do so, Chandramoni Kacr v. Baxde Narain Singh, 4 Pat L J. 57: 49 Ind. Cas. 442 See also Ma

"Case'.—A Court has jurisdiction to assess court-fees under see 12 of the Court Fees Act. Therefore an order by the Court to pay deficit court-fees and allowing time within which to pay, is not a "Case" within see. 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is not revisable, Kotilingam Mudalar v. Board of Commissioner, etc., 1927 A.I.R. 1021 (2) (Madras): 104 Ind Cas 145. 52 M.L.J. 452: 39 M.L.T. 220. Contra, see Manilal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Patna 930 (941) where it was held that such decision is a decision of a case.

The determination of the question whether an additional court-fee should be paid or not marks the termination of a definite stage of the suit and settles the controversy between the parties on a particular issue Therefore the order decides a case and can be revised if there be a failure to exercise jurisdiction, Lakshini Narayan Rai v Dip Narain Rai, 55 All 274: 1933 A.L.J. 331: 1933 A.L.R. 350 (All.): 148 I.C. 152.

Contra-In Messrs Gupta & Co v Messrs, Kripa Ram Brothers, 1934 A.I.J 381 · 149 I C 1183 : 1934 A.I.R 620 All) a Full Bench of the Allahabad High Court held the word 'case' is not an exact equivalent of the word 'suit'. Obviously it is something wider. It cannot be a case unless it is a proceeding which can be regarded as something separate and in a sense independent from the suit under hearing and the termination of that proceeding should be somewhat different from mere orders passed in the ordinary trial of suit itself." "Where the case is a proceeding which can be considered separate and distinct and finally disposed of by an order which terminates it, it may well be considered to be a case decided although the suit has not in one sense been completely disposed of."...." A mere decision as to the amount of the court-fees payable does not amount to a 'case decided' nor is it necessarily an irregulanty in procedure or illegality or a refusal to exercise jurisdiction (The case of Buddhu Lal v. Mewa Ram, 43 All. 564: 63 IC 15: 1921 A.I.R. 1 (All ) approved].

Cases where the High Court interfered in revision— Bombay High Court.—Vithal Krishna v. Bala Krishna Janardan, 10 Bom. 610: 1888 P.J. 339.

Colcutto High Court—See Rourup v. Mohaut Sitarom Das, 12 C L J. 211: 14 C.W.N. 932: 7 Ind. Cas. 22. Where the Court below, on an ermoneous view of law, decided that to court-fees are payable, held, the High Court can interfere in revision under section 15 of the Indian High Courts Act, The Collector of Malda v. Nirad Kamini Debya, 17 C.W.N. 21: 15 I.C. 621; Sundar Lal Morraari v. Jessic Caroline Murray, 16 C.L. J. 375: 16 Ind Cas. 963; Sailendra Nath v. Surendra Nath, 60 C.L. J. 469: 39 C.W.N. 248.

Lahore Court -- The order for rejection under Order 7, Rule 11 (b) is appealable as the order is a decree, hence a petition of revision of the order is incompetent, and section 12 does not bar an appeal against such an order, Sada Kuar v Buta Singh, 25 Ind Cas. 565. 80 PR 1914: 265 P.R. 1914: 167 P.W.R. 1914

Madras High Court —When an erroneous order is made for payment of court-fees, the party affected need not wait till the final dismissal of the suit. The High Court can interfere under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Dodda Sonnekappa v. Sakrayya, 36 Ind Cas 831. Where the lower Court wrongly orders the plaintiff to pay additional court-fees, the practice of the Madras High Court is to interfere in revision without leaving the aggreeved party to the cumbrous remedy of filing an appeal after the rejection of plaint for non-payment of court-fees demanded, Suddiniuthin v Perio Sundarum, 48 M L J 514: 1925 M W N 104 1924 A 1 R 722 (M) · 87 I.C. 25. Section 12 of the Court Fees Act does not prevent the High Court's power of revision, where it is not a mere question of amount or arithmetical calculation, Konaran v Komappay, 14 Mad 159.

Where a Court erroneously demands court-fees and refuses to proceed with the suit until additional court-fees are paid, it fails to exercise a jurnsdiction vested in it, as a party is entitled to have his case tried if he has paid court-fees and its orders can be revised underseased. When it is a question of a principle to be applied to the levying of court-fees, the High Court can interfere in revision, T. K. M. Alagappa Chetty v. Saminathan Chetty, 1933 A I.R. 367 (Mad.).

Where the order complained against relates only to a question of court-fees, the High Court can interfere where the order is infavourable to the plaintiff. The High Court does not interfere if the order is favourable to the plaintiff. The revisional jurisdiction of the High Court is not excluded by sec. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act. That section has the effect of curing the defect of a mistake in regard to jurisdiction and the section certainly does not say that the superior Court has no power to prevent beforehand a mistake from being committed Kattiya Pillai v Ramaswami Pillai (insane) by his wife, elc, 56 M L J 394: 1929 M W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 119 J.C 35: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (Mad ). See also Muhummad Elliyas v. Kahimee Bibi, 56 M L J. 302: 29 L.W. 42: 114 I.C. 842: 1929 AIR 191 (Mad).

But if a decision in favour of the plaintiff be given then as the question can be gone into under sec. 12, Court Fees Act, the High Court will not interfere in revision. The Government unless a party to the suit cannot apply for revision, Secretary of State v Raghunath, 65 M L J. 25: 1933 M.W.N. 737. 144 1 C 526: 38 L.W. 80: 1933 A I R. 506 (Mad).

Patna High Court - The Patna High Court has adopted the practice of the Calcutta High Court in interfering in revision with orders as to amount of court-fees payable, Nauratan Lal v Stephenson, 4 Pat L.J. 195 See also Bankev Behary v. Ram Bahadur, 4 Pat L.J 281: 44 I C 891: 4 Pat.L.W. 281: (1918) Pat C W N 223; Mani Lol v. Durga Prasad, 80 I.C 667: 1924 AIR 673 (Patna) 1924 Pat CWN. 254: 5 Pat.L.T. 425: ILR 3 Pat 390

The High Court is competent to interfere with an erroneous decision of a Subordinate Court as regards the court-fees, but such an interference will be made only in exceptional cases, it, when there is no other remedy open to the party or when noninterference with the order complained of will result in an irreparable loss to the party or when the order complained against is manifestly wrong or perverse and amounts to a denial of justice, Mahara; Bahadur Singh v. Prithichand Lal, 10 PLT. 464: 1929 A I R. 427 (Pat.): 119 I.C 78; Ram Bhusan v. Bachn Rai, 1934 A.I R. 641 (Patna): 14 Patna 220: 152 I C. 1003

But where after Court has ordered the deficiency in courtfees to be made good, the matter is brought up before the High Court by an application under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, it was held that the order to make up the deficiency being an interlocutory order, the High Court will not interfere in revision as no irremediable harm will be done by the interlocutory order, Musst. Lachmibati Kumari v. Nund Kumar Singh, 5 Pat L J 400: 1 Pat L.T. 268: 56 Ind. Cas 649.

But in Raghunandan Prasad Misra v Ram Charan Mando 4 P.L. J. 94: 49 I.C 150: 1919 A I R. 425 (Patna), it was held that the High Court will not interfere in revision where another remedy is open to the party.

Forum of Appeal.-Where the plaintiff valued his claim at Rs. 2,100 but on objection by the defendant, the Court found that valuation ought to be Rs 24,000 and demanded additional court-fees, held, that appeal lay to the Judicial Commissioner as the plaintiff contended that the valuation is Rs 2,100 and sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act does not bar such an appeal, Prakash Chandra Sarkar v. Bishambar Nath Shahi, 14 C.W.N. 343: 5 Ind Cas 18 See also Goswams Sri Raman Lalji v. Bohra Desrai, 32 All 222: 7 All L J. 203: 5 Ind. Cas 875

Appeal.—In the following cases the Calcutta High Court held that there is nothing in section 12 of the Court Fees Act to prevent the plantiff from appealing on the ground that the case falls in a different category, i.e., governed by a different Article of the Court Fees Act than that found in the lower Court, Ganga Monee Chowdhirram v. Gapal Chunder Ray, 12 W.R. 214, Ajjodhya Pershad v Ganga Pershad, 6 Cal. 249 in which it was held, an appeal lies from an order rejecting a plaint as insufficiently stamped, Omno Mirca v. Allahabad High Court took the same view as the Calcutta High Court in Ilalkaran Rai V Govinda Nath Tewari, 12 All 129: 10 All W N 39, modifying Muhammad Sadik v. Mohammad Jan, 11 All 91, Amjad Ali v Mahammad Ismai, 20 All 11:

Bombay High Court — The Bombay High Court, although it took a contrary view in Narayon Madhavrao Naik v. Collector of Thana, 2 Bom 145, yet in later decisions, has accepted the views of the other High Courts See Vithal Krishna v Balkrishna Janardan, 10 Bom 610 F B; Dada Bhon Kittur v. An appeal lies from a decision on the question as to the class under which a suit falls, Bolakrishna Bhimai v Ramakrishna Ganadhar, 33 Bom L.R. 263: 1931 A.I.R. 234 (Bom.).

The Lahore High Court.—See Pir Mahammed v Ghulon Hyder, 42 P.R. 1874; Gouda Mal v. Mussammad Mahataho, P.P. 1878; Shah Alam v. Mahammad, 2 P.R. 1889; Bawa Mangal Das v. Bahadur Singh, 100 P.R. 1919; 11 P.W.R. 1919; 50 Ind Cas. 142.

An order assessing court-fees is not appealable, Ujagar Singh v. Sohan Singh and others, 105 I.C 610: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Lah.).

Sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act bars an appeal only where the dispute is about the proper valuation of the subject-matter the suit and not when the question is as to which of the several Articles of the Court Fees Act applies to the facts stated in the plaint, but if the order directing payment of additional court-fee is incorporated in the decree, it becomes an essential part of the decree and is appealable as such, Musst. Nintan v. Ahmad and another. 106 T.C. 817: 1928 A.I.R. 221 (Lah.).

The Madras High Court also took the same view in Annamalai Chetti v. Lt Col J. C. Cloete, 4 Mad, 204 The Chief Justice said at page 207: "In order to determine the coure-fees payable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, it is necessary to decide to which of the several classes, recognised by the Court Fees Act, the suit belongs Where the fee prescribed for a particular class of suits is regulated by the value of the subject-matter of the suit, the further question arises, what is the valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of fee? In our judgment the terms of section 12 of the Court Fees Act ought not to receive a larger interpretation than what they fairly admit of. They do not declare the decision of the Court in which the plaint or appeal is filed, final, on all questions which may arise respecting the court-fees, but on every question relating to the valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of the fee. This may be a mere arithmetical calculation; it may involve the decision of a simple question of fact. On the other hand, apart from the valuation necessary to determine the amount of the fee, questions of much nicely may arise respecting the fee properly leviable on the suit, it is concervable that the Legislature designedly prohibited appeal in the one case and permitted in the other." See also Kanaras v Komappan, 14 Mad. 169, Champadan v Kummintal, 4 Mad. L.J. 173; Venkata Ramani v. Narayanasami, 1924 M W.N. 276: 48 M L J. 488: 87 I C. 660: 1925 A I R. 713 (Madras).

Patna High Court—When an order necessarily involves a decision of the category or class under which a stit falls, even though it incidentally decides a question of valuation, the order is appealable, Chandramani Koer v. Basdeo Naram Singh, 4 Patl. J. S. 1918 (Pat.) C.W.N. 264: 49 Ind. Cas. 442.

A decision as to category is not final but a decision as to valuation is final, Manilal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Pat. 930: 80 I C 667: (1924) A.I R. 673 (Pattan): 5 P.I.T. 425.

In Sidheshwari v. Ram Kumar, 12 Patna 694: 14 P.L.T. 180: 1933 A.I.R. 234 (Patna): 144 I.C. 684, the Patna High Court said: "The question of the sufficiency of the stamp on the memorandum of appeal must always be regarded as open unit the appeal is finally heard and disposed of, in view of the provisions of the 1st part of sec 12, Court Fees Act, which direct that every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable on a memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such memorandum is filed; and it is suggested that at the final disposal of the appeal it is open to the respondent to object that the memorandum of appeal has not been properly stamped. This view is certainly correct as applying to Courts subordinate to the High Court, and as applying to the High Court when considering the question of the sufficiency of the stamp in the Courts below under the second part of the section."

Compliance with order.—The fact that a certain sum was put in compliance with the order of Court did not preclude the planniff from disputing the decision of the Court afterwards in appeal, Main Lal v Durga Prassd, 3 Pat 930: 80 I C. 667: 1924 A I.R 673 (P). 5 Pat L.T. 425

Power of higher Court to realize deficiency.—Where the trial Court disposed of the suit without any decision as to sufficiency of court-fees as the defendant did not raise any objection as to the sufficiency of court-fees but on appeal the District Judge demanded additional court-fees and on failure of the plaintiff to comply with the demand of the District Judge the decision of the lower Court was set aside, held, on second appeal, that the District Judge acted rightly as a formal decision of the trial Court is not necessary before an appeal Court can interfere, Shama Sundarı v Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 348: 8 CI.R 528, Kalachand Sen v. It is the duty of the High Court to see that proper court-fees are paid in the High Court and the Courts below from which the case came, Naram Prosad v. Attachment. Recovery of court-fees by attachment of property—A Court has no power to direct recovery of the court-fees by attachment of the property of the party liable to pay the court-fees even if the court-free in question was payable in law; still less after the Court finally parts with the seisin of the case, Mohammad Ismail v Leyaquat Husain, 1932 A LJ 165: 140 I C. 191 (All.), 1932 A I R. 316 (All.), See also Ashgari Begum v Fashiuddin, 1934 A LJ, 820: 152 I C. 816: 1934 A I R. 989 (All.) (case of withdrawal of a suit).

Procedure.-The word "filed" in sec. 12 occurs only in the first half and not on the second half, and, even if there is room for the contention, that the phrase "whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal" is saitsfied when the memorandum is presented and before it has been accepted or registered, even so it is plainly much the better practice that these contentious questions as to documents in the lower Court should be dealt with when the memorandum of appeal has been accepted and registered and should not be dealt with as a condition of the acceptance or registration of the memorandum of appeal A Judge in refusing to permit an appeal to be filed unless the plaintiff pays further fees in respect of a docu-ment in the lower Court, follows a practice which is not to be commended and which is of an extremely doubtful nature, Jalekha Bibi and another v. Danis Mahamed and others, 33 CW.N. 952: 50 C L J. 164: 1930 A.I.R. 65 (Cal): Bidhu Bhusan Baksi y. Kala Chand Ray, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Calcutta).

Formal decision not necessary—It is not necessary for the application of sec 12 (ii) that there should have been a formal decision of the question of sufficiency of the court-fees in the Court below. A suit comes before the appeal Court within the meaning of sec 12 (ii) of the Court Fees Act when the appeal is registered in such Court, Bulhu Bhusan Bakshi v Kala Chand Ray, 31 CW. N. 1045: 106 1 C 335- 1927 A.I. R 775 (Calcutta); Jalekha Bibi and another v Danis Mahomed and others, 33 CW. N 952, 50 C.I. I 164 122 I.C. 630-1930 A.I. R 65 (Cal.).

Il'ritten statement—But where no court-fees have been paid on a written statement claiming a set-off, Court has no power to demand payment of additional stamp, Muthi Emilappo Pilla v Vinker Maistry, 36 Ind Cas 957. 10 Bur.I. T. 242, but see contra, Chenappa v Raghunatha, 15 Mad 29, supra.

It is open to the appellate Court to demand additional courtfees from a party who has obtained a set-off in the trial Court without paying court-fees on his written statement and to allow the set-off on payment of such court-fees, Manchial Vadilal v. Chandula Balabhai Shah, 28 Bom L.R. $25.94 I.C. 646: 1926 A.I.R. 343 (Bom)

The position of Court.—"If it were the appellant who was in fault and failed to pay the full court-fee due from him in the lower Court, this Court certainly could stay the hearing of his appeal and, if the deficient fees were not paid, could dismuss the appeal, and no dooth would do so; but where the appellant is not in fault, it would be most unjust that the respondent by failing to pay the court-fee due from him in the lower Court should have it in his power to prevent the appellant from having his appeal heard," Narain Singh v Chaturbhuj Singh, 20 All 362 18 All.W N 72

The Court of appeal when admitting an appeal is entitled to demand under the provisions of section 12 (2) the proper court-fees payable in the appellate Court as well as in the Court below by reason of the Judges in the Court below not having given a decrsion as to the proper amount of the court-fees payable, Lakshini Alminal, In rr, 1926 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.): 49 M.L., 1.68: 91 I C 729: 1925 M.W.N. 826

Undertaking to pay—"The breach of an undertaking given to the Court by a litigant, pending proceedings, on the faith of which the Court sanctions a particular course of action or inaction, is misconduct amounting to contempt. It is further well settled that when a person is guilty of such contempt he places himself in a persoluse position so as not to be heard by the Court till he has puragd his contempt," Raj Rajesteari Jiu v Krishna, 39 C.I. J 217 (220, 221): 82 I C. 128: 1924 A.I.R.

No demand can be made by Court after disposal of a case.

Calcutta High Court.-Where after dismissal of suit, the Court ordered the deficit court-fee to be paid by the plaintiff and on his default, the Court of its own motion ordered attachment of the property, held, that the Court had no jurisdiction to do so, Jatra Mohan Sen v. Secretary of State for India, 45 Cal. 520: 52 I C 435, 1919 A.I R 194 (Cal.).

Allahabad High Court -The powers conferred by section 54 (a) and (b) and sec 455 read with sec 582, C. P C, or by section 12 of the Court Fees Act, read with paragraph 2 of section 10 of the Court Fees Act, are intended to be exercised before the disposal of the case, and not after it has been decided finally so far as that Court is concerned, Mahadei v. Ram Kisen Das and others, 7 All. 528: (1885) 5 All.W N 140

Lahore High Court -The Court has no power to order the appellant to make up the deficiency discovered in the countfees after dismissal of the appeal, Abdullah v. Secy of State for India, 82 I C 588 1925 A l R 131 (Lah ); Musst Durga Deer v Musst Parbati, 34 P.LR 84: 141 I C. 175: 1933 A I R. 208 (Lah ).

Outh Court -The Court after the disposal of an appeal becomes functus officio and cannot entertain an application for an order to compel the appellant to pay additional court-fees, Durga Prasad v Surat Singh, 5 Luck 229 · 6 O W N 757 · 1929 AIR 483 (Oudh)

Madras High Court .- See Govinda Nambi v. Parameswor Nambi, 1 M.L.J 528; In re the Collector of Countatore, 1933 MWN 330 37 LW 300: 1933 AIR 321 (M): 142 IC. 25

Patna High Court -The Court cannot after disposal of a case demand court-fees from a party Sec. 28 of the Court Fees Act confers no such power on the Court, Kedar Nath Goenka V. Chandra Mouleshwar Prasad Singh Bahadur, 11 Patna 532: 13 PLT. 304: 137 I.C 855 · 1932 A I.R. 228 (Patna).

Patna High Court -If the appeal to the High Court be disimssed, owing to the appellant's failure to pay the deficit court-fees on the memorandum of appeal or for any other reason. the High Court has no power to call upon the respondent to make good the deficiency in court-fees payable by him in the lower appellate Court and has no power to restrain the respondent from executing the decree obtained by him as the High Court is functus officio, Kumar Radhika Raman Prosad Singh v. Mussammat Janki Koer, 4 Pat L. J. 472: 1919 (Pat.) C.W.N. 276: 51 Ind. Cas. 756.

When it is intended to recover deficit court-fees from a respondent before the High Court, or in the lower Court, the proper course is to admit the appeal for hearing and to take action under section 12 of the Court Fees Act read with section 10 of the Court Fees Act. The Court is then in full seisin of the case and can punish the defaulting plaintiff or first appellant, as the case may be, by the dismissal of the suit or appeal. Where, however, the appeal before the High Court is dismissed under Order 41, Rule 11, C. P. C. no such action can be taken till the order of dismissal is reviewed and the appeal admitted for hearing, Rajendra Narain Singh v. Ramdil Singh, 5 Pat L J. 508: 58 Ind Cas. 271.

Rangoon High Court—The provisions of the Court Fees Act relating to the levy of additional fees apply only to cases which are still pending and cannot be enforced in cases which have been finally decided, Shanghai Life Insurance Co, Ltd v. Mrs. Helen Constance Brown, 9 Bur LT, 13: 32 Ind Cas. 531.

Realization of court-fees from respondent,—When it is discovered in second appeal that the memorandum of appeal to the lower appellate Court was insufficiently stamped but the respondent on being called upon to pay the deficit court-fee, did not make good the deficiency, held, that the proper procedure was not to dismiss the appeal by the respondent to the lower appellate Court but to stay the issuing of the decree, if any, of the High Court in favour of the respondent until such me as the additional court-fee due by him might be paid, Naram Singh v Chaturbhuj Singh, 20 All. 362: (1898) 18 All. WX 72

The Allahabad High Court in the case of Madan Lal v. Jankishen Das, 25 All VN. 277: All L. J. 392, held, that if the respondent persists in refusing to pay the deficit court-fee then the appeal to the lower appellate Court will be dismissed. But this case was overruled in the Full Bench case of Mohan Lal v. Nand Kishore, 28 All. 270: 23 All. V.N. 280: 2 All. J. 389, where the same High Court, held, that when it is discovered that the respondent in the High Court, when appellant in the lower appellate Court had not paid proper court-fees on his memorandum of appeal and has not paid the deficit court-fees when called upon to do so, the proper procedure would be to stay issuing the decree, if any, of the High Court in favour of the respondent and to dismiss the respondent's appeal in the lower Court.

The High Court cannot stop preparation of the decree after the judgment has been pronounced, Kedar Nath Gaenka v. Chandra Mauleshwar Prasad Singh Bahadur, 11 Patna 532: 13 P. L. T. 304: 137 I C. 855: 1932 A I.R. 228 (Patna).

The proper procedure is for the Court to hold that the respondent is bound to pay deficit court-fees and if a decree passed in favour of the respondent in default no decree we issued until the deficit court-fee is paid, Mahiaddin Sikd others v. Ram Prasad Das and another by Cuming and Ray, JJ. in S A. 337 of 1927 decided on 10th August, 1927 (unreported).

N.B.—The Bengal Act VII of 1935 makes the provisions of Public Demands Recovery Act applicable to such cases.

In Showa Soondary v Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 173: 8 CLR 528, the Calcutta High Court held that unless the plaintiff respondent submits to the order of the appeal Court in complying with the order for payment of deficit court-fees then under sec 10, cl (ii) such a plaintiff loses the advantage she has obtained, viz, that her sunt is hable to be dismissed. See Kammathi v Kunhamed, 15 Mad 288

But the Patna High Court has held in Pandit Brif Krikino Das v Chowdhury Murh. Rai, 4 Pat L J 803, that if a plantiff respondent fails to make good a deficiency in the court-fees paid on the plaint, it is competent to the appellate Court to call upon him, to pay the deficit court-fee, and, in the event of his failure,

When it appears to the High Court in a second appeal that memorandum of appeal of the appellant in the lower appellate Court but who was respondent before the High Court was insufficiently stamped and that the deficiency was not made good by him, although he was called upon to do so, the High Court may not hear the counsel for the respondent as he was in contempt, Baijnath v Dhani Ram, 27 A.L. J. 1024: 1929 A.I.R. 77 (All.) 117 I.C. 107

Retund of fees paid on memorandum of appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be grounds mentioned in section 351 [the first Schedule, Order XLI, Rule23] of the same Code, for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Provided that if, in the ease of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

NOTES. .

Change in law.—According to section 158 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the reference to section 351 of the Old Code (Act VIII of 1859) is altered to that of the New Code (Act V of 1908) The original words were "im section 351 of the same Code"

Rejection.—Rejection of a plant can be made under Order 7, Rule 11, Of a memorandum of appeal, See Order 41, Rule 3 Section 351 of the Code of 1859 (Act VIII) of 1859) corresponds to section 562 of the Code of 1882 (Act XIV of 1882) and to Order 41, Rule 23 of the present Code (Act V of 1908) The section in the Code says that where the case has been disposed of on a prelimmary point and that the decision of that preliminary point has been reversed on appeal, then the appeal Court is to remand the case for hearing to the lower Court

This section provides that in remanding such cases the courtfees paid are to be refunded

Construction. Preliminary point.

Please see an edition of the Code of Civil Procedure Some of the cases are given below

The words "preliminary point" have not been defined anythere, but they mean and include all points or issues of fact or law the determination of which precludes the necessity for determining the other points or issues of fact or law and such determination disposes of the entire suit, Sheeamber v. Lollu Singh, 9 All 26, Muhammad Allahadad v. Muhammad Ismail, 10 All 289, Matadin v. Jinna Das, 27 All 69; Ram Narain v. Bhagwandin, (1884) 9 All 29

Preliminary point means a matter preliminary to the general determination of the suit which the parties bring before the Court for decision, Krishnon Dutti v Muthan Palandi, 22 Mad. 172.

A decision where several issues remain undecided is one on a preliminary pont, Sushilamala v 10ya Deman, 40 L.W. 372: 1934 M.W N 670: 151 LC 721: 1934 A.I.R. 643 (Mad.): Raman Nayar v. Krishuan Nambudrifad, (1922) 45 Mad 900 F.B.

An order by an appeal Court directing addition of parties to a suit and remanding that suit for retrial is an order upon a perhininary point, Jadov Govinda Singh v. Auath Bondhu Sahu, 37 Cal 71: 5 LC 998. A suit disposed of on a point which precludes consideration of other issues is a suit disposed of on a prehininary point, Nirmala v. Golap, (1933) 57 C L.J. 473

An order of remand directing a retrial on an amended plaint, is an order under Order 41, Rule 23, C. P. C., Mahammad Shafi v. Panchayet, Fatehgar thraugh etc., 100 I.C 491: 1927 A IR 196 (Labore).

A decision by the trial Court that certain documents are madmissible in evidence and disposal by that Court of the suit on that issue alone without decision on other points raised, is a decision on a preliminary point and when such a decision is reversed in appeal and the case is remanded to the first Court, the court-fees paid on the memorandum must be refunded under see 13 of the Court Fees Act, Sher Mahammad v. Mian Ahmad and others, 103 I C 298: 1927 A.I.R 592 (Lahore). See also Abdul Gafar v. Muhammad Ziauddin, 2 P.R. 1908: 12 PW.R 1908; Bhadoi v Sheikh Manozear, 4 P. I. J. 64.

Stit.—The word 'suit' in sec. 13 includes an appeal. A remand by a Court of second appeal to the Court of first appeal is a remand and the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal to the Court of second appeal is refundable, Shant Lel v Agha Dost Mohammed and others, 54 Ali, 1081: 1932 A L.J. 745 140 IC 56: 1932 A IR 641 (Ali).

Lower Court—The expression 'lower Court' includes the Court of first instance in the case of a remand by the High Court. Konhaiya Lal v. Musst Mahadra and others, 54 All 523: 1932 A L J. 320. 140 I C 466 1932 A I R 550 (All ). [In this cast the remand was as to a part of the subject-matter and the High Court ordered court-fees proportional to that part to be a found of the court

Exception—An application for refund of court-fees is empted from the levy of court-fees under sec. 19 (xx) of the Court-Fees Act, Jag Narain Pandery v. Mata Badal, 54 All 790: 1932 A L.J. 601: 142 I.C. 16: 1932 A I.R. 590 (All.): 1933 IR. 100 (All.):

Delay in making application —An application for refund of court-fees should be made within a reasonable time after the disposal of the case A delay of more than two years was considered to be too long. Refund of court-fees by Government is a matter of grace, Jadubansi Sahay v. Rarhamdeo Narayan, 11 P.L.T. 476: 126 LC. 294: 1930 A I R. 495 (Pat.).

Court in which the application is to be filed.—In a suit that Court held the suit to be for maintenance and realised deficit court-fees on that basis. The High Court held the suit to be one for declaration only. An application for refund was held to be entertamable in the Court in which the plaint was filed, although no suit was pending before that Court, Musst Deba v Secretary of State, 1935 A L J 376. 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A I.R. 455 (All).

Refund on remand.—Where a suit has been dismissed on preliminary ground by the Court of first instance and the appeal was allowed with costs by the High Court on appeal, afterwards on the application of the judgment-debtors the decree was amended, the High Court remarked that an order ought to have been made for refund of court-fees and the amount paid in court-fees ought not to have been shown in the decree and the decree was ordered to be amended, Surendra Nath y Girija Nath, 15 CL J 569 15 Ind Cas 220 See also Nand Kinnar v. Bilas Ram, 3 Pat L. J 116: 1917 (Pat.) CW N 377. Bhausing Ragho v. Chaganiran Harachand, 42 Bom 363: 20 Bom IR. 348: 45 Ind Cas 552 in which case the lower appellate Court having refused to grant refund on remand to it, the Bombay High Court held that the said order was illegal and revised the order under see 115, C P C. Goura Telin v Shriram, 92 I C. 926. 1926 A IR 265 (N)

It is only when the appeal is remanded under Order 41, Rule 23 that the Court Fees Act permits refund of court-fees and not in other cases, Jaganath v Marnti, 12 N.L.R. 126: 36 Ind Cas 241 See also Vilhoba v IVanicu, 42 Ind. Cas. 304 1918 AJ R 271 (Nag.) Noud Kumar v Blias Ran, 3 Pat L J 116 43 Ind Cas 855 4 Pat L W. 100. 1917 Pat.C W N. 377

An order refunding court-fees can only be made under sec 13 of the Court Fees Act in a case whiter the remand is made under Order 41, Rule 23, C. P. C. Agent, Bengal Nagpur Railkony Company v. Behari Lall Dutt, 52 Cal. 783 (787); 29 C.W.N. 614-90-1 C. 425-1925 A.I.R. 716 (Cal.). See also Amantia Narayan v. Harthar Patter, 1927 M.W.N. 761 (case of a promissory note); Mahomed Shafi v. Panchayet, Fatchplar, etc., 100 I.C. 49-1927 A.I.R. 196 (Lal.); Sushilaunda v. Sumunto, 1934 M.W.N. 1070: 40 L.W. 372: 151 I.C. 721: 1934 A.I.R. 643 (M.) (where the remand was erroneously ordered to be under see 151. C. P.C.).

In Kanhaiya Lal v. Mahadeo, 54 All 523: 140 LC 466; 1932 A. LR. 550 (All.): 1932 A. L. J. 320: 1932 LR. 667 (All.), the High Court allowed refund of the court-fees paid in the High Court and not of the court-fees paid in the lower Courts. See also Musst Kaulpati Kuar v. Kashi Prasad Sungh and others, 1934 A. L. J. 41: 1934 A. LR. 106 (All.): 56 All. 526: 147 LC. 686 F.D. The High Court also held that the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal to the lower appellate Court which dismissed the appeal could not be refunded.

When the decree

When the decree apps of the respondents but of the respondents but dents, held, that the successful appellants were not entined to a certificate for refund under section 13 of the Court Fees Act. In the matter of Bhagawants, (1916) 14 All.L.J. 671: 39 Ind Cas 28.

In Muss Koulpan Kuar v Kashi Prasad Singh and other, 56 All 526: 14 A L J 41, 1934 A.I.R. 106 (All.): 147 I.C. 688 F B the trial Court passed a decree against three out of the sv defendants. The plantiff appealed claiming a decree against three defendants exonerated by the trial Court; the High Court is excond appeal set aside the decrees of both the Courts and remanded the whole case to the trial Court and ordered refund of court-fees paid in the High Court only.

Refund on part remand—Where an appeal was remanded in part, the appellant is entitled to a return of the proportional part of the stamp duty paid by him, In the matter of the petition of Doorga Dass Dutt, BLR Supp. Vol 511: 6 W.R. Mis 65: Sevaster, Vol 9, p 176 See also the 2nd paragraph to the section

Re-payment of court-fees on the reversal of the order of remand—Where a sunt has been remanded by the lower appellate Court under section 562, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) and the court-fees on the memorandum of appeal and cross objection were refunded to the respective parties, on appeal the High Court, held, that the remand was bad and returned the appellate to the lower appellate Court for decision. Here the appellate failed to repay the court-fees but the respondents repaid the stamp on their cross objection, held, that the respondents only were entitled to be heard, Rajmal Motiram v. Taju Bin Kundhild Matee, 1898 P. J. T. Court for the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of the court of the stamp of the court of the stamp of the court of Partition suit—Court-fees cannot be refunded when the appeal Court after deciding on the merits of the appeal arising out of a partition suit remanded the ease in order that the pair tion might be finally carried out Held, also that the memorandium should be stamped as an appeal from a decree, Umrad Alikhan v. Abdul Subhan Khan, 28 All W.N. 40: 5 All.L. J. 545; Nand Kimnar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 P.L.J. 116: 4 P.L. W. 109: 1917 Pat.C.W. N. 377: 43 I.C. 855.

Compromise.—No refund can be made when a suit is compromised, The Land Martgage Bank af India Limited v. Gregory Paul Mahtus, (March, 1870) 4 B.L.R. Ap. 96 Sec. contra-In the matter of Gujendra Naran Roy, 11 W.R. 158, (decided on '23rd February 1869) where the High Court held that if the petition of compromise is filed before the case is on the cause . list, the appellant is entitled to a full refund of court-fees (this is in accordance with the code then in force). But in Minst. Scha v Secretary of State, 1935 A.I, 376 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A.I, R. 455 (All.), the Allahabad High Court ordered refund of court-fees after recording a compromise on the ground that the suit was one for declaration as regards maintenee and not for maintenance

No refund in cases of poyment under orders of the Taxing Officer—There is no provision in the Court Fees Act which empowers a Court to order refund of any amount paid on demand by the Taxing Officer, Puran Singh v Kesor Singh, 30 13 R, 1907, Hitendra Singh v Maharapadhiray of Darbhanga, 7 P.L.T. 322 92 1 C 626 1926 A I R 147 (Patna) But see Indiri Son Singh v. Rikhia Singh, 30 All 103, 28 All W.N. 31: 5 All L.J. 18 where the Court said that refund ought to be made. [But the Revenue authorities may refund on application.]

Court-fees paid in cash - The petitioner-appellant who was directed to pay deficit court-fees on his memorandum of appeal and who paid the fee in cash instead of in court-fee stamps, applied for refund of his money on the ground that when his memorandum of appeal has been rejected for non-payment of court-fees, the amount in deposit should be refunded Patna High Court held that there is no provision in the Court Fees Act, or indeed anywhere else, for refunding of court-fees which has been deposited with the memorandum of appeal, or during the hearing of the appeal, when the appeal has been dismissed on the ground that deficit court-fees ordered to be paid has not been paid. It can make no difference whatever that the sum deposited in Court undoubtedly as court-fees, was not converted into the shape of a stamp, Janak Prasad v. Askaran Prasad, I L, R 6 Pat 602 . 9 P L T 337 1928 A I R 29 (Patna): 105 I C 742

Refund.—In In re Chidambaram Chettiar, 57 Mad 1028; 40 L.W. 295 1934 A.I.R. 566 (Mad): 1934 M.W.N. 678: 67 M.I. J. 321: 152 I C 778, the Madras High Court held that the Court can order a refund (1) where the Court Fees Act applies; (2) where there is an excess payment by mistake, or (3) where on account of the mistake of a Court a party has been compelled to pay court-fees either wholly or in part; outside these cases it is doubtful if a Court can grant refund.

Order for refund under inherent fower of Court—The cases of Harithan Garu v. Anand Mahanty, 40 Cal 365, was followed in Chandra Dhari Singh v Tifran Prosad Singh, 3 Pat L. J. 452: 46 Ind. Cas. 271: 1918 Pat.C.W.N. 273, where it was held that although there is no provision in the Court Fees Act for refund of court-fees over-paid by mistake, the High Court in the exercise of its inherent power vested in it caunder section 151, C. P. C. order refund of the excess court-fee paid See also Probhas Kumar v Nithar Lal, 28 C.W.N. 923 1924 A1R 1054 (Cal) · 84 I.C. 278.

But in Jagdish Chowdhury v. Radha Dubey, 105 I C. 740. I L R 6 Pat 599, the Patna High Court thought that the mherent power is not to be exercised in every case Court-fees paid in excess under a bona fide mistake was ordered to be refunded in M. Muhammad Reza v. Raj Bollabl. Nath Singh, 107 I C 320 9 P.I.T. 240. See Sau Bhusa Majumdar v. Manick Lal Chandra, 107 I.C, 825 (Patna).

ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

NOTES

Object of the section. This section was enacted in modfication of section 377 of the then Code of Civil Procedure By the latter, on the application for review of judgment presented after ninety days from the date of such judgment, the same fee was levied as if it were a plaint in a suit, whilst an application tion made within ninety days was subject only to the court it chargeable in ordinary applications. In many cases when the delay had accrued through the laches on the part of the applicant this rule had been found to entail hardship; and the measure of of relief provided by this section, under which a refund of the difference between the amount paid and that which would have been payable had the application been presented within ninety days, might be obtained in such cases, was thought to be called for, India Gazette, dated 26th February, 1870

N. B -See section 114 and Order 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

According to Art. 5 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Ad. half the fee leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal is to be paid, if the application is presented within the ninetieth day from the date of decree, and according to Art. 4 of the same schedule, full court-fee is to be paid if presented on or after the ninetieth day. Applications for review of judgments are to be stamped with court-fees actually leviable on the memorandum of appeal in which the judgment sought to be reviewed, was passed irrespective of the relief claimed, M. C. Husania v. Sahib Nur, 20 Ind. Cas. 3 254 P.L.R. 1913.

Computation of time—In computing the 89 days from the date of the decree, the time during which the Court is closed is not to be excluded and an application cannot be filed on half court-fee on the re-opening day if the Court be closed on the 89th day Held also, reference to Limitation Act cannot be made, that Act not being in Pari materia with the Court Fees Act, Kota, 9 Mad 134. Where the application for review of judgment was filed on the re-opening day of the High Court after vacation, but after the ninetueth day fell during the vacation—held, that full fee leviable on the memorandum of appeal must be paid in the first instance, but that the Court, if satisfied, might direct a refund of one half of such fee In re Doorga Prosanno Ghosh, 9 C L R 479

An application for review of judgment was presented on the minetieth day as the previous day was a Sunday, should be stamped with full fee leviable on the plaint or the memorandum of appeal. To such cases under the Court Fees Act, section 50 of the Lamitation Act of 1877 has no application. Section 10 of the General Clauses Act, being applicable only to Acts of the Governor-General in Council and Regulation made on or after the 14th January, 1887, is mapplicable to such cases. The general principle that a party may be taken to have done an act within the prescribed time, if he has done it on the first day the Court is open after expiry of the holidays within which the prescribed time terminated, is inapplicable in view of section 14 of the Court Fees Act, Sayera Bibi v. Bhutnath Haldar, 15 CL J 505: 15 IC 455.

For other cases see also under Arts, 4, 5 of Schedule I of this Act

Refund.—When an application for review was filed with half court-fees, the High Court said, "The position is that if the strict letter of law be followed, the applicant should be called upon to pay one half of the court-fee in addition to what he had paid before, and we should then forthwith grant a certificate under section 14 for a refund of this sum. This would be an idle formality which would needlessly delay the consideration of this application on the merits. "The application was then heard on the merits, Navavang Singh v. Janardan, 39 Cl. J. 344: 1924 A. JR. 994 (Cal.): 80 Ind Cas. 794.

the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the [application] as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act, No. I, clause (b) or clause (d).

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such a certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

NOTES

Amendments.—The word "application" was substituted for the original words "plaint or memorandum of appeal" by the Court Fees Act, (Amendment Act, 1870, XX of 1870), sec. l.

Elements.—In order to attract the operation of section of the Court Fees Act, the conditions requisite are that there should be an application for review of judgment, that it should have been admitted, that on the rehearing, the Court should have reversed or modified its forner decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact and that such reversal or modification is not due to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing, Prabhas Kunner v. Nithar Lal., 28 C.W.S. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 I.C. 278.

The requirements of s. 15 are perfectly definite (1) the admission of the application for review of judgment irrespective of the correctness of the grounds of admission: (2) a reversal or modification of the former decision on the ground of mistake in law or in fact, such reversal or modification not being dee wholly or in part to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing. Therefore, if the application for review was admitted and the judgment modified without admission of fresh evidence, the party is entitled to relief under s. 15 of the Court Fees Act, Tej Narain Singh v. The Secretary of State, 10 Patna 649 133 I.C. 83: 1932 A I R. 86 (Patna).

Object of the section.—It was proposed through the provisions of the section to guard against the increased fee working harshly by allowing a refund of the enhanced amount payable under its operation, where the result of the application was the reversal or modification of the previous judgment on such grounds as amounted to an admission of the Court's order, India Gazette, 26th February, 1870

Refund.—The power of Court to refund is limited to sections 13, 14, 15 and if the case does not come under any of these sections then the party must apply to the Government. In the matter of the petition of Moultie Syud Zoynoodeen Hossen Khan, 11 B L R A C 370

See also Labhu Ram v Amir Chand, 73 P.L.R. 1916: 35 Ind Cas 663.105 P.W.R. 1916, where it was held that an application made to a Court can be treated as an application for review and the Court upon granting the application would remit the court-fees under section 15 of the Court Fees Act even if already paid.

Section 15 provides for re-payment in certain cases of so much of the fee paid on an application for review as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to the Court under the second Schedule, Art 1 cl. (b) or (d) where the Court modifies or reviews on review its former decision, Krishna Mohan Sinha v Raghunandan Pandey, F.B. 1925 Pat. Section 151, C. P. C.—Where an application was under section 151, C. P. C. and Order 47, Rule 1, C. P. C. and the Court modified its former decision, held that refund should be ordered, Probhas v. Nithar, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 Ind. Cas. 278. See other cases under section 13, subra.

An application for review was admitted in order to correct an error in the decree of the Court and not on the ground of any substantial error of fact or law and the Court corrected the error under so 151 and 152 of the Code of Civil Procedure, held that a refund of court-fees paid on the application could be made apart from s. 15 of the Court Fees Act, C. T. A. M. Chettyor Firm v. Ko Yin Gyi, 7 Ran 88: 117 I.C. 585: 1929 AIR 158 (Ran.).

Review of consent decree obtained by fraud.—Where the appellant suppressed all processes to the respondent and obtained a decree on compromise by filing a false vakalatinam and the respondent on coming to know of the compromise fit an application to set aside the order on compromise, it was held, that as the Court has inherent power to correct its own proceedings when it has been misled and as the order could be summarily set aside by the Court, no court-fee as on an application for review need have been paid on the application, Proceedings when the Sonoo Das, 19 C.W.N. 419: 27 Ind. 16. Repealed by Schedule V of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908). It was as follows:—

"When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision, but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject-matter of the suit, and, on the hearing of such appeal, the respondent takes, under section 561 of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to."

Notr.—Schedule V of Act V of 1908 was again repealed by the second Repealing and Amending Act XVII of 1914, section 3. This last repeal does not restore the original provision See s. 7 of the General Clauses Act (Act X of 1897).

Multifacious suits subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal [or of cross objection—in Bihar and Orissa] shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure; Section 9. (Sch I, Order II, R. 6 of Act V of 1908).

[For Bengal only-Bengal Amendment Act VII of 1935.

For section 17 of the said Act, the following section Substitution of new shall be substituted, namely:—

"17. (1) In any suit in which two or more separate and distinct causes of action are joined and separate and distinct reliefs are sought in respect of each, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which the plaints or memoranda of appeal would be chargeable under this Act in separate suits instituted in respect of each such cause of action.

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred by or under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to order separate trials.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought either jointly or in the alternative, the fee shall be paid according to the value of the relief in respect of which the largest fee is payable."

Local Amendment.—This section has been amended in Bihar and Orissa whereby the words 'or of cross-objection' have been inserted after the words 'of appeal'. It has been replaced by a new section in Bengal Application.—This section applies only to plaints and memoranda of appeal in suits and to applications or appeals arising out of those suits, Upadhya Thakur v. Persidh Singh, F.B 23 Cal, 723 (734).

Section 17 of the Court Fees Act applies where the relief claimed is one and the same but does not apply where t native, Anonda v. La viman, 1 1930 J.R. 43 (Nag.).

Alternative relief.—This section does not apply where plaintiff sues in the alternative for one of two reliefs, but only applies to a case where cumulative relief is sought by the plaintiff, Kashinath Narayan v Gozinda Bin Piraji, 13 Bon 82 See also Matigari v Pranjivandas, 6 Bom 302; Manohir Ganesh v Bawa Ram Charan, 2 Bom 219; Girdhari Lal v Run Lal, 21 All 200

Section 17 also applies to cases where alternative reliefs are asked for in respect of different causes of action, Jaxwhi Sindh v. Baldeo Prosad, 11 O.C. 173; Hashmatunnissa Begim v. Muhanmad Abdul Karim, 29 All 155. 4 All. L. J. 127; (1907) 27 All WN 4, Neelskandhan v. Anantanarayan, 30 Mad. 61.

Ram Charan, 78 I.C. 703: 1924 A.I.R. 169 (Nag.).

Court-fees to be paid on the higher relief—Where the plaintiff claimed in the alternative but paid court-fees on the lesser of the two alternative reliefs, that relief alone should be tried. The court-fees, in such cases, are to be paid on the larger of the two reliefs, Kundun Lal v. Anund Sarup, 1923 A.I.R. 456 (Lahore): 73 Ind. Cas. 700.

Where two reliefs are identical in actual money value, but different in respect of court-fees leviable on each, then the amount of court-fees payable is to be determined on the relief carrying the higher fee, Dasarate Meshy v. Joy Chand, 78 1.C 530. 1925 A 1R 193 (Patha)

A suit on a pronote claiming money from the representative of the executant or in the alternative from the agent of the executant need not be stamped separately, Anand v Laxman, 1201C 411 1930 A1R 55 (Nag.). 1930 I.R. 43 (N.).

Distinct subjects.—The words "distinct subjects" in section 17 of the Court Fees Act mean distinct causes of action or distinct kinds of relief, Chamadi Ram v. Ram Dei, 1 All 552; see also Mulchand v Shib Charan Lal, 2 All 676 F B; Chedilal v. Kweth Chand, 2 All 682 F, B; Kissori Lal Ray Sharut Chandra Macumdar, 8 Cal. 593; 10 C.L.R. 359 F,B.: In re P R M N Perchiappa Chetty v Po Kin, 5 L BR, 93; 4 Ind Cas. 289, Mothia Meera Muhaideen v. P K. Muhammad Ismail Royalder, 1930 M.W.N. 758.

The words mean also distinct matters which may form the subject of separate suits though contained in the same instrument, and the word "subject" is not capable of precise definition, Neclakhandhan Nambudripad v. Anontomarayana Patter, 30 Mad 61: 16 MLJ. 462: 1 MLT 426, Kent Achan and others v Cheriva Parvothi Nethian, (1924) A.I.R. 6 (Madras); 72 Ind. Cas 87.

The word "subject" in section 17 of the Court Fees Act means "cause of action," Nauratan Lal v. Stephenson, 4 Pat. I. J. 195: 1922 (Pat.) C.W.N. 79: 50 I.C. 470. Where a claimant, filing a claim under section 278 (Order 21, Rule 58), C P C and whose claim has been disallowed, filed a suit against judgment-ereditor and judgment-debtor and prayed 1st for a declaration of his right to the property; 2nd for a declaration that judgment-ereditor has no right to sell the property in execution of the decree, held that in the plaint two substantial declarations have been prayed for, Moti Singh v-Kaunsilla, 16 All, 308.

Damages and injunction.-Where the plaintiff sued the defendants for wrongful cutting and removing certain trees and in the meantime during the pendency of suit obtained injunction against the defendants restraining them from removing certain trees cut down, the trial Court dismissed the suit and ordered the plaintiff to pay damages to the defendants under section 497, C. P. C. (XIV of 1882). The plaintiff appealed against the whole of the decree, and the damages awarded. Held, the court-fees on each head should have been given and the lower appellate Court should have allowed the plaintiff to amend his memorandum of appeal, Misr Behari Lal v. Bhagwan Das, 13 (1893) All. W.N. 220.

Deposite.—The plaint in a suit to recover three deposits made on different dates with the defendants should be stamped ; with court-fees on each deposit separately as each deposit is a 'distinct subject. Ejectment.—In an action for ejectment, all the parties in possession are to be jouned, and this includes the lessee as well as the tenants, if the lessee happens to be in possession of part of the land in suit, Nundo Kumar v Banomali Gayan, 29 Cal. 871

Lectment, damages and rent—Claims for ejectment and damages are not distinct subjects but if a claim for rent is added, that claim is a distinct subject as it arose out of the contract of tenancy and can be enforced by a separate suit, A IV Zamal v Cyrl Brown, 36 Ind Cas 883: 10 Bur L.T. 60: 8 L BR 529

Hundis.—In a suit upon three Hundis executed on the same day in favour of the same person and executed by the same person, the plaint ought to bear the aggregate amount of fees payable on 3 plaints in a suit on each of them as each of them constitutes a separate cause of action, Pursoitium Lal v. Inheritance—The plantiff sued his brothers and a nephew for his share, inherited by him under the Hindu Law and under a will, of the movcable and immoveable properties by cancelling a deed of gift in favour of the nephew Held, that the plaint and memorandum of appeal are chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints and the memoranda of appeal in separate suits for the moveable and immoveable property would have been liable under the Act, Mulchand v. Shibcharan Lol, 2 All 676 FB

Khatar—Where the plaintiff sought to recover a sum as the balance due to him on seven separate transactions which took place on different dates, held, that the several items in the khata constituted distinct subjects within the meaning of section 17 of the Court Fees Act, Ramchandra v. Alþegi, 1887, P.J. 271, but a sunt for balance due on a khata does not come under section 17 as the balance due is the subject matter, Hiralal Motichand v. Ganpat Lahanu, 46 Bom 142: 64 Ind. Landlord and tenant.—In a suit by the landlord against 25 sets of tenants that the entries in the Record of rights as to the nature of the holdings are incorrect and were of a different kind, are 25 distinct subjects under section 17 of the Court Pecs Act Court-Fee payable for each is Rs 10, Lachman Sahu Shicikh Abdul Karim, 4 PatL J 299: 51 Ind. Cas, 7 as suit by tenant against landlord with regard to 78 d' holdings a similar decision was given, Chethru Mahato v. Khaja Muhammad Karim Nawab, 4 Pat.L. J. 297: 50 Ind. Cas. 328.

Where the rates of rent payable by tenants varied according to occupation and caste to which they belonged, one suit under section 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act against all the tenants of a village in a body upon one plant, with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only for a declaration that the entry in the Record of Rights and Furd Rewar Bhoveli as regards the proposed share, is wrong. One suit is to be instituted against such of the tenants as belonged to the same caste or followed the same occupation and each such suit should be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Dhokestour Prosad v Iswardhari, 22 CL.J. 57: 30 I C 862.

Where the landlord sued several persons who hold differnt plots of land but alleged in the plant that as all the defendant have, in league and collusion with one another, caused wrong entries to be made in the survey records and have dispossessed the plantiff, they are all made parties to the suit, held or reference to the taxing judge, that there is only one cause of action against all the tenant defendants and the fact that the several defendants may be separately liable for means profits does not alter the nature of the case and one set of court-feet is payable, Mahantik Rom Narain Gir v. Gauri Shankar Lal and others, 9 PLT 199: 7 Patna 402. 110 I C 191: 1928 ALR 274 (Pat)

Enhancement of rent—One suit by the landlord against a more of ryots in a village under s 193 of the Madras Estates Act, does not comprise distinct subjects The court-fee is payable on the total of the rents claimed as the suit was one for enhancement of rent on a common ground and also as the conditions mentioned in that section must all exist before a suit under the section can be instituted, The Raja of Purianagrant w. The Government, 63 M. L. J. 73: 1932 M. W. N. 777: 36 L. W. 141:

Mortgages.—A mortgagee holding more than one nortgage against the same person and on the same properly must save on all of them, see Ghose on Mortgage, 4th Ed., pages 593 to 595 Where a mortgagee having several mortgages on the same property brought a sunt on the prior mortgages and applied for sale of the property but not subject to the last mortgage which he held and had not sued upon, Held, that the sunt be maintainable, Govind Prossd v Teknaran Mahoto, 38 Cal 60: 14 C.W. N. 1033: 13 C.L. J. 21. But in Nilu Ray v. Asibbed 25 C.W.N. 129: 33 C.L. J. 232: 60 Ind. Cas. 809; it has been held that such a mortgage can sue on each of such independent mortgages on the same property although he cannot sell it twice over. Where a mortgagee holds two mortgages on the same property the decree obtained by him in the first suit precludes any further lien upon the property brought to sale, Atab Pramaniq v. Arif Tarafdar, 19 C.L. J. 590: 23 I.C. 426

Where a mortgagee holds two mortgages on the same property executed by the same person, he cannot maintain a suit to recover the sum due on the later mortgage, by sale of the property subject to prior mortgage as it would be a "splitting of claims" within the meaning of Sir Lawrence Jetikins' judgment in Gozund v Pareshrain, (25 Bom 161: 2 Bom LR 864), which section 43 (now Or 2, R 2), C P C was intended to prevent, Keshavrain v. Rauchhod, 30 Bom 156: 7 BomL, R 811: Dhonda v Bhigai, 39 Bom 138 See also Darasami v Venkata-steshoyer, 25 Mad 108 (for a converse case to the above) modified in Subramania v Balasubramania, 38 Mad 927 F B; Mattobi Kasodem v. Kanm Hisson, 13 All 432

One suit on more mortgages than one against the same mortgagor by the same mortgages does not come under section 17 of the Court Fees Act See Thakur Jawahir Singh v Balwant Singh, 7 O C 152, Thakur Jawahir Singh v Baldeo Prosad, 11 OC. 173 But the Patna High Court holds a different view. A suit upon two separate mortgage bonds embraces two distinct causes of action within the meaning of section 17 of the Act, therefore, the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in such suit is the aggregate of ad valorem fees on each of the bonds, Nawab Waziri Begum v Sashi Bhusan Ray, 1 PLT 414. 57 Ind Cas 685, Jagendra Nath v Mohra, 2 PLJ 118

A person holding two mortgages from the same mortgagor hypothecating the same properties and even when the due dates in both are the same, can bring states separately on both bonds, hence the mortgages are separate and distinct and not one under section 17 of the Court Fees Act (In this case an observation was made by the Hon'ble Judges that if the mortgages required to site on all the mortgages either according to contract or by law then separate court-fees are not payable), Nawaba Wazir Begum v Shashi Bhusan Ray, 74 Ind Cas 820 (1924) ATR 77 (P.) 1923 Pat CWN 293 4 Pat LT 546 ILR 2 Pat 874

The Madras High Court in Pollach Town Bank, Ltd v. A. S. Krishna Ayar and others, 68 M. I. 316 4 I. L.W. 327: 1935 M.W. N. 198 1935 A.I.R. 262 (1) (Mad.), held that one suit on two mortgages executed in heu of five promissory notes embraces two distinct subjects and court-fees on that footing are to be computed on the plaint. The principle of consolidation applied by see 67-A, T. P. Act has no bearing upon the interpretation of s. 176 of the Court Fees Act.

N.B.—The cause of action on each contract is the broof the covenant, hence compulsion to bring one suit on mortgages does not constitute one cause of action. It has enacted by s 67A of the Transfer of Property Act that the mortgage must bring one suit on several mortgages but this section does not apply to mortgages executed before 1st April 1930 (vide s 63 of the Amending Act).

But if several mortgagees decide to take one mortgage bond in the place of several mortgage bonds executed in their favor severally, then one suit on the one bond so executed does much the control of the control of the control of the control of the place as on one subject, Muthuram Chetty, V. Sreasshot manua Chetty, 63 M.L.J. 316: 1932 M.W. N. 986; 36 L.W. 42th 139 I C 431: 1932 A.I.R. 737 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 702 (Mad.)

Partition and accounts.—In a suit for partition and accounts, the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees for partition plus and valorem court-fees on the approximate valuation for accounts, Beni Madhab Sarkar v. Gobind Chandra Sarkar, 22 CWN 669 See also Satis Chandra Ghosh v. Kaldata Disk. 26 C.W.N 177: 34 C.L. J. 529, Manikkam Pillai v. Partition and debts.—If in a suit for partition creditors are made parties and it is prayed that respective shares it delivered free from those debts, then separate court-fees in respect of each of those debts are payable, Perraju v. Subb Rao, 68 M L, J. 376: 41 L W 405 1935 M W.N. 346: 1935 A J R 419 (Mad.).

Partition and possession.—Where a decree-holder auction-purchaser obtained merely symbolical possession through the Court and then sued for partition and possession, held that the suit embraced two distinct causes of action and required be stamped as a suit for partition and as a suit for possession. Starom Jin v. Lokenoth Missir, 3 Pat. 618: 81 I.C 1052-5 Pat L. T. 618: 1924 A I.R. 558 (Patta).

Possession and compensation.—Suit for possession of a house, and compensation in the nature of rent and like compensation from the date of the foreclosure to the date of delivery of possession, is a suit with distinct subjects and court-fees are payable on the aggregate amount of fees payable for the different claims, Chedilal v. Kirathehand, 2 All 682 F.B.

Suits for possession with claims for mesne profits—Such suits are suits based on the same cause of action and therefor section 17 of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Kissory Li Roy v. Shorut Chandra Majaamdar, 8 Cal 593: 10 CLR.

359; Venkoba v. Subbanna, 11 Mad 151; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 16 All, 401: 14 All, W.N. 124.

The court-fees in a suit for possession with mesne profits are to be paid of valorem on the aggregate value of both the rehefs claimed and are not to be assessed separately. In rePameswara Potter, 54 Mad 1: 59 M.L.J. 469: 1930 M.W.N. 823 L.W., 433: 1930 A.I.R. 833 (Mad): 130 I.C., 742: 1931 IR. 438 (Mad). F.B.

Suit for possession, malikana and mesne profits.—In a suit for possession with a claim for malikana as well as a claim for mesne profits, the plaintiff is entitled to add together the valuation of the three items of his claim for the purpose of assessing the court-fees payable and need not assess it separately on each of the three items separately on the value of the land, separately on the malikana and separately on the amount of the mesne profits, Nauvatan Lal v Stephenson, 4 Pat.L. J 195: 50 Ind. Cas 470 1922 Pat CWN 79.

But if the suit for possession with a claim for mesne profits is coupled with a claim for rent, the claim for rent is a distinct cause of action, but not in cases where the suit is against a tenant holding over after the tenancy has terminated, In the matter of A W Zamid v Cyril Brown, 36 Ind Cas 883: 10 Bur L.T 60: 8 L B R 529.

Pre-emption.—The right to pre-empt the sale in respect of more villages than one is one cause of action and consequently court-fees are not levable in respect of different villages, Durga Prosad v Purandar Singh, 27 All 186: 24 (1904) All W N 210

But if the plaintiff sues on an agreement to sell with an alternative claim for pre-imption of a mortgage of the same property the suit is within action 17 and therefore chargeable with court-fees assessed on each alternative relief, Hashmatinisa Begium v Mithammad Abdulkarim, 29 All 155 4All LJ 127: (1907) 27 All W N 4 Where the plaintiff alleges a definite contract with him to sell a house and a right to pre-empt a subsequent sale of the same house, if such sale is not rendered nugatory by the previous agreement, held, that these are distinct causes of action and the court-fees payable should be the same as if separate suits had been filed, Musst Fofima Beaum v Mahomed Zabarna, 96 PR 1895

a Where the vendee in an appeal by him against a decree in favour of the pre-emptor on payment of Rs 6,800 asks for a decree restoring that to him or else requiring the successful pre-emptor to pay him an additional sum of Rs 3,200, these are two alternative reliefs based on exactly the same cause of action and only one of them can be granted. They are not distinct subjects within the meaning of s 17 of the Court Fees Act and the correct fee is one calculated not on the aggregate of two values but the higher of the two, Tek Chand v. Tara Chand, 5 Lah 114: 1924 A.I.R. 494 (Lah.): 85 Ind Cas. 556.

Suits against principal debtor and his guarantor.—When the plantiff sues the principal debtor on a cash credit account and also in the same suit seeks decrees against persons who guaranteed the promissory notes and one equitable mortgage, held that the plant should be stamped with a court-fee calculated on the various amounts claimed from each and all the guarantoes separately as each note is a separate cause of action and each nortgage affords an entirely distinct cause of action, In re Book of Bengal v R M L, Muthia Chetty, F.D, 8 L.B.R. 219, 8 Bur L.T. 217: 30 Ind Cas 705

Promissory Notes.—Where the suit is upon several promissory notes in favour of the same payee, the plaint is to be stamped with a fee amounting to the aggregate amount of confees payable on a plaint for each of the sums as failure to satisfie each promissory note is a distinct cause of action, Intel P. IR. M. N. Perchappa Chetty v. Po. Kin., 5 L.B.R. 94: 4 Ind Cas. 289

A suit on a pro-note claiming money from the representative of the executant or in the alternative from the agent of the executant, need not be stamped separately as the relief claimed is one and the same though the claim is sought to be made out on distinct grounds, Ananda v. Laxman, 120 I.C. 411: 1930 A.I.R. 55 (Nag.) 1930 I.R. 43 (Nag.).

The plantiff sung as an endorsee of the pro-note and failing in his sut, cannot by obtaining an assignment of the original obligation succeed without paying fresh court-fees as the plantiff cannot tack on to a suit a cause of action which is foreign to the cause of action on which the suit was brought. Pethice Reddier v. Chidambara Reddier, 1931 M.W.N. 390: 131 LC 1: 1931 AIR 533 (Mad.): 1931 LR 465 (Mad.).

A plaintiff suing on two promissory notes is to pay coultfees not on the aggregate sum but on the two sums which go to make up the aggregate, as if separate plaints have been flich. Redemption and arrears of rent.—If the suit be for redemption as well as for recovery of arrears of rent then there are really two distinct causes of action and the court-fee is to be computed on arrears of rent and the principal amount of debt, Roma Varnah Raja v. Kadar, 16 Mad 415 (418).

Suit for specific performance and for possession—Inasmuch as in a suit for specific performance of a contract of sale and for possession of the property agreed to be sold, the relief for specific performance is the main rehef and is not ancillarly to the claim for possession a separate court-fee is, under section 17 of the Court Fees Act, payable in such relief both in the original Court and the Court of appeal, Ram Nidle v Bolkaram Singh, 60 Ind Cas 654 23 O C 388, but see contra, Maden Singh, 60 Ind Cas 654 23 O C 388, but see contra, Maden Singh v Gaya Prosed Singh, 11 IC 228: 14 C LJ 159, where the plaintiff asked for specific performance of a contract of sale and also asked that the defendant may be compelled to execute a conveyance and to deliver possession of the property to him, held that the suit was one for possession only and court-fees are to be assessed under 5 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act

A suit for specific performance and possession does not comprise two distinct subjects, Sundara Ramanijam Naudu v Sivalingam Pillai and others, 45 M.L.J. 431 1924 A.I.R. 360 (M.) 47 Mad 150 77 Ind Cas 542. 18 L.W. 333

Suit for specific moveable property and for compensation— The plant in a suit by the present holder of a certificate of administration to the estate of a minor against another whose certificate of administration has been revoked and for delivery or specific moveable property or for compensation for non-delivery need not be charged with court-fees under section 17 of the Court Fees Act as the suit did not embrace "distinct subjects" within the meaning of that section of the Court Fees Act on the total value of the claim. Amar Nath v. Thokur Das, 3 All 131.

NOTES.

Change in Law.—The words "and save as regards debt and securities, a certificate under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827," in Clause VIII, have been substituted for the words "and certificates mentioned in the first schedule to this at annexed, No 12" by Act VII of 1889, section 13 (2).

The Clause XXIV was substituted for the original by the Indian Christian Marrage Act, XV of 1852, section 2 Toriginal ran as follows:—Petition under the fourteenth and fifteenth of Victoria, Chapter forty (an Act for the Marrago in India), section 5 or under Act V of 1852, section 9 The present Act is Act XV of 1872. Clause XXV has been added by the Bengal Amendment Act of 1935 (VII of 1935).

Local Amendment.—The words "one thousand rupes" in clause (viii) have been changed to "two thousand rupees". Bengal by Local Amendment Act of 1922. Clause 1 amended by B. C. Act VII of 1935.

Clause III. Written statement.—Written statement filed by party at the first hearing of suit does not require court-fets.

Cheerag Ali v. Kadir Mahomed, 12 C L.R. 367.

Written statement of his case, tendered by party to a sut any time before or at the first hearing of the suit, is not liable to any court-fee, and may be written on a plain page and a written statement called for by the Court after far hearing is also exempt from duty, Nagu v. Yeknath, S Don 400. But a written statement containing a plea of set-off must be stamped ad valorem, I. I. Guise v. Anantha Rama Rathi 10 C.W.N. 199. See the cases under Schedule I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act under "set-off".

There is nothing in the law which requires a defendant in a partition suit to pay court-fees in order to have his shart sceparately allotted to him; he has merely to ask for it in his written statement, and it is open to the Court to order the shares of the defendants in a partition suit to be separated a among themselves, Him Chandra Mahto v. 1926 A.I R. 154 (Patna).

A written objection to an award filed in Court must be stamped. It clearly does not fall within the exception provided by s 19 of the Court Fees Act which inter alsa exempts a written statement in a pending suit but makes no mention whatsoever of written objections to an award, Adamah v. Abdul Ali, 107 I.C. 223: 1928 A I R 87 (Sind).

Note:-Under Schedule I, Art 1 of the Court Fees Act only "a written statement claiming a set-off, or counterclaim" is chargeable with court-fee stamps, therefore other written statements are not chargeable with duty

Section 19 (111) of the Court Fees Act includes not only suits but also miscellaneous cases Therefore, written statements which are filed opposing an application by the Official Liquidator under the Companies Act do not require court-fees, The Indian States Bank Ltd (in liquidation) v Musst. ### CHAPTER IIIA.

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION.

19A. Where any person on applying for the Rebel where too high a court-fee has been administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fet thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produce the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revent Authority [for the local area] in which the probate of letters has or have been granted and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation.

and if such Authority is satisfied that a greate fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required.

the said Authority may-

 (a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters, if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

(c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

NOTES

Change in law.—Chapter IIIA was inserted by the Probate and Administration Act, 1875 (13 of 1875)

The words "for the local area" were substituted for the words "of the Province" by section 3 (1) of the Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1901 (10 of 1901)

Application.—The provisions of Chapter III of the Court Fees Act, 1870, does not apply to Probate. In the matter of the Last Will and Testment of Ram Chaudra Lakshmani, 1 Bom. 118 (121)

Until the Court Fee is paid and grant is issued to the party there is no grant of Probate, Alamclainmall v P N K Surya Prokasoroya Mudaliar, 38 Mad 988 29 M L J 680 31 I C 491

Nature of duty —"The stun charged upon a grant of Probate or of Letters of Administration, is not a tax or duty levied upon the property upon which the Probate or Administration operates, and it is not charged thereon as in Estate Duty in England, but it is merely a fee levied by the Court issuing the Probate or Letters of Administration for the work done in this connection. And I do not think that this is any less the case because the fee is levied upon the value of the property." Rehef where debts due from a deceased persen have been paid out of his estate.

Rehef where debts due from Authority that an executor and deceased persen that the from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances

The valuation is now checked by the Collector uniter authority conferred by Resolution No 980 S R, dated the 10th February, 1902 (Calcutta).

No double duty payable.—No fresh court-fees are payable in the 2nd grant In the goods of Lt.-Generol Peter Innes deceased, 16 W R, 253: 8 B L R Ap. 43. The Deptity Commissioner of Singhbhum v. Jagadish Chandra Dhobal Deo, 6 Pat. I, J 411: 62 Ind Cas. 513, although the rate may have increased in the meantime.

When an executor to whom probate has been granted dies, leaving a part of the testator's estate unadministered, and a new representative is appointed for the purpose of completing the administration, no new succession duty should be levied as there is no new succession and no devolution of the estate. Full fee is chargeable under the Court Fees Act on probate where it is first granted and no further fee shall be chargeable when no second grant is made in respect of the same property as comprised in the estate and the Court cannot ask the applicant in the second application even to pay the difference between the old rate of duty payable and the new rate having been increased in the interval An order calling upon the party to nay the difference amounts to a refusal to grant probate and an appeal lies under section 86 of the Probate and Administration Act, Swarnamoyee Devi v. The Secretary of State for India in Conneil, 43 Cal 625: 22 C L.J. 370: 20 C.W.N. 472: 30 Ind Cas. 394, see also In the goods of Julia Oram, 21 W.R. 245; 12 B.L.R. Ap. 21: In the goods of Bibee Ameeryn, 15 W.R. 496.

Although the value of the property must have increased in the meantime.—No fresh court-fees are payable, although the value of the property may have increased in the meantime. See Samuel Balthazer, Petitioner, 4 L.B.R. App. 139 (copy of the exemption of probate of the will annexed and of the document produced in lieu-of the former Letters of Administration).

Grant in favour of some executors—grant de bonis non-By section 19C, provided that the full fee chargeable under the Act has been paid, no further fee is to be chargeable when a like grant, ie, a grant of probate or letters of administration, is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate. There is nothing in the wording of section 19C to confine its application to the ease of some executors coming in to take out after one of their members has already taken out probate It will apply equally to a subsequent applicant for the administration of the whole estate and an application to administer that which has been unadministered When the appointment is made de bonis non there is no new succession, no new devolution of the estate, which would justify a finding that fresh court-fees must be paid. In the matter of the estate and effects of Maung Win Pan deceased, and In the matter of the estate and effects of Haco Wah Kin deceased, ILR 3 Rangoon 90 (92) · 1925 AIR 217 (Rangoon).

But fresh court-fees are payable for a fresh devolution—The estate mentioned in section 19C, means property of the deceased person Section 19C implies that, where court-fees have already been paid by some previous executor or administrator in respect of the whole or part of the property comprised in the estate of the deceased person and a fresh grant of probate of letters of administration is necessary, no fresh fees should be charged for such grant; but where a husband applies for protate of his wirfe's will, most of the property devised by which was included in her father's will, the husband must pay the full court-fee, event though full court-fees have already been paid for probate of the father's will, Magagawati Savan Singh v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 5 Pat L.J. 36: 54 Ind Cas. 703: 1920 (Pat.) C.W.N 81.

But second fees were payable, as at the time of the second grant the Court Fees Act, 1870, had come into force. In the Goods of George, 6 B.L.R. App. 138; In the goods of W. G. Chalmers, 6 B.L.R. App. 137: 21 W.R. 246

Annulling grant.—The duty paid on former Letters of Administration which was afterwards cancelled, was allowed to be deducted from the amount payable for fresh Letters of Administration In the goods of Peter Innes, 16 W.R 253* B.L.R. Adn. 43.

Where an application is filed that the grant be annulled under section 234 explanation 4 of Act X of 1865 in order that a fresh grant might be applied for, the latter will be exempted from further court-fees under section 19 (C) of the Court I est. Act, 1870. Application by Elizabeth 1. Desouza for probate of will of Alfred Jones Desouza under Act X of 1865, 1 S.L.R. 177.

Power of appointment.—No fresh court-fees are payable in respect of any property where a person having a life interest in a fund with a general and absolute power of appointment thereover, exercises such power by will In the goods of Julia Oram, 21 WR 245; 12 BL, R Ap 21, In the goods of Georae, 6 BL, R Ap 138

But in the case of In re Lakshminarayana, 25 Mad 515, such power of appointment by wife was held to be property within the meaning of Art 11, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and the property in respect of which such power of appointment was exercised was held to be hable to probate duty a second time.

19D. The probate of the will, or the letters of Probates declared valid

Administration of the effects of

as to tru-t-property, though not covered by court-fee administration of the effects of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted, shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any moveable or immoveable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

Dayabhaga —Where one of two brothers governed by Dayabhaga law of inheritance died unmarried leaving the other brother as heir who applied for Letters of Administration of the property and credits of the deceased consisting of (1) moneys in Government Bank, (2) Government securities standing in the name of the deceased, (3) family dwelling house Held, that the court-fees are payable on the share of the deceased brother but the surviving brother's share was to be treated as trust property in his hands and therefore exempt from duy. In the goods of Brindaban Ghose, 19 W.R. 239: 11 B L.R. Ap. 30.

Where a Hundu daughter died possessed of her father's property and also some Government Promissory Notes standing in his own name Held, that no duty is payable in respect of these properties. In the goods of Tavin Kumar Chosh deceased C2 Cal 114, where the father of the deceased minor was made to pay although the money in the post office standing in the name of the deceased minor was his own money

Surrivorship in Mitakshara—Where property was purchased by four brothers as members of joint Hindu family and with joint funds and one of them subsequently died leaving a will, and the surviving brothers applied for probate as execution and trustees under the will notwithstanding that it was be queathed to them as tenants in common. Held that it was not liable to probate duty, In the goods of Pokhurmull Agaradia. 23 Cal. 890: 1 CWN 31.

The above case was followed in the case of Collector of Khaira v Chuni Lall, 29 Bom 161: 6 Bom L R. 652, where it was held that the grant of Letters of Administration exempted from stamp duty and that exemption of trust estate does not depend upon the condition whether there had been a previous grant or not; the exemption has reference to the character of the property and not to the procedure adopted But a contrary rule was laid down in In the matter of Dass Manavale Chetty, 33 Mad 93: 19 M.L.J. 591: 6 M.L.T. 286 4 Ind Cas. 1064, where the decisions reported in 23 Cal 980, and 29 Bom. 161, were not followed on the ground that in these decisions the effect of the words "not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest," following the words "property held in trust" in Annexure B, was not considered See also Mulukulta Annapurnamma v. Mulukulta Atchutarammay, d. 100 I.C 111: 38 M.I.T. 7 (H.C.): 1927 A.J.R 1101 (Mad) where it was held that the probate duty is to be paid only on the right, title and interest of the testator in the property I concathed.

Also where one member of a joint Hindu family died leaving a will by which his share in the joint family property was disposed of , held that the whole property was hable to probate duty, inasmuch as the parties claiming under the will could not go behind its terms or claim any exemption whatever upon allegation inconsistent with the will or its provision, Kashinath Parashram v Gouraba: Mullappa Warad, 17 Bom LR 169, 39 245; 28 Ind Cas 473; the case of Kashinath v. If a person applies for it he has got to pay court-fees See also Re Estate of Ram Kumar Prasad, 5 Pat L. J 510 . 58 Ind Cas 1007: 1 Pat L.T 710. A Hindu testator by his will made his wife and the minor sons of his nephew joint owners of the estate and appointed his wife executrix of his estate and further provided that after the death of his wife the sons of the nephew are to take possession of the estate, held that no joint tenancy was created by the will and that after the death of the wife the property was to vest absolutely in the sons of the nephew. There was no trust created by the will appointing the widow a trustee for the sons of the nephew, hence the sons of the nephew are not entitled to be exempted from duty under sec. 19D of the Court Fees Act, Mangaldas Kilabai Patel v. The Secretary of State for India, 1928 A IR SS (Bom): 108 Ind. Cas. 709: 52 Bate Shares —A share in the Bank, for the purpose of devolution or survivorship, must be deemed so far as the bank was concerned, the exclusive property of its registered holder. Therefore when that shareholder dies, a probate or letters of administration is necessary as a claim by survivorship cannot prevail, Bank of Bombay v. Ambalat Sarabhai, 24 Bom. 350: 2 Bom.L.R. 467. See In the goods of Madha Prastad, 1935 A.L.J. 391: 154 I.C. 722: 1935 A.I. 449 (All). But if the shares stand in the joint names of husband and wife then it is presumed that an advancement to the survivor was intended and if the wife survivo the husband, then the property is hers and not the property of the deceased husband, hence no court-fees are leviable, Deputy Commissioner, Lucknow v. Mrs M. D. Aikman, 9 Luck. 370 11 O W N 78. 1934 A L.R. 72 (Oudh): 148 I.C. 247.

Refund.-A Mitakshara father died leaving two sons who were joint with him and to whom the property passed by survivorship. The deceased had, before his death, deposited with two banks 2 sums of Rs 5,000 each (property of the joint estate), who refused to hand over the money to the sons unless the take out Letters of Administration with respect to the same; consequently Letters of Administration were obtained and the duty paid. Subsequently the sons filed an application for refund of the duty paid as the property in respect of which it was paid was joint family property, held, that no refund could be granted as no duty has been previously paid, Collector of Ahmedabad v. Savchand Ladukchand. 27 Bom 140: 4 Bom.L.R. 974.

Provision for case

where too low a court-fee has been paid on probates, &c

19E. Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority [for the local areal in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the courtfee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon

Scope.-Rights of Secretary of State-The Secretary of State has the right to sue for recovery of penalty imposed by Revenue authority under statutory powers, but these powers must be exercised in conformity with the statute Section 19E of the Court Fees Act contemplates an application on the part of the person who has taken out probate and produces the same to be duly stamped. It further contemplates that when the estimated value of the estate is less than what the value afterwards proved to be, a Civil Court cannot revise the valuation of a Revenue officer unless the same is ultra vires or not in accordance with law, Nikunja Rani Chowdhurani v Secretary of State for India, 43 Cal 230 · 20 CWN 504 22 CLJ 875: 31 Ind Cas 460 Section 19E contemplates an application by a person who has taken out probate and produces the same to be duly stamped, Manchit v Secretary of State for India in Council. (1896) P I Bom 751

Mistake,-Section 19G, Court Fees Act, has to be read with sec 19E of that Act, the words used being identical and the sections providing the similar cases See 19E shows clearly that it refers to a wrong estimate of the property arising either from a nustake or from the fact that a certain property is not known to have belonged to the deceased. The learned Counsel for the Crown contends that the words "not known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased" include both a mistake of fact as well as a mistake of law. If the word 'estimate' does really cover both, then similarly the word 'estimate' in sec. 19H also covers similar mistake and, therefore, the procedure is as prescribed for the revenue authorities where there is contest as to whether there is or is not such a mistake, Feroze A Cooper v. The Secretary of State for India, 111 I C 692 · 1928 A I.R. 947 (Lah.).

19F. In case

Administrator to give proper security before letter stamped under section 19E

of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

Executors, &c, not paying full court-fee on probates, &c. within six months after discovery of under-payment

19G. Where too low a court-fee has been paid any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate helonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months * * * after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten rupees per cent. on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

Change in law.—The words and figures "after the 1st day of April, 1875, or" are repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (Act X of 1901), Schedule I.

Frame of section - Section 19G is moulded on section 43 of 55 George III, c. 184 and section 122 of 56 George III. C. 56. Nikunja Rani v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 43 Cal 230: 22 C L, J 375: 20 C.W N. 504: 31 Ind Cas 460

For the protection of revenue, however, section 19G provides a penalty The duty of determining whether too low a court-fee is paid is imposed on Revenue authorities and the Civil Court has no power of reviewing his decision and ordering penalty to be repaid if such decision by Revenue authority happens to be wrong, Manekp Edalji v Secretary of State for India in Council, (1896) Bom P J. 751.

- 19H. (1) Where an application for probate or Notice of applications for probates or letter of administration is made to any Court other than a High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to thereon.
- (2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to a High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority [for the local area in which the High Court is situated.]
- (3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue-jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has under-estinated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and, if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.
  - (4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquirinto the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by section 277 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, or, as the case may be, by section 98 of the Probate and Administration Act, 1881

- (5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near a may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.
- (6) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court or person authorized by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the petitioner for probate of leters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission), and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property. The person authorized as aforesaid to hold the inquiry shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him, and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.
- (7) The finding of the Court recorded under subsection (5) shall be final, but shall not har the entertainment and disposal by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority of any application under section 19E.
- (8) The Local Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

Change in law.—The words "for the local area in which the High Court is situated" were substituted for the words "of the Province" by section 3 (2) of the Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1901 (10 of 1901). Sec. 19H.1

Note .- Sections 19H, 19I, 19J, 19K were inserted by the Court Fees Amendment Act, 1899 (Act XI of 1899), section 2.

The Indian Succession Act, 1865 was Act X of 1865 The present Act is Act XXXIX of 1925.

The Probate and Administration Act was Act V of 1881.

The present Act is Act 39 of 1925

Instructions on the working of sec 19H of Court Fees Act, 1870 (as amended by Act XI of 1899) are embodied in Letter No 980-S R, dated Calcutta, the 10th February 1902, (see Stamp Manual). Under this letter the Civil Courts are not required to check the valuation put upon the various items of property set out in the affidavit, but merely to satisfy themselves that proper fees have been paid upon the valuation declared by the Collector, the correctness of which valuation it is the duty of the Collector to check on receipt of notice of application from the Civil Court.

There are similar letters in other Provinces (see Stamp Manuals for such Province).

Enquiry by Civil Courts and the Registrar of the High Court -The Civil Courts ought not to concern themselves to check the valuation put upon the various items of property set out in the affidavit of valuation according to the form prescribed in the third schedule of the Court Fees Act, but should merely satisfy themselves that the appropriate fee has been paid on the valuation declared by the executors themselves. The duty of checking the correctness of valuation is entirely a matter for the revenue authorities on receipt from the High Court of notice of grants of (application for) probates or letters of administration as the case may be

The Registrar should merely satisfy himself that all the proper duty has been paid in accordance with and upon the basis of the figures which the executors themselves put forward in their affidavit of valuation. If that valuation is not correct, it is the business not of the High Court but of the revenue authorities to make such investigation as they think fit, and if they are so advised to move the Court under sub-sec. (4) of sec 1911 of the Court Fees Act, 1870. Payment of court-fees in respect of probates and letters of adminis-

191. (1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in the third schedule, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 11 of the first schedule has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any motion made by the Collector under section 19H, sub-section (4).

NOTES.

Note.—The valuation required to be put in under this section should be checked by the Collector and not by Civil Court. The Civil Court is to send the notice of appliation to the Collector and on receipt of a report from the Collector is to see whether proper fee has been paid on that valuation

The Civil Court is not to check the valuation by the Collector. See cases under s. 1914 subra.

Scope.—The question whether a certain property is trust property or not and has been included in List B through mistake the matter is covered by s. 191 and it would be for the High Court to decide before granting probate whether the propert was or was not rightly included in Sch. B, and in any earlier the decision of the Financial Commissioner would be ultra view feroze. A Cooper v. The Secretary of Stote for India, 111 TC 692-1928 A I.R. 947 (Lah.). Grant cannot be delayed—The grant of a probate to the petitioner, after she has filed the valuation in accordance with section 19H (1) of the Court Fees Act and paid proper court-fees, cannot be delayed simply because Collector has failed to more under section 19H (4) of the Court Fees Act In Re Srimoti Prasanna Moyee Basu, widow of Kritanta Kumar Bosu, 40 Ind Cas, 576

Assessment of duty.—Effect of amendment—Where an application for probate was made on the 29th March, 1922, and on 30th March, 1922, the estate was valued and the court-fees paid, but the Will was proved on the 18th April, 1922 after Amending Act has come into force, held that the court-fees were correctly paid under the old law and the Amending Act does not apply as the fee payable had been paid before the Amending Act came into operation, Thioddeus Nahapiet v. The Secretary of State for India, 39 C.L.J. 209: 1924 A.I.R. 987 (Cal.): 81 I.C. 751.

The probate duty is to be levied on the value of the estate as at the time of making the application. Court-fees ought to be levied as a preliminary on the valuation put forward by the applicant for probate, but the duty chargeable may subsequently be revised as a result of reference made by the Collector under s 1911, Court Fees Act. # OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES.

25. All fees referred to in section 3 or chargeable Collection of fees by under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

26. The stamps used to denote any fees chargeble under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the [Local Government] may, by notification in the [Local Official Gazette] from time to time direct.

NOTES

Change in law.—For the words "the Governor-General of India in Council," the words "Local Government" and for 20 the words "Gazette of India," the words "the Local Official Gazette" were substituted by Act XXXVIII of 1920 (The Devolution Act). Sec. 2 and First Schedule.

Rules —For rules as to levy of court-fees by adhesive and inpuressive stamps, see Gazette of India, 1883, Part. I, p 189, but it is doubtful if those rules are in force after the amendment of this section in view of the provisions of s. 27.

"It is true that section 26 of the Court Fees Act (VII et 1870) provides that the stamp used to denote the fee chargeable under the Act 'shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive as the Governor-General of India in Council may by notification in the Gazette of India from time to time direct, and that by notification of the Governor-General (No 361, dated 18th April, 1883), it was provided that in case the fee chargeable should be under Rs 10, an adhesive stamp should be used, and when the fee should exceed Rs. 10, an impressed stamp, and that in both cases the stamp should bear the work 'court fees'; but as to the direction that the stamp should bear the words 'court fees', it is to be remarked that it is not a matter on which by the terms of section 26 of the Court Fees Act, the Governor-General in Council had authority to give any direction, and it can, therefore only be regarded as a departmental order the non-observance of which cannot invalidate the stamp for the purposes of the act," Annafurna Bar v. Lakshman Bhikaji. Bom 145.

Stamps for use in High Court only.—When the lower Court rejected a plaint after punching the stamps bearing the words "for use in the High Court only" impressed upon the back of the stamps on the ground that such stamps are for rein the High Court only, held, that such rejection was not justified. The words on the back of the stamps may have some significant for administrative purposes, but they are not capable of instituting the stamps themselves, Naresh Chandra Sinha v. Charlet Joseph Smith, 1926 A.I.R. 408 (Patna): 97 IC. 822: 8 Fat. LT. 33.

Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps 27. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating—

- (a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act.
- (b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,
- (c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps, and
- (d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

Provided that in the case of stamps used under section 3 in a High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the Local Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of claw.

NOTES The parties quent to use as small a number of stamps as they can, Ranee Khajooroonissa v Musst Rohimunnessa, 16 WR 152

But there is no illegality in making up the stamp fee chargeable in an appeal by means of a number of stamps, Mirca Parmet discourage.

Daved Ali v Syed Nadir Hossein, 16 WR 153, Tarinni Churn v. Taranath Gooha, 12 WR 449, Huro Monee v Kristo Indro Shaha, 17 WR 220

Note.—These cases proceeded upon the footing that as there is no rule governing the use of number of stamp, the required amount can be made up by any number of small stamps. Where the appellant being unable to procure one stamp filed his appeals with two labels with a certificate by treasurer that one label was not in stock, but the District Judge rejected the appeal held that the appeal should not have been dismissed, Bansi Lall v. Raghunath Sahai, (1887) 7 All WN 212

Effect of using several stamps—If the court-fees pand are not denoted in the manner provided by rules under s 27 of the Court Fees Act, but were denoted by several stamps of lower values, the document is to be treated as unstamped Time may be extended to the party for compilance with the rules, Tota Rajayya v Margour Raymalaya, 26 N. I.R. 113 (Pat.), where the High Court considered the question of refund of the values of separate stamps and held that the application should be addressed to the Revenue Authorities and only granted a certificate to the par stating the facts in the form as set out in 40 Cal 365.

But now see the notification of the Government of Beng

No. 3 T. S. R., dated 14th May, 1932.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) section 27 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870) and supersession of the existing orders on the subject, the Governo in-Council is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the use of adhesive and impressed court-fees stamps in Bengal, 1 consequence of the abolition of impressed court-fee stamps t respect of fees upto Rs 25, namely:-

(1) In cases where the amount of fees is less than Rs 2 such fee shall be denoted by adhesive stamps bearing the word 'court-fees'

(2) In cases where the amount of fee is equal to or exceed-Rs 25 and such amount can be denoted by impressed starr; bearing the words 'court-fees', adhesive stamps being employed to make up fractions of less than Rs. 25

For similar provisions in other provinces, see Stamp Manual of each province. U. P Stamp Manual, Chap. 1B, pages 23.

234 as amended. The Assam Government Notification No. 7865 G. J. dated the 22nd December, 1925 contains the additional paragraph When in any case the fee chargeable under the Act is lee than Rs 25 such fee shall be denoted by adhesive stamps and when the fee amounts to or exceeds Rs. 25, such fee shall be denoted by impressed stamps.

And the Government of Bengal Notification No. 275-SR

dated the 9th March, 1907, clause 11 provides-

'A document stamped otherwise than in accordance with the preceding rules is not properly stamped within the meaning of section 28 of the Court Fees Act, 1870."

The Bihar and Orissa Government has made a similar rule In Bombay, C. P. and U. P. there are similar provisors as to the number of stamps to be used but there is no Prad clause in case of breach. The provisions for those Province may, therefore, be regarded as not mandatory and as mer recommendations.

See the Stamp Manual and Local Rules and Orders for each Province.

Damaged and spoiled stamps.—See the Stamp Manual for the province.

Sec. 28.]

28. No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office, without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of a High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relating thereto, shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

NOTES.

Application.—Section 28 does not apply to cases where there was no stamp on the plaint when presented but supplied afterwards, Lakha v Munshi Ram, 38 P.R 1900.

Scope.—The section does not apply to probate duty. See s. 19K of this Act In re Bhubanestear Triginait, 52 Cal 871: 29 CW.N. 879 95 I C 879: 1925 A.I.R. 1021 (Cal.).

Section 28, Court Fees Act, refers to a case where the question is not raised by a reference by the Taxing Officer under s. 5. Application of s. 149, C. P. C .- An appeal must be taken to be filed on the date on which the memorandum of appeal s properly stamped. An appeal was decided by a District Judge on 3rd March, 1915. A petition for revision agasnit that decision was filed on 4th June, 1915. On 7th February 1916, after hearns both parties, the Judge in chambers held that an appeal is) " the case and gave time to the appellants to make up the deficient in court-fees on the memorandum of appeal. The deficiency was made up on 11th February, 1916 On the appeal coming on for hearing before a Division Bench, the respondent objected the the appeal was barred by time: held (1) that the order of the Judge in Chambers must be taken to have been made subject to all just exceptions; (2) that the memorandum of appeal mod be taken to have been filed on the date on which the deficiency in court-fees was made up, and was, consequently, barred by time: (3) that section 149 of the C. Stamps with the name of different purchasers.—Where a plant was stamped with an impressed stamp and an adheive stamp but the adhesive stamp had the name of a different attorney and a different date and the punching officer refused to punch it. Held, that the punching officer was right and that the attorney should have placed before the Registrar his special circumstances to enable him to extend the rules the practice on the original side amongst attorneys of accommodating each other in respect of stamps not used was deprecated George Gersor v. - (w) All fees ordered to be repoid under this section be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the t.

NOTES.

Alteration in law...-This section has been re-enacted as n 546A of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act V of 1898) amended by Act XVIII of 1923 whereby appellate Courts are also empowered to pass similar orders and order simple impresonment

S 546A (1) Whenever any complaint of a non-cognisable notfence is made to a Court, the Court, if it considers the accused, may, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to pay to the complainant—(a) the fee (if any) paid on the pettion of complain or for the examination of the complainan

- and (b) any fee paid by the complainant for serving processes on his witnesses or on the accused, and may further order that in default of payment, the accused shall suffer simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days.
- (2) An order under this section may also be made by an appellate Court or by the High Court when exercising its powers of revision.

Scope.—An Order under section 31 of the Court Fees Att directing an accused to pay the complainant the amount pad in court-fees by the latter, can only be passed where the offent complained of was a non-cognizable one, Mingan v. Emperof. 80 I C 56 (All.).

In cognizable cases the accused should not be ordered to pay costs to the complainant, Maung San Myin and others v. King Emperor, 80 I C. 187: 1923 A.I.R. 245 (Rangoon).

Nature of the order to pay the fee.—Where the magistrate convicted two accused and ordered them to pay court and process fees in equal shares but the appellate Court acquitted one of them and ordered the other to pay the whole amount, held that court fees ordered to be paid under section 31 of the Court Fees Art are recoverable as if they are fines imposed by the Court, but they are not part of the fine imposed as punishment for the offence. In re Venuri Seshamma, 26 Mad 421. But see Quen Empress v Tangavelu Chetti, 22 Mad 153, where it was held that an order to pay fee under section 31 is an integral part of the sentence and such fee must be treated as a fine imposed by the Court. In this case the Assistant Magistrate's order was that it should be paid out of the fine collected, hence the order cannot be said to be under section 31. See also In re Ediga Thimmials, 47 Mad 914: 1925 A.I.R. 136 (M.): 82 IC 141

A person who was convicted by a Deputy Magistrate of having caused hurt, was ordered to pay a fine of Rs. 15, and also complainant's costs of the prosecution. In the month following the conviction, the Deputy Magistrate issued a warrant for the collection of Rs. 12-4 from the accused, of which Rs. 24 was leviable under section 31 of the Court Fees Act as courfee paid by the complainant, and Rs. 10 under section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for two fees of Rs. 5 each paid by the complainant to the medical officer for a certificate and for giving evidence in the case. Objection having been made to the recovery of these sums, the case was referred to the High Court for orders. Held, that the levy of court-fees was warranted by section 345 of the Court Fees Act, which is not modified by section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Queen Empress v. Yamana Raa, 24 Mad. 305.

Order for repayment is in addition to penalty imposed—
This section directs that the order for repayment of the process fees and stamp must be in addition to penalty imposed. An order passed by a Magistrate under section 31 of the Court Fees Act, directing an accused person to pay to the complainant, the court fees on the petition of complaint is no part of the sentence so as to make it a sentence of fine within the meaning of section 413 of the Code of Crimioal Procedure of 1882, Madan Mundul v. Haran Ghose, 20 Cal. 687. followed by Emperor v. Karnippana Pillan, 20 Mad. 188. Therefore an appellate Court is not competent to set aside an order by the trying Magistrate under section 31 of the Court Fees Act, Emperor v. Maddipatla Subbarayudu, 31 Mad. 547: 5 M.L.T. 223

The order for payment to the complainant of the Court and process fees paid by him must be in oddition to the fine imposed and not out of the fine imposed, Crown v Po Hlaw, I L B.R 9

Maintenance order - The Court cannot order the defaulter to pay to the complament the amount of court-fee paid In the matter of Pali, Bom H C Ref No. 118 of 1889

Workman's breach of controct.—Magistrate cannot order repayment of the amount of stamps, Emperor v. Dhandu Krishna, 6 Bom L.R. 255

Costs ordered under section 22 of the Cattle Trespass Acti—Illegal science and detention of cattle is not an offence within the meaning of section 31 of the Court Fees Act. Hence Courts are not competent to order repayment of the amount of stamp,

- Admission in criminal court of a document in respect of which proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in section 4 or section 6 shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition

NOTES

The word 'document' has not been defined in this Act. In this section the word refers to petition of complaint in a criminal case or a statement reduced to writing in a Criminal Cont. This section empowers a Magistrate to admit an insufficiently stamped document in cases where it is necessary to do so to prevent failure of justice. This section does not refer to remission of duty as in section 18 of this Act.

34. (1) The Local Government may from time Sale of stamps to time make rules for regulating the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remumeration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

See the Tables of Rates of ad valorem fees for each province, vide the Appendices, infra

Fees payable in suits instituted and decided by Union Courts

under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act; 1919 (B C Act V of 1919):-Sec 90 (1) In all suits instituted in and decided by a Union Court a fee of one anna in the rupee shall be payable on the amount of the claim upto twenty-five rupees, and an additional fee of half-an-anna for every rupee of the claim above twent-five rupees.

(2) If the claim be decreed in full, the fee shall be realized from the judgment debtor together with the amount decreed

(3) If the amount be decreed in part, the fee shall be realized tro rata from the decree-holder and the judgmentdebtor

(4) If the suit be dismissed, the fee shall be realized from the plaintiff

(5) All such fees realized by the Union Court shall be credited to the Union fund and shall not be paid to either party N B -- But this section has been proposed to be amended in 1935

Note.-Under this Article the court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal or cross objection is to be assessed ad valorem on the value of the subject-matter in dispute; but as regards plaints the amounts of the court-fees payable are to be calculated under section 7 of the Court Fees Act read with this Article

Application .- Article 1 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act applies only to those eases which are not otherwise provided for under the Act, Qyaunuddin v Delhi Flour Mills Company, 47 Ind Cas 992

Application of sec. 7 to appeals .- The principles contained in section 7 of Chapter III are applicable also to appeals before the High Court, Chunni Lal v Shea Charan Lal Lalman, 23 A L J 725 47 All, 756: 1925 A I R 787 (Allahabad): 89 Ind Cas 122 Sec 7 has no application to an appeal against a decree in a suit on a mortgage in which no amount is claimed To such a case Sch I, Art I of the Court Fees Act applies, Rama Krishna Reddi v Kalla Kota Reddi, (1906) 30 Mad. 96.

Suits Valuation Act.—The provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act applies to suits as well as to appeals which arise out of these suits, Bai Varunda Lakshini v Bai Manegarri, 18 Bom 207.

Scope,-Sch I. Art 1 of the Court Fees Act does not stand by itself but is a supplement to s. 7 and other sections of the Act. Sec 7 states the various processes by which the value in different suits is arrived at and the schedule then supplies the proper court-fees to those values payable either upon the plaint or memorandum of appeal. The value of a particular relief, once correctly found for the purpose of stamping the plaint in a suit, remains unchanged in subsequent stages of the suit. The value of the particular appeal remains the same whether the appeal is preferred against its refusal or its grant, Dhiraj Singh v. Rajaram, 6 N.L.R. 164.

Computation of duty payable on probate or Letters of Administration.—We are bound to read the schedules together with the Act On a construction of the Court Fees Act, 1870, no duty is payable in respect of a grant of probate or letters of administration where the value of the estate, after making the deductions specified in annexure B of the third schedule, is less than Rs 1,000, In the goods of Mrs Meik, 40 All 279 (281).

Method of calculation — In determining the amount of couriere payable, the sole question to be considered is what is the "subject-matter" of the suit. In cases where the plaintiff is bound to ask for possession, ad eviderem court-fees under section 7, paragraph 5 are to be paid, Syed Mahamed Gouse v. Government, 1925 M.W.N. 252: 48 M.L.J. 571 · 88 Ind. Cas. 209: 22 L.W. 163: 1925 A.I.R. 804 (Mad)

Subject-matter.—The words "subject-matter in dispute" refer to matters in dispute in appeals and the provisions of section 7, paragraph (ix) applies to suits and not to appeals, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad 367: 16 MLJ. 287. See also Krishnama Chariar v Srinivasa Ayyangar, 4 Mad 339 (valuation of a charge)

Where the subject-matter of suit and the subject-matter of appeal are the same, the amount or value of subject-matter is nothing more than the value of the property which the plaintiff is seeking to recover or retain, Sahan Lal v Sardar Khon, 16 P.W.R. 1916: 25 PR 1916: 32 Ind Cas. 121

The term subject-matter is obviously not to be confined applied only to what is capable of valuation in money. There are many suits which are incapable of such valuation for example, sunts for restitution of conjugal rights, suits for precedence in ecremonial worship, and so on The test simply is, what is the nature of the relief snught, Vasireddi Veeramma v. Butchayya, 50 Mad. 646 (649): 52 M.I. J. 381 · 25 L.W. 440: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.).

The amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute in a cross objection as to costs only, must be read as amount or value of the sum claimed as costs, Ma Shin v. Maung Shee: Hnit, 1925 A.I.R. 145 (R.): 2 Ran 637: 3 Bur.L.J. 279: 85 Ind. Cas. 257.

The subject-matter in an appeal against a joint decree for mesne profits against several defendants is the whole of the decretal amount as the habitity of the several defendants cannot be split up, Dhanukdhari Prasad v Ramadhikari, 12 Pat. 188: 13 PLT 810. 142 I C 617 1933 A I R 81 (Pat.): 1933 I.R. 162 (Pat.)

Ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount for which the appellant sought to avoid hability, or on the amount by which he sought to enhance the value of his decree, on the principle that the case is governed by Art 1, Sch. 1, Court Fees Act, which prescribes that a memorandum of appeal must bear a court-fee stamp calculated on the value of the subject-matter in dispute in appeal. The rule applies to all appeals from decisions determining the amount of mesne profits, whether the profits may have accured before suit, or after the institution of the suit, Sideshwarn Prasad and others v. Ram Kumar Rai, 12 Patna 694: 1933 AIR 234 (P.): 14 P.L.T. 180 144 IC 684

But if the appeal embodies a prayer which cannot be valued then the appeal comes under Article 17, clause (vi), Shedule II of the Court Fees Act, and Rs 10 is payable, Ram Jawaya v. Deb Ditta Mal, 107 P.W.R. 1916: 117 P.R. 1916: 34 Ind Cas. 192

Court-fees on affeal against part—It was not contemplated by the legislature that the court-fees payable on part of the whole claim in appeal, is in the absence of express direction to the contrary to exceed the court-fees payable on the whole claim, Hazari Singh, v Piran, 92 PR 1900; Harbhaguan v. Amar Singh, 5 Lah 137 83 I C 332; 1924 A I.R. 530 (Lahore).

attacking the whole of the decree, in an appeal from a decree in a pre-emption sut, while in reality the subject-matter of appeal is a part of the decree requiring increased court-fees. Wazar Muthammad v Kala Kam, 9 Lah. 563: 133 IC. 538.

A party can appeal from the whole decree when obviously his intention was to appeal against a part only, in order to avoid payment of a larger amount of court-fees, as the Court Fees Act does not prohibit it, Harlat v. Siri Ram, 32 P.L.R. 591: 131 IC 124 1931 A.I.R. 633 (Lah.). 1931 I.R. 892 (Lah.)

If the day of a part—Cross objection not filed.—Where the plantiff has obtained a decree for a portion of his claim of has appeads for reflect in respect of the remainder, the definition and the day of the day

Valuation of appeal.—The court-fee payable on an appeal, is to be calculated upon the valuation of the subject-matter of the suit arrived at by the lower Court, Surendra Naram Sinha v Hafjur Rahman, 30 Ind Cas 379

The value of an appeal is the value of the relief granted by the decree which a party wishes to get rid of, and in a claim for possession the value is to be determined under section 7, para (v) of the Court Fees Act In re G B Secthayamina 42 Mad 652-47 ML J 919: 21 L.W. 15: 85 IC 405: 1925 A I R 323 (M) See also In re Parkodi Achi, 45 Mad. 246: 41 ML J 587-1921 M.W.N. 854: 68 I C 444: 1922 A I R. 211 (M).

The proper method of determining court-fee payable on a memorandum of appeal is to find out the value of the relief granted which is sought to be got rid of, Mathomal v Bashomal, 116 I C 110 1929 A I R 161 (Sind)

The defendant appealing against the whole decree is bound by the valuation made in the plaint by the plaintiff, Dhippati Srnivosa Charlin v. A. Periandevamma, 39 Mad 725, 30 M L J. 402; 33 I C 602 F.B.

In a suit against a Maticelli of a Mosque "the defendant inay not have any personal interest at all and yet the subject matter of appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of suit" and the High Court ordered the defendant to stamp the memorandum of appeal with the same amount of court-fees as on the plaint, Mohamed Masik v Malkai M Ugwa Budshah Mehala Shaheba, 10 Cal. 380

Valuation for suits and appeals is to be constant and the valuation of a particular rebef in appeal remains unchanged whether the appeal be against the grant or refusal of the rebef in the lower Court, Dhiraj Singh v. Rajaram (1910) 6 N.L.R. 164: 8 I.C. 1125; Shixea Kunbi v. Dashrath, 147 IC 1113

The appellant appealing against a decree in a snit for recovery of possession and for antecedent mesne profits, is bound to value the appeal at the same amount at which the subject-matter was valued by the plaintiff in the first Court, Deonardan Misra v. Ganga Prasad and others, 8 Patria 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 313: 1929 A.I.R. 731 (Patria).

The defendant appealing against a decree in a suit for money to be determined on examination of accounts, is to pay ad valorem court-fees on the valuation made in the plaint. The defendant appellant cannot evade payment by pleading that he only wants a declaration in the appeal stage, Pochalal Ranchhol and other v. Umdram Kalidas and another, 52 llom 904: 30 llom L. R. 1284: 115 I.C. 391: 1928 A. I.R. 476 (10m), dissented from in Vershi Kanji v Kaku Kanji, 37 Bom.L.R. 148: 1935 A.I.R. 212 (Bom.), on the question of valuation only.

The appeal is to be valued on the same principle as the plaint was valued, Abdul Rahman v. A B Crist, 126 I.C. 645: 1930 A I R 164 (Ran.): 1930 I R. 325 (Ran.).

The defendant in appealing against a decree which found the liability to exist as also in a case where the liability is denied for a portion of the daim, must accept the valuation of the plantiff and pay court-fees accordingly. Reduction of claim and value.—The appellant cannot reduce the value of the sust for the first time in appeal to escape the payment of court-fees, Harbans Sahn w Lahmoni Kuer, 62 Ind Cas 36 1922 A I R 62 (Patna). The defendant in his appeal should not depart from the original valuation by the plantiff when the subject-matter continues to be identical. Samiya Marah v Miroammal, 23 Mad. 490: 10 M L.T 240.

But in Chum Lal v Sheo Charan Lal Lalman, 23 AL.J. 725 47 All 756 89 I C 122: 1925 ALR, 787 (A.), the Allahabad High Court allowed the defendant appellant to put in a reduced valuation on the memorandum of appeal in a suit for dissolution of partnership when the lower appellate Court decided against the detendants and directed accounts to be taken. The High Court held, that "in cases where the valuation has of necessity to be arbitrary and tentative, the person who has to present a petition or plant or appeal and who is called upon to pay the necessary court-fee will have to fix the valuation and unless the Court is of opinion that the valuation has been put down fraudulently, it will be difficult not to accept the valuation of made.

A detendant appellant of he has paid sufficient court-fees, is not bound by the meorrect statement of value by the plaintiff in the trial Court. Valuation of appeal.—The court-fee payable on an appeal, is to be calculated upon the valuation of the subject-matter of the suit arrived at by the lower Court, Surendra Narain Sinha v Hafijur Rahman, 30 Ind Cas 379.

The value of an appeal is the value of the relief granted by the decree which a party wishes to get rid of; and in a claim for possession the value is to be determined under section 7, para (v) of the Court Fees Act. The valuation of a suit under the former Court Fees Act may be altered in appeal under the provisions of the existing Court Fees Act which repealed the former Act, Mt Bhugabutty Koer v Mt Kustoori Koer, 15 WR 272

The plaintiff or an appellant may reduce his claim and thereby reduce the amount of court-fees payable provided under the circumstances of the case such a course is permissible, result will be that in so far as he submits to the decree appealed against the decree becomes final and court-fee need only to be paid on the remainder, 1e. the disputed amount, Ramchand v Panna Lal, 27 A L J 547 1929 A I R. 308 (All ) · 116 I,C 82

A pauper appellant may reduce his claim after rejection of his application to sue forma pauteris, and pay court-fees on the diminished valuation. No question of mala fides arises in such a case, Rajendra Prosad Base v Goral Prosad Sen, 9 Pat J. T 613

A Court can allow a plaintiff-appellant to give unnecessary reliefs and limit his claim, In re Nanda Lol Maahherjee, 35 CWN 942; Jai Dayal v Naroin Das, 32 PLR 854 In Amir Shah v Sved Shah Mahomed, 32 PLR 129, 131 LC, 297: 1931 A1R 237 (Lah); 1931 1R 425 (Lah) the Lahore High Court allowed the plaintiff in a pre-emption appeal to reduce the valuation and held that the District Court should have decreed the appeal for the portion within the amount of court-fees paid

Rejection of plaint or memorandum of appeal. -An appeal from an order rejecting a plaint for non-compliance with an order to pay additional court-fees is capable of valuation and the subject-matter is the same as in the original suit and the same court-fee is payable on the memorandum of appeal as on the plaint, Ganfati v. Venkatesh and others, 1935 A.1 R. 83 (Nag.). F.B

Decree for a higher amount-Insufficient court-fee -An appellant Court cannot pass a decree for a larger amount than that claimed in the memorandum of appeal, inless before the judgment is pronounced, an amendment of the memorandum of appeal is allowed and additional court-fees put in. Percival Collector of Chittagang, 30 Cal 576 In Ram Doolal v Gofal Kristo, 16 W.R 156, the Calcutta High Court refused to pass a full decree because full court-fees were not paid but passed a simple declaratory decree.

Where an appeal for recovery of money and interest thereon due on bahr accounts, is not properly stamped, the appeal cannot be dismissed in toto but a decree for a larger amount in excess of the sum for which court-fees have been paid cannot be passed Firm Nihal Chand Atma Rain v. Sardari Mal, 96 I C 136 1926 A J R 558 (Lah )

A memorandum of appeal was properly stamped when presented and a judgment was passed in the appeal. It was then found that the appellant is entitled to a larger amount than that on which he has paid court-fees, held that there is no provision in the Court Fees Act under which the appellant may be called upon to pay additional court-fees upon the amount found due under the directions contained in the judgment of the High Court The judgment having been passed the office cannot refuse to draw up the decree in terms of the judgment without payment of any additional court-fcc, Debi Lal Sahu v Gossain Koleshar Gir and others, 8 PLT 331: 105 IC 395: 1928 AIR 58 (Pat )

Change of character of suit in appeal -A suit for partition was instituted on a plaint bearing a ten rupee court-fee The trial Court in deciding the issue as to court-fees and possession several months before the trial of the suit commenced decided that ad valorem court-fees are payable, upon which the plaintiff paid ad valorem court-fees but did not amend the plaint, At the hearing of the suit the defendants objected that the trial cannot commence on the plaint as it is drawn up. An application was filed to amend the plaint which did not contain all the necessary elements to convert the suit into a suit for recovery of possession. The trial Court dismissed the suit. The order was upheld by the High Court, Rebati Ramon Basak and others v. Harish Chandra Basak and others, 24 C.W N 749: 58 I.C 665 See also Haladhar Pal Chowdhury v Sheikh Mangal Resa, 34 CWN 217 126 I C 777 1930 A I R 793 (Cal ) where in a suit for possession by tenants, the landlord was held to be appealing as if it was a declaratory sint.

The defendant appellant cannot evade payment of court-fees in an appeal from a decree in an accont suit by pleading that he only requires a declaration at the appeal stage, Pochalal Ranchhod v Umedram Kalidar, 52 Bom 904: 30 Bom L.R. 1284: 115 I C 391 · 1928 A I R 476 (Bom.).

Proper appeal Court.-In order to determine the proper appellate Court what has to be looked is the value of the original sut, 10, the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit. The word "value" must be taken to be the value assigned by the plaintiff in his plaint and not the value as found by the Cunless it appears that either purposely or through gross neglige the true value has been altogether misrepresented by the plaintiff, Muhammad Abdul Majid v. Ala Bux ahas Allan, 47 All. 534: 23 A.L.J. 216, 86 1C 1055: 1925 A.I.R. 376 (All.) See also Chuii Lal v. Tricardas Ramdas, 1926 A.I.R. 81 (Nag.): 89 1C 407

The plaintiff in a suit for accounts approximately valued the inchef for accounts at Rs 1,100, but on accounts being taken the amount was found to be over Rs 1,100, held that the amount found by the trial Court to be due to the plaintiff and not the amount at which the plaintiff approximately, valued the suit, was the criterion for determining the forum of the appeal, Budha Mad v Rallia Rum and others, 9 Lahore 23 9 L W.X. 1:29 P.L.R. 320: 110 I C 631 1928 A.I.R. 157 (L.)

Account suit.—Jppeal valuation—When the defendant appeals from the whole decree in a suit for accounts, he is found by the valuation by the plaintiff in the plaint, Danodara Padhano v Haribaudhi Patnaick, 1921 MWN 558 70 Ind. Cas 392 14 L W 380

The defendant-appellant in an appeal arising out of a preliminary decree in a suit for accounts can put his own valuation on the memorandum and need not accept the valuation made in the plaint by the plaintif (In this case the defendant-appellant did not question the liability but objected as to the period for which he is liable). Kanhaiya Lal v Seth Ram Sarnfy, 44 All 542: 20 A LJ 416 (1922) A I R 228 (All), approxima Bholanath v Parsoitam Das, 32 All 517: 7 A LJ 546 61 C. 832, Thakur Das v Daulat Ram, 1926 A LR 189 (Lahore): 91 IC 32 26 P LR 825

Where the plaintiff in an account suit valued the relief prayed for at a certain amount and obtained a preliminary decree for accounts and the defendant thereupon filed an appeal against the whole decree, he is bound by the valuation made in the plaint, Dhiptit Sriminas Charlus, A Perindexamina, 39 Mad 725: 30 M. L. J. 402: 33 Ind. Cas. 602 F. B.

The approximate valuation by the plaintiff in a suit for accounts must be adhered to in an appeal from the preliminary decree, unless the subject-matter of appeal is not identical with that of the suit, and in the latter class of cases the appellant ean value the subject-matter of appeal in a different way and pay court-fees on that basis, Mahamed Rahmoo Moreji v. Hirolinin Gangaji, 21 S.L.R. 377: 98 I.C. 905: 1927 A.I.R. 100 (Sind.); Shivandas Matumal v. Hariman, 27 S.L.R. 335: 147 I.C. 251: 1933 A.I.R. 332 (Sind.).

Appeal—valuation—The defendant appealing against the final decree in a suit for accounts, is to value the appeal at the entire amount decreed against him and cannot put an arbitrary value, Sharfuddin v M Khadim Ali, 1934 A.L.J. 643: 150 I.C. 1090: 1934 A.I.R. 807 (All.): 4 A.W.R. 263; Kailash Chandra v Narayan Chandra, 59 C.L.J. 447: 152 I.C. 97: 1934 A.I.R. 786(Cal.).

The defendant in appealing against a decree in a suit for accounts, is not bound by the valuation by the plaintiff and may put his own valuation on the memorandum of appeal, C K Unimar v. Alt Unimar, 9 Ran 165: 133 1 C 91 1931 A 1R 135 (Rang ): FB

The defendant in appealing against a decree for rendition of accounts is bound by the valuation by the plaintiff and therefore must pay court-fees accordingly. Batua Rain v. Rahima-tullah, 32 P.L.R. 62 131 I.C. 337 (1) 1931 A.IR. 113 (Lah.) See cases noted under section 7, paragraph (iv) (f), supra

Dissolution of partnership.—In a sunt for dissolution of partnership, the defendant appealed against the preliminary decree, pleading that they had no interest in the partnership, and that they sought only a declaration to that effect, held that appellants ought to pay an ad valorem court-fee according to the amount at which the rehef was valued.

Mr Justice Tudball said at page 522 of the report "The fact that it is now compulsorn on the appellant to appeal against the preliminary decree passed in such suits, does not affect the matter of court-fees in any way Section 7 of the Court fees Act distinctly lays down that the amount of court-fees payable shall be computed in suits for accounts according to the amount at which the rehef sought is valued in the plaint or the memorandium of appeal. The language of the section seems to be quite plain whether the appeal be from a preliminary or a final decree. It seems to me to be impossible to hold otherwise than that an ad valorem court-fee should be paid according to the amount at which the relif sought is valued in the memorandium of appeal." In the matter of Bholonath v Parsottam Das, 32 All 517 7 All L.J. 546 6 Ind Cas 832

In an appeal from a preliminary decree in a suit for dissolution of partnership and taking of accounts, the memorandum of appeal should bear ad talorem court-fees on the valuation of the relief claimed in the plant. approximately valued at Rs 3,000. The detendant claimed Rs 29,000. The trial Court dismissed the suit but decreed the claim of the defendant to the extent of Rs 29,000. The appeal against the decree was valued at Rs 19,000 but courtees on the entire sum including Rs 3,000 was paid. Before the Judicial Commissioner it was argued that the item of Rs 3,000 had gone and must be dismissed as a nullity. The Judicial Committee did not accept the view and pointed out that direction should have been given to lodge the extra amount if required or the question of the amount of court-fees should have deferred until final value was determined, Faizullah Khan v Mauladad Khan and others, LR 56 IA, 232: 10 Lak. 737, 31 Bom LR 841: 33 C.W N 781 50 C.L.J. 39, 57 M.L.J. 281 30 L.W 104: 1929 M.W.N 818: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.J.R. 147 (P.C.).

The defendant appellant in an appeal from a decree against him in a suit for accounts of a partnership business, can put a notional valuation on the subject-matter of the appeal, but if the appellare Court after hearing and consideration of the appellances to the conclusion in favour of the appellant in respect of a far larger amount than that he has paid court-fees for, the proper thing would be to post the case for orders and direct the appellant to pay additional court-fees and only then should the judgment be delivered and the decree should be allowed to be drawn up. Section 332B, C P C .- See 3rd Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

Under paragraph 6 of that schedule the appeals from decisions regarding the extent of liability of a judgment-debtor to a claim preferred against him, must be stamped with ad valorem court-fees as an appeal from a decree, Ahmodkhan v. Modho Das, 7 All 565: (1885) 4 All. W N 99 See contra, Srinivasa v Peria Tamb, 4 Mad 420

Condition.—Appeal against (see under heading 'Decree with a Condition' infro)

Cost.-Court-fees are not payable on costs as costs are not subject-matters of suit, Doorga Das Chowdhury v Romanath Choudhury, 8 MIA 262, 1e, it being in the discretion of the Court to grant or not to grant it, Nilmadhav Das v Bishumbhar Dos, 13 MIA 85 (103): 3 BLR. 27 PC A party appealing from a decree disposing of the whole claim need not pay court-fees on the costs awarded in the decree, Beni Prasad 1 Roja Ram. 37 PLR 50 1935 AIR 379 (Lah.) But if relief as to costs form a distinct and independent ground in the memorandum the court-fee ad volorem on costs is payable on the value of such distinct relief, In re Makki, 19 Mad 350 4 ML J 148, Kewal Singh v Mokrond Singh, 12 OC 171 3 I C 584 Where an appeal as to costs is distinct and separate from other parts of the appeal, court-fees must be paid ad valorem on the costs in dispute, T K Rowlins v Lachmi Naram, 3 Pat L J 443 (1918) Pat CWN 264 44 Ind Cas 50 4 Pat L.W 221, Debendra Mohon Roi v Sona Kuar, 21 All WN 21, Krishnoji v Boboji, 1891, PJ 52; Valirani and another v Karachi Bonk and others, 23 SLR 277 104 IC 391 1927 AIR 251 (S), Fatch Singh v Mong Rai, 1934 AIR 739 (Lah) 35 PLR 656

The defendants seeking to recover costs disallowed to them by the trial Court are bound to pay court-fees according to the amount under Sch 1. Art 1 of the Court Fees Act as costs are subject-matter in dispute between the parties. Kanakhya Naram Singh v. Romroj Singh and others, 8 Patna 543 1929 AIR 286 (Patna) 117 1 C 160

Affect as to costs out of o ssut for portition—The memorandum of an appeal against costs only in a seuf for partition need only bear a court fee under Art 17 (vi) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Raja Iyott Prosod Singh Deo v. Jogendra Ram Ray, 56 Cal. 188. 32 C.W.N. 1105. 116.1.C. 383. 1928. A1R. 878. (Cal.)

Cross objection as to costs—There is apparently no provision made in the Court Fees Act 1870, for the case of a petition of objection by the respondent under section 561 (Order 41, Rule 22) of the Code of Crul Procedure where such objection relates to costs only and the appellant appeals against the whole decree, Hasan Bano v Vizabuddin, (1893) 13 All W N 55. A memorandum of cross objection filed in the High Court relating to costs only does not fall either under Art 11 of Schedule 11 of the Court Fecs Act or Art. I, Schedule I of the same Act but is to be treated as a petition and comes under clause (d) of Article I of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and a court-fee of rupees two is payable thereon, Kamal Kamin Debi v. Rangpore North Beugal Bank, Ltd, 25 C.W.N. 934. 64 Ind. Cas. 606

Contra—A memorandum of cross objection as to costs only must be stamped ad valorem for the amount of costs claimed, Ma Shin v Maung Shwe Hnit, 2 Ran 637·3 Bur L J 279: 1925 A I R. 145 (R): 85 I C. 257 See also Sharoda Soonduree v Govind Monee, 24 WR 179. Babap Hari v. Raja Ram, 4 Bom. 75.

The provisions of Art 1 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act govern a memorandum of cross objection relating to costs, Nilal Chand v Alma Nath, 8 LL, I 434-98 I C 272: 1926 A.I.R. 645 (Lah.); see other cases under costs, supra

A memorandum of cross objection as to costs is to bear ad valorem court-fees, Chiranji Lal v Balchand, 53 All. 1020: 1930 A.I.J 1907: 128 I.C 780 1930 A.I.R 832 (All.): 1931 I.R 108 (All.)

Cross objection.—Section 16 of the Court Fees Act having been repealed by Sch V of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the court-fees necessary must be paid at the time of filing the cross objection

To be stamped in the same way as an appeal—Cross objection must be stamped as a memorandum of appeal, Sayad Amir Saheb v. Sheikh Masleudiu, 40 Bom 541 (Sun under section 92, C P C)

The memorandum of cross objection stands in the same position, for some purposes at least, as a memorandum of appeal under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act as amended by Act. V of 1908, and the court-fees must be paid in the same manner as on a memorandum of appeal. Although the appellant may have paid more than adequate court-fees on the memorandum of appeal, it is incumbent on the respondent to value the memorandum of cross-objection, Secretary of State for India v. Digambar Nanda, 27 C.I., J. 443: 49 Ind. Cas. 939 Under Sch. 1, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, a cross-objection must bear ad valorem court-fees on the value of the subject-matter, Daroga Rout v. Musst Parema Kuar, 3 Pat I, J. 197: 4 Pat. I, W. 38: 45 I C. 508; Syed Wasi Ali v. Jung Bahadur Sinda, 13 C. 121.

A cross objection must bear court-fees calculated on the value of the subject-matter in dispute, but where the value is not capable of being estimated in money, the valuation placed on the cross objection by the party presenting the same must be accepted, if such valuation is not unreasonable, Sri Rajeo Lochan Maharaj v. Mahant Ram Manahar Prosad, 25 O.C. 275: 70 Ind. Cas 286: 1923 A I.R. 44 (Oudh)

A memorandum of cross objection should bear ad valorem court-fees and not as under Schedule II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act as the word 'cross objection' occurs in Sch. I, Art 1 and not in Sch. II, Art 17 of the Court Fees Act, Harnoum Singh v Bahu Rani, 10 O W N 1202: 1933 A.I.R 528 (Oudh): 147 I.C. 186

In Balak Ram High School, Panipat v Namnu Lal, (1930) Il Lahore 503. 31 PLR 509: 128 I C 532 1930 A IR 579 (Lah.): 1931 LR. 68 (Lah.) it was held that the direction by the trial Court that if the sum of Rs. 50,000 lying in deposit with a firm could not be realised then it should be realised from the estate of the testator in the hands of the plaintiff, does not create a definite charge on the estate, therefore a cross objection relating to this order falls within Sch II, Art 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act and may be stamped accordingly.

A cross objection in a declaratory suit where no other relief is asked for does not require ad volorem court-fees, but is sufficiently stamped on court-fee as prescribed under Art 17 (m), Sch II of the Court Fees Act as the omission of the word 'cross objection from that Article is a mere clerical error, Surendra Singh v. Gambir Singh, 1934 Al L. J. 743. 3 A W.R. 803 152 IC 196, 1934 Al R. 728 (All)

Cross objection as to removal of a condition—A cross objection filed objecting to a condition precedent imposed by the decree, is to bear ad valorem court-fees, on the amount ordered to be paid, Ishdat Tewari v Tameshwar Tiwari, 45 All 537 1924 A IR ITS [All) : 83 I C. 780

Cross objection in appeals arising out of mortgage suits—
If the object in filing a cross objection be to set aside a mortgage then the memorandum is to be stamped with court-fees od valorem on the value of the mortgage, Sat Deo Narain v.
Ramayam, 52 Ind Cas 1002 If the object of filing the cross objection be to set aside the decree of the lower Court exempting certain mortgaged properties from sale, the memorandum of cross objection is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorem on the value of the property and not on the mortgage amount decreet. Kachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All 20: 7 All.
1. J 842 7 Ind Cas 315. Kesararappu v. Kotta Kota, 30 Mad

Cross objection in redemption suits—Cross objection in appeals arising out of redemption suits must be stamped od calorem on the amount by which the decretal amount is sought to be reduced, Mansa Ram v. Umra, 213 P.L.R. 1911: 134 P.W.R. 1911: 11 Ind Cas. 198; Harihar Baksh Singh v. Lachhman Singh, 11 O.W.N. 559: 1934 A.J.R. 246 (Oudh).

Cross objection in appeals arising out of partition suits— Under Article 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, 1870, a party filing cross objections must pay ad valorem court-fees according to the value or amount of the subject-matter in dispute in a partition suit. The High Court said that this is a hardship which can be remedied only by legislature and not by the High Court, Lakhon Singh v. Rem Kishen Das, 40 All, 93: 15 All. L.J., 886; 43 Ind Cas. 179.

[But according to the Calcutta High Court the value of partition suit is the value of the entire property sought to be partitioned and ten rupees are paid as stamp as the subject-matter is incapable of valuation; it does not appear how it is capable of valuation when a cross objection is filed. The above ruling, therefore, cannot apply to Calcutta High Court ]

Cross objection as to possession—A memorandum of cross objection claiming possession of property should be stamped advolorum on the value of the property and is not to be stamped according to section 7, para v. Bishen Sohoi v. Chholey Lel, 1925 A.I.R. 119 (AIL) 85 TC 270:22 AII L.J. 911: 47 AII. 89.

Note.—The notifications of the Government of India reducing fees would also apply to cross objections unless those notifications specially mention plaints or memoranda of appeal

Deficiency of court-fees in cross objection filed in the lower Court—The High Court has an inherent power to realise deficiency of court-fees in cross objection filed by respondent in the lower appellate Court, on appeal preferred by one of the defendants only, even if the appellant to the High Court may not object to that part of the decree of the lower appellate Court which disallowed his cross objection although the Court had not before it the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, Rasik Behary Pal Chowdhury v. Hriday Narain, (1922) Pat, C.W.N. 162; I.L.R. I Patna 471; 66 Ind. Cas 769.

Note.—The memorandum of cross objection would be a document within the meaning of sections 4, 6 and 28 of the Court Fees Act, and therefore section 28 of the Court Fees Act would be applicable.

Objections to findings.—In a case where the decree was in favour of the defendant, and upon an appeal being filed by the plaintiff against that decree, the defendant filed objections to certain findings in the judgment against him and paid a court-fee of 8 annas, held, that the court-fee was sufficient in as much as the objections were not cross objections within the meaning of Order 41. Rule 22 of the Code of Civil Procedure and what the respondent was seeking to do was to support the judgment of the lower Court, Bhajan Lal v. Chal:at Rai, 15 All LJ. 325: 39 Ind Cas 279

Sch. I, Art. 1:] DECREE WITH A CONDITION

Where the decree of the lower Court is entirely in favour of the respondents and it totally dismissed the suit by the plaintiff, the respondents could support the decree on any ground they like, and if with that purpose they filed a petition stating grounds upon which they supported the decree, that is not a cross objection for which an ad valorem court-fee is payable, Ram Prosad Kalwar v Musst Aignasia, 44 All 577. 68 Ind Cas 861.

Petition by a respondent criticising the judgment is not a cross objection and hence not liable to stamp duty. Shahdeo Nath Deo v. Kusum, ILR 1 Pat. 258 See also Damodar Prosad v Masudan Singh, 105 I C 108

A memorandum of objection filed under Order 41, Rule 26, C. P. C is not an application, therefore no court-fees need be paid, Mahammad Salimullah Khan v Khalil-ur-Rahaman Khan, (1932) 54 All 465: 1932 A L J 149: 140 I C 47 · 1930 A J R 526 (Á11)

Decree.-Where a decree is obtained against a firm and execution is refused as against the alleged partner, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fee under Art 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act In such cases Art 11 of Schedule II does not apply, Valiappa Chetty v Rangaswamy Naicker, 8 L.B.R. 300 35 Ind Cas 429

Decree with a condition -Where a decree awards possession on condition that the plaintiff to pay all the encumbrances on the property, and the plaintiff appealed against that part of the decree which required him to pay the encumbrance, the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal must be ad valorem on the amount of such encumbrances. Kishen Dutt v Kasi Pandey, 5 Pat L.J. 455. 1 Pat L.T. 738 57 Ind Cas 481, Basdeo Ram v Sri Krishna Gir, 13 OC 62 5 Ind. Cas

The plaintiff obtained a decree for possession conditional upon the payment of a certain sum of money and on his failure to pay that sum, the decree would be null and void. If the plaintiff files an appeal against the condition, he must stamp his memorandum appeal with a court-fee calculated upon the sum decreed by the last Court, Pirbhu v Soudagar, 33 PR 1884.

In a suit for possession of an area of land mortgaged by the predecessor-in-title without payment of any sum, the lower appellate Court decreed the sust on condition that the plaintiff can obtain possession after payment of Rs 967 to the defendant in possession. On appeal to the High Court by the plaintiff-appellant, counsel for the respondent raised the question of court-fees. The High Court held, "the rehef sought being the removal of this condition precedent, court-fees must be paid on the amount so fixed" and followed the decision of Wadhawa Singh. v. Sunder Singh, 59 Ind Cas. 607: 21 P.I.R. 1921; Tikkan Ram. v. Box Ram. 67 Ind Cas. 607: 21 P.I.R. 1921; See also Ragha Sha v. a Charge declared by the lower Court to be on the property, the memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee ad valorem on the charge declared, Thorn Mal v Chandra Ram, 11 P.R. 1916: 59 P.W.R 1916 Thus is also the case in case of appeals by transferees on the ground that the property having been alienated before the date of mortgage, it is not liable, Sheoraja v. Where the plaintiff sued for revovery of mortgage money by a sale of two properties but the trial Court ordered that one of the properties be proceeded with first and if the proceeds do not satisfy the decree then the second property be sold held, that as regards the condition the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of rupees 10 plus ad valorem court-fees on the amount disallowed, Ujagar Lal v Mohan Kuar, (1886), 6 All W N 312

Altenation by manager of a joint Hundu family-conditional decree - The plaintiff -- a member of a joint Hindu family-sued for possession of half share of the family property alleging the same to have been improperly alienated by the manager, and the trial Court decreed the suit on condition of the plaintiff paying Rs 12,000 to the alience defendant. The defendant preferred an appeal claiming that the entire suit should have been dismissed in toto, held, that the appellant was bound to pay court-fees only on the value of the lands decreed to the plaintiff, such value to be ascertamed in the manner prescribed by section 7, cl v of the Court Fees Act It was further held that if the plaintiff appealed on the ground that the amount he was ordered to pay, is too large then ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on the amount by which he wants that amount to be reduced, In re Ganapati Butcht, Seethayamma, 47 M L J 919 85 I C 405 · 48 Mad 652 . 21 L.W 15: 1925 AIR 323 (M)

The plant in a suit by a reversioner to prevent the holder of an inalienable estate, which the then holder is about to alienate requires ad valorem court-fees to be paid on it, although the court-fees payable would be Rs. 10 when the suit is instituted after the death of the holder. Pratop Singh v. Nanhelal and others, 110 IC 163. 1928 A I.R. 243 (Nag.)

Conditional-redemptian -In a suit for the redemption of a mortgage the plaintiff obtained a decree for redemption conditional upon payment by him of a sum fixed in the decree. The plaintiff appealed upon the ground that such sum was in excess by a specified amount of the sum rightly payable by him for redemption Held, that the court-fees payable on memorandum of appeal are to be calculated upon the amount which the appellant claims to be deducted from the decree and not as in the case of redemption, according to the principal sum secured by the mortgage, Nepal Rai v. Devi Prosad, (1905), 25 All. W.N. 40: 27 All 447: 2 All L. J 105 Where in a foreclosure suit a decree was passed in favour of the plaintiff conditional upon his payment of rupees 5,914, 6 annas 5 pies and if the plaintiff-appellant wants to get rid of the condition imposed upon him by the trial Court he must pay court-fees ad valorem on the amount he is ordered to pay, Ban Lal v Goverdhan Singh, 31 All. 265: 6 A L. J 155: 1 Ind Cas 100, see also Mot: Begum v. Har Prasad, 16 All L.J 81. 47 Ind Cas 311 (claim for dower charged upon property) but in Ragha Sha v Wajib Ali Shah and athers, 50 Ind Cas 353, the Oudh Judicial Commissioner's Court held that the court-fees payable in a suit for possession, is under section 7, paragarph v although the lower Court may have allowed possession in case the defendants fail to redeem.

Two preliminary decrees - The Court of 1st instance in a suit for redemption passed in effect two decrees. It first passed a decree declaring the plaintiff's right to redeem, which was denied by the defendants and against which the defendants filed an appeal and then while the appeal was pending, a second preliminary decree was passed deciding the amount for which redemotion might take place Against that decree the defendant also appealed Held, that the two appeals are not to be regarded as separate appeals for the purpose of assessing court-fees but should be counted as one as there is no warrant for the procedure adopted by the lower Court in embodying in the form of a decree its decision on the question of the plaintiff's title to redeem Court should have gone on to ascertain the amount due and then, and not till then, have passed its decree and the public are not to be penalized for no fault of theirs to pay court-fees twice over. Lalta Prosad v. Sheoraj Sinha, 39 Ali 452: 15 A.L.J. 464. See contra, Raja Peary Mohan v Manohar in 27 CW N. 989 (991, 992): 38 CL J. 255: 74 LC 373, where the Calcutta High Court held, that if after passing of a preliminary decree where accounts were ordered to be taken, a further order is passed by the Court determining the period for which accounts are to be taken, such order is also a preliminary decree.

Appeal against the final decree during the pendency of the appeal against the preliminary decree.—The plaintiff valued the relief for recovery of land at Rs. 1,020 and of the meane profits antecedent to the suit at Rs. 4,199-8 and obtained a decree. The defendants appealed to the High Court and valued their appeal at Rs. 5,219-8 and paid court-tees ad valorem on the memorandum of appeal. During the pendency of this appeal the proceedings for the assessment of mesus profits were carried on and the mesuse profits assessed at Rs. 2,570-110 pies. The defendants wanted to prefer an appeal against this decree assessing the meane profits and the High Court held that they cannot be called upon to pay court-fees upon the difference between the original claim and subsequent assessment, Kanchan Mandar v. Kanul Pragad, 16 CL 1, 564. 15 I C 572

A suit for account was approximately valued at Rs 1,000 and preliminary decree was passed and appeal was preferred against the preliminary decree on the approximate valuation During the pendency of the appeal from the preliminary decree as final decree was passed decreeing Rs 6,000 as due. The court-fees payable on the memorandium of appeal from the final decree are to be assessed on the amount decreed in the final decree less the amount deereed in the final decree less the amount decreed in the preliminary decree. The fact that the plaintiff will have to pay additional court-fees on the increased amount does not releve the defendant-appellants from paying court-fees. Art 17 of the second schedule would not apply as the appellant seeks to set aside a definite amount decreed, Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v. Radha Raman Sikdar, 33 CW.N. 743. 1929 AIR 815 (Cal.)

Where full ad valorem court-fees were paid on the memorandum of appeal on the appeal against the preliminary decree in suit for redemption, the memorandum of appeal against the final decree need only bear a court-fee of Rs 2, Bhuddu Rain V. Niamat Rai and others, 1923 A I R 632 (Lahore) 1 L.R. 4 Lahore 406 6 L.L. 17 C.

The plaintiff sued for possession with mesne profits. He valued the land at Rs. 775 and approximately valued mesne profits at Rs. 4,693-8-3. The sunt was decreed for possession and mesne profits were ordered to be ascertained. An appeal was preferred to the High Court on winch full court—fees were paid. The appeal was disumissed by the High Court. The mesne profits were then ascertained and found to be Rs. 1,604-10-3. The defendant appealed to the District Judge and on the dismissal of his appeal preferred a second appeal to the High Court. The High Court said. "The appellant has paid the court-fee, and in fact more than the court-fee payable on the amount of the decree for the mesne profits against which he appeals, and I can see no reason why he should be required.

to pay again. When he first appealed, the amount of mesne profits had not been ascertained but had only been ordered to be ascertained The fee was paid on the amount at which the plaintiff estimated the mesne profits This turns out to be much more than the mesne profits actually awarded Therefore the appellant has really paid more than the decree that has now been made against him would have necessitated. There is a further reason against requiring the appellant to pay an additional court-fee on the memorandum of appeal before the District Judge The appeal was incompetent. The District Judge had no jurisdiction as the appeal lay to the High Court," Ram Mander v Maharani Nowlakhbati, I L R 3 Pat 815 1924 Pat C.W.N. 206: 79 Ind Cas 908: 1924 AIR 694 (Patna) (In this case the memorandum of appeal to the District Judge bore only a court-fee of eight annas, hence the question of court-fees arose). Appeals against preliminary and final decrees.-Section 97 of the Code of Civil Procedure (V of 1908) does not prevent a party from filing a combined appeal against a preliminary and a final decree, if the dates permit him to do so . . . . "we will permit the appellant to have a reasonable time to combine such objection, if any, he may have against the final decree in this appeal, of course, the court-fees, such as may be necessary, will have to be paid" Per Scott, C J, in Balwant Sing Ram Chandra v Sakharam Mancharam, 18 Bom LR 80 (note); 33 IC. 137; Kanchan Mandar v Kamala Prosad, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 Ind Cas 572; Dottatraya Ramchandra Savale v. Ajmuddin Fakruddin, 18 Bom L.R. 76 33 I.C. 146, where the system of filing appeals against preliminary decrees after the final decree was passed, was deprecated as an attempt to evade payment of stamp duty (but in this case the amount of the peliminary decree was lower than that of the final decree). There the defendant-appellant filed an appeal against the preliminary decree on a stamp of rupees ten after the passing of a final decree for a higher amount See also Khanhaiya Lal v. Tribeni Sahu, 36 All. 532: 12 A L J 876: 24 1 C 827

A party who has paid ad valorem court-fees in an appeal from the preliminary decree in a suit for accounts on the valuation made in the plaint, need not pay the same court-fees over again in the appeal from the final decree in that suit but need only pay ad valorem court-fees on any excess amount found to be due. The appeal art will not be entitled to deduction, if felies the appeal after the disposal of the appeal from the preliminary decree, Supputhayammal, In re, 62 M L J 62: 55 Mad 664: 35 LW. 621: 1932 M W. The defendant in a suit for accounts may prefer a single combined appeal against the preliminary and the final decrees if the dates permit him to do so, but in determining whether the appeal is to be regarded as an appeal against the preliminary or a final decree or against both, the dates of the decrees and the valuation of the appeal are more material than the grounds of the appeal, Damodar Padhana v Haribandhu Patnaick, 14 L.W. 389: 1921 M.W.N. 558 70 Ind. Cas 392 (Madras)

Where an appeal was pending from the preliminary decree it was not necessary for the mortgagee to file another appeal from the final decree Therefore the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal from the final decree were ordered to be refunded, Swam: Dayal v Muhammad Sher Khan, 1925 A.I.R. 39 (Oudh) 88 IC 829 11 O.L.J 148 See also Nanibala Dasi and another v Ichhamoyee Dasi and others, 40 CLJ. 291. 84 IC 674: 1925 AIR 218 (Cal), where the memoradum of appeal against preliminary decree in a suit on a mortgage bond was allowed to be amended and the appeal to be converted into a combined appeal both against preliminary and final decrees See also Kulada Prasad v Ramanand, 25 C.W N 776 33 CL J. 414

Separate appeals by individual appellants when they could have preferred joint appeal -When two out of a larger number of defendants against all of whom a decree for a certain sum had been passed, elected to present two entirely distinct and separate appeals though they were entitled to file a joint appeal, held, there is no provision of law which would exempt the memorandum of appeal filed at the later date, from also bearing, as the other did, the full ad valorem court-fee payable, Panna Lal v Marwar Bank, Ld of Hissar, 91 PR 1918 48 Ind Cas 424 Where two defendants filed two separate appeals from a decree in a suit for redemption, against orders of Court allowing redemption on payment to each of the defendants a moiety of the mortgage money, held, that each appeal should be stamped ad valorem on the amount under section 7, paragraph 9 of the Court Fees Act, Umar Khan v Mahomed Khan, 10 Bom 41

But the Court Fees Act does not provide for consolidation of appeal. If, therefore, there were two appeals in the same suit, and then one party files two second appeals one against each decree in the first appeal, the appellant will have to pay the full court-fee on each of the appeals, Shib Dayal v. Meherban, 43 All 56 18 All L J 894: 58 Ind Cas 230 The High Court said: "It is a pity that one appeal cannot be filed as it seems." unjust to make a man pay double court-fees because under law it is necessary for him to file two separate appeals."

Dower.—In a suit for recovery of property in the possession of a Muhammadan lady, the defendant (the lady) pleaded Ist, that the plaintiff had no title, and 2nd, that she is not entitled to a decree for possession without payment to the defendant of Rupees 8,000 the amount of decree due to the defendant. The Court of first instance decreed the suit for possession, holding that payment of the defendant's dower, whatever it might amount to, was not a condition precedent to the plaintiff's obtaining a decree. The defendant appealed, paying court-fees on the value of the property; on a reference by the taxing officer as to whether she was not liable to pay court-fees on Rupees 8,000 as well, held, that the subject-matter in dispute in the appeal was the property of which possession is sought and the court-fee paid was sufficient Mr. Justice Tubdall said: "In my view it seemed to me impossible to hold that the amount or value of the subject-matter of the appeal is anything more than the value of the property which the plannif is seeking to recover and which the defendant is seeking to the seeking the seeking the seeking the seeking the seeking the seeking the Ejectment and mesne profits.—A memorandum of appeal from a decree directing an ejectment and awarding mesne profits is chargeable with court-fees calculated both on the land and on the mesne profits allowed, which are the subject-matter of anpeal, Brahmayay a Lashmunoraym. 16 Mad 310.

Foreclosure.—See under redemption and under section (ix) See the case of Jagatdhar Naram v Brown, 33 Cal. 1133: 10 CWN 1010 4 CLJ 121 which says the valuation must be on the purchase-money in a suit against purchaser of the equity of redemption See Ghastram v. Liladhar, 9 NLR. 86. 20 1.C. 257.

Grounds of appeal going to the root of the whole of the respondent's case.—Where one of several appellants take a ground of appeal, which goes to the root of the respondent's case, and which it successful, would deprive the respondent of his decree as a whole and not merely of his interest in it quod the particular appellant, the appellate Court is justified in refusing to hear the appeal on such grount as aforesad unless he pays a court-fee sufficient to cover the whole relief obtainable on such grounds of appeal, Bujhawan Rai v. Mukund Lal, 15 All 112: 12 All.W.N. 248

Limitation —Where the plea of limitation involves dismissal of suit and the appellant fails to pay the court-fees on the entire claim within the period prescribed for an appeal, the appellant Court cannot give him the advantage of limitation, as the law is, that where a suit ought to be dismissed in 1010 as time barred, the defendant must appeal on the whole and not on any particular portion of it, Hukum Singh v. Shahab Din, 14 P.W.R. 1918, 44 Ind Cas 890

Misjounder—When the plaintiff brought one suit for sale upon several mortgages against several defendants and a decree was passed in their favour, some of the defendants who were liable to pay a part only of the decretal amount appealed on the ground that the suit is bad for misjoinder of parties. Held, this ground went to the root of the whole of the respondent's case and ad valorem court-fee on the entire decree was payable, Dilwor Husain v Bhagteat Das, 4 All.L.J. 130 (1907) 27 All. WN 63

Hypothecation.—Where the trial Court in a suit on a hypothecation bond exonerated the 2nd defendant but passed a decree against the 1st defendant for the whole amount, held that the plaintiff in appealing against the decree with a view to make the 2nd defendant who was made the sole respondent, liable, must stamp the memorandum ad valorem on the amount sought to be recovered. Ramassam v. Subbussami. 13 Mad 508.

Instalment decree.—When the lower court ordered that the decretal amount be paid in three instalments, held that the court-fees should be calculated upon the difference between the amount claimed in the court below and the sum of the present values of the three instalments payable on the dates mentioned in the decree reckoning interest at the rate allowed, Lukhun Chunder Ash v Khoda Buksh Mondul, 19 Cal 272

The memorandum of an appeal by the decree-holder from a decree for money allowing payment by instalments, must be stamped on the difference between the amount claimed in appeal and the amount decreed and also on the difference to the appellant between getting his money on the date of the decree under appeal and getting it by instalments as ordered, Lala Govind Lal v Rao Baldeo Singh, 12 PWR 1914 226 PLR 1914 24 Ind Cas 931 But if the decree be, that on the defendant furnishing security the decretal amount will be payable by instalments then the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten under Article 17, clause vi. Schedule 11 of the Court Fees Act as the subject-matter cannot be valued because all that they ask is that they may be allowed to satisfy the debt in a particular way, Beharilal v Seth Nanhe Lal, 14 CPLR 172 latterest.—No additional stamp is required on account of claims for interest from the date of institution of the suit until payment, Vithal Hari Athrole v. Vasudev Thosar, 18 Bom 41, the reason being none are payable for future mesne profits; but in Dwarka v Devendra, 33 Cal 1232, it has been held that there is no analogy between future mesne profits and future interest, the latter being penal in its nature and is no part of the claim or relief granted as in the case of mesne profits. The proper court-fees payable on memorandum of appeal claiming interest up to the realization of mortgage money is rupees ten under Art 17 (vi) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Bhawani Prasad v. Kutubunnissa Bih, 27 All. 559: 2 All LJ. 363: 25 (1905) A.W.N 84; Rom Buijhawan v. Natho Ram, 1922 Pat C.W.N 59: 3 P.L.T 146, 70 Ind Cas. 483.

Interest during the pendency of suit—The appellant is not hable to pay court-fees on the amount of interest from the date of grace up to the date of the hearing of the appeal, Bhagawii Prashad Singh v. Bishun Narain, (1922) Pat. C.W.N. 73: 6 P.L.I. 767-63 P.L.T. 31.

"When a mortgage suit is dismissed the plaintiff is entitled to value his appeal at the sum claimed in the plaint in respect of principal and interest up to the date of filing the plaint and is not bound to value the future interest which he may claim from the date of the suit up to the date of realisation or to pay court-fees thereon, but if any future interest is determined by the trial Court and is entered in the decree then the plaintiff on appeal by the defendant, is bound to pay additional courtees on the sum of interest is added in the decree as having accrued from the date of suit up to the date of preparation of the decree in the lower Court," Kail Prasad Singh and others v Mathiura Singh and others, 77 Ind Cas 1054: 1923 A.I.R. 28 (Patna).

Where a suit on a mortgage bond was dismissed by the trial Court, the plaintiff cannot be required to pay additional duty on any amount in excess of the amount claimed in the plaint by reason of the fact that additional interest has accrued due during the pendency of the suit in the trial Court; but it might be otherwise when the defendant appeals, Sadhu Saran Raiv. Lala Barhamado. Lal and auother, 8 P LT 355: 103 LC. 592: 1927 A I R. 230 (Patna), Debi Lal v. Gossain Kolashar. 105 I C. 395: 1928 A I R. S6 (Patna): 5 P.L.T. 548. Thekan Chaudhuri v Lachmi Narain, 14 Patna 4: 15 P.L.T. 548: 152 LC. 244: 1934 A I.R. S71 (Patna), S.B.

A claim for interest pendante lite disallowed by the trial Court, is a part of the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute. Therefore, ad valorem court-fees on the amount of the interest claimed are payable, Damodar Pershad, S2 All. 1029: 1931 A. J. 233: 131 I. C. 253: 1931 A. I.R. 351 (All): 1931 I.R. 365 (All.). See also Bhagshah v. Labha Mal and others, 1933 A. I.R. 941 (Lah): 148 I C 213

Future interest.—Although future interest is not to be taken into account, still in all appeals from original decrees, the court-fee is to be calculated on the sum due at the date of passing the original decree and in all second appeals it should be levied on the sum at the date of the decree of the lower appellate Court and in all cross-objections when these can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and the decree, it is at that amount at which appeals or cross-objection are to be valued, Rawlins v Lechmi Rarain Jha, 3 P L J 443: (1918) Pat. CWN 264: 44 Ind Cas 50, Bhagweit Frasad Singh, Bishun Pragash Narain, 6 P L J 676: 1922 Pat CWN 73 3 P L.T 310; Raghitbir Prasad v Shanker Bux Singh, 36 All. 40: 11 A L J, 1016, 21 Ind Cas 723.

In appeals relating to future interest, the proper court-fee is an ad radorem fee on the amount of interest claimed up to the date of presentation of appeal, Gabardhon Das v. Narendra Bahadur Singh, 22 OC 1: 50 Ind Cas 798

In an appeal from a decree awarding future interest, the interst accruing subsequent to suit need not be included, Srinivas Row v Ramaswam Chetti, 10 M L J 144 Sec also Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad 267: 16 M L.J. 287

Ad valorem court-fees are payable on interest decreed up to the date fixed for redemption, Valiram v Karachi Bank, 23 SLR 277: 104 I C 391 1927 A I R 251 (Sind)

Where the appellate Court awarded additional interest over and above the sum awarded by the trial Court, held, that the memorandum of appeal ought to bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of interest awarded, Janunia Roi v Ramitahal Rant, L R. 1 Pat 19: 1922 Pat CW N 387 77 Ind Cas 1039

In an appeal from an order in execution of a decree where future interest is awarded the memorandum is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fees on the amount calculated on the difference between the amount awarded under the decree (on which court fees were paid) and the amount claimed in the appellate Court up to the date of the appellate decree, Tarapada Milter v. Ram Jagadamba, 5 Pat L.J. 235; (the arguments proceeded upon the grounds that s. 47 (2) is entirely new, but subsequent Notification No. 1872] published in Calcutta Gazette, dated 1st June, 1921, speaks of section 47 instead of section 244 (c), consequently this decision has now no force, so far as Bengal is concerned.) Interest on mesne profits -In Mithoo Lal v Musst. Chameli, 1934 ALJ. 957 · 150 IC 653: 1934 A.I.R. 805 (All), it was held that court-fees on interest accruing due between the date of suit and the date of the decree, need not be paid.

Inter-pleader suit.-In an appeal from a decision in an inter-pleader suit in respect of money, the court-fee payable is rupees ten under Article 17, clause vi of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and not an ad valorem fee calculated under section 7 (vi) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Brij Narain v. Landlord and tenant.-See also under "Landlord and Tenant" subra The perpetual (mourashi) character of the plaintiff's lease under which the claim was having been disallowed, an appeal was preferred to have it declared that the lease was perpetual Held, as the value of the claim would be the difference in the value of the land as held under a mourashi tenure at a fixed rent or an ordinary tenure at a fluctuating rent, and as this might be an extremely difficult calculation, the stamp upon the memorandum of appeal would be properly fixed according to the valuation put by the appellant upon the subject-matter of the claim, Kebal Ram Mundal v. Where a suit is decreed against defendant by the lower Court, that he do pay to the plaintiff rent for certain (Fash) years at the rate of 21/2 per cent on the gross revenue of the zemindary and the determination of the amount was reserved for execution proceedings, an appeal from that decree is capable of being valued and the appellant is to value the appeal under section 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 4 M.L. A landlord defendant appealing from a decree by the lower appellate Court, awarding possession to the disputed land to the tenant plaintiff, against the landlord and also one of the two tenant defendants, the claim against the other tenant defendant having abated, cannot claim in second appeal that he is only to pay court-fee as on an appeal from a declaration only, because the plaintiff tenant will in that case be his tenant and therefore question of possession does not arise, Haladhar Pal Choudhury v. Sheikh Mongal Reja, 34 C.W N. 217: 126 I C. 777: 1930 A I.R. 793 (Cal.).

A memorandum of objection against a decree of the first appellate Court declaring that a distraint is valid only to the extent of Rs. 2,000 and odd and in which no question was raised that went to the root of the whole matter and thus render the Appeal for declaration of a lien.—Where the mortgagee appeals on the ground that the lien be declared, the valuation for the purpose of stamp in such appeal would be with reference to the value of the lien and not to the value of the mortgaged properties, Mahomed Sheerun Khan v Koondan Lal, Agra F.B. 158

Mesne profits.—In an appeal from a decree directing ejectment and mense profits, the court-fee should be calculated on the land and on the mense profits, both being subject-matter of the appeal, Brahmayya v Lakshmi Narasimhom, 16 Mad 310 And improvements by tenant are not to be taken into account, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 23 Mad 84

Where a decree allows mesne profits and directs inquiry to be made subsequent to the institution of the suit and a final decree is passed in accordance with Order 20, Rule 12, CPC, an appeal against such a decree is chargeable under Art. A suit for recovery of possession of land and mesne profits which was valued at the value of the land plus the amount of antecedent mesne profits was decreed in its entirety, but the Court did not ascertain the amount of mesne profits. Where a suit for possession with mesne profits was decreed and an appeal preferred to the High Court on payment of full court-fees and afterwards on investigation as to the amount of meane profits it was found to be much less than the amount in further appeal to the High Court an objection was raised that the memorandum of appeal to the High Court should have been stamped ad valorem, held, that full court-fees having been paid on the appeal to the High Court the memorandum of appeal to the District Judge was sufficiently stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, Ram Mandar v Maharani Nowlakhbati. Where mesne profits are directed to be ascertained in a separate proceeding -A memorandum of appeal against a decree ordering possession of the property in suit and declaring that the amount of mesne profits to be ascertained in a future proceeding, is to bear court-fees on the whole decree at the same amount at which the subject-matter was valued by the plaintiff in the lower Court including the approximate valuation for mesne profits, Deonandan Misra v Ganga Prasad. 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 313: 1929 A.I.R 731 (Patna); Nand Kumar Singh v. Appeal as to period for which messue profits are payable— The amount of court-fees payable on an appeal against an order about the period for which messue profits had been decreed, is not an ad valorem fee on the amount of messue profits claimed in appeal, but the court-fee will be payable when messue profits have been ascertained, Lala Jagdip Sahay v Khajurs Sahu, 108 I.C. 801: 9 Pat LT 657

Valuation of appeal -See under sec. 11 of this Act

Where some of the defendants appeal -A preliminary decree in a suit for mesne profits was passed against all the defendants Some of the defendants appealed adopting a valuation calculated on the proportion which the area held by them bore to the total area from which the plaintiff was dispossessed. Then a final decree was passeed against all the defendants jointly after the commissioner submitted his report Those defendants who had filed an appeal against the preliminary decree, then filed an appeal against the final decree valuing the relief in the same way as they did in the appeal from the preliminary decree. The High Court held that as the final decree was passed against all the defendants jointly, court-fees ad valorem on the entire amount of the final decree and not on the proportionate part should be paid as the liability of the defendants cannot be split up and apportioned The High Court proceeded to lay down where a definite value is placed in the plaint on the mense profit claimed and the suit decreed, the defendant appealing from the decree must pay court-fees calculated ad valorem on the value of the mesne profits claimed in the plaint, whether the suit is only for mesne profits, or whether the claim for recovery of mesne profits accompanies a claim for recovery of land' An appeal differs from a mere application for mesne profits and a memorandum of appeal from a decree awarding mesne profits is liable to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees on the amount in dispute under Art I, Sch I of the Court Fees Act, Dhanukhari Prasad Pardey v Ramadhikary Missir, 12 Patna ISS: 13 P L T 810 142 IC 617 · 1933 A I R 81 (Patna) See also Sideshwari Prasad Ram Kumar, 14 PLT 180. 1933 AIR 234 (P) 144 IC. 684. 12 Patna 694, where it was also held that ad valorem court-fees are payable on the amount for which the appellant sought to avoid liability or on the amount by which he sought to enhance the deductal amount as in such a case the subjectmatter of appeal falls within Sch I, Art 1 of the Court Fees Acı

Money appeals against defendants exonerated.—The plaintiff sued for money several persons as defendants but obtained a decree against only one of them, and then appealed against other defendants on the ground that the decree should have been passed aginst all of them jointly. Held, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valors no the amount of the decree under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and not with a stamp of Rupees Ten, Amurchand v. Mitakshara joint family—If the sons in a joint family governed by Mitakshara Law of inheritance appeal against a mortgage decree obtained against them and their father, on the ground that the mortgage and the decree are not binding against them as the debt was tainted with immortality and their shares are not liable to be sold, they need only pay court-fees on the valuation of their share of the property or the amount of the mortgage-decree whichever is less, Saranapani Ayyangar v Pichu Ayyar, 1931 A I R 710 (Mad) 135 I C 11 1932 I R 43 (Mad) 43 (Mad)

Separate liabilities of different properties.—Where the decree oppealed against declares separate liabilities of different properties.—In a suit for sale on a mortgage, a decree was passed declaring separate habilities of the different properties mortgaged. One of the defendants whose property was held liable for specific simi of money appealed, held that the proper court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal was a fee calculated on the sum of money for which the defendant's property was held liable and not one calculated on the full amount of the decree. In the reason given in the judgment it was said, "if they succeed in this appeal, it is only those properties which will be released from the operation of the decree and it is only those sums which the decree-holder will lose." Where the question whether the properties are liable to sold for the decretal amount and where liability of some c mortgaged properties is in question—Where in an appeal the amount decreed is not in dispute but the appellant disputes the liability of certain properties to be sold for the mortgage decree, and claims that the sub-judge should have held that the mortgage was not operative and binding against the appealing defendants so far as their shares in the mortgaged properties were concerned, the High Court held that the memorandum of appeal ought to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorent on the value of these properties, Jugal Pershad v. Parbhu Narain, 37 Cal. 914; 8 I.C. 1145; Pandatt Sukh Nandan v. Lachman Prosand. 17 OC 90: 24 Ind Cas. 286

If the subject-matter of the appeal be whether certain properties are liable to be sold for the decretal amount and there is no dispute as to the amount in claim, then the court-fee is to be paid on the debt not exceeding the value of the property, Venkappa v Narasimha, 10 Mad 187; Kesavarappin Rose Krishna Reddi v Kottakota Reddi, 30 Mad 96: 16 M.L.J. 458: 1 M.L.T. 311 FB; Tharu Mal v Chandan Ram, 11 P.R. 1916: 59 P.W.R. 1916: 33 Ind. Cas. 138.

Where the appellant's appeal was against so much of the decree as rendered his property liable and sought that his property should be released from the effects of the decree, the proper stamp to be paid was an ad vulorem fee on the value of the property not exceeding the value of the decree, Atma Singh v Nathu Mal and others, 96 I C 473 1926 A LR. 408 (Lah): LLR. 7 Lah 216: 27 P.LR 412 8 LLJ 319.

When the dispute is not as regards the amount due but the defendant-appellants say that they are not personally liable and they dispute the liability of the properties held by them for the decretal amount, held that court-fees ad valorent must be paid on the memorandum of appeal, calculated on the value of the properties sought to be exonerated, Madho Ray v. A memorandum of appeal seeking to exclude the property in dispute in appeal from hability to sale under the mortgage decree requires to be stamped of valorem on the valuation. A fixed fee as in a suit for declaration is insufficient. It is the value of the debt or the value of the property, whichever is less that determines the value of the relief in appeal for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, Punjaji v. Pre-emption.-See under section 7, paragraph vi. Where in an appeal, the appellants ask the Court to reduce the amount payable by them under the decree appealed against, by a certain figure, that sum represents the value of the subject-matter of the appeal and it is upon that sum that they must pay ad valorem court-fees as specified in Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, but if the appellants pray that the plaintiff is not entitled to the land in suit, court-fee to be affixed to the memorandum of appeal is to be computed in accordance with the provisions of section 7, paragraph 6 of the Court Fees Act, Warvam Singh v. Mahtab Singh, 19 Ind. Cas 961 FB .: 240 P.L.R. 1913: 141 P.W.R 1913: 76 P.R 1913. Five villages were transferred by means of one sale deed, the consideration set forth in the deed being Rupees 44,000. In respect of this transaction 2 suit for pre-emption was brought, but the plaintiff alleged that the true consideration was Rupees 2,500 only. As to two of the villages the suit was decreed, on payment of Rupees 21,000 which was found to be proportional part of Rupees 44,000 the value for all the villages; as to the other three villages the suit was dismissed. The plaintiff appealed (a) as to the price to be paid for those two villages in respect of which the decree was in his favour and (b) in respect of the disallowance of his claim to pre-empt the other three villages. A question having arisen as to the proper court-fees payable in this appeal, it was held, that the appeal being divisible into two clear and distinct parts, in respect of part (a) the appellant should pay ad valarem court fees on the difference between 21-44 of Rupees 2,500 and Rupees 21,000, while in respect of (b) the appellant should to section 7 (vi) of the Court

Priority—A plaintiff brought a suit to recover money due on a mortgage bond by sale of the mortgaged properties; it was also prayed that as defendant No. 3 had a 'deed of conditional sale reciting a mortgage prior to the plaintiff's mortgage, the property might be sold subject to defendant No. 3's mortgage or that he might be given an opportunity to redeem 'The suit was decreed and the property was ordered to be sold subject to the mortgage of defendant No. 3. The plaintiff appealed against the latter part of the decree, praying for its modification, 'Dy removing the condition as to priority to the deed of defendant No. 3 and its redemption, by the appellate Court.' He valued the appeal for the purposes of jurisdiction at Rupces 1,400 the amount of defendant No. 3's mortgage, but he paid a court-fee of rupees ten only for the declaratory relief that defendant No 3's bond had no priority of charge over his own. Held, that the telef sought was not declaratory, but sought to obtain an order that the property be sold free of the hen declared by the trial Court; and that, therefore of valorom court-fees must be paid on the value of the hen which it was sought to destroy, Premsukh Das v Shah Gopi Saran, 4 Pat.L. Procedure in case of claim for improvements in a redemption.—When a redemption is allowed and the price of redemption is fixed and an application is made to add to that sum the price of improvement made on the property by the applicant, who is a purchaser of the property without notice of the mortgage, the way to get it done is not by way of review said about the matter in either Court. The proper course is to make a demand on the opposite party for one of the alternative mentioned in sec 51 of the Transfer of Property Aet, and if he refuses the demand can be enforced by a suit. As for the courtfees on the application for review, the review sought is measured by the value of the improvement made on the property by the applicant and is not a relief of which it is not possible to estimate

Rejection of plaint.—Duty of Appeal Court—The plaintiff brought a suit for declaration of title to and recovery of possession of certain immoveable property. He valued his suit for the purpose of court-fees at Rs. 60 and paid court-fees ad valorom on that valuation. The defendant raised a question that the suit has been undervalued and that the court-fee paid was insufficient. The trial Court enquired into the matter and found that the true value of the land in suit should be assessed at Rs. 9,905 and gave the plaintiff an opportunity of paying the deficit court-fees. The plaintiff defaulted and the result was that the plaint was rejected under Order 7, Rule 11, C. P. C. The plaintiff appealed against that order to the District Judge and valued his appeal at the same value as he put upon the original plaint and questioned the finding of the trial Judge as to the value of the suit. The learned District Judge disposed of the appeal saying "as the memorandum of appeal is insufficiently stamped it is rejected." On the second appeal the High Court held, it is clear that the District Judge did not go into the question of true value of the properties in suit for the purpose of court-fees and without coming to a finding upon the question he could not hold that the memorandum was insufficiently stamped and remanded the case for a trial of the question as to what the true value of the property in suit is and what the court-fee upon that finding should be, Amarta Lal Kumar v Sirir Kumar Basin, 87 LC 651: 1926 A.I.R 427 (Calcutta) (N.B.—In this case the same fee was paid on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court as was paid in the lat Court.)

A memorandum of appeal from a decree rejecting a plaint for non-payment of defect court-fees which the plaintiff was ordered to pay is not liable to be stamped with ad valorem Court fees as the appeal is against the decree and not against the judgment and also as the decree does not contain any directions ordering the plaintiff to make good the deficiency in court-fees but merely dismisses the plaintiff's suit with costs. The plaintiff is entitled to contest the finding as to court-fees and the fact that no grounds have been added challenging the demand for court-fees is not material. Jai Protop Naram Singh v. An order rejecting a plaint is a decree and a memorandum of appeal against the decree must be stamped in the same way as the plaint; and the plaintiff should be given an opportunity to pay the deficit court-fee on the memorandum of appeal, Munshi Mahton v Lachman Lal, 10 Pat L.T. 545: 120 I.C. 765: 1929 A.I.R. 615 (Patna).

Specific performance.-Where the plaintiff sued for specific performance of a contract by landlord to grant a lease of some lands at an annual rental of Rs. 32 but the valuation for the purpose for jurisdiction was made at Rs 1,200. Held, that the memorandum of second appeal was correctly stamped with fees ad valorent calculated on Rs 32 under sec. 7, para (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees consequently should be Rs. 32, Sailendra Nath Mitra v Ram Chandra Pal, 25 CW.N. 768: 34 C L I 94 · 66 Ind Cas 268

Set-off.-A written statement containing a set-off must be stamped as a plaint in a suit, Amir Zama v Nathu Mal, 8 All 396 (1886) A.W.N. 159, Bay Shri Majtrajbaj v. Narotan Horgovan, 13 Bom 672, Chenappa v Raghunath. 15 Mad. 29: 1 M L I 598

Ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on the amount claimed as set-off even if that amount exceeds the claim of the plaintiff made in the plaint, Chhakkan Lal v. Kanhaiya Lal, 45 All 218: 20 All L.J 1005: 69 Ind Cas 921: (1923) A I R 118 (Allahabad), Budhoo Lal v Mewa Lal, 19 A L I 558 43 All 564: 63 Ind Cas 15 F B

A plea of set-off is quite different from a plea of payment and should not be entertained without payment of proper courtfees in respect of it by the defendant, Muhammad Raza V

Kubura Bibi, 15 Ind Cas 526

Where in a written statement the defendant pleaded a setoff, within the meaning of Article 1, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act but omitted to pay the requisite court-fees, the Court can either go into the question of set-off, or make an order for payment of additional court-fees, as no court-fees at all have been paid, Mathu Emlapta Pillay v. Vunuku Thathayya Maistry, 36 Ind. Cas. 957.

When a set-off is pleaded, court-fee is payable only on the amount claimed in excess of that claimed in the plaint by the plaintiff and only if the defendant wants a decree for that excess, Ramnagir v Achheram, 1927 A.I.R 74 (Nagpore): 97

I.C. 916.

Equitable set-off.

In T S. Siterama Ayar v. G. Ramaniya Mudalar, 1933 A.I.R. 203 (M): 142 I.C. 719 the Madras High Court held "there is nothing to show that the set-off mentioned in this article is confined only to legal set-off coming under Order 8, Rule 6, C P. C. Prima face the expression 'set-off' used in this article may well night include an equitable set-off." Therefore, a claim by way of damages in the written statement in a suit on a pro-note is liable to duty. See Laksimanan Chettiar v. Ramanathan Chettiar, 58 Mad 338, 68 ML, J. 23: 1935 MW N 24: 41 I, W 27: 1935 A.IR. 115 (Mad) 154 IC 432

Set off and counter claim

The words 'set-off' and 'counter claim' are not defined in the Court Fees Act but they have a definite meaning attached to them. They refer to a cross claim against the plaintiff which entitles the defendant to refuse to pay the amount demanded by the plaintiff and to assert that the result of setting off the cross claim of the defendant would be that the defendant would on the contrary be entitled to a decree for the balance, Wal Mahamed v. Khoja I smaiha Trading Co., 1933. A J R. 247 (Sind): 150 J C. 464.

What is a sel-off*—See Order 8, Rules 6 and 7, C. P. C. See Malacish Narani v. Newbol Paluk, 32 Cal 564, 1 CL. J. 364. Where it was held that for certain purposes the set-off has the same effects as a plaint in a cross suit. See also Guice v. Jinanta Ram, 10 CW N. 199, Blagatstinah v. Debi Dyal, 85 P. R. 1908. 130 P.L. R. 1908. 80 P.W. R. 1908, where it was held that if the claim be not an ascertained amount and the defendant dais not ask for a decree but merely claims that he is contilled to get certain stims arising out of the same transaction and that his claim may be set-off against the claim of the plaintiff, such claim does not require court-fee. See coutra, Pakir Claimfor & Gisborne & Co., 8 CW N. 175, Subramania v. Authuckanni, 17 M.L. J. 481

What is not a set-off —In a sust for account and to resover the amount found due on taking unsettled accounts in a dissolved parinership, the defendants channed that some money to be ascertained on taking accounts, is due from the planning to them and prayed that they might get that amount, expressing their willingness to pay court-fee on any sum awarded to them. Held, that the defendant's claim is neither a set-off nor a counter claim, so is not liable to pay court-fee under Art. I, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act, and the defendants cannot be compelled to value their claim or to pay court-fees under section 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act, Fatch Mahomed Hap Sulleman v. K. S. Romjan, Khan, 8 S. I., 122, 27 Ind. Cas. 316

In a suit for accounts in a dissolved partnership busines-

the plaintiff sued to recover the money due to the plaintiff; the defendant pleaded that money will be found due to him, held, that no court-fee is payable as the defendant's claim is not a counter-claim but merely a statement that something is likely to happen if accounts are taken, Jessoram Dhauuram v. Jasardas, 8 S L R 124: 27 Ind. Cas. 320.

In a contribution suit if the defendant claim that the previous payments by him should be taken into consideration, such sums are not strictly speaking a matter of set-off, Gogui Chand v Hurunohun, 12 Č L R. 539.

Under section 108 (1) of the Transfer of Property Act, the deduction the lessee is authorized to make for the expenses of repairs from the rent as it becomes due, is in the nature of payments to the landlord and does not bear the character of a set-off, Katie Graham v. Colonial Govt. of British Gninea, 12 C.I. J. 351.

Valuation of a set-off—There is no reason why the protsions of the Court Fees Act should not apply to the Valuation of the set-off for the purposes of court-fees, D. S. Albraham & Co v Ebrahim, 1925 A I R 65 (R): 84 I C 971: 2 Ran. 462

Assessment of fees

The court-fees are payable on the whole amount claimed and not on the difference between the set-off and the amount claimed in the plaint, Chakkan Laf v. Kanhaya Laf, 45 Al 218: 69 I C 9211 1923 A I R 118 (All ); Jugal Kishore v. Bankey Behari, (1934) 16 P.L. T. 76: 1935 A I R 110 (Pat).

Counter-claim—If the defendant do not put forward any counter-claim but is making various claim as to items in the partition account to be taken in the suit, then he cannot be asked to pay court-fees on those terms, Balgis Beevi Annual v. Hathiya Beevi Annual, 1932 A 18 253 (Mad): 147 1C 300

Garnishee.—The equity arising from the cross debt could be set-off by the defendant without payment of court-fees. Tayabali Gulam Hossem v Atmaram Sakharam Vani, 16 Bom

Proviso.—Maximum court-fee leviable on plaints, and memorandum of appeal, is Rs. 3,000 under this proviso, Kashi Prasad Singh v. Secretary of State for India, 29 Cal. 140 The rule laid down in section 17 of the Court Fees Act regarding multifanous suits is subject to the proviso at the end of Art. I, Schedule 1 of that Act, and the maximum fee leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in such a suit is under that proviso Rs. 3,000, Raghobir Singh v. Dharam Kuar, 3 All. 108 F.B. The Court Fees Act does not authorize the recovery of any sum by way of court-fees in excess of Rs. 3,000. The proviso to Art. 1 of Sch. I refers only to the maximum fee leviable on a plaint or a memorandum of appeal, and leaves out any reference to a written statement pleading a set off or counterclaim, but there is nothing in the Act to suggest that there is any fee in excess of Rs. 3,000 and there is no authority for charging a larger sum on a written statement than that fixed as maximum in Schedule I which is simply headed as 'ad valorem fees' and the table of reference applies to the whole schedule and not in particular to Article I which is the only article which makes any proviso indicating that there is a different maximum for the fees leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal from those leviable on a written statement. There is no reason for confining the words of the proviso to a plaint or a memorandum of appeal but the words may apply equally to a written statement claiming a set-off, (Raqa) Mahomed Munitaz Ali v Muhammad Saadat Ali, 5 Luck 621: 7 OWN, 147 125 I.C. 172: 1930 A.I.R. 140 (Oudh); 1930 I.R. 300 (Oudh)

Application.—Neither Art 4 nor Art 5 of Schedule I of the Court l'ees Act refers to an interlocutory order; it is clear from the language of these articles that they refer to orders ending in decrees, Iagannath Prosad v Mulchand, 31 All. 261; G All LJ 151-1 Ind Cas 999 Sec also DeSouca v. The Secretary of State for India, 1892 P J 383 For other cases see under sections 14 and 15 of this Act, supra Application for new trial—The application for review does not include new trial application in a Small Cause Court suit in the muffasil, Gopinath Ray v. Ram Joy, 14 W.R. 249 See also Chotelal v. Bulakidas, 7 Bom H.C.R. 109.

Application under section 151, C. P. C.—No application, far less any with court-fees as on an application for review need be filed under section 151, C. P. C, Probhas Kumar Ganguli v, Nithar Lal Ganguli, 28 C.W.N 928-1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.).

Leviable.—The word "leviable" seems to have been used instead of the word "levied" in order to provide, for an application for review by a defendant or respondent in the case of a suit in forma paiperis, In the matter of Maqbul Ahmed, 31 All 294 (300): 6 All.L.J. 215: 1 Ind. Cas. 209.

The words "levable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal" in Art 5 of the Court Fees Act mean "leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal" in which the judgment, review of which is asked for, was passed and cannot be construed to mean "leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal" asking for the same relief as that asked for in the application for review. Application for review must, therefore, bear court-fees without reference to the relief asked for in the application for review, Nageshar Saha v. Sham Bahadur, 74 Ind Cas 255: 1924 A.I.R. 108 (Oudh): 11 O.L. J. 339.

The word "leviable" in Arts 4 and 5 has reference to the time when the plaint or memorandum of appeal was presented As the application relates back to the plaint or memorandum of appeal, as the case may be, the fee is levied in a fixed proportion independent of the scope of the application for review. Nathilal Agrani v Jogendra Chandra Dutta, 28 CWN, 403 39 CLJ 222 (225, 225): 82 I C 297: 1924 ALIR 83 (Cal) The High Court heard an application for review on half court-fees, although the time had expired and held that the payment of full court-fees and then an immediate order for return of half is an idle formality, Novrang v Janardan, 39 CLJ 344: 80 I C. 794: 1924 ALIR, 994 (Cal)

The word 'leviable' does not mean 'levied', A A R. Chettyar Firm v. Daw Htoo and others, 11 Rang. 120: 146 I.C 560: 1933 A.I.R. 203 (Rang.).

Plaint.—The word 'plaint' in the 3rd column means nothing else than the plaint which was actually filed and which has resulted in the judgment which is sought to be reviewed. It does not mean an imaginary plant which might be filed at the time of the filing of the application for review and asking for the same relief as in the application for review. Therefore half the court-fees originally paid on the original plaint, are to be paid even if the application for review relates to a small portion of the relief asked for in the plaint, Satya Kripal Bannerjee V Satya Bikash Bannerjee, 57 Cal. 679: 129 IC 191, 193 ALR 631 (Cal.): 1931 IR 143 (Cal.) followed in Ibrahim Ali V. Alisan Hussain and others, 142 IC. 416 (Nag.): 1933 ALR 207 (Nag.): 1933 IR 118 (Nag.).

Date of the Decree.—See Order 20, Rule 7, C. P. C. The decree shall bear the date when the judgment was pronounced, etc. See Nouvang v. Janardan, (1923) 39 C.I. J. 344 80 I C 794. 1924 A J R 994 (Cal)

Computation of time.—Sundays and holidays are not to be excluded in computing the time of 90 days, Sayera Bibi v Bhutnath Haldar, 15 CLJ 505 15 Ind Cas 455. In re Kota, 9 Mad 134

The time for presenting an application is 90 days from the date of signing the decree although no copy is required to be filed and the time for obtaining the copy is to be excluded, Gangodhar v Shekhar Bashini, 20 CWN 967 24 C.L.J 235; Kalipada v Sekhar, 35 1 C 348

Time for copying of 89 days, Jugat Pal

302. Rulau Mal v S. Zemindary & Co v Dayarda Nath Bhowmuck, 96 I C 437. See for other cases under section 14 of this Act Application for review filed after 90 days must bear full court-fees, Hari Lal Ram Dhan v Mussammut Gairaban, 7 C P L R 111

Presentation —The presentation to the Stamp Reporter was presentation within the meaning of Arts 4 and 5 of Sch I to the Court Fees Act, Nouvrang v Janardan, 39 CL J 344: 1924 AIR 994 (Cal) 80 IC 794

Fee payable ofter omendments—If after the memorandum of appeal has been filed, the Court Fees Act was amended which required enhanced fees, the court-fees on an application for review of judgment in that appeal, filed after the amendment has come into force, are to be assessed at the old rate before the amendments Northfold Agrams J. C. Dutt and others, 28 C.W.N. 403 39 CL. 1 222 82 IC 297: 1924 A.J.R. SSI. (Cal.).

But In re Punya Nohako and others, 50 Mad 488; 52 ML, J 128, 100 LC 72: 1927 AJR, 360 (Mad.) the Madras High Court held that when the application for review is filed after the amended Act has come into operation, then the courtees should be calculated as if the application for review was a plaint or a memorandum of appeal for the relief sought for and presented on that date.

An application for review is to be stamped with half the fee (when within 90 days from the date of judgment) payable on the memorandum of appeal at the time the appeal was filed, although the scale of fees may have increased when the application for review was presented. The application for review is to be stamped on the entire value of the suit and not merely on the value of the relief sought for in the review. The policy of the Legislature is to put a clog on the possible mala fide application for review, Satya Krigal Bannerjee v. Review as to costs—A suit being decided in favour of the plaintiff, one of the defendants filed an application for review as to costs only and stamped his petition of review on the entire amount of costs. The Munsiff ordered that stamp on the entire value of the suit should be paid and on the failure of the petitioner to comply with the order, rejected the petition. The petitioner moved the High Court, held, that the decision of the Munsiff was right, Nobinchandra Chuckerbuty v. Mohamed Uzir Ali Sarker, 3 CWN 292 Contra, see A A Rehetyar Firm v. Fraudulent petition .- Application for review filed to set aside fraudulent solenama - Where an application was field to set aside an order passed on a fraudulent vakalatnama and a frudulent petition of compromise, the High Court held that in such case, the Court had an inherent jurisdiction summarily to set aside the order passed and as such, no court-fees as on an application for review, is necessary, Peary Chowdhury v. Sanoe Das. 19 CWN 419 27 IC 628

Fraud as to terms in the compromise -In J. C Gaulstonn v Kumar Pramatha Nath Ray, 33 CWN 883, the Calcutta High Court held that ad valorem court-fees are necessary in an application for review on the ground of fraud by insertion of the word "whole" in place of the word "balance"

Local Amendment.-This Article has been amended in Bengal, Bombay, Bihar and Orissa and U P

The Indian Stamp Act now in force is Act II of 1899. Act I of 1879 has been repealed

See now the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (2 of 1899), section 42 Copies of entries from account books relied on by the plaintiff are kept with the record when such account books are returned to him under section 141 (Order 13, Rule 4) of the Code of Civil Procedure. When so furnished they are not certified "by or by order of any public officer" and are not stamped but the question having arisen when the Court clerk subsequently certified the copies as to their having been compared and found correct, held, that the originals not having been chargeable under the Stamp Act, no court-fees can be levied by reason of the certificate, Hari Chand v Iwna Subhana, 11 Bom. 526

A copy or an extract from an entry in an account book filed under section 141A, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) does not require to be stamped under Art. 24, Sch I of the Stamp Act, Kastur v. Fakiria, 26 Bom 522: 4 Bom LR. 223; see also Nandu Bai v. Gou, 27 Born. 150: 4 Born L. R 591

Article 8 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act is intended to authorize the levy of a fee of 8 annas only in cases where the original which is withdrawn, is liable to stamp duty Where a document which is not required by law to be placed on the record is presented for verification and then returned to the holder, it cannot be said to be "withdrawn" within the meaning of Article 8, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act. Local Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bengal, Bombay. Bihar and Orissa, Madras, C P and UP.

For the amendment of rates see the Amending Acts for each Province, infra (I have attempted to indicate the changes in one place but the particular statute for each province must be consulted).

Application.—Art 11 applies only to those cases when the duty is payable on the amount or value of the property in respect of which Probate or Letters of Administration shall be granted, if the amount or value of such property exceeds Rs 1,000 (by the present Amendment Act., Rs 2,000 in Bengal) In the goods of Abdul Acts, 33 Cal 577

Valuation.—In cases not governed by the Indian Succession Act, Probate and Letters of Adomustration granted by the High Court of Bombay in respect of Hindus, Mahomedans and others not usually designated as British subjects take effect only for the purpose of recovering debts and securing debtors paying the same and probate duty is payable on the amount of such debts. Collector of Multan, (1931) 12 Lahore 584: 32 P.L.R. 393 1931 A.I.R. 310 (Lah.): 135 I.C. 60, the executor in his application for probate stated the value of the entire estate likely to come into his hands at Rs. 8,000 but on opposition being offered compromised the case with the opponents and valued the estate at Rs 3,270 being the sum he will be entitled to recover The executor then offered to pay court-fees on Rs 3,270 only. The Lahore High Court held that the intention of the Legislature was to lay down a general rule that grant of probate should be made for the whole estate of a deceased person, although in certain circumstances the Court would be justified in limiting the grant to a specific portion of the estate Although the other executors named in the will have realized a portion of the assets of the testator, the executor who applies for probate would on being granted the probate of the will would be entitled to deal with the whole of the estate and the mere fact that he has allowed other persons to retain and administer money recovered by them before the grant would not entitle him to evade the duty (Court-fees on the entitre value as at first submitted was ordered to be paid.) The High Court proceeded to draw a distinction between issue of letters of administration in the case of an instessacy and the case of a probate of a will or grant of letters of administration with a copy of the will annexed. In the former case the deceased having died intestate, his estate has to be distributed by an administrator in accordance with such rules as may apply to the particular individual In other cases the estate has to be du

Under see 3, cl. (2) of the Provident Funds Act (Act XIX of 1925) the money vests in the dependant of the subscriber or depositor and where the dependant is the widow or child of the subscriber or depositor, without being subject to any rights of an assignee under an assignment made before the commencement of the Act, such money or deposit is not liable to duty, The Secretary of State for India in Council v Mrs. Mary Murray, 33 CWN, 1148: 1930 AIR 252 (Cal): 123 I C 646

Private funds (Railway fund)—"See 3, sub-see (2) of the Provident Funds Act (Act XIX of 1925) enacts that the sum shall vest in the dependant and shall be free from attachment for any debt or other hability etc. From this it is clear that so far as the Government or Railway Provident Funds are concerned, the money vests in the dependant which term is defined in sec. 2 and is also free from debts contracted before the death of the depositor The question may arise whether such sum vests also in the nominee in respect of deposits in Government or Railway Provident Funds, because clause (3), sub-sec-(2) carefully confines the operation of that section to the case of dependants. It is true that sec. 4 enacts that the officer whose duty it is to make the payment shall pay the sum or the balance if the subscriber is dead to the dependant, or to a nominee, etc But sub-sec (2) of that section shows that the object of that section is merely to enable such officer to make the pay ment and to keep the Government or the Railway free from all liability in respect of the sum paid" A sum of money in a private provident fund cannot be deemed to vest in the nominee or the widow or the children of the depositor. Therefore a nominee or dependant can only take by succession the estate of the deceased and such deposit is, therefore, not exempt from paying the court-fee when application is made for Letters of Administration to the estate of the deceased subscriber or depositor, In the matter of Mrs' Hamilton King, (1928) 6 Ran 558: 116 I.C. 467: 1928 A.I.R. 312 (Ran).

A married sister is not dependant within s. 2 (c) of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 but an unmarried sister is. Local Amendments.—This Schedule has been admended in Bengal by B C Act IV of 1922, in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922, in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932 and in Bihar and Orissa by B and O Act I of 1922; in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended, in U P by U P Amendment Act III of 1932 and in C P by C P Amendment Act XVI of 1935

Assistance of Collector in Ejecting a Raiyat.—An application for the assistance of a Collector in ejecting a raiyat need only be stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, Pyari Mohan v Kinu Bewa, 2 B L R 226

Award.—The proper court-fee upon an application to file an award under section 525, C.P.C. (Sch. II, Rule 20, C.P.C.) is that prescribed for applications Bijadhur v. Manohur, 10 Cal 11: 13 C.I.R. 171, Lala Dharam Das v. Ajudhia Pershad, 70 P.R. 1881

Objections to an award.—Written objection to an award is indubtably a document filed in Court. Such a document is nothing more or nothing less than an application to the Court to set aside an award on certain specified grounds. It, therefore, falls within the proviso of Art 1 (b) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act and prima facie, it cannot be filed or exhibited or made use of m any manner unless the prescribed fee, of eight annas is paid on it. When a written application is filed it must be stamped. It clearly does not fall within the exceptions provided by s. 19 of the Court Fees Act which inter also exempt a written statement in a pending suit but makes no mention whatsoever of written objections to an award, Jadamoli v. Janualter, 23 S.L.R. 91: 107 LC. 223: 1928 A.I.R.

Civil Procedure Code.—Section 115 is for Bengal Amendment only For section 115 see Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908)

Sanction to prosecute—Applications against orders under section 476 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by a Cail Court, come under section 115 of the Code of Cril Procedure, Har Prasad Das v. The Emperor, 40 Cal 477–17 C.W. N. 647; 19. LC. 197–17 C.L. J. 647 F. B. (the order of reference excluded consideration of section 195 of the Criminal Procedure Code; but applications against orders under section 195 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by a Civil Court do not come under section 115 of the Code of Cril Procedure as under that section a superior court has power to set aside an order by the inferior court passed under that section). Budhu Lal v. Chattin Gope, 43 Cal 597. 36 1 C. 472; 17 Cr.L.J. 504 (The same case in appeal in 44 Cal 804), Salig Rom v. Romji Lal, 28 All. 554; 3 Al. J. 394; See contro, Deputy Legal Remembrance of B. & O., Rom Udar Singh, 19 C.W.N. 447; 21 C.L.J. 198; 28 IC. 334. Bem Prasad v. Sarju Prasad 33 All 512; 9 I.C. 892.

Copy—application for.—An application to the High Court for certified copies of the decree and judgment may be made on a stamp of one anna, Tierif Biswer Pelitioner, 7 W.R. 455 See also rules of the High Court (Calcutta), Appellate Side. The fee has been now raised to two annas. The amount of court-fee stamps on application for copy is determined by the rules of each High Court.

An application to an Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax for a copy of an order passed by him, is to be stamped (under the Patna Amendment Act) with a court-fee of two annas under paragraph 5 of Art. 1 (a) of Seh. II of the Court Fees Act, Basant Lal Ramgidas v. Commissioner of Income Tax, Bhar and Orissa, 11 Patns 40: 136 I.C. 302: 1932 A.I.R. 103 (Pat): 1932 IR 78 (Patna).

Divorce.—A prayer for divorce by a mehomedan wife cannot be granted on an application bearing a court-fee of 12 annas and presented to the District Judge as Kazi The procedure is to file a suit, Kabii Gazi v. Madari Bibi 57 CLJ. 106: 1933 ALR 630 (Cal).

Information to Court.—A document which is merely a petition to the court informing it of an agreement into which the parties had orally entered out of court to compromise a suit and praying for a decree in the terms of the compromuse, does not require to be engrossed upon a general stamp paper but only requires the ordinary court-fee of eight annas under Schedule II,

Art. 1, Ram Saran Lal v. Emperor, 40 All. 19: 15 A.L. J. 846. See also Reference under Stamp Act. 8 Mad. 15 F.B.

Minors.—A petition under Act IX of 1861 (Act relating to minors) requires a stamp as on a petition. Anonymous, 6 P R. 1873.

Probate.—The stamp requisite for an application for a probate of a will on Letters of Administration is not required to be proportionate to the value of the property involved as such applications come under the provision made in Art. 1, Schedule II of Act VII of 1870, for common applications and petitions, In the matter of Judoonath Sadhoo Khan and others, 15 W.R. 40

Where an application for probate was filed and the opposite party contested the same and on the trial Court deciding the case in favour of petitioners, the opposite party filed an appeal Held, that Art I, Sch II of the Court Fees Act applied and not Art 2 of Sch I; on principle of volorem court-fee should not be levied in such cases, J M Rodriguez v. A M, Mathiat. 9 M 1.T 314: 11 M W N 237 2 I M L J 481: 9 Ind Cas. 538 See also Lee v Hordy, 9 All W.N 27 which was a case under the Succession Act and it was held that a memorandium of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs 2 only. But see Miss Eva Mountstephens v Mr Hunter Gornett Orme, 35 All 48s. 22 Ind Cas. 98, where it was held, that Rs. 10 is payable as court-fees on the memorandium of appeal under Art. 17, clause vi, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act as it is impossible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter of dispute.

Trusts Act.—Petitions (relating to Radd-i-Macalim) under sections 34 and 74 of the Trusts Act are to be stamped under Sch. II Art 1 (d) of the Court Fees Act, Md Sadiq All v. Karim Alı, 11 O.W.N. 323: 150 I.C. 193 1934 AIR 118 (Oudh).

Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended and in Bihar and Orissa and by U P Act III of 1932

In a sunt under section 95 of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1901, to declare the plaintiff's status as an occurpancy tenant, the plaint or memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee of eight annas as provided in Art 5 of Sch II to the Court Fees Act, and section 7 paragraph xi does not apply to such a suit, Ratan Singh, v Khem. Singh, 40 All 338: 16 A L J 167: 44 Ind Cas. 608

Where a suit is brought to eject the defendant as a tenant-at-will, the real object being to defeat the defendant claim to the land as an occupancy rayat, the suit thus being really brought to contest the right of occupancy, the plaint or memoranum of appeal need only be stamped with a court-fee of annas 8, Bibi Nurjohan v Marjan Mundul, 11 C L.R. 91. See also Brahmaya v Lakshimnarasımham, 16 Mad 310.

A suit not coming under this Article in its inception, would not in appeal come under this Article. Haladhar v. Mangal Reja, 34 C.W.N. 217: 126 I.C. 777: 1930 A.I.R. 793 (Cal.).

NOTES.

Change in Law.—This Article is substituted for the old Art 6 by Act XVII of 1914 which contained the words "Bailbond or other instrument of obligation not otherwise provided for by this Art, when given by the direction of any Court or executive authority" by the Probate and Administration Act, 1839 (6 of 1889), section 8 (2).

The words "1908 and not otherwise provided for by this Act" were added by Act VII of 1914, first Schedule.

N B.—The reference to the old Code of Criminal Procedure is altered in accordance with section 3 (1) of Act V of 1898

Note.—By Act VI of 1889 section 18 (4) the words "or by the Court Fees Act, 1870" were added to Art, 15, Schedule I of the Stamp Act, hence double duty may not be payable under the Court Fees Act and the Stamp Act in cases where the instrument of obligation is in pursuance of an order under the Code of Civil Procedure Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932.

Application.—Art. 6, Sch. II to the Court Fees Act of obligation under the Code of Criminal Procedure or under the Code of Criminal Procedure or under the Code of Criminal Procedure or under the Code of Civil Procedure, Cheedella Chenchayya v Amureddi Pichireddi, 100 1 C. 545: 52 M.L.J. 153: 1927 M.W.N. 281: 25 L.W. 246: 1927 A.I.R. 377 (Madras).

For the Court Fees Act to apply, two conditions must be satisfied: (1) the order must be an order passed under the Code of Civil Procedure, and (2) of an order by a Court. Pe M.L.I 466: 41 L.W 482. (Mad.): 155 1 C. 559 F.B

Security for costs of P C appeal - Security bonds for costs of appeal to the Privy Council come under Art. 12, Schedule A, Act X of 1882 (Stamp Act), Sooniharee Koonwar v Ramessur Pandey, 5 W.R. Mis. 47, but this was the old law.

Stay of execution

Where the appellant was ordered to find security for the costs of the respondent in the event of her appeal being dishinged and she in compliance with the above order of the Court file! a security bond stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, kild, as the bond is given under orders of the Court as security by one party for costs of another, it is subject to two duties (a) in ad valorem stamp under the Stamp Act, Art 13, Schedule 1, (b) a court-fee of 8 annas under the Court Fees Act. Art 6 Schedule II. Kulwanta v Mahabir Prasad, 11 All 16 FB (1884, 8 All W N, 281 But security bond given by the appellant for stay of execution under a conditional order of Court staying execution upon the appellant giving security must be stamped under the Stamp Act These are not strictly under orders of a Court as the party may furnish them or not as he pleases, Dwarkanath Dey v. Sailaja Mullick, 21 CWN 1150 43 IC 376, but this case was not approved in 53 Cal 101 F B

A security bond for the production of attached livestock given in accordance with the requirements of the Rules under section 269 of the C P Code of 1882, is a bond given in pursuance of an order made by a Court under a section of the Code of Civil Procedure, within the meaning of Art 6. Schedule Il of the Court Fees Act, the High Court said, "where a bond is given in pursuance of a Rule made under powers conferred by a section of the Code, I think the bond may be said to be given in pursuance of an order made by a Court under a section of the Code of Civil Procedure, that consequently the bond is "otherwise provided for by the Court Fees Act" and that the stamp payable 15 an eight annas stamp under Court Fees Act," Reference under the Court Fees Act, re The District Munsiff of Tirnvallur, 37 Mad 17 (21) 24 M L I 637 20 Ind Cas

A security bond taken on an order for stay of execution must be stamped in accordance with the Stamp Act and cannot be written on plain paper bearing a court-fee of eight annas, Guran Ditta Mal v Firm Gurudasmal Ramchand and others, 1926 A 1 R 552 (Lahore). 91 I C 772 7 L.L.J. 343

mposing only a personal obligation on the surety is chargeable only under the Court Fees Act and not under the Indian Stamp Act, Jawala Mal v. Gian Chand, 14 Lah. 708: 34 P.L.R. 480: 143 IC 12: 1934 A IR 228 (Lah)

A security bond executed by the surety for the stay of execution and due performance of the obligation under the decree, need only be stamped as required by Art. 6, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. The High Court said, "If such a security bond is a personal bond, Art. 6, Sch. II. Court Fees Act alone applies and a court-fee of annas eight is sufficient. If it hypothecates immoveable property, then it must also be stamped under Art. 40, Stamp Act," Muhammad Euway v. Nanch Muon and other, 1929 A I R. 205 (Lah.): 117 I.C. 226.

Bonds under ather provisions of the Cade of Civil Procedure—Where m a certam charn case, the clamant filed a security bond executed by one Yad Ali who agreed to be hable up to Rs 10 m case he failed to produce certain goats which were attached in execution, held, Art. 6 of Sch. Emperor, 34 P.I. R. 132: 141 I C. 301: 1933 A.I. R 89 (Lalu.) 1933 I R 127 (Lahore).

A security bond executed for setting aside an ex parte Small Cause Court decree, need only be stamped under this Article and not under Art. 15 of the Stamp Act, Peda Pitchamma v. Peda Muncyya, 68 M.L.J. 466-41 L.W. 482: 1935 A.I.R. 380 (Mad.): 1935 M.W.N. 57: 155 I.C. 559 F.B.

Blond by a receiver—Where a bond is executed in favour of the Court by the Receiver whereby he bound humself, and mimoceable properties belonging to him were charged for proper discharge of his duties, held, that the bond must be stamped both under the Court Fees Act and under Art 40, Schedule 1 of the Stamp Act as it comes under the definition of a mortgage in section 2 (5) of the Stamp Act and consequently Art 15 is inappheable, Amerikamia V Madalakaram, F B (1920) M.W.W. 246: 43 Mad 363 38 M.L.J. 503, 12 L.W. 537 57 Ind Cas. 184

Where the Code of Civil Procedure does not apply—A security bond taken by a village Court under s 53 of the Madras Village Courts Act for property received which the executant undertook to restore or pay Rs 40, the question as to stamp having arrisen, it was held that under Act 40 of Sch IA of the Indian Stamp Act as amended in Madras the instrument should bear stamp duty as on a Bottomry bond for the amount secured as the Code of Civil Procedure does not apply to village Courts at all and therefore the bond does not fall under Act 6, Sch II of the Court Fees Act, Cheedella Chenchayya v Amireedil Pichireddy, 1927 MWN 281-52 MLJ 153 100 IC 545 25 LW. 246. 1927 Al R 377 (Madras)

Procedure and form.—A security bond must be in favour of a person or assistant officer of a Court "A Court is not a judicial person. It cannot be sued. It cannot take property, and as it cannot take property it cannot assign it."

"The only mode of enforcing it must be by the Court making an order in the suit upon an application to which the sureties are parties, that the property charged be sold, unless before a day named the sureties find the money"

"The new Code of Civil Procedure, that of 1908, provides a special form of security bond to be given during the pendency of an appeal (Appendix G No 3) The form shows that it is intended to be given to some one and not a mere undertaking to the Court, whether that some one should be the other party or the officer of the Court is made clear, but with the form in use it is not likely that the difficulty which surrounds the present case will arise in future," Raj Raghibbr Singh v Jai Indra Bahadur Singh, 1,R 46 1 A 228 42 All 158: 18 A L J 263: 22 Rom L R 521 38 M L J 302 55 I C 550

Consolidation of suits .- Under Art 10, Sch. II, Court Fees Act, a party who engages a pleader has to give a vakalatnama in each case. He cannot give one vakalatnam for two cases because he is the appellant in both, nor can he give one vakalatnama for several cases because he engages only one legal practitioner in all the cases But when the Court allows consolidation, it allows the parties to the appeals to treat the consolidated appeals as one, and that being so, the parties may be allowed to join in one vakalatnama, when they apply to have their appeals consolidated Art. 10, Schedule II, Court Fees Act does not stand in the way, Perumal Nadar and others, 1928 MWN 271: 54 M.L.J. 595: 1928 AIR 463 (Madras): 27 L.W. 366: 109 I.C. 651 but this case was over-ruled in In re Maharaja of Venkatagiri, 53 Mad 248 58 M L J 510: 31 L W. 282 · 123 I C. 203: 1930 I.R. 475 (Mad), F.B. 1930 A.I.R. 376 (Mad ), where it was held that the Court has no inherent power to consolidate appeals in cases disposed of by a single judgment so as to enable the party to pay court-fees on the value of consolidated appeals and file only one vakalatnama, see also Maasa Saleman Saleji v. Amendment.-The word "from an order rejecting a plaint or" were omitted by section 155, (Sch 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908) (Act V of 1908)

The effect of this amendment is that orders rejecting plaints, etc, are now decrees and the appeals are appeals from decrees and not from orders

Local Amendments.-The Article has been amended in Bengal by B C Act IV of 1922 for Bengal, in Bihar and Orissa by B. & O Act I of 1922 and in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922; in Puntab Act VII of 1922 as amended, in U P by U P Act III of 1932 and in C P by C P Act XVI of 1935

Application.-This Article does not apply to an appeal filed against an order refusing execution against an alleged partner of a firm against which the decree was passed as such an order has the force of a decree under Or 21, Rule 50 (3) and the court-fees payable should be ad valorem under Art I, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, Vallappa Chetty v Rungaswamy Naicker, 8 L B R 300 35 Ind Cas 420

This Article applies to petition of second appeal on the appellate side of Bombay Court, Ex parte Desai Kalyanarai Hukumatras, 4 Born HCAC 154

N B -In deciding whether an appeal lies as from an order or as from a decree, the language of the statute is to be considered Thus appeals under the Guardians and Wards Act: the Calcutta Municipal Act, the Workman's Compensation Act; the Lunacy Act are all appeals from orders coming within this Article

Scope.—See the case of In re Ananda Lal Chakrabutty, 59 Cal 128: 35 C.W.N. 1103 under s 8 subra

An appeal from an order rejecting a plaint does not come under this Article as the order is a decree, Ganpat v. Venkatesh, 1935 AIR 83 (Nag) FB

Award.—An application to the High Court to set aside an order of the District Court, reversing an order of a Court of first instance directing an award, made without intervention of Court, to be filed, should be treated as an application for a miscellaneous special appeal Such application may be made on a stamp of the value of two rupees under Art, 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Lakshman Shivaji v. Rama Esu, 8 Bom H CA C 117.

Under the code of 1908, under s 104, C P C, an appeal lies from an award, although a decree may have been drawn up in an arbitration without the intervention of the Court. See also

Article 21 (2) of the second Schedule, C P. C

Award without intervention of Court,—"It cannot be disputed that under cl (f) of sub-section (1) of section 104 of the code, an appeal lies from an order filing or refusing to file an award in an arbitration without the intervention of the Court Such appeal may be preferred at any time within the period prescribed therefor by the Limitation Act."

"The fact that a decree is drawn up on the basis of the judgment which follows the order cannot take away the fight of appeal of the party aggrieved by the order No doubt, the decree cannot be assailed by way of appeal, except on the ground that it is in excess of or not in accordance with the award But this does not justify the inference that as soon as the decree is drawn up, the order which is its foundation becomes merged therein and loses its character as an appealable order," Soudaming Hosh v. Gopd Chandra Ghoshi, 19 C.W. 948: 21 C.I. J. 273: 28 1 C. 557. See also Khetra Nath V. Ushabala. 18 C.W.N. 381: Sabirir v. Promodol, 19 I.C. 941.

Where the appeal is in substance an appeal from an award directing the award to be filed, the right of appeal is not taken away by the fact that a decree has subsequently been passed in accordance with the award.

Under the Code of 1908 an appeal is allowed against an order filing or refusing to file an award but no further appeal is allowed from an order passed on such an application; on the other hand, when an award has been filed and a decree made in accordance with it no appeal lies from such a decree except in so far as it is at variance with the award, Jagat Pande v. Sorwan Pande, 50 All. 128: 25 All L.J. 741: 103 1.C. 314: 1927 A.I.R. 771 (Allahabad).

Sch. II, Art. II.] APPEA

For the purposes of court-fees an appeal from an order under $104 (f) of the Code of Civil Procedure would be governed by Art 11 of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Agya Singh v. Sunder Singh, 9 Lah 380: 107 1C, 756: 1928 A1R 137 (Lahore) See also Ram Jatesqa v Deri Ditta Mal, 117 PR 1916: 70 P.L.R. 1917. 107 P.W.R. 1916: 34 IC, 192.

The memorandum of appeal against an order directing that an award by an arbitrator appointed without the intervention of the Court be filed, need only be stamped with a court-fee Rs 2, Ram .lutar v. Ram Samijh, 6 Luck 703: 9 O.W.N. 800. 1932 A I R. 282 (Oudh). 139 I C 622.

Appeals from orders are specified in s 104 to s 107 and

Order 43 of the present Code of Civil Procedure

Civil Procedure Code.—A memorandum of appeal arising out of an application under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs 2 (Rs 5 under the amended Act for Bengal).

NB-See Notification No 1872 J for Bengal published in Calcutta Gazette, Part I, page 874, dated June 1, 1921, which says that court-fees are to be realized under this article

Lunaey Act.—It is doubtful if an order imposing a fine on a guardian for contumacious conduct has the force of a decree, for the purpose of the Court Fees Act, although the order is executable as a decree, Mohammad Din v Miran Baklish, 36 PLR 179 1934 ALR 853 (Lal.). 150 IC 664

Mesne profits —Appeal as to the amount of hability regarding mesne profits determined in execution comes under section 244 (c), C P C and therefore the memorandum of appeal only requires a court-fee of 2 rupees, Itraj Kunzur v Bacha Madho Kuar, 6 O C 86 But see Order 20, Rule 12, C P C

Order 34, Rule 3.—An order refusing to extend time for payment of the decretal amount in a suit for foreclosure and passing a final decree comes within el (o), Rule 1, Or 43 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Missest Manjari v Surajmal, 111 T C, 294: 1928 A I R 383 (Nag.)

Orders against sureties.—See section 145 of the Code of Civil Procedure (V of 1908) The liability of surety may be enforced in execution against him and he shall, for the purposes of an appeal, be deemed to be party within the meaning of section 47, C. P. C.

Orders passed under section 253, C. P. C. and section 336. C. P. C. refusing applications for execution for amounts decree against sureties not being decrees nor orders having the force of a decree, fall under this Article and ad valorem court-fee is not payable. Lillo Mal v Harn Mal. 72 P.R. 1902.

Order refusing to re-admit appeal dismissed for default.—The stamp for an appeal from an order of an appellate Court refusing to re-admit an appeal, dismissed for default, is one of Rs 2 under clause (b) of this Article, Musst Kanho v Sohd Singh, 10 PR 1883

Order rejecting an application to set aside an ex parte decree.—The memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a two rupees stamp (if to the High Court) as a summons appeal, Parbutty v Gurdharee Lall, 4 W R Misc 15

Order that party had no locus standi in execution case—An appeal from an order of the lower appellate Court, declaring that a party who claimed to be in possession of the property taken in execution of a decree to which he was no party and with which he had no concern, had no locus standi in the execution case, is in the nature of a miscellaneous appeal and should bear court-fees as on an ordinary petition, Mohesh Chandra Bannerjee v. Chunder Monee Dabee, 9 W.R. 139

Remand orders.—An order remanding a case under section 562, C P C (Order 41, Rule 23 of Act V of 1908) is not a decree nor an order having the force of a decree within the meaning of this Article, therefore a memorandum of appeal from such order falls under this Article and not under Art 1. Schedule I of this Act and does not require an ad valorem court-fee, Sadin Mahammad v. Guruschan Rom, 6 P.R. 1839.

But where a suit for possession and viesne profits is decided on the ments but remanded so that some further acts may be carried out, i.e., enquiry into the amount of mesne profits completed, the appeal is an appeal from a decree and not an appeal from the order of remand.

Thus where the lower appellate Court, in a suit for possession and menne profits, decreed the appeal on the ments but remanded the case for determination of mesne profits, held, that the appeal from the decision of the lower appellate Court is an appeal from a decree and the memorandum is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee, Raghunath Das v. Jhari Singh Pat L J 99: 45 Ind Cas. 100. See also Unrao All Khan Albahu Subhan Khan, 5 All.L J. 645: 28 All.W.N. 40 (case of a suit for partition).

Although the appellate Court which ordered the remand had no jurisdiction to pass the order as made under Order 41, Rule 23, nevertheless if the learned judge purported to act under Order 41, Rule 23, he must be taken to have remanded the case under Order 41, Rule 23, Basumat Delv v Tari Basumi Das, 31 CL. J. 354. Mahendra Chakrabarti v Ram Saran Bandopadhyaya, 31 CL. J. 357: Kayem Bixess v Bahadur Khan, 24 CL. J. 22, Radha Krishna v Kamal Basum, 35 CL. J. 345. Mahammad Ah v Karam Ah, 38 C.W. N. 1202. Gakur Prasad Har Prasad v Ram Kumar, 44 All 176, Kulsun-un-Nissa v Rom Prasad, 44 All 492; Chaxdhury Chandrika Singh v Millia Raj, 11. R. 6 Pat. 380

Where the trail court disposed the case finally on the merus but the lower appellate Court remanded the case for rehearing of the whole case, held on appeal by the High Court that as the order of remand as made did not finally determine all or any of the matters in controversy between the parties, it was not a decree within the meaning of $ 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, therefore no appeal lay from the order of remand, Banka Behary Deb > Birendra Nath Datt, 55 Cal 219

Contra.—The order setting aside the decree of the trial court and directing a retinal of the suit with reference to a certain document "is a decree which reverses the decree of the court of first instance and deprives the plantiffs of the valuable rights they have acquired thereunder. The appeal is consequently, competent, not as an appeal from an order under Order 43, Rule 1, sub-rule (u) but as an appeal from a decree under 5 96 of the Code read with see 100", Bhorab Chandra Datt and others v Kali Kannor Datt and others, 37 C.L. J. 491 (492.

Restitution of property—An application for mean privite made not by the planniff but by the defendants squared whom the suit had been dismissed by way of restitution under section 583, C. P. C. (section 144 of Act V of 1908) is one under section 524 (c) of the Code. Such application would be chargeable with court-fees under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Pees Act and not ad valoriem court-fees, Gaingadhar Marwari.

v. Lachman Singh, 11 CLJ 541.6 IC 125

An order under section 144, C. P. C. comes under section 47 (1) of the Code. Clause (6) of the Notification of the Government of India No 4650, dated the 10th September 1889, applies to appeals from such orders, and a court-fee of rupees two is chargeable, Madan Mahan Dey v. Nogendra Nath. Dey, 21 C.W. N. 544, 39.1 C. 640.

An application by the judgment-debtor for compensation under section 144, C. P. C. need only be stamped with a courtee of eight annas, Gabba v. Kanchhedilal, 18. N.L.R. 15: 67. Ind Cas 225 (Nagpur). See also Sayad Honidalli v. Annadalli, 48. Bom. 1137: 23 Bom. LR. 480: 62 LC. 233.

Application for restitution under section 144, C. P. C. are applications in execution, Sudali Mothu Pillai v Sudali Mathu, Pillai and others, 71 Ind Cas 173: 1923 A.I.R. 1270 (Mad) 17 L.W 623, Kurgodigouda v. Ninagangouda, 41 Bom. 625 An application for restitution is an application in execution under the new Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) as under the old Code (Act XIV of 1882), Somasundaram Pillai v. Chokkalingam Pillai, 40 Mad 780

Where mortgaged properties were sold at the instance of mortgagee-decree-holder and a prior mortgagee B was adjudged to be entitled to a share in the sale proceeds in an appeal filed under section 47, C P C, the mortgagee decreeholder then withdrew the amount of the sale proceeds on furnishing security. The prior mortgagee then applied for interest and damages against the heir of the mortgagee-decreeholder B which was allowed, held on appeal that the case falls under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure Therefore the B and O Government Notification No 2576-LA 25 of 1921 directing under section 35 of the Court Fees Act that the fee chargeable on appeals from order under section 47, C. P. C. shall be limited to the amount chargeable under Schedule II, Art 11 of the Court Fees Act applies Therefore the memorandum need only bear a court-fee of Rs 4, Sital Prosad Singh v. Note.—In Madras the question whether an order for restitution is a decree or not does not arise in view of the amendment of this Article by the Madras Amending Act

See Contra.—An order under section 144, C. P. C. is not on an application in execution proceedings but is a decree, hence the memorandum is to be stamped with ad valorem courfees, Baijnath v. Bahnukund, 47 All. 78: 22 A.I. J. 881: 82 1.C. 321: 1925 A.I.R. 137 (All.).

An appeal from an order of restitution under sec. 144. C. P. C. if such an order is not contained in the decree of the appellate Court, is an order which has the force of a decree and, therefore, court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal is to calculated under Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act, Gul uhammad and another v. Sabz Ali Khan, 113 I C 270: 1930 I.R. 24 (Lah.).

An application for restutuon consequent on a decree of appellate Court reversing or modifying the decree appealed ainst is not an application to execute the decree, hence does it come under s 47, C. P. C. Therefore ad valorem court-fees e payable as an appeal from a decree, Manna Ha Manng v. a Hrin Dauk, 8 Rangoon 271: 126 I.C. 211; 1930 A.I.R. 241 Ran.); 1930 I.R. 291 (Ran.)

An order for restitution of the benefit received under a loan embodied in a decree does not come under this Article and the memorandum of appeal is to bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount directed to be restored, Moyna Bibi v Banku Bihary, 6 CW.N. 667

Appeals under Indian Companies Act.—A memorandum of appeal from an order under section 57 of Act VI of 1882 (Indian Companies Act) presented to the High Court must be stamped with court-fee under this Article, Navob of Bella Spinning and Wearing Co, Ltd v Atmaram, (1865) PJ 214

A memorandum of appeal from an order under section 214 of Act VI of 1882 (Indian Companies Act) is to be stamped under this Article, as such an order is not a decree nor an order laving the force of a decree. Reference under section 28 of .1ct VII of 1870, 17 All 238; (1895) 15 All W N 56

Measurement cases.—Petitions of appeals in cases to obtain the order for measurement of lands of tenants may be made on the same stamp as for miscellaneous petitions, Smith v. Nindim Lell, 6 W R (Act X) 13; but see Article 13 which provides for a fee of Rs Ten in Bengal

But if the petitioner values his relief at a certain amount, then the memorandum of appeal must be stamped ad valorem on that amount and not as a miscellaneous appeal, Oma Churn Change in law—Act X of 1859 was repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, (VIII of 1883), see the reprint of the Act as modified up to 31st May, 1907, published by the Government of Bengal, for those portions of the Lower Provinces to which that Act extends and in the Chota Narpur Division (except Manbhum and the Tributary Mahals) by the Chota Narpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, 1879 (En. Act. I of 1879), (see now Ben Act 6 of 1908), Ben. Code Vol II; in the province of Agra by Act 18 of 1873; and in the Central Provinces, by the Central Provinces Act, 1883 (9 of 1883). Central Provinces Code.

Bengal Act 6 of 1862 was repeated by the Bengal Tenant's Act. 1885 (VIII of 1885), so far as it affected those portions of the Lower Provinces to which that Act extended, and in the Chota Nagpur Division (except Manbhum and the Tributar) Malials by the Chota Nagpur Landford and Tenant Procedure Act. 1879 (1 of 1879) (see now Ben Act VI of 1908), Ben Code Vol II.

Bengal Act VIII of 1869 was repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act 1885 (VIII of 1885)

These sections of the old Acts correspond to section 91 of the Bengal Tenancy Act (Act VIII of 1885 B C) and relate to suits by landlords for measurement of lands held by tenants.

General.—The fixed fees prescribed under this Article are provisional and are liable to be supplanted, in case of selected classes of suits, by a court-fee calculated on what the High Court and the Local Government considered to be a reasonable basis of valuation, Gantatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 43 Ind. Cas. 64 (66-67): 15 NLR 24

Art. 17 of the second Schedule was never intended to be applied to a case, where a person, with a definite decree for a particular sum of money against him, seeks to set it aside. The question whether or not a decree is capable of being executed, without payment of a further sum of money by the plaintiff as court-fee, is not a question which affects the method in which the relief in a memorandum of appeal of this character can be valued (The suit was a suit for accounts and the appeal was an appeal from a preliminary decree), Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v Radharaman Sarkar, (1929) 57 Cal 463: 33 C.W.N. 743: 124 1.C 77: 1929 A.I R 815 (Cal).

Claim cases - One Chhatrapat Singh was owner of two pergunnahs He sold those properties for consideration to Bibi Phul Kumari subject to two mortgages. Bibi Phul Kuman cleared those mortgages and remained in possession. Later on Ghanshyam Misra having obtained a money decree against Chhatrapat attached those properties and advertised them for sale in execution of his decree Bibi Phul Kumari (the appellant) objected to the attachment and applied to the Subordinate Judge of Purnea for removal of the attachment, claiming those properties as her own Her claim was rejected She therefore, filed a suit and prayed (a) that the plaintiff's right and possession of the properties be declared (b) that it be declared that the said properties are not hable to be sold in execution of the decree of the defendant (Ghanshyam), and not to execute his said decree against the said properties of the plaintiff. The plaint was stamped with a court-fee of Rs 10 for declaration on prayer (a) and Rs 10 for declaration on prayer (b). The Subordinate Judge dismissed the suit as the plaint was insufficiently stamped and the High Court affirmed the decision (31 Cal. 511).

On appeal the Privy Council reversing the decision of the Court below, held: "Their Lordships, however, are satisfied that there is in the statute no general or over-riding reference to value The terms of sub-section 1 of Article 17 (which they held to apply) contain no reference to value In like manner the class of suits dealing with arbitration awards is coupled with suits such as that immediately in question, awards may be of the value of Rs. 10 or Rs 10,00,000, and yet no distinction is made. In short, the statute, for good reason or bad has dealt with certain actions irrespective of value; and the present is one of them" and their Lordships held that Rs. 10 is sufficient. Phul Kumari v. Attachment.—Valuation.—A suit to set aside an order in a claim case after removing an attachment on declaration of title and for an injunction comes under Sch. II, Art 17, Cl. I of the Court Fees Act. The valuation of a suit for possession arising out of a claim preferred, is to be valued not on the market value of the land but under s 7, paragraph 5 of the Court Fees Act in accordance with the provisions of s 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, Arunuga Mudahar v. Venkatachela Pillai, 64 M L J. 568: 144 I.C. 243: 1933 A.I R 439 (Mad.); Janaki Ammal v. Kuheema Umma, 1935 M.W N. 528: 68 M.L. J. 231: 41 L.W. 626: 1935 A.R. 219 (Mad.).
In Dwarka Das v. Kameshar Prasad, (1894) 17 All. 69 it was held that the valuation is to be at the market value of the land or the decretal amount whichever is less,

Claim case dismissed far default -Art. 17, Clause 1 of the second Schedule includes the case where the claim preferred is dismissed for default and a suit is brought to set aside the decision, Satindra Nath v. Shiba Prasad, 26 C.W.N. 126: (1922) AIR. 166 (Cal).

Clause II.—See cases, under Section 7, paragraph iv (c) of this Act, under heading "Land Registration Act."

Clause III.—Section 42 of the Specific Relief Act runs as follows —"Any person entitled to any legal character, or to any right as to a property, may institute a suit against any person denying, or interested to deny, his title to such character or right, and the Court may, in its discretion make therein a declaration that he is so entitled, and the plaintiff need not in such suit sue for any further relief.

Provided that no Court shall make any declaration where the plaintiff being able to seek further relief than a mere declaration of title, omits to do so Explanation —A trustee of property is a person interested to deny a title adverse to the title of some one who is not in existence, and for whom, if in existence, he would be a trustee.

Illustrations (e) and (f) to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act are not exhaustive of the classes of cases in which a reversioner can sue for a declaration under the section, Y Surayya v. Y Subbamma. 43 Mad. 4.

Section 42 of the Specific Relief Act is not exhaustive of the cases in which declaratory decrees can be made, Veeramacheneni Ramasami v Soma Pitchayya, 43 Mad 410: (1920) M.W.N. 393: 58 Ind Cas 585 See also Robert Fischer v. The Seey of State for India in Council, 22 Mad. 270 P.C.

The proviso to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, forbids a suit for a pure declaration without further relief; but it does not compel a plaintiff to sue for all the reliefs which could possibly be granted or debar him from obtaining a relief which he wants unless at the same time the asks for relief which he does not want. The expression "further relief" in the proviso to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, means "relief in relation to the legal character or rights as to property which the plantific entitled to and whose title to such character or right the defendant denies or is interested to deny; it must also be relief Jaynarain Sen Ukil v. Suchitra Debya, 33 C L J. 592: 26 C W N. 206

The extreme limit of application of proviso to section 42 is indicated in Sardar Singhji v. Ganpat Singhji, 14 Bom. 395 and Srinivasa v. Srinivasa, 16 Mad 31.

The proviso to s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act refers to the position of the plaintiff when he commenced the suit and cannot he treated as taking away a right of suit which had already accrued, Govinda v. Perumdevi, 12 Mad 136.

The proviso to s 42 of the Specific Relief Act is applicable only to such relief as is appropriate to and consequent on the right asserted, Karman v Krishnan, 13 Mad, 324.

Nature of declaratory suits—The nature and history of declaratory suits are discussed in Deokali Koer v. Kedar Nath, 36 Cal. 704 15 Ind Cas 472, 16 CWN 838.

Application.—Art 17, cl m of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act applies only to a memorandum of appeal in a suit to obtain a declaration decree where no consequential relief is prayed, Kindun Lal v Dulichand (1931) 54 All. 347. (1932) A.L.J. 45: 140 I.C 95; 1932 A.I.R. 221 (All.).

Evasion of Stamp duty.—Where the main object of the suit fails, the plaintiff is not entitled to turn round and ask for a declaration, Rutton Monee v Brojo Mohun, 22 W.R. 333.

In Idol Srs Sri Gohnl Nath Jin v. The New Birbhum Coal Co, Ltd, 80 I C. 589: 27 C W.N 972, the lower Court dismissed the sun because the further relief has not been asked for as required by section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, and the Calcutta High Court held on a reference under section 5 of the Court Fees Act: "It is not in the province of the Court to see whether the sun is properly framed, whether the plaintiff is entitled to the declaration asked for, or what would be the effect if the plaintiff succeeds in obtaining a declaration as prayed for.......
The Court has only to see whether it is a memorandum of appeal in a suit to obtain a declaratory decree where no consequential relief has been prayed." The High Court thought it was such a suit.

Attachment—Where the prayer is simply that the property mentioned at the foot of the plaint, is the joint ancestral property of the plaintiff and not liable for attachment and sale nexecution of the decree of defendant No. 4 against defendant No. 1 and for any other relief that the Court might see fit to grant, held, that the sut was one for declaration only and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is sufficient, Gobindo Noth Tewori v. Gofroj Mott, 13 All, 389. See The Maharaja of Pittapurant v. Srichelthoni Venketareayonim Goru, 57 M.I. J. 260: 1929 M.W.N. 608: 30 L.W. 357: 1930 A.I.R. 22 (Mad.): 122 I.C. 526, where it was held that an order declaring a distraint is capable of valuation as no question as to the exact amount of rent was raised, but only question as to the exact amount of rent was raised.

Benami.—A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is the real owner of a decree obtained by the defendants against a third party and praying for the decree to be transferred : plaintiff, is a suit for mere declaration in which no consequent rether is prayed for, and the latter part of the prayer is a ...

surplusage. The plaint in such a suit should bear only a ten rupees stamp, Ganeshi Lal v. Beni Pershad, 47 P.L.R. 1911: 1 P.R. 1911: 22 P.W.R. 1911: 9 Ind Cas. 673.

Bengal Alluvial Lands Act.—The memorandum of appeal from a decree of a Civil Count on a reference by the Collector is to bear a fixed fee of Rs 20 as an appeal from a declaratory decree, Basanta Kumar Biswas v. Prosonna Kumar Guha, 58 Cal 710: 35 C.N.N. 181: 133 I.C. 222: 1952 A.J.R. 47 (Cal): 1931 I.R. 670 (Cal).

Claim for money coupled with a declaration.—Where the plaintiff sued for recovery of money and for a declaration of his right to be first paid out of the sale proceeds of the defendant's property as equitable mortgagee but the trial Court while giving a decree for money refused the declaration sought for, held, that the memorandum of appeal by the plaintiff regarding the declaration sought for but refused need only be stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten only, Simla Bank v. Naripat Rai, 43 PR 1888

Where the plaintiff sued for a declaration that the defendants were lable to pay certain amounts and for the further declaration that the plaintiffs shall be entitled to recover those amounts when he is compelled to pay the same, it is a suit of a declaratory nature without a consequential relief and a court-fee of Rs 10 is sufficient, although the case may not come under section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Sheikh Rafiguddin.

Declarations as regards decrees .- Decree and deeds, null and void -A suit in which the only prayer is to have a decree set aside as null and void is a suit for mere declaration without consequential relief and is governed by Art. 17, clause (iii) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Srimant Sagorfirat v S Smith, 20 Born 736. A suit in which the only prayer is to have it declared that a certain decree is ineffectual and inoperative against the plaintiffs, is a suit for a declaratory decree without consequential relief and falls under Art. 17, clause iii of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Zinnatunnessa Khatun v. Girindra Nath Mukherjee, 30 Cal. 788 This case was followed in Bagala Sundari Debi v. Prosanna Nath Mukherjet, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas 797, where Mr. Justice Fletcher said: "The Court has got to look at and see in each particular case what is the nature of the relief claimed and for that purpose, it must look at the allegations that are contained in the plaint. [In this case the decree sought to be declared as not valid and binding was a purely declaratory decree.] Where the suit is by a person not a party to the bond or the decree, it may properly be regarded as one for declaration only, Arunachallam

Chethy v. Rangaswamy Pillai, 38 Mad. 922 (924): (1925) M.W.N. 118- 28 M.L.J. 117: 17 M.L.T. 154: 28 Ind. Cas. 79 F.B.

Decree based on frond—The plantuff sued for a declaration that a cerain decree heim based on fraud shall not affect his rights and for any other relief which the Court might deem fit to grant. The Subordinate Judge holding that this was a suit for a declaratory, decree with consequential relief, called upon the plantiff to pay ad rulorem court-fees and on his failure to pay, rejected the plant. On this the plaintiff appealed Held, (i) that the suit as brought was one for declaration only; (ii) this suit is not maintainable without a prayer for consequential relief by way of impunction or otherwise, and (iii) that the Court below ought to have allowed the plaintiff an opportunity to amend the plant and to include necessary prayers, Buo Ditta v. Lodha Mol, 2 UP LR 37: 54 Ind Cas, 833

See other cases under s 7, (iv) (c), supra

Controct during minority of plaintiff—A suit by a person for declaration that a certain instrument is invalid, will not necessarily be a suit for declaration with a consequential relief under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act. It will be otherwise where the party cannot impeach the arrangement effected by the deed without having it cancelled In this case the Karar was entered into by the adult members during the minority of the plaintiff A transaction by the Karnavan of a Tarwad is void as against members not consenting thereto, if it is in excess of the powers of the Karnavan for Notoren Noir v. Gopal Menon, 30 Mad 18: 1 M.L.T. 412. See other cases under s. 7 (iv) (c) sutpa.

Where the plaintiff is in possession—Where in a suit to avoid a conveyance the plaintiff alleges that she is still in possession of the property, all that she is required to do is to file a suit for declaration that the deed in favour of the defendant is not her deed, and the court-fee is payable under this clanse, Umarannessa Bibi v Januarannessa Bibi, 37 C.L. 495. Sea also Saburi Pande v. Ramkhelawan Pande, 72 C.L. 495 (Patna) where the property was in the hands of a manager of a lunatic who since died

Appeal for declaration only.—Where a suit was instituted for a declaration with a consequential relief but the suit was decreed for declaration only and the appeal preferred by the defendants for a declaration only as to their rights, held that the appeal falls under Sch. II, Art 17 and was correctly stamped as one for declaration only, Neka Teweri v Kishen Prasad, 3 Pat. 640: 80 1 C 563: 2 P.L.R. 1923: 1924 A.I.R. 58 (Patna)

The plaintiff sued for declaration that he is entitled to receive the charao of Baidyanathji from the successors of the defendant in future and claimed certain amount as having accrued due to him but the trial Court gave him the amount but refused the declaration prayed for, held on appeal by the plaintiff for the declaration that the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped as for declaration, Girijanund v. Sailajonand. 23 Cal 645.

Two declarations—Where the plantiff asked for a declaration and also added a prayer for another declaration which us redundant, then the latter prayer would not convert the sult for declaration into a suit for declaration with a consequential relief, Mahabir Prasad v Shyam Behari Singh, 3 Pat 795: 80 IC. 655: 1925 A I R. 44 (P.).

A plaint for a declaration that the plaintiff was in possession as owner was amended by addition of the word on account of the fact that the decree in the suit . . . is according to suit and void, illegal, ineffectual, it may be declared, etc is a plaint for two declarations and court-fees for two declarations are to be paid, Lakshimi Narain Rai v Dip Narain Rai, 55 All. 274: 1933 Al J 311: 148 I C. 152: 1933 All. R. 350 (All.).

Government grant.—The court-fees payable in respect of a claim to be declared holder of or entitled to an Ayo, i.e., a hereditary right to apply to Government for grants of oil-well sites in certain areas known as "Reserves" and to receive sufsites from Government, is a suit for a declaration as nowhere in the plaint is anything from which it could be inferred that the plaintif is to seek a further relief and has omitted to do so
The plaintiff claimed in the plaint that he has succeeded to Ms
E Kyi's Ayo and that Ma E Kyi could not altenate the enjoy ment of her Ayo beyond her life time. It was pointed out by the High Court that if the plaintiff claims the oil works he would be liable to pay ad veulorem court-fees but such a claim was not in the plaint, Ma Su Turin v. Fatima Bibi and another, 1926
A.I.R. 184 (Rangoon): 98 I.C. 1965: 5 Bur.L.J. 107 (F.B.).

Landlord and tenant.—A suit by the tenant plaintiff for a declaration that he is not liable to pay more than the amount of royalty admitted by him to the defendant landlord, is a suffor declaration without any consequential relief. Such a suit does not fall within cl 1 or cl. (c) or cl. iv (f) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act The value of the subject-matter in dispute will be the capitalised value of the difference between the plaintiff's and the defendant's claims, K Kayyappankutti v. Kalliyab Thouathveetii Qutit. (1924) A IR 621 (Mad.).

An appeal by a landlord from the decree in a suit for commutation of grain rent into money rent on the ground that the rate fixed by the lower Courts was too low falls either under Sch II. Art 17, cl m or under Sch II. Art 17, cl m or under Sch III. Art 17, cl m of the Court Fees Act and must be stamped accordingly. Neither section 7, cl (1) nor cl m (c) of the Act applies to such a case, S P Chinna <math>n V Cerappa Nandu, 46 M  $L_p$  J. 540. (1924) A 1 R. 623 (Mad)

A sunt by a plaintift for declaration of his title to a shop in the possession of a tenant inducted by the original proprietor against a defendant who is not in possession but who only threw obstacles in the way of the plaintiff, is a pure suit for declaration in which no consequential rehef such as possession or injunction need be prayed. Gun Chand v. Bhogicun Singh, 32 P.I. R. 745: 1351 C. 502. 1932 A IR 97 (Lah): 1932 I.R. 102 (Lah).

Joint family property.—In a case where the prayer was:

"That the property detailed below be declared to belong to the joint family and that it be declared and established that the plaintiffs held possession of the said property in partnership with the defendant," the plaint need only be stamped with a courfee of Rs 10, Shitza Ram v Narain Das, (1884) 4 All W.N. 11.

The plaint, in a suit by the son, against his father and his alienees, that the alienations are not binding on him and for his future right to succeed to the zemindary after his father death, requires a court-fee stamp of Rs. 10 only, Narayan v. Muttayan, 7 Mad 134

A suit by a co-pareener of a joint Hindu family for a declaration that a mortgage of joint Hindu family property effected by another coparcener, is not binding on the property mortgaged, is a suit for mere declaration falling under Art. 17, cl in Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Sham Das v. Mahant Churn Das, 1925 A.I.R. 90 (L.): 78 I C 722.

A suit for a declaration that certain alternations by the father of the minor plaintiffs as manager of the joint family as their guardian, are not binding on them, is a suit really one for cancellation; hence falls under section 7 (iv) (a) of the (Madras) Amended Act, and ad valorem court-fees are payable, Alagon Aiyangar v. Sreenizasa Aiyangar, 50 M.L.J. 406: 1926 M.W.N. 777: 1925 A.IR. 1248 (M.): 91 I.C. 709.

Altenation by father—Where the suit was for a declaration that a certain altenation made by the plaintiff's father should not be binding upon the reversionary interest, the plaint is rightly stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10. If in appeal the same prayer is repeated, the mere fact that the suit is decreed on condition of payment of a sum of money, does not alter its nature and the memorandum is to be stamped with the same amount, Harbhaguon v Amar Singh, 83 1.C. 332: 1924 A.I.R. 530 (L.). See also Hazari Singh v. Piran, 29 P.R. 1900.

A prayer in effect for a declaration that the mortgage executed by the father is not binding on the share of the plaintiff (son), is one for declaration without a consequent richef, Secretary of State v. AR. Lakhama, 64 M.L.J. 24: 1938 M.W.N. 144: 141 I.C. 80 37 L.W.: 806: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.)

A suit by a son for a declaration that the mortgage executed by the father in favour of the defendant, is not enforceable and the family property is not saleable in execution of the exparte decree obtained by the defendant mortgagee, is one for declaration and the plant is to be stamped accordingly, Isaan Dayal v. Amha Kunar, 1935 A.I., J. 498

A suit for a declaration that the entire family property in the hands of the defendant as the head of the family belong equally to the plantiff and the defendant No. 1 and they are unaffected by the several deeds executed by certain decase member of the family, is a suit for declaration, Brif Gopal N. Suray Karan, 1932 A.L.J. 466: 141 I.C. 112: 1932 A.L.R. 564 (All.)

Money in Bank.—Where the defendant-appellant does not dispute the amount decreed but filed the appeal in order to set aside the decision that the planntiff alone is entitled to receiv the money, which is lying in a Bank, which the Bank is rest to pay to the rightful owner, a court-fee under Art. 17 (ii) eSch II is sufficient as a mere declaration is sufficient, Mr. Utlants Devi v Dina Nath and another, 1923 A.I.R. 359 (Lahore): 71 Ind Cas. 774

A suit for a declaration to establish the right of the plaints to obtain payment under a cheque negotiated for a valuable consideration, or at any rate for a declaration that the cheque was endorsed to him for valuable consideration, is a suit merely for a declaration as it does not seek to recover money from any of the parties in the suit and cannot end in a decre directing any of the defendants to pay money to the plaints specially when the Bank showed eagerness to pay money in any one establishing his title to get the same, Giridharde Ratenlal v. Palaniefpa Mudali, 1929 A. IR. 572 (Mad.).

Mortgage.—A subsequent mortgagee suing on his mort gage is to pay in respect of a prior mortgage court-fees on the declaration he seeks in respect of the prior mortgage and no on the amount in claim in the prior mortgage, Iswar Dayal v Anna Saheb, 1935 A. L. J. 168: 1935 A. IR. 100 (All.).

Property in the custody of Collector.—Under Court of Wards.—In the plaint the plaintiff distinctly stated that he lay claim to two subjects, i.e., to two kinds of property. First, house in his possession and second, other properties in possession of the Collector, and their value exceeded Rs 50,000. Those properties being in the possession of the Collector it was not necessary for or allowable to the plaintiff to ask for an injunction. He was entitled to ask only for a declaration of title, Shidatyta Venkatarao v. Rachapta Subbarao, 36 Bom 628 (638). 14 Bom 1.R. 757 16 Ind. Cas. 1035, Affirmed on appeal by P.C. in 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W. N. 33: 29 C.L.J. 452.

Effect of orders under sec 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure—An order under section 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has not the effect of actual dispossession of the unsuccessful party. Jhumak Kampti v Debn Lai Singh, 22 C.L.J 415

Under s 146 of the Cade of Criminal Procedure—Suit for declaration of tule to the co-trusteeship of a Chatram without asking for possession after an order of attachment under s 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which was set aside by the High Court, is maintainable and not barred by s 42 of the Specific Rehief Act, Malaiyay Pillai v Thirumalai Perumal Pillai, 21 M L J 1022 Sec also Raja of Venkatagiri v. Isakayilai, 26 Mad 410, where the Madras High Court held that such suit was one for declaration only. Sec also The Administration-General of Bengal v. Bhagwan Chandra Ray, 15 CNN, 758

In Panna Lai Bistus v Panchu Guidat, 26 C.W.N. 432, the Calcutta High Court held: "The suit though framed as a suit for possession of property cannot be treated as such, because possession was not with the defendant but with the Magistrate who is not and cannot be a party to the suit.* ** The possession of the Magistrate, no doubt, was that of a stake-holder and during the continuance of the attachment the property was in legal custody which must be held to be for the benefit of the true owners; ** * * * "The defendant" possession determined upon the Magistrate's taking possession under attachment."

When an order under s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been passed there is no cause of action against the Magistrate as he has acted in the exercise of his statutory powers. The suit must be brought against the rival claimant and as he is not in possession, the suit cannot be one for possession but must be for declaration only, Brojendra Kisore Ray Chaudhurry v. Sarojini Ray and athers, 20 C.W.N. 481; Iurawan Singh v. Rantsarekh Singh, 12 Patna 261: 14 P.L.T. 113: 1933 A I.R. 224 (Pat.).

But see Goswami Ranchod Lalji v. Sri Giridhariaji, 20 All. 120, where the Allahabad High Court thought that the suit is a suit for possession

Code of Criminal Procedure, a person claiming the propened only sue for declaration as the claimants must be conside to be in possession when the suit was instituted. But when Magistrate had interfered with the possession of the defenda because an emergency had arisen and before the suit can filed had ordered that the retention of the sale proceeds vunnecessary, he was holding the same on behalf of the defenda and the defendant-appellant must pay ad valorem fees calcula on the value of the subject-matter in dispute, Sakharan to others v Tukaram and another, 103 I C 351: 1927 A.I.R. Valuation.—In Rachappa Subraa v. Shidappa Penkatarab, 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W N. 33: 17 A.L. J. 418: 25 M.L. J. 298. 21 Bom.L. R. 489: 50 L.C. 280 P.C., the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: "if regard be had to the real as distinct from the imputed value of the property the suit was properly instituted in the Court of the First Class Subordmate Judge and if any part of the fee was payable and paid was a fixed fee under Schedule II of the Act, then the notional value of the property or any part of it could not displace its real value for the purpose of jurisdiction."

A suit for a declaration of the validity of an adoption without any other consequential relief is to be valued under so 12 of the Madras Civil Courts Act on the basis of the market value of the property affected by the sale and not merely of its plaintiff's share or according to the valuation under the Court Fees Act as if it was a suit for possession on declaration of title, sec. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act applies only to particular categories of suits. Section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act will be wholly repealed if rules are framed under sec. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act The High Court proceeded to say: "The general principles deducible for valuation for purposes of jurisdiction where no special method of valuation has been provided by the statute would seem to be (1) that where the subjectmatter of a suit is wholly unrelated to anything which can be readily stated in definite money terms, then the plaintiff having to put some money value for the purpose of jurisdiction, must put a more or less arbitrary value, and there being no factors in the case from which the Court can say his valuation is wrong or dishonest, the Court will accept the valuation and (2) where the subject-matter is so related to things which have a real money value that the relief asked for will affect these, then the value of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is to be taken at the market value of the property," Vasireddi Veeramma v. Butchayya, (1926) 50 Mad 646 52 MLJ 381: 25 LW. 440: 101 I C 379 1927 A 1 R 563 (Mad ); In re Ramaswami Asari, 52 Mad 340 28 LW 660. 113 IC. 363: 1928 AIR 1294 (Mad) The value is to be fixed with reference to the market value of the properties, Nagamma v. Narasimham, 41 LW 469: 68 M L J 329 1935 M W N 144: 1935 A I.R 279 (Mad.).

The valuation of a suit for declaration in respect of alternations by the widow of the last inale holder, is the market value of the property in suit and not a notional value, Dhanabeggianmal v. Mari Ammal, 36 L.W. 483: 1932 M.W.N. 780: 139 I.C. 471: 1932 A.I.R. 67I (Mad.).

Clause IV—Awards.—In suits to set aside summary decisions, as also those dealing with arbitration awards, the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint does not depend on the value of the property, Bibi Phul Kunnari v. Ghanshyam Mister, 35 Cal. 202: 7 C. I. J. 36: 17 M. I., J. 618: 5 All L. J. 10: 10 Bom L. R. 1: 14 Bur. L. R. 41.

A suit to set aside an award by arbitrators is governed by Art. 17, (iv), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act. The valuation should not be arbitrary but actual value of the property in dispute 1s to be given, Verkatachellam Pillai v. P. V. Srinivasa Aiyar, 75 Int Cas. 115: (1924) A.IR. 84 (Madras).

Section 8 of the Court Fees Act being a special provision, relating to awards of compensation under the Land Acquisition Act overrides the general provisions of Art. IV, (iv), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Kesturi Chetty v. Deputy Collector, Bellary, 21 Mad. 269.

A suit for a declaration that an award is invalid and for an injunction, is a suit within section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Tayabally Abdul Hussain v. Messrs. James Finlay and Co, 80 I.C. 969 (Sind).

N. B -Appeals against filing of awards made without the intervention of Court fall under s. 104 (f) of the Code of Civil Procedure and are to be stamped as appeals against orders under Sch II. Art 11 of the Court Fees Act.

Art 17, Cl. (iv) of Sch. II does not apply to Land Acquisition proceedings as the decision of the District Judge is a decree and as such ad valorem court-ees are payable, The Secretary of State for India v Baij Nath, 9 O.W.N. 396: 1932 A I R. 224 (Oudh).

Clause V-Adoption.-See cases under section 7, paragraph (iv) Clause (c) Where upon a challenge having been made to the title of the adopted son, he comes to Court with a claim for declaration of his title and recovery of possession of his adoptive father's property, the case comes under s. 7, (1V) (c), Ugra Mohan v. Lachmi Prosad Chaudhuri, 5 Pat. L. J. 341: 56 Ind Cas 422.

The plaintiff sued for a declaration that he was the adopted son of one B, and therefore entitled to his property of which he was already in possession. His suit was dismissed by the first Court and then he filed an appeal paying Rs 10 as courtfee on the memorandum of appeal Held, that the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal was ad valorem fee on the value of the property held by the appellant as adopted son and heir of B, Ganpatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 15 N.L. R. 24: 43 Ind Cas 64: Amdu and others v Pissi, 120 I C. 408.

A suit for declaration by reversioner that the alleged adoption is invalid affects the title of the adopted boy as title of the adopted person will go if such a declaration is granted, therefore, the plaint must be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Noksing v. Bholu Singh, 1930 A'I.R 73 (Nag.): 123 I.C. 417.

Nore -In Nagpore the valuation of the subject-matter of suits is calculated according to Notification under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act Notification No. 1641. dated 28th September, 1911 (Nagpore).

The plaintiff sued for a declaration that no adoption took place and even if an adoption had taken place, it was an invalid adoption and stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rs. 100 under Article 17 Cl. (iii) Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. amount paid was disputed by the office and on reference the High Court held: "when a plaintiff comes into Court urging that an alleged adoption did not take place and even if it did take place it is invalid, he asks for a relief not merely with regard to adoption to the property which the adopted boy would ac. by means of adoption. In other words, the value of the is the value of the property which the adopted boy won if the adoption was true and valid."

Whether the plantiff gets anything at present or not, we must consider the value of the relief as being the loss to which the defendant would be put in case the relief is granted," and the High Court fenther held that after the amendment of the Court Fees Act in Madras, the plantiff is not at liberty to put his own valuation and that advalorem court-fees are to be paid at the market value of the property and not as in a suit for possession. Clause VI .- Where it is not possible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter in dispute -To bring a case within the expression"where it is not possible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter in dispute" in Art. 17, Cl. (vi) of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, it must be established that it is not possible even to state approximately a money value for the subject-matter in dispute, Bunwari Lal v. Daya Sunker Misser, 13 C W N 815 (819): 1 Ind Cas 670: See also Trinayani Dassi v Krishna Lal De, 39 Cal 906. 17 C W N. 923: 14 Ind. Cas 724, Kesvarapu Ramakrishna Reddi v. Essentials,-A suit in order to fall within this clause must fulfil two essentials. (1) that the subject-matter must be incapable of being estimated at a money-value and (2) it must not be provided for by any other provision of the Act, Mir Hassan Khan v Ahmad Khan, 29 Punj. L. R. 322; Kanji Mal v. Panna Lal, 15 PLR 1916 7 PR 1915; 28 LC. 262

Art 17 Cl. (vi) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act cannot apply to a case where the subject-matter of claim has a money value, though that value cannot be stated at a correct figure at that stage, Sabir Husain v Farzand, 54 All, 603; 138 I.C. 622; 1932 A L J. 387: 1932 A.I.R 406 (All ).

N.B .- The appeal in order that the provisions of this clause may be applicable to it, must arise out of a suit to which the provisions of this clause are applicable. It cannot be made applicable at the appellate stage simply because it is difficult to estimate the money value at that stage

Charitable and religious trusts .- Public Trust ,- Under Section 539 (section 92) C. P. C. In a suit brought under section 539 C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) by three Hindus alleging that a trust had been created for certain charitable and religious purposes by Rani Mahtab Kunwar, that the trustee appointed hy her had committed a breach of the trust by alienating a portion of the endowed property and that the heirs of the trustee had made a gift of the trust property in favour of the person through whom the defendants now claim, the plaintiffs prayed that it might be declared that the property was endowed property They further prayed that they should be appointed

Superintendents of the property and that an injunction should be issued to the defendants forbidding them to interfere with the discharge of the plaintiff's duties as Superintendents. They also asked the Court to grant such other reliefs as to the Court might seem proper having regard to the provisions of section 539 of the Code of Cred Procedure (Act XIV of 1882). The Allahabad High Court (Pancifee & Alkman, 11) remarked: "A sun under that section is brought for the protection and preservation of endowed property, and it is safeguarded by the rule which removes that it must be brought by the Advocate-General houself or with the consent of the Advocate-General or such other officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf. Instances may often arise in which the trust property is of considerable value. If court-fees had to be paid with reference to that value whenever it was found necessary to bring a sun to remove a trustee who had committed a breach of his trust, such court-fees might be prohibitive and might prevent institution of the suit. In this case the learned Judge below treats the suit as 'obviously a suit for possession' We are unable to agree with this view of the nature of the prayer in the plaint. The plaintiffs seck possession of the property. Although they ask that they may be appointed Superintendents they might never be appointed to that office The Judge might see fit to appoint some other persons as trustees or Superintendents, and no occasion might arise for the plaintiffs taking possession of the property. It might also not be necessary to eject the defendants. If the declaration sought for be made, the defendants might themselves cease to interfere with the property. In our opinion, therefore, the learned Judge below was not right in holding that this was necessarily a suit for possession. The learned Counsel for the respondent cited to us the case of Delroos Banoo Begum v Ashgar Alley Khan (15 B L.R. 167: 23 W.R. 453 P.C.). That was no doubt a suit similar to the one before us in so far that the plaintiff in that suit asked to be appointed mutawallis, that in that case there were emoluments attached to the office of the mutawalli, and by reason of these emoluments being capable of valuation it was held that the suit was not one in which the subject-matter could not be valued * * * In our judgment the suit framed embraced a claim for a declaratory decree to the effect that the property in suit was endowed property. For that portion of the claim the amount of court-fees was Rs 10. It also embraced a prayer for appointment of the plaintiffs as trustees In our opinion it was impossible to estimate at a money value that prayer in the plaint. Consequently the amount c court-fees payable for that portion of the claim was Rs under Clause VI, Art 17 of the Second Schedule of the l'ees Act" There was a further prayer for an injunction

Essentials.—A suit in order to fall within this clause must fulfil two essentials (1) that the subject-matter must be incapable of being estimated at a money-value and (2) it must not be provided for by any other provision of the Act, Mir Hassan Khan v Ahmad Khan, 29 Punj. LR 322, Kanji Mal v Panna Lal, 15 PLR 1916: 7 PR 1915: 28 I.C. 262.

See also Bunvoari Lal v Dayashankar Misser, 13 C.W.N. 815. I T C 670, Kaslash Chandra Das v Narayan Chandra Das 59 C.L.J. 447 152 I C 97: 1934 A I R 786 (Cal.); Gajendri Nath v Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131 60 C.L.J. 201: 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Cal.); Hasan Khan v Ahmad Khan, 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Pesh.).

Art. 17 Cl (vi) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act cannot apply to a case where the subject-matter of claim has a money value, though that value cannot be stated at a correct figure at that stage, Sabir Hussin v Forzand, 54 All 608: 138 I.C. 622: 1932 A L J. 387 1932 A I A 406 (All).

N.B.—The appeal in order that the provisions of this clause may be applicable to it, must arise out of a suit to which the provisions of this clause are applicable. It cannot be made applicable at the appellate stage simply because it is difficult to estimate the money value at that stage

Charitable and religious trusts.—Public Trust,—Under Section 539 (section 92) C. P. C. In a suit brought under section 539 C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) by three Hindus alleging that a trust had been created for certain charitable and religious purposes by Rani Mahtab Kunwar, that the truste appointed by her had committed a breach of the trust by alienating a portion of the endowed property and that the heirs of the trustee had made a gift of the trust property in favour of the person through whom the defendants now claim, the plaintiffs prayed that it might be declared that the property was endowed property. They further prayed that they should be appointed

Superintendents of the property and that an injunction should be issued to the defendants forholding them to interfere with the discharge of the plaintiff's duties as Superintendents. They also asked the Court to grant such other rehefs as to the Court might seem proper having regard to the provisions of section 539 of the Cole of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882). The Allahabad High Court (Banerjee & Atkman, JJ) remarked: 'A suit under that section is brought for the protection and preservation of endowed property, and it is safeguarded by the rule which requires that it must be brought by the Advocate-General hunself or with the consent of the Advocate-General or such other officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf lustances may often arise in which the trust property is of considerable value. If court-fees had to be paid with reference to that value whenever it was found necessary to bring a sun to remove a trustee who had committed a breach of his trust, such court-fees might be prohibitive and might prevent institution of the suit. In this case the learned Judge below treats the suit as 'obviously a suit for possession' We are unable to agree with this view of the nature of the prayer in the plaint. The plaintiffs seek passession of the property. Although they ask that they may be appointed Superintendents they might never be appointed to that office The Judge might see fit to appoint some other persons as trustees or Superintendents, and no occasion might arise for the plaintiffs taking possession of the property. It might also not be necessary to eject the defendants. If the declaration sought for be made, the defendants might themselves cease to interfere with the property. In our opinion, therefore, the learned Judge below was not right in holding that this was necessarily a suit for possession The learned Counsel for the respondent cited to us the case of Delroos Banoo Begum v. Ashgar Alley Khan (15 B L R. 167: 23 W.R 453 P.C.). That was no doubt a suit similar to the one before us in so far that the plaintiff in that suit asked to be appointed mutawallis, that in that case there were emoluments attached to the office of the mutawalli, and by reason of these emoluments being capable of valuation it was held that the suit was not one in which the subject-matter could not be valued * * * In our judgment the suit framed embraced a claim for a declaratory decree to the effect that the property in suit was endowed property. For that portion of the claim the amount of court fees was Rs 10. It also embraced a prayer for appointment of the plaintiffs as trustees In our opinion it was impossible to estimate at a mon value that prayer in the plaint Consequently the amoun court-fees payable for that portion of the claim was under Clause VI, Art. 17 of the Second Schedule of l'ees Act " There was a further prayer for an injun was separately assessed and separate court-fees paid on that assessment, Thakuri and others v. Brahma Narain and others, 19 All 69.

The above case was followed in the case of Giridhar Lal v. Raman Lal, 21 Aal 200, where the same learned Judge held that the mere fact that the plaintiffs in the suit under section 559 Civil Procedure Code, may ask for an account to be taken from the trustee and that the trustees may be compelled to refund monies alleged to have been misappropriated by them, does not take the case out of the purview of Art, 17, Clause VI Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and render the plaintiff liable to pay ad valorem court-fees on that part of the plaintiff liable to proper for accounts is ancillarly to the substantive prayer in the plaint, 1c, that the trustee may be removed and new trustees appointed in their place and that the properties be vested in them

The Judicial Committee of the Pray Council in Abdur Rahim v Mahomed Barkat Ali, L.R. 32 C.W.N. 482: 55 Cal 519 at page 530 sadd: "Their Lordships see no reason to consider that s. 92 was intended to enlarge the scope of s. 539 by the addition of any rehief or remedy against third parties ie, strangers to the trust. They are aware that the Courts in India have differed considerably on the question whether third parties could or should be made parties to a suit under s. 539, but the general current of decisions was to the effect that even if such third parties could properly be made parties to a suit under s. 539 no relief can be granted as against them. In that state of the previous law their Lordships cannot agree that the Legislature intended to include rehef against third parties in clause (h) under the general words "further or other relief."

See also the case of Bell Rom v. Islan Das, I.I. R. 8 Lahore 730: 110 I.C. 264. 1928 A I R 113 (Lah.) where it was held that the plaint in a suit under s 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure to remove the mohant and to appoint a new mohant in his place and the property to be made over to the new mohant and also that a committee may be formed to fulfil the objects of the trust, need only to be stamped under Art. 17, Cl (vi) of the Court Fees Act.

Where the prayers were (1) that the present Mohant may be removed and a new Mohant appointed in his place and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed a Committee may be formed to fulfil the object of the trust (3) the property of the trust may be made over to the new Mohant and the newly appointed committee and a list of the said property be prepared and (4) a scheme prepared, held that the suit is one under s. 92 C. P. C. and that s. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act does not apply. "A suit under section 539 generally involves a question upon which no pecuniary value can be placed; and it solvious that this is so, if we look at the effect of such a suit. The judicial person who is in possession of the only property which can have any value is the idol, and if the shebait who is alleged to have neglected his duty and to have embezzled the idol's property is sought to be removed and another manager put in his place, it cannot be said that this is a suit involving the value of any portion of the idol's property. It may be a very good thing for the idol if he succeeds, it cannot therefore be said that the plaintiff is bound to value his rehef at any fixed sum." Rain Ruf Das and others v. The Allahabad High Court held that "all the plaintiffs in can obtain, is a decree appointing a trustee or trustees, declaring what properties are affected by the trust and direct the trustee to bring those properties into possession. If the trustee appointed by the Court is resisted in his attempts to get possession of the trust property he must then bring a suit for possession in the proper Court on payment of the full court-fees for a suit," Ghazaffer Hussein Khan v Yawar Hussain, 28 All 112: 25 All W N 28: 2 All LJ, 591; but if emoluments be attached to the office of a trustee in the endowment then the plaint in the suit to remove the trustee must be stamped vith ad valorem court-fees, Delroos Banoo Beguin v Athyar All Khan, 23 WR 453: 15 B.LR. 167 P.C.

Receiver-Property in the possession of.-The plaining sued for a declaration of his right to the property without ask ing for recovery of possession. Prior to the institution of this sunt, the plaintiff was appointed receiver of the properties in dispute in proceedings for the appointment of a guardian to the last owner who was subsequently murdered. The High Court held that the plaintiff could not be appointed recent in guardianship proceedings and ordered that the property handed back to the defendant Nothing appears to have been done under the High Court's order. The plaintiff then had brought his suit. The High Court when the matter again cane up to it, held, that the posession of the property was, at it time, neither with the defendant nor with the plainiff, the property having been in custadia legis and in the hands of an officer of Court, it being of course a mere accident that the officer was the plaintiff himself. The defendant not being in possession the plaintiff could not, as against her, have claimed s consequential relief an order for delivery and nothing more i required than the recocation of an order of the Court, 'edanayaga Mudahar v I'edanmal, 27 Mad 591.

fee is payable on the valuation of the property comprised in the deed This case was considered in Jantaa v Radhanath Das, 8 Cal. 515, and Garth C J said. I have had great doubt about this question. But having regard to what appears to be the general opinion of the Judges, and also the inconvenience that would arise, if the stamp fee upon such appeals were to vary according to the nature of the issue raised in each, I think it will be advisable to order that a uniform court-fee of Rs. 10 should be chargerl in all such cases." This view was taken y Nagpur Court in Manaji v. Sitaram, (1924) A.I.R 105 Nagpore): 81 I.C. 643; Bhaddoo v. Sadoo, 20 N.L.R. 43: 81 .C. 766: 1924 A.I.R. 86 (Nagpore).

Where the subordinate Judge returned the plaint in suit s being insufficiently stamped, on the ground that, inasmuch is the whole of the property sought to be partitioned does not spear to have been the property which descended from an ances-or of the parties the suit is something more than a partition suit, nasmuch as the plaintiff's right to share in his property at all will have to be enquired into in it, held, as the only relief which is sought is the partition of the property which the plantiff says he is in possession, the court-fee is payable under this clause of this Article, Mahendra Chandra Ganguli v. Ashitosh Ganguli, 20 Cal. 762 (764, 765). See also Rojani Kanta Bag v. Rajabala Dassi, 52 Cal. 128: 29 C.W.N. 76: 1923 A.I. R. 320 (C): 85 I.C 898, where it was held that merely because a question as to title is necessary to be determined makes no difference to its being a partition suit.

The correct method of computation of court-fees in sults where partition is claimed by a co-parcener, who is in joint, enjoyment of part of the property at the date of suit, is to determine whether merely a change in the mode of enjoyment is asked for, or whether in reality, the relief of ejectment is claimed. Therefore one has to look beneath the mere form and verbiage in the plaint and to arrive at what is its real substant (In this case the plaintiff claimed a right to a share in a former suit and his right having been denied lost the suit), Bhagwarappa Wani v Shiva Wani, 23 N.L.R. 5: 101 I.C. 770: 1921 A.I.R. 248 (Nagpore)

A suit for partition of the family properties, or in the alternative a delivery of possession of the properties according to the share of the plaintiff, is a suit for partition and countries to be paid under this Article, Ishwari Prasad v. The plant in a suit for partition and separate possession, by a person claiming to be in joint possession of the property requires a stamp of Rs. 10. The decision as to the amount of court-fees should be based solely on the consideration of the cause of action on which the plaintiff is suing; denial by the defendant that the plaintiff was in joint possession does at later the character of the suit, Manganmad v. Where the plaintiff in a partition suit wants only his shart to be separated then the value of the suit is the value of the share, but when the share of all the sharers are partitioned, then the value of the suit is the value of the property sought to be partitioned, Har Charan Das v. Where troperty stands in the name of strangers -The coufees payable should be determined by the allegations in plaint and not on the footing of what is afterwards decided by the Court Where the separate items stand in the name of different members of the joint family no ad valorem court-fee is necessary but where properties stand in the name of the strangers it is necessary for the plaintiffs to displace the title of strangers, and therefore it is obligatory on them to pay ad valorem court-fees, Banku Behary v Chatur Pandey, 5 PLT. 665 79 I C 913: 1924 A I R 640 (P): 1924 Pat C.W.N. 210.

Property incapable of partition -After the passing of the preliminary decree in a suit for partition the Court passed an order that a property incapable of partition should be sold. One of the co-sharers appealed, held that the memorandum of appeal need only to be stamped under this clause, Lachman Das v. Bachu Ram, 100 I C. 17: 1927 A.I R 189 (Lah).

Partition of Moveable property and accounts -The plaint in a suit for partition of joint family business and of immoveable and moveable property and accounts is to be stamped with courtfees under this clause, but separate court-fees are payable on claim for accounts, Beni Madhab Sarker v Govinda Chandra Sarkar, 22 C W N 669: 46 Ind Cas 105

If in a suit for partition the defendants claim that the plaintiffs as managers received rents of the family property and should account to them for the amounts received by them, then the defendants should value the relief and pay necessary court-fee, Shaganial and others v. Partition in Burma -The plaint must be stamped with a court-fee according to the plaintiff's valuation of his share-Maung Shace Bon v. Maung Pu, 9 Bur L. T. 97: 35 Ind Cas 731.

Partition among Mussulmans -In a suit for partition of inheritance of the joint property of the parties, the lower Courts refused to give one of the defendants, though he asked for it. his share, which was found and admitted to be a third The reason given by the trial Court was that the court-fee paid by the plaintiff was only in respect of his third share and the reason given by the lower appellate Court was that it was not a suit for partition of joint family property among Hindus. The High Court on appeal held that a suit for partition by Hindus is hardly distinguishable from a suit for partition by Mussalmans and awarded the defendant his share to be ascertaimed and given to him in execution on payment of the necessary court-fees and expressed an opinion that it is undesirable to drive the parties to a further hitigation, Abdul Kader v Bayubhai Valad Sheikh Imam, 23 Dom 188: 1898 P.J 135, Haji Yussuf v Ghulam Hussain Kazim, 6 S.L.R. 74 (note): 16 i.C. 771, Ahanunuddin Tamijuddin v, Amuruddin, 41 Ind Cas. 216

The plaint in a suit for partition where the parties are in joint possession of the property, need only to be stamped under Article 17 (v1) of the Court Fees Act, Mir Hassan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 29 Punj L.R 322

A suit for partition among Mehomedans which is really a suit for a share of inheritance, is to be valued both for the purpose of court-fees and for jurisdiction at the amount at which the plaintiff valued his or her share and not at the value of the entire estate. Such a suit falls under see 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and is a suit other than those referred to in the Court Fees Act, 1870, see 7, paragraphs (v), (vi) and (ix) and paragraph (x), cl (d) and the court-fees are payable ad valorem on the valuation of the share, Ma Fatima and athers v Monin Bib and others, 7 Ran 164 1929 A 1R 211 (Ran): 118 1C 122

Appeal.—If the plaintiff in his plaint asserts that he is in joint possession and joint enjoyment of the property then the court-fees payable would be assessed under this clause even if the finding of the trial Court be that the plaintiff was not in possession of the share claimed. An appellant appealing from the final decree need not take grounds as to court-fees and the absence of any such ground in the memorandum of appeal would not make him hable to pay higher court-fees (In this case the trial Court had ordered the plaintiff to pay higher court-fees) Jai Pratap Narain v Robi Pratap Narain, (1930) 52 All 756: 1930 Al J 984, 124 IC 708 1930 Al R 443 (All) 1930 IR 564 (All)

THE

SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

[ACT NO. VII OF 1887].

As modified up to June 1935.

An Act to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of courts with respect thereto,

Where it is expedient to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title,

 This Act may be called the Suits Valuation Act, 1887.

NOTES.

Extent.—For Statement of Objects and Reasons, See Gazette of India, 1886, Pt. V. p. 791; for Report of the Select Commuttee see ibid, 1887, Pt. IV, p. 18; and for Proceedings in Council see ibid, 1886, Supplement, pp 1131 and 1155, and ibid, 1887, Pt. VI, pp 16 and 21.

This Act has been declared in force in Upper Burma (except the Shan States) by the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (XIII of 1898), see section 4 and the First Schedule.

It had previously been extended there, by notification under section 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), printed in General Acts, Vol. II, Ed. 1898, p. 477, scc Burma Gazette, 1888, Pt. 1, p. 362, and Gazette of India 1888, Pt. 1, p. 371.

It has been declared in force in British Baluchistan by the British Baluchistan Laws Regulation, 1890 (I of 1890).

Scope.—Part I of the Suits Valuation Act empowers the Local Government to make rules for determining the value land for purposes of jurisdiction in certain classes of suits, I II declares that in suits not coming within paragraphs v, v, v, and paragraph x cl. (d) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction shall both be the same, Musst Ladli Begum v. Ram Das and others, 1923 A1R. 488 (Patna)): 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 167: 6 Pat.L.T. 448: 90 lad Cas 321

Sonthal Perganas.—It is doubtful whether the Sub-Valuation Act applies to the Sonthal Perganas, still the spirit of that Act can be held to be applicable and jurisdiction should follow the valuation on which the court-fees were paid; and in order to find out whether the valuation is in excess of Rs 1,600 the plaint and not the issues are to be examined. An objection to the valuation would not be entertained unless it is taken before the settlement of issues, Narayan Iha Narone v. Jagni Prand Jha, (1933) 13 Paina 329: 15 P.L.T 131: 148 LC 579: 1934 A I R 204 (Pat) S B.

PART I.

SUITS RELATING TO LAND.

2. This Part shall extend to such local areas, and come into force therein on such Extent and commence-dates as the Governor General in ment of Part I

Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, directs.

NOTES.

Extent.—Part I of the Act has, under section 2 been declared to extend to the Punjab, which then included the North-West Frontier Province, and to come into force therein on the 1st day of March, 1889, see Gazette of India, 1889, Pt. I, p 107.

General.—A suit ought to be valued for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a Court, not according to the special rules of the Court Fees Act but according to the marked value of the subject of a suit, Kahu Bin Bhivapi v. Viron Mawaii, 1 Bom. 543; Nanhoon Singh v. Toofanee Singh, 20 W.R.C.R. 33: 12 B LR. 113.

The plaintiff's estimate of the value of the land, if contrato the market value according to the rules, cannot be allowed to operate to the prejudice of the defendant at any stare of the suit, Bhagwan Puri and others v. Secretary of State for India in

Council, 49 All. 398 25 A L J. 258 · 100 J C 35: 1927 A J.R. 308 (All)

The value of the subject-matter of dispute.-The actual value of the estate, to which the plaintiff claims to be entitled. and not the value which it may eventually represent to the plaintiff, is the value of the subject matter, Box Mahkor v. Bulabi Chaku, 1 Bom 538

But the case is different when the suit falls under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act Then the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and for the purposes of court-fees shall be the same as a method of valuation for the purposes of court-fees is prescribed by the Court Fees Act itself, Soilendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Charan Pol. 34 CL 1 95. 25 CW N 168: 66 Ind Cas 26

Prima facic the valuation by the plaintiff determines the jurisdiction. If the defendant did not raise any objection then it cannot be said that the trial was without jurisdiction. Khundanjat-ul-Kubra v Amina Khatun, 46 All 250: 22 A.I. J. 122: 80 I C 413 · 1924 A I R 388 (All )

Prima facie it is the valuation by the plaintiff which determines the jurisdiction and such jurisdiction continues, whatever the event, unless a different principle, comes into operation to prevent such a result, Sarada Sundari v Akramunnessa, 51 Cal. 137 78 I C 747 28 C W N 710

Statement made in a petition-The plaintiff is not concluded by statements made in petition at one particular stage of the proceedings as the question of the amount of court-fees payable as the valuation to be made for that purpose is one of law and not of fact, Girish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 1.C 80.

Jurisdiction-How determined.- Jurisdiction of suits is governed by statements made in the plaint and has no reference to the plea set up by the defendant. The valuation given in the plaint determines the forum of appeal, Jag Lal v. Har Narayan Singh, 10 All 524. What prima facie determines the jurisdiction of a Court is the claim, or the subject-matter of the claim, as estimated by the plaintiff and that determination having given the jurisdiction, the jurisdiction itself continues whatever the event of the suit This includes bona fide mistakes by the plaintiff but the plaintiff cannot oust jurisdiction by making unwarrantable additions to the claim which cannot be sustained, Lakshman Bhatkar v Babari Bhatkar, 8 Bom. 31.

Where the plaint is intentionally presented to a wrong Court, the plaint is to be returned by Court to the plaintiff to be presented to proper Court and the suit should not be dismissed. Jharia v Gorala, 3 All L. J. 511: 26 (1906) All W.N. 195. .

One must look to the nature of the suit as brought not to the nature of the defence to determine whether a Ct had jurisdiction, Bapuji Raghunath v. Kauvaji Edulji Umri, 15 Bom 400.

In the absence of rules under ss 3 & 4 of the Suits Valton Act, 1887, the valuation of a suit is the money value of loss which the plaintiff apprehends would result to him, K Sekhar Prosad Singh v. Sheonandan Dubey, I L, R, 2 Pat 1 1922 Pat C, W N 337: 4 P L T 71: 1 P, L, R, 25: 73 I C v 1923 A I R 137 (Patra)

Jurisdiction does not depend on the result of the suit on the defence set up, but on the nature of the claim as broug Seth Harbax and another v Lachman and others, 1925 AJ 183 (Nagpore) 82 I C. 201

The jurisdiction of a suit or appeal is generally determine by the valuation made in the plaint unless the suit is intentional overvalued or undervalued, Pitam Singh, v Bishim Nara 7 O.W.N. 1188 130 I.C. 339; 1931 A.I.R. 58 (Oudh).

If the valuation is contested then it should be determined the by the Court, but where the valuation can be ascertained correct them the plaintiff cannot be allowed to put a valuation he choose Imayar Husain v Bashir Ahmad, 1932 A.L. J. 416: 1932 A.I. (All)

An erroneous payment of court-fees does not affect jur diction, Gopala Menon v Ramana Menon, 1932 M.W.N 53: L.W. 64: 138 I C 136. 1932 A.I.R. 217 (Mad.).

Different valuations.—The plaintiff is not entitled to P and the property of purisdiction and a lon valuation for the purpose of our-fees (where these slow be the same), Jogeshra v Durga Prasad, 36 All. 500: 12 AL 844: 24 I.C. 679, see also Balkrishna Narayan v. Jankbid, Bom 331: 22 Bom L.R. 289: 51 I.C. 340; Manni Lal v. Rash Gopalii, 23 A.L. J. 344: 47 All. 501: 1925 A.I.R. 602 (All.): I.C. 650.

It is provided in s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act that it valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and for the purpose of court-fees shall be the same in suits specified in s. 8; it plaintiff, therefore, cannot put one valuation for the purpose court-fees and another valuation which is to be a purely arbitra valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction.

A party is not entitled, when the valuation of the suit c be correctly ascertained to put a purely fancy value on the sign for the purpose of jurisdiction, Dhaturi Singh v. Kedor No. Goonka, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 597: 8 Pat.L T. 475: 101 Ind Cas 50 1297 A.I.R. 224 (Patua).

Acquiescence in valuation.—A suit relating to land was valued by the planntfi at Rs 872 and instituted in the Munsiff Court. The defendant objected to the valuation which on inquiry was found to be at Rs 2.737, whereupon the plant was returned to be presented to the proper Court. The defendant still objected but did not press his case. The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed to the District Court adopting the valuation found by the Munsiff. The appeal was allowed. The plaintiff preferred a second appeal to the High Court which decreed the appeal. Then there was an application for leave to His Majesty in Council, held that the defendant having acquiesced in the valuation and having obtained the advantage of an appeal to the District Court, cannot now say that the valuation then was wrong, Raunethurer Kheinske y Suddeshurer Ghose, 101 IC 901.

A plaintiff who has valued his suit for the purpose of courtfees is not precluded from putting a higher valuation on his appeal, but if he values his appeal in one way he is not entitled to set up subsequently that his valuation was not the real value, Hafaz Mahomed Hossein Khan v Mansur Ali, 38 CW.N. 751; 59 C.I. I 48 1934 A IR 809

Appeal.—The value or subject-matter of the suit determines the forum of appeal. The value assigned to the subject-matter of the sunt by the plaintiff at the time of the institution of the sunt and not the value as found by the Court, would determine the forum, unless it appears that true value has been misstated in the plaint either purposely or through gross negligence, Mahabir Sindh v, Behart Lal, 13 All 320

Where the plaintiff bona fide valued the suit at Rs 7,500 but the lower Court found that the valuation is less than Rs. 5,000 and the plaintiff contested that finding and preferred an appeal to the High Court Held, that the value of the original suit in Act VII of 1887 did not mean the value as found by the Court and the appeal was rightly preferred to the High Court, Nulmoney Singh v Jagabanhlu Ray, 23 Cal 536

The jurisdiction of the appeal Court is not ousted because large amount is awarded under the decree than the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court allows it to do, Madho Das v Ramji Patak, 16 All 286, followed in Jhana v. Gopala, 3 All I. J. 511: 26 All WN 195

3. (1) The Local Government may subject to the Power for Local Government to make rules determining value of land for jurisdictional purposes control of the Governor General in Conneil, make rules for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in the suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 18, section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), and paragraph (x), clause (d).

(2) The rules may determine the value of any class of land, or of any interest in land in the whole or any part of a local area, and may prescribe different values for different places within the same local area.

- 8 There is no express provision in the Suits Valuation At 1887, in regard to the classes of suits mentioned below and they do not admit of being disposed of by rules under Part I, nor are they dealt with by directions under Part II of the Act. The valuation of such suits, therefore, must be left to judicial decision, as occasion arises. The suits are,—

suits for pre-emption in respect of houses;

suits for removal of attachment of houses;

suits by or against mortgagors or mortgagees as such; suits falling under Schedule II. Article 17, clause (iv), which are not provided for the rules under section 3 or directions under section 9 or by section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act:

Suits falling under section 7, sub-section x, clause (d), of the Court Fees Act, and relating to property other than land

In the cases of some other classes of suits, such as those falling under Articles 14 and 20 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, or suits relating to marriage and minority, the law allows no choice of the Court in which proceedings must There is, therefore, no necessity, to fix any valuation for the purposes of determining jurisdiction, while for purposes of court-fees they are sufficiently dealt with by the Court Fees Act. 1870

Section 4 of the Sints Valuation Act indicates that the principle adopted by the legislature for valuing a suit mentioned in Schedule II, Art 17 of the Court Fees Act which relates to land or an interest in land, is that the value of such a suit for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be governed by the value of land or interest in land When such values are not determined by rules framed under section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act. the values then must be determined by judicial decision, Dayaram Jagjivandas v. Gobordhandas Dayaram, 31 Bom 73: 8 Bom L.R. 885

Declaration.—In Punjab the proper valuation in a suit for declaration that certain property is the absolute property of the plaintiff and is not liable to partition, is thirty times the annual jama, Sohan Singh v. Decs Sing, 46 Ind Cas 490: 81 P.R. 1918: 19 P.L.R. 1918: 115 P.W.R. 1918

The valuation of a suit for declaration that mortgage in favour of the planniff is unaffected by attachment of mortgaged property in execution of decree against mortgagor, when there is no dispute as to the mortgage, is the amount for which execution is sought and not the value of the mortgaged property, Madakuri Ankanmay Mayvala Subbayya, 54 Ind Cas 543

The valuation of a suit for declaration by an unsuccessful claimant, is the value of the property or the decree whichever is less, Moolehand Motital v. Ramkishen, 55 All 315 1933 A.L. J. 222: 143 I.C. 275 1933 A.L. R. 249 (All.) F.B.

Maximum Limit - Section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act do doubt prescribes only a maximum valuation which can be put on the relief for purposes of jurisdiction in certain classes of suits, eg, a suit for declaration of title to land, but that does not mean that the plaintiff was at liberty to put any valuation he likes subject to that maximum on that relief. Ordinarily, when a question of title to landed property is in dispute, the value of the property would be the determining factor as regards the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court Subject to the maximum value calculated with regard to ss 3 and 4 of the Suits Valuation Act, the market value should determine the jurisdiction in a suit for determination of title . . when the plaintiff, in a suit for declaration of title to certain zemindary property valued the relief for purposes of jurisdiction at Rs 400 and filed the plaint in the Court of the munsiff, and the value of the land determined according to rules made by the Local Government under s 3 of the Suits Valuation Act was about Rs 8,000, it was held that the proper value of the subject-matter of the sint exceeded the pecumiary jurisdiction of the munsiff's Court and the order of the munsiff returning the plaint was on revision upheld by the High Court, Jagdish Saran v Jan Den. (1933) 56 All 198 145 I C 942 1933 A I R 903 (All)

Foreclosure.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction is the value of the mortgagor's interest in the property which will be lost to him in case the mortgagor is successful. Girllian Lol v Sheo Nanden, 11 OC 154 But if the value of the mortgaged property be greater than or equal to the amount of the charge, then the value of the sint is the total sum due under the deed, 1c, both principal and interest due under the mortgage, Kolhiram v Guijan, 8 NLR 179: 17, Ind Cas 886, Nana v Minchand, 9 NLR 161.

The valuation for jurisdiction of a suit for possession after a decree for foreclosure of a condition sale is not to be calculated according to the scale laid down in section 7, paragraph 9 of the Court Fees Act, Ahalya Bai Debya v. Shama Churan Bose, 1 CLR 473; Jeebraj Singh v. Inderject Mahton, 18 WR 109; Nouhoon Singh v Toofance Singh, 20 WR 33: 12 BLR 113: Chunder Nath Bhattachariee v. Brindabun Shaha, 25 W.R 39

Where the purchaser of mortgaged property being defendant in the mortgagee's suit for foreclosure, preferred an appeal against the decree for foreclosure made in the suit, the amount found due on the mortgage being over a lakh of rupees, held (for the purposes of ascertaining the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal) the value of the property affected by the decree must be taken to be Rs 2,500 being the amount for which the appellant has purchased the property, Jagatdhar Narain Persad v Brown, 33 Cal 1133: 10 C W N 1010: 4 C.L. J. 121.

Landlord and tenant.-Suit by tenant -The value of a suit brought by an occupancy raivat of certain lands for a declaration that the landlords are not entitled to recover from them by way of rent more than 1/16th share of the produce, is, for the purposes of jurisdiction 15 times the land revenues under rules framed under section 3 of the Surts Valuation Act Jamel " Quadir Baksh, 54 PR 1914. 238 PLR 1914: 153 P.W.R 1914 25 Ind Cas 437.

Suits to establish validity of charge upon property is to be valued upon the value of the property or amount of the charge whichever is less Krishnamo Choriar v Srinivasa Ayyangar, 4 Mart 339

Occupancy raised - The value of the suit is the value of the subject-matter in controversy, i.e., the interests claimed by the plaintiff, Upendra Chandra Mitra v. Satcourie Dhar, 13 Ind Cas 964.

Of a tenant at fixed rates -The valuation of a suit, for the purposes of jurisdiction to eject a tenant at fixed rates, is the value of the right of the tenant in the land which it is sought to destroy but not the value of the land itself nor of merely one year's rent, Ram Raj Tewary v Girnandan Bhagat, 15 All. 63: 12 All W.N. 240. But see section 7, paragraph (xi), clause (cc) of the Court Fccs Act and the cases cited there.

Mortgage.-The valuation of a suit for the purposes of jurisdiction, to declare that the mortgage is subsisting, after disallowance if his claim to mortgaged property which was attached in execution of another decree, need not be on the amount of attachment, Fisher v. Arunachella Cheetiar, 19 M.L.J. 236: 20 Ind Cas. 522.

Where the suit is to declare that a mortgage by co-parceness is null and void on the ground that the same was executed without consideration and ultra trees as the mortgager had no right to mortgage the plaintiff's share, the valuation for purpose of jurnsdiction will be on the basis of mortgages' rights and not on the value of the property itself, Paire Lal v. Ram Chand and Jagannath, 112 P.W. R. 1911: 11 Ind Cas 440.

Redemption—In a redemption sunt the value of the subject-matter is not the market value of the property but the amount of mortgage-money, which amount, therefore, determines the jurisdiction of the trial Court and determines the forum of appeal Section 8 of the Susts Valuation Act does not affect the law laid in 5 All 332 and 8 All 438, Kedar Singh v. Mahatabadal Singh, 31 All 44 5 All LJ 713 (1903) 23 All W N 296 1 Ind Cas 703, Mohan Lal v Mohan Lal and others, 1926 A I R 346 (Outh) 94 I C 784 3 OW N 467. In a suit for redemption of a mortgage instituted in the Subordinate Judge's Court, the amount of the principal of the debt was Rs 3,899 and odd The plaintiff paid the court-fees on that amount but the Subordinate Judge erroncously ordered the plaintiff to pay court-fees on the total amount payable on redemption, 212, Rs 7,218 odd, and the plaintiff paid the deficit court-fee The Subordinate Judge passed a decree in the suit in favour of the plaintiff The defendants preferred an appeal to the High Court The respondent objected that the appeal did not he to the High Court hut to the District Court Held, that the amount of the principal debt must be taken as determining the jurisdiction under Civil Courts Act, and consequently that the suit lay in the Subordinate Judge's Court and that the appeal lay to the District Court and not to the High Court The authority of the Full Bench Decision in Zamorin of Calicut v Narayan, 5 Mad 284, is unaffected by the Suits Valuation Act The order of the Subordinate Judge erroneously levying court-fees on the total amount payable on redemption cannot deprive the District Court of jurisdiction to hear the appeal and confer it on the High Court, Jallaldeen Marakayan v Vijayaswanii, 39 Mad 447 29 M L J. 142 · 1915 M W N 239 · 28 Ind Cas 624, Basudeva v Madhava, 16 Mad 326 followed Sec also Gofal Menon v Raman Menon, 1932 MWN 53 35 LW 64- 138 IC 136 1932 AIR 217 (Mad ) (redemption of kanom plus damages), Pathana v Satyanandacharyulu, 60 M L J 698 33 L W 785 · 132 LC 317: 1931 A1R 479 (Mad) (redemption with profits)

The valuation of a sunt for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage plus the profits is the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage, Long Singh v. Bushun Lal, 149 I C. 560: 1933 A I R 625 (Patna).

Redemption and claim of rent.—When there are two distinct causes of action, namely, the claim for redemption and that for the arrears of rent, the value of the subject-matter of subis the aggregate value of the two heads of relief, Konna Pamkar v, Karunakara, 16 Mad, 328

Redemption and possessian.—In a suit for redemption and possession, the amount of mortgage-money is not the basis of valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction. The value of the land in question should be the value, Ma Hla Saing and another v. Ma Su We and others, 105 I C 412: 1927 A.I.R 304 (Rangoon): 5 Rangoon 499

Improvements—The value of improvements is not to be considered in calculating the value of the "subject of suh" in a suit to redeem a Kanam and a purankandam (further advance) when the instrument of morigage does not expressly secure the amount to be allowed for improvements in redemption, Zamorin of Calcut v Suryonarayan Bhatta, 5 Mad '284.

Partition.—Allahabad High Court —In suit for partition of the share of one only out of several co-sharers in immovable property, the proper valuation of the suit for the purpose of jurnsdiction is the value of the share sought to be separated from the rest of the property, and not the value of the entire property out of which the share is to be taken, Wajib-nd-din v. Walialish, 24 All 381

Bombay High Court — A sunt for partition and separate possession of joint family property consisting of land, house pand moveable property, falls within section 7, paragraph v of the Court Fees Act and therefore section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act is not applicable. The market valuation determines the jurisdiction of the trial Court, Dagdu Sakharam v Tolaram Narayam, 33 Bom. 658: Il Bom L.R. 1074. See also John Joseph De Silva v J J De Silva, 6 Bom L.R. 403

Calcutta High Court — The valuation of suit for partition by a joint owner, is the value of the entire property sought to be partitioned and not on the value of the share of the plaintiff. Therefore, if the value of plaintiff's share is below Rs 5,000 and the value of the entire property above Rs. 5,000, an appeal has to the High Court direct from the decree of the Subordinale Judge, Riraj Mahini Dasi v Chintamoni Dasi, 3 C.L.J. 197-10 C.W.N. 565.

But if the suit had been erroneously valued in the court of first instance on the valuation of the share of the plaintiff, then section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act is applicable and the appellate Court would not interfere unless such valuation has materially prejudiced the disposal of the suit, Edward Dalglish, v. Ramdhari Sahu, 4 C.L. J. 509.

In a suit for partition it is the value of the entire property which determines jurisdiction and not of the share which the plaintiff claims in the property, Rayani Kanta Ban v. Rajabala Dani, 29 CWN 76-52 Cal 128-85 IC 898-1925 A.I.R 320 (Cal) See also Lela Bluegeot Sahay v. Pashingati Nath Bose and others, 10 CWN 564, and Baidva Nath Adya v. Madras High Court—The Madras High Court took the view that the value for the purpose of jurisdetion is the amount at which the plaintiff valued his share. See Velu Gounden v. Kinnaravelu, 20 Mad. 289; Baganandan Rangia v. Baganandan Subramanian Chettiv, 9 M.L.T. 3. 21 M.L.J. 21. B. Ind. Cas. 512. (1910). M.W.N. 755 F.B. Gill v. The value of the property in which plaintiff claims share and not the value of the plaintiff's share determines jurisdiction, Vydinatha v Subrainarya, 8 Mad 235, but section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act has altered that law, Velu Gounden v Kinnara Velu, 29 Mad 289 See also Krithna Sann v Kanakasaba, 14 Mad 183 1 M.L.J. 234, Chakrafam Asan v Narasinga, Rau, 10 Mad 56

Oudh—The valuation for jurisdiction is to be determined according to the plaintiff's share. Harbhandah v Ladli Saran, 10 OWN 1196-146 LC 582 1933 AIR 547 (Oudh)

Patna High Court —The Patna High Court held that the use of the sunt was that of the share claumed by the plannts where the sunt is one for declarations with consequential relief, Dukhi Sinah v Harihar Shah, 1921 Pat CWN 89 (92): 1 Pat LT 595 5 Pat LJ 540 58 Ind Cas 236, but the value is to be the value of the entire property where the planntiff is in possession and there is no dispute as to title. As to valuation in other provinces see pages 83 and 84, supra, under < 7 (iv) (b)

Re-partition—The correct method of regarding the reclaimed in suits for partition of a joint family which has a been divided us, that it is merely a prayer to change the enjoyment and can only be valued by deducting from of plaintiff's share as ascertained in the partition the value of the beneficial enjoyment as a co-parcener before partition. In such a case, therefore, it is impossible to estimate the moneyvalue of the suit to which Art. 17B alone should be held to be applicable, Prathipati Suryonarayano v. Prathipati Seshayya and others, 1926 A.I.R. 122 (Mad.).

Pre-emption.—In the Punjab the value of the pre-emption to the purpose of jurisdiction is 30 times the proportionale amount of revenue recorded as payable for the holding in which the land in suit is comprised even though it be a specified plot by metes and bounds and not a definite share of the holding, Shrikh Airshid Aliv. Zoracar Singh, 22 IC 986: 8 L.L.J. 60: 27 Punj L R 172: 1926 A I R 346 (Lahore)

Possession.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of a sut for recovery of possession of land, not separately assessed with revenue and not a definite part or share of a revenue paying estate, must be made according to the market-value of the land, Gadavarty Sundorannian v. Godavarty Mangamina, 34 M L J 558.

Possession of o house.—The value of a suit for possession of a house is the market value of the house as ascertained by the Court and not the value as stated by the plaintif in the plaint, Sundar Das v Musst Umda Jan, 82 I C 614: I.I.R. 5 Lah 481: 6 I.L.J 355 F B

The valuation of a suit for possession of a house by ejecting defendant is to be determined not upon the allegations 38 made in the written statement but upon allegations made in plaint. Musst Barkatimussa v Musti Kama Fatima, I.L.R. 5 Fat. 631 98 IC 817: 1927 A IR 140 (Patna)

Possession and mesne profits—For valuation of suit for possession and mesne profits claumed depends on the value of the property sought to be recovered plus the amount of profits recoverable, Mohini Mohan Das v Satis Chandra Ray, 17 Cal 701

Recersionary right—The valuation of such contingent interest, not being one for possession or for present interests, is the valuation made in the plaint, Haidarkhan v. Ali Akbar, 18 P R 1897. If the widow is sued to set aside her alternations then the valuation is to be the market-value, Dhanabagqianmal v. Mari Ammal, 1932 M.W N. 780: 36 L.W. 483; 139 1.C. 471: 1932 A.I.R. 671 (Mad).

If the reversioners sue to set aside a decree to which they appropriate with the widow, the valuation is to be made at ten times the revenue payable. The High Court said: "when there is in the Act itself a special rule as to valuing the property in dispute as to court-fees, it is proper to take that method of valuation in preference to any other method to get the value when there is no indication that any other method should be adopted," D Venkata Narasunha Raju v D Chandrayya and others, 53 M.L.J. 267: 26 L.W. 159-30 M.L.T. 193: 105 Ind. ### NOTES

Section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (Act III of 1873) is as follows:—

"When the subject matter of any suit or proceeding is land, a house or garden, its value shall, for the purposes of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, be fixed in manner provided by the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 7, clause 5"

In suits falling under section 7, paragraph (xi) of the Court fees Act, the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees is the same. There is nothing to indicate that section 8 of the Siuts Valuation Act should be read subject to the provisions of section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, Fonnavalli Seshanri Row v Narayanswami Noldu, 26 M L J 573 24 Ind. Cas 374

For valuation of suits to enforce registration of documents, see Ramakrishnananna v Bhaqamma, 13 Mad 56 where the Madras High Court held at page 59 "The object of the suit is to secure legal efficacy to the transaction evidenced by documents and simply a mode of proving them, and the value of the transaction must therefore be taken to be the value of the suit."

Pre-emption —A suit to enforce a right of pre-emption is suit whose subject-matter includes such rights relating to 1

as a right to pre-empt within the meaning of section 6 of the Suits Valuation Act and its proper valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is, in accordance with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, that fixed in the manner provided by the Court Fees Act, section 7, paragraph (iv), Narayanan Nair v. Suits for redemption are not covered by section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act. The valuation in such suits depends not on the amount secured but on the amount ultimately found to be due, Sarada Sundari v. Akramunnessa, 51 Cal 737: 28 C.W.N. 710: 78 I C. 747: 1924 A.I.R. 783 (Cal.).

When section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act comes into conflict with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (111 of 1873), the former section shall prevail, The Official Assignee of Ramnad v Arunachellam Chettiar, (1933) 57 Mad 186

Construction.—The right construction of section 8 of the Smts Valuation Act is that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should, in the cases mentioned here, follow and be the same as the valuation for the purpose of court-fees, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Chandra Pal, 34 CLJ 94 25 CW N 768: 66 Ind Cas 268

Jurisdiction is determined by the valuation made by the plaintiff in a suit for declaration with consequential relief, The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchart, 33 C.W.N.

231: 118 I C 357

The words "as determinable" in this section means as determinable by the Court which has to try the case, Dayaram Iaguran v Gobordhandas Dayaram, 31 Bom 73 8 Bom LR 885.

The valuation for court-fees determines the valuation for jurisdiction, Maung Myi Maung v The Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Rangoon 335 1934 AIR 268

Separate valuations.—The plaintiff is not entitled to put an arbitrary value for the purpose of jurisdiction and another value for the purpose of court-fees, Raj Krishna Dey v Bepin Behary Dey, 40 Cal 245, see also other cases under see 7 at pages 63 and 88, supra

Valuation of suits.—Account suits.—Such suits fall under section 7 (w) (f) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation for jurisdiction and court-fees are to be identical. Under Order 7, Rule 2, C P C an approximate value of the amount claimed is to be given and court-fees to be paid on that value. This valuation determines the forum of appeal, Irjavilla Bhinaya v. Chandramoham, 34 Cal. 954 F B 11 C W N 1133. 6 C L L 225; Ishwarappa Manri v Dhanji, 56 Bom 23 34 Bom L R 55: 137 L 702 1932 A 1 R 111 (Bom), and the amount then finally investigated and additional court-fees to be given under section 11 of the Court Fees Act. See cases noted under that section, Bai Varinda Lakshini v Bai Manegarin, 16 Bom 207, Bai Amba v Pranjivandas, 19 Bom 198; Bharpantria v Mehta Bajivand, 18 Bom 40, Raja Babn v Ganri Lal, 9 P L, T. 726: 109 I C. 895 1928 A 1 R 535 (Pat)

Administration suits are suits for accounts and consequently the plaintiff need only make an approximate valuation, Sashibhuan Bose v Manudra Chandre Nandy, 44 Cal. 390: 21 CW.N. 310. 24 CL.J. 448; Khatije v Sheikh Adam, 39 Bom. 545: 17 Bom LR, S74: 29 I C 949; Ma Thin O. Nowe

Adoption—In a suit to set aside an adoption, the valution by the plaintiff of the relief claimed determines the forum of the Court, Prohlad Chandra Das v. Dwarka Nath Gran, 37 Cal 860: 14 C.W.N. 929: 6 Ind Cas. 636 The valuation for jurnsdiction is (a) according to Madras High Court, value of the property at stake, Keshava v. Lakshim Narayan, 6 Mad 192, (b) according to Allahabad High Court, according to the valuation put by the plaintiff, Sheodheni v. Tulshi Ran, 15 All 378 (1893) All.W.N. 147. The Bombay High Court lias followed the Allahabad High Court, Bai Machhbai v. Bai Hiraban, 35 Bom 264, 13 Bom L.R. 251, 10 Ind Cas. 816.

A sut for declaration as to the factum and validity of an adoption which may directly or indirectly affect title to land is not a suit for land within the meaning of sec. 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act of 1873 as amended by the Act of 1916 and is governed by sec 12 thereof, by which the value of the subject-matter of the suit determines the forum for purposes of jurisdiction. The subject-matter of the suit being the factum and validity of the adoption, its value is the ral market value of the land affected and not the notional value calculated under the Court Fees Act

The general principle deducible for valuation for purposes of jurisdiction where no special method of valuation has been provided by statute are (1) that where the subject-matter of a suit is wholly unrelated to anything which can be readily stated in definite money terms, the plaintiff having to put some money value for the purpose of jurisdiction, must put more or lesarbitrary value, and if there are no factors in the case from which the Court can say that the valuation by the plaintiff ! wrong or dishonest, the Court will accept the valuation, and (2) that where the subject-matter is so related to things which have a real money value that the relief asked for will affect these, the value of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction is to be taken as the market value of the property affected Vasireddy Veeranma v Merupudi Butchiah, 52 M L.J. 381: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.): 50 Mad. 646: 25 L.W 440.

Altachment—A suit for declaration that the property is not liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, is to be valued at the amount for which the decree is to be executed when the value of the property exceeds the value of the decree, almost Kuntzor v. Ram Nirayan Dat, 40 All 505: 16 Al. J. 374: 45 1 C. 494, but see Amir Narcob v. Musti Wajda Requir. 103 1.C. 819: 1927 A.I.R. 289 (Patna); Muol Chond Moit Ind v. A.I.R. 249 (All.); Date Date. Diva Kiei, 137 I.C. 54: 1932 A.I.R. 20 (Ran.).

Aword—A suit to set aside an award is to be valued at the actual value of the subject-matter of the suit, i.e., according to the value of the lability which the planniff wishes to get rid of and an arbitrary value should not be given. Venkata Challam Pillai v. P. U. Srinicasa diyar, 75 Ind Cas 115: (1924) A.I.R. 84 (Madrax): 1923 M.W.N. 747. 18 L.W. 399

Under the Code of 1908, the value depends on the thing awarded rather than on the matter originally in dispute, (in case of an award without the intervention of Court) The Act of 1908 has changed the language used in the Code of 1882. Mohesh Chandra Koondoo v Amar Chandra Koondoo, 18 C.W.N 867

Bond—Suits based on a bond whether registered or unregistered are suits for money and the valuation for the purposes of jurnsdiction and court-fees are the same, as these suits fall under section 7, paragraph 1, ie, on the amount in claim

Cancellation of a bond—The valuation of suits for cancellation of a bond which is admitted by the plaintiff to be for a portion of the consideration under a mistaken belief that the bond was for the amount admitted in plaint, is to be valued at the difference in the amount admitted and the amount stated in the bond, Kali Charan Rai v Ajudia Rai, 2 All 148; Narain Putter v Aya Putter, 7 Mad H C 372, and the valuation must be with reference to principal amount and not the principal amount plus interests, Gulab Rai v Mauah Lai, 6 All 71

All cancellation of documents falls under section 7 (w) (c) of the Court Fees Act, hence the valuation for the purposes of court-fees and for the purpose of jurisdiction are the same The plaintiff in a suit for cancellation of a deed of sale and setting aside a sale and for possession, can put his own valuation. Parom and others v. Achal. 4 All 289. Maning Noc. v. Maning Kho Pic, 142 TC 705 1933 A I R 40 (Rang.)

Conjugal rights—In sunts for restitution of conjugal rights the valuation is the valuation of the plantiff. Ian Mohammed Mandal v Masher Bibee, 34 Cal 352 5 CL i 400: 11 CWN 458; Zaer Hussain Khan v Khurshed Jan, 28 All 545 3 All L J 266: (1965) 26 All WN 99

The valuation in the plaint is to be accepted unless made with an improper motive, or defiberately for the purpose of giving the Court jurisdiction which it officerwise would not have Jasoda Chholu v Chhadu Mamin, 11 Bom L. Declaration.—To set asule decrees.—The valuation of a sut for the purposes of jurisdiction to set aside a decree, obtained against the interest of the plaintiff, should ordinarily be valued at the amount of the decree, Umatul Botul v. Nauji be valued at the amount of the decree, Umatul Botul v. Nauji Singh, 8 C.L. J. 485 But where the amount decreed and the value of the property in dispute are not identical, then the lower of the two values is the value of the suit. The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: "The value of the action means the value to the plaintiff. But the value of the property might well be Rs. 1,000 while the execution debt Rs. 1,000 It is only when the execution debt is less than the value of the property that its amount affects the value of the suit," Bbi Phul Kumarı v. Ghanshyam Misser, 35 Cal. 202: 12 CW.N. 169: 7 CL. J. 36 PC

The fee payable on the plaint as well as on the memorandum of appeal is a fixed sum, therefore the value of the subject-matter must be the market value thereof, Amir Nawab v. Mustl. Wajda Beguni, 103 I.C 819 1927 A I.R 289 (Patna).

Suits for simple declaration—The value of a suit for declaration is the value of the property in respect of which the declaration is asked for, Mohini Mohon Misser v Gour Clandro Rai, 5 Patl. J. 397: 1 Pl. T. 390: 56 Ind. Cas. 762: 1921 Fal. C.W.N. 105, but see Ganapati v Chottu, 12 Mad 223 where it was held that the value would be as if the suit was one for possession, Badain Saryanarayana v. Declaration of title to land — The valuation for suits for the purposes of jurisdiction to declare title to four paid offices in a temple, should be the value of all the four offices, Standard v. Subha, 10 Mad. 371

With Consequential relief—The value put by the plaintiff is to be taken as the proper value unless it appears that value so put was arbitrary and is inconsistent with the value of the relief sought and circumstances which subsequently influence the judgment of the Court are not to be looked at, Rajabala Dassi v. Radhika Charan Ray, 40 CL_J. 150; and other cases under sec. 7 (iv) (c), Court Fees Act, sufra, pages 63 to 66

Doorway—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of a suit to close a doorway is to be calculated upon the selling price of the house before and after the door was opened, Mula Mal v. Gurdial, 5 P.R. 1887.

Injunction.-Declaration and injunction-The Court must accept the value of the relief as stated in the plaint for the purpose both of court-fees and jurisdiction, Vacchani Keshalhai Balibhai v Vacchani Naubha Bawaji, 33 Bom 307; 11 Bom L. R. 90: 4 Ind Cas. 108: Hart Sunker Dutt v Kali Kumar Patra, 32 Cal 734: 9 CW N. 690, except where under section 3 of the Suits Valaution Act the valuation is determined by the rules framed under the section, Barru v Lachhman, 103 P.R. 1913: 23 P.L.R. 1913: 228 P.W R 1913 22 Ind Cas 503. But the value must be reasonable value, Umatul Batul v Nauji Koer, 11 C.W N. 705: 6 C L J 427,

The plaintiff valued his suit for injunction at Rs 110 for the purpose of court-fees and at Rs. 4,000 for the purpose of jurisdiction and paid court-fees on Rs 110 only The suit was dismissed and pleader's fees were assessed on Rs 4,000, held, by the Punjab High Court that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and for court-fees being the same the Court below should have asked the plaintiff to re-state the value and awarded pleader's fees accordingly, Amir Chand v Hakim Ali, 69 Ind Cas. 577. 1924 A I R (Lahore) 364; Ihanda Singh v Bhagwan Dass, 33 P.L R. 488. 137 I C. 240; Ghulam Haidar v Bishamber Das, 33 PLR 458: 140 IC. 73. Gurudwara Mahaut Jwala Singh v Kala Singh, 32 PLR 193 133 IC 120 1931 AIR 307 (Lah)

In a suit for injunction it is unnecessary for the plaintiff to fix any value for purposes of jurisdiction, as under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act the valuation for the purpose of court fees and valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction are identical, Gorinda Krishna Sathe v Hanmaya Lingaya Fulmali, 45 Bom 567, 22 Bom I, R 1450 63 Ind Cas 777, Janks Sahay v. Lal Behari Lal, 1926 Pat CWN 102 1926 AIR 334 (Patna) 94 1 C 103, Bachhan v The Municipal Board of Mirzapore, 94 I C 951 24 A L I 478 48 All 412. 1926 A I R. 423 (Allahabad), Official Receiver of Ramnad v Arunachalam Chettiar, 1933 MWN 998 38 LW 447 65 MLJ 420 1933 AIR 721 (Mad) See also Maung Myi Maung v Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran 335: 1934 A1R 268 (Ran.) where the valuation for injunction was not made.

Kobalas - Declaration of title to land on setting aside kobalas -The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of suits to declare title of the plaintiff to lands on setting aside certain kobalas illegally executed by the father of the plaintiff need not be valued at the total value of the kobalas, Sheogolam Singh v. Bejoyram Protab Singh, W.R S N 317.

The valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction of a suit 38 set aside a kobala by which the estate was illegally alienated, need not be according to value stated in the kobala, Angopura Chowdhury v. Meah Bibee, 10 W.R. 207.

Landlord and tenant—In a suit to obtain lease on declaration of mourasi and mokarari title to the land at an annul rental of Rs. 71, it was held that the suit falls under section 7 paragraph (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and the suit should be valued it Rs. 71 for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees and the suit ought to be filed in Munsiffs Court, Port Conning and Land Improvement Co Ld v Rosonali, 17 C.W.N. 160: 13 Ind. Cas 46.

Under section 7, paragraph (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Ad a suit by the landlord against a tenant including holding out is to be valued according to the amount of rent payable for the year next before the year of suit. The valuation for confices will be the value for jurisdiction under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Rom Chand v. Rom Sukh Dos, 27 P.R. 1910: 30 P.W. R. 1910 5 Ind. Cas. 910.

A suit by a landlord for a declaration that a tenant is not entitled to permanent rights of occupancy, should be valued at one for possession under sec 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees At at one year's rent and not at the market-value of the land, Bolam Suryonoroyana v. (Madras) · 52 M.L J. 323 · 25 L W 367.

In a suit under either see 44 or see 84 of the Agra Tenary, etc., the valuation for court-fees should be the amount of ren payable in the next preceding year and valuation for jurisdiction should follow that valuation, Roghunoth Rom v. Staf Lal, 1934 A L J 708: 152 I.C 115: 1934 A TR. 825 (All).

Mortgage.—A suit to recover money advanced on a mortgage with interest is to be valued both for court-fees and for jurusdiction at the amount in claim, Soilendra Kunar v. Hari Charan, 58 Cal 829: 52 CLJ 589: 130 I.C. 876: 1931 A1R 189 (Cal)

Partition.—The plaintiff, in a suit for partition alleging that he is in joint possession with the defendant of the properties which are subject-matter of partition, sues under sec. 7 (iv) (b) of the Court Fees Act applicable to such suit. Section 8 of the Sunts Valuation Act applies to such suits for partition as are not also suits for possession, Chelarcumy Ramiah v. Chalarcumy Rami

Partnership.—In a suit by different partners for specific sums of money on adjustment of accounts or in the alternative for such other amounts as may be found due on adjustment of accounts after dissolution of partnership, the court-fee is payable ad volorem under section 7, para (n) (f) of the Court Fees Act and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act is the same as that for the computation of court-fees, ie, the amount at which the relief sought is valued, Dhani Ram Saha v Bhagirath Saha, 22 Cal 692 (708): Ladubhai v Revichand, 6 Bom, 143; Mohan Lal v. Nihal Chand, 152 1 C 608, 1935 A 1.R 40 (Lah ). See other cases under sec 7 (n) (f) of the Court Fees Act, supra.

Registration of documents-suits to enforce,-In such suits the valuation would be according to the valuation made by the plaintiff The court-fee payable is Rs 10 only, but if there be a further question whether the plaintiff was a minor when he executed the deed, the court-fees payable are ad valorem and the valuation would be the same for court-fees and for jurisdiction

The above was the opinion of the author expressed in previous editions of this book. The Calcutta High Court in Galam Rahaman Mondal v Sm Sabekjan Bibi, 30 CW.N. 951 held that the plaintiff in a suit under section 77 of the Indian Registration Act for the registration of a conveyance, is entitled to put his own valuation on the suit as the suit it not with regard to any land or interest in land to be conveyed by the document

The Madras High Court held that the valuation is to be made at the value of the land expressed in the instrument, Ramakrishnamma v Bhagamma, 15 Mad 56; Ramu Aiyar v.

Sankara Aiyar, 31 Mad 89

Religious worship.-In a suit to obtain an injunction that the defendants should not restrain the plaintiffs from saying prayers in a certain mosque and setting up their own Imam to lead the prayers of their congregation and from performing other rituals connected with the divine service, held that the value for the purposes of court-fees is the value for the purposes of jurisdiction. Sale of joint family property.—A suit to prevent sale of joint family property in execution of a decree against a member of the family, is to be valued at the value of the property of which the sale is sought to be stopped or the value of the decree sought to be executed, whichever is smaller, Munshi Mahlot and others v Lachman Lal, 10 P.L.T. 545: 120 I.C 765: 1929 A I R 615 (Patna).

Specific performance.—In suits for specific performance the method of valuation for the purpose of jurnsdicton is first to value the suit for the purpose of court-fees under section, para (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and then to adopt the valuation as valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction, Sailendon Nath Mitra v Ram Chand Pal, 34 C.L., J. 94: 25 C.W.N 768: 66 Ind Cas. 268

. Set-off,—There is an important difference between the method of valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction permissible in the case of a claim for a money-decree made in a plaint and the method of valuation for purposes of jurisdiction permissible in the case of a set-off pleaded by a defendant in his written statement

Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, is ordinarly the provision regulating the valuation of a plaint in a suit for the purpose of jurisdiction, and when that provision is red with the provisions of the Court Fees Act, 1870, the valuation of a plaint in which a money decree is claimed is based on the actual sum claimed after allowing for deductions, such a expressed: Set-off in the plaint..... The provisions of the Court Fees Act applies to the case of a set-off, D. S. Abraham & Co. V. Ebrahim Grabhay, 1925 A.I. R. 65 (Rangoon): 2 Randel: 84 I C 971

Tarwad, membership of.—The value of a suit for a declaration that certain persons are or are not members of a tarvad as the value of the share of the tarvad property which would be allotted to them if a partition were made by common consent. Panga v. Unnikutti, 24 Mad 275.

When the subject-matter of suits of any class other than suits mentioned in the of certain auts by High court (Courts Fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraph (x), clause (d), is such that in the opinion of the High Court it does not act and the first court in the subject-matter of suits of any class of the High Court it does not act and the subject of the High Court it does not act and the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the suits of any class of the subject-matter of suits of any class of the suits mentioned in the suits mentioned in the suits mentioned in the subject-matter of the suits mentioned in the subject-matter of the suits mentioned in the subject-matter of the suits mentioned in the subject-matter of the subject-matter paragraph (x), clause (d), is such that in the opinion of the High Court it does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, the High Court may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, direct that suits of that class shall, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and of this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force, be treated as if their subject-matter were of such value as the High Court thinks fit to specify in this behalf.

MADRAS HIGH COURT RULES.

RULES UNDER THE COURT FEES ACT, VII OF 1870 AND THE SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

- Computation of fees payable.
- In a suit to recover lands in which there are wells, the valuation for the purposes of the suit should be based on the value of the lands only and the wells should not be separately valued
- (2) If an appeal is preferred by a plaintiff, the stamp fer will ordinarily be calculated on the claim or portion of the claim disallowed by the lower Court. If an appeal is preferred by a defendant, the stamp fee will ordinarily be calculated on the amount adjudged by the lower Court, provided that the parties are at liberty to relinquish a portion of their claim on expressing their intention of so doing in the memorandum of appeal
- (3) The fee chargeable on appeals from orders under clause (c) of s 244 of the Code of Civil Procedure of 188 (ie, s 47 of the Code of 1993) shall be limited to the amount chargeable under Art 11 of the Second Schedule to the Cont Fees Act, 1870
- (4) Valuation of certain classes of suits under the Malabat Law - Whereas the High Court is of opinion that the subject matter of certain suits comprised in the classes of suits men tioned in clauses (b) and (c) of paragraph (iv) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, viz, suits for the removal of a karnavan or ejaman or for the enforcement of a right as karnavan or example of the enforcement of a right as karnavan or example of the enforcement of a right as karnavan or example of the enforcement of a right as karnavan or example of the enforcement of a right as karnavan or example of the enforcement of the en van, ejaman or member of a tarwad governed by Marumakkat tayam or Alyasantana system of law or of a Nambudri illom does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, and whereas by an order in Council, dated the 24th day of January, 1903, and numbered 86, Judicial, His Excellency the Governor of For St George in Council has sanctioned the following rules for determining the value of the subject-matter of such suits, the High Court under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by s. 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and all other powers thereunto enabling hereby directs and orders that for purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the value of the subject-matter of all such suits and appeals in such suits, instituted or presented on or after the ist day of March, 1903, shall be determined according to the following rules:-
  - (i) The subject-matter of a suit for the removal of a karnavan or ejaman or for the enforcement of a person's right as karnavan or ejaman of a tarnad governed by the Marumakkattayam or Alyasantana system of land or of a Nambudri illom, shall, for the purpose of the Court Fees Act, 1870 and the Suits Valuation Act, 1867, be valued at one-third of the amount at which the same would be valued under the provisions of the Court Fees Act, 1870, if the sunt were one brought by a stranger for the recovery of the whole property—movable and immovable—possessed by the tarwad or illom to which the suit relates

- (ii) The subject-matter of a sunt for the enforcement of a person's right as member of a tarwad governed by Marumakkattayam or Alyasantana system of law or of a Nambudri illom, shall, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Sunts Valuation Act, 1887, be valued at the amount at which, if the whole of the tarwad or illom property were by the consent of all equally divided among all the members (including the plaintiff) of the tarwad or illom, the plaintiff's share would be valued, with reference to the valuation of the sunt under the Court Fees Act, 1870, if the sunt were one brought by a stranger for the recovery of the whole property—movable and immovable—possessed by the tarwad or illom.
- (iii) In all such stuts, the plaintiff or appellant shall state in the plaint or memorandum of appeal, as the case may be, the amount at which he values the entire property of the tarwad or illom and such valuation, unless the Court has reason to believe the valuation is not made bona fide, shall be accepted by the Court

JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER'S CIVIL CIRCULAR

PART II-8, PAGE 15.

VALUATION OF SUITS.

1. Under section 9 of the Suits Valation Act 1887 a under the same section of the said Notification No. 1641. as applied to Berar, the Judicial Co dated the 28th Sept. '11 missioner with the previous sanction as amended by amend-ment No 19, dated the Chief Commissioner directs the Notification suits of the following classes_shall No. 777 363-V. dated the purposes of the Court Fees A

1870, the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, 1 Central Provinces Courts Act, 1904 and the Berar Courts La 1905, be treated as if the subject-matter of such suits were the value of Rs 400:-

(1) Suits for the restitution of conjugal rights, for ded ration of the validity of marriage, or for a dison

(2) Suits for the custody or guardianship of a minor. (3) Suits for a declaration that an adoption is valid invalid

Provided that if a suit for declaration that an adoption valid or invalid affects a title to property, then the value that property, if it exceeds Rs 400, shall be deemed to be the value of the subject-matter of the suit 2. In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 to

Hyderabad Residency Order No 304, dated toe 3rd December, 1891

the Suits Valuation Act, VII of 188 as applied to the Hyderabad Assignt Districts and with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council the Resident is pleased to make the following rules for deter mining the value of land for the purpose of jurisdiction

- In suits for the possession of land (mentioned in set tion 7, paragraph v, of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) th value of the land for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be deeme to be as follows:
  - (1) When the land is held on Settlement for a period not exceeding 30 years and pays the full asee, ment to the Government a sum equal to ten (twell half by amendment No 19, dated 19-7-1924) time the survey assessment.
  - (2) When the land is held on permanent Settlement [6] any period exceeding 30 years and pays the assessment to the Government, a sum equal to twenty times the survey assessment

- (3) When the whole or any part of the annual survey assessment is remitted, a sum computed under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this rule, as the case may be, in addition to 20 times the assessment or the portion of assessment so remitted
- (4) In other cases, the market value of the land.
  II Where the land falls partly under one and partly under 11 Where the land falls partly under one and partly under another of the classes mentioned or referred to in Rule I the value of the land in each class shall be separately calculated

III. In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption in regard to land (mentioned in section 7, paragraph vi of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) the value of the land shall be computed in accordance with Rule 1

IV In suits for specific performance of an award in regard to land (mentioned in section 7, paragraph X, clause (d) of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) the value of the land shall be computed in accordance with Rule 1

3. Numerous cases have come under notice in which suits for an injunction, for an easement, or for an account have been treated as suits of which it was not possible to estimate the money value

Index section 7, clause (n) (d) to (f) of the Court Fees Act the plaintiff must in all such cases state the amount at which the values the relief sought and the plaint must be stamped in accordance with that valuation

4. The effect of section 7, clause VIII of the Court Fees Act, is apt to be misunderstood. It seems to apply only to cases when the plaintiff has not petitioned the Court which ordered the attachment, but has proceeded at once to file a regular suit. When an attachment has been petitioned against the executing Court, and the petition has either been allowed or disallowed and a suit has been filed by the unsuccessful party under Rule 63, Order 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, such sint is one for a declaratory decree and the plaint should therefore hear a stamp of ten rupnes in respect of the declaration or each of the declarations ought for

5. It must be borne in mind that when two or more reliefs are asked for in the same suit, a separate court-fee should be charged in respect of each rehef

6. It is expected that careful attention will be paid to the question of court-fees. The stamp on all plaints should be examined, and Courts should satisfy themselves that the right fee has been levied in each case. 7. The following rule for determining the value of lad Circular No. 11-8, Notification No. 1408-822-V, dated the 22nd July, the Court Fees Act, 1870, sectors, 1924.

Local Government in exercise of the power conferred by se

tion 3 of the Suits Valuation Act VII of 1887:

In suits for possession of land mentioned in section l. paragraph (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, the value of land tor the purpose of jurisdiction shall be deemed to be n follows:

Where the land forms an entire estate or a definite sur of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government or what the land forms part of such estate and is recorded as afortati and such revenue is settled, but not permanently 12½ time the revenue so payable

8. In all cases in which pleaders' fee are to be calculated upon a value other than the value as determined for the computation of Court Fees a note to this effect should be made if the end of the judgment. In the absence of such note if Muharris attached to Civil Courts who are entrusted with the drawing up of decrees are strictly prohibited from calculating pleaders' fee otherwise than on the value as determined for the computation of court-fees.

In suits by a mortgagee, to foreclose the mortgage, no not need be recorded. The pleaders' fee should be calculated of the sum claimed in the plaint as due under the mortgage.

This was a suit for declaration that the plaintiff was the dopted son of one B. The Judicial Commissioner said at 60 "It appears to me it is the court fee of Rs 10 fixed for aits falling under Article 17 was an arbitrary fee fixed for invenience and that seed on 9 of the Suits Valuation Act enacted hat this fee fixed on an arbitrary valuation, should be regarded is provisional, and liable to be supplanted, in the case of selected lass of suits by a court-fee based on what the High Court and the ocal Government considered to be reasonable basis of valuation," santatran v Laximi Bai, 43 Ind Cas 64 15 N L R 24

"Section 9 provides inter alia that it is competent to the rligh Court with the previous sanction of the Local Government o frame rules for the valuation of suits referred to in paragraph v of section 7 of the Court Fees Act and for determining the turisdiction of Courts, but no such rules have been framed appliable to cancellation and delivery up of an instrument in writing, Until such a rule is framed the valuation given in the plaint by the plaintiff cannot be revised," Chinaminal Madarsa Rowther, " Mad 480

A suit for a declaration that an adoption is valid or invalid 'tould be valued at Rs 400 under the rules framed unless

Application.—Declaratory suits—Rule 2 of the Rules of the Madras High Court dated 26th February, 1908, does not apply to the case of a declaratory suit where no consequental relief is prayed as the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the property likely to be affected by the declaration, C V Southaran Nair v C V Gopala Menon, 30 Mad 18

Where rules have not been framed the Court Fees Act would apply and the fees payable are those prescribed in the first and second Schedules to the Act, W. M. Varadarap Mudahar v. M. Aranungam Pillai, 1925 AIR. 1216 (Mad); 91 I C 751: 22 L.W 15

Restitution of conjugal rights—Under section 8 of the Suls Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887), it appears to be open to the High Court in a case of this description to direct, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, that the subject-matter is to be valued in a specified manner, Akleminnessa Biber v. Mahomod Hatlin, 31 Cal. 849: 8 CWN 705 (709)

But the Punjab Chief Court framed Rules under this section and the valuation must be made under the Rules, and any prayer which is ancillary to the main prayers need not be valued, Nolha v Musst Chuhri, 20 PLR 1919. 52 IC. 1010

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Procedure where the jection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not propelly valued for jurisdictional purpose.

which had not jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court unless-

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was over-valued or undervalued, and that the over-valuation or under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

- (2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court
- (3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals, but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal
  - (4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under section 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure or other enactment for the time being in force.
  - (5) This section extends to the whole of Bri India, and shall come into force on the first day of 1887.

Alteration in law.-For sec 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) see now sec. 115 of the Code of 1908 (Act V of 1908), sec 578 of the Code (Act XIV of 1882) is now sec 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

(b) Reasons to be recorded in writing.—The appellate Court is only required to record reasons if it holds that the suit was over-valued or under-valued, and that the over-valuation or under-valuation has prejudcially affected the disposal of the suit, but it is not required to record reasons in writing for holding that the under-valuation has not prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, Syed Musa Imran v. Bhagwan Das, 100 I C 546. 1927 A I R 359 (Allahabad)

Scope - The plaintiff must under Or. 7, R. 1, C. P. C. state the value of the suit so far as the suit admits of being valued It was not intended by legislature that the valuation of a suit should be arbitrary or reckless, or that the plaintiff should be at liberty to choose the Court in which to file the suit. Where a defendant objects to the valuation, such objection can be heard even at the hearing of the appeal if such an objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the first hearing, Kamta Siroman Prosad Singh v Gayadin, 25 O.C. 184: 69 Ind Cas 201

Collateral proceedings. - The principle of s 11 of the Suits Valuation Act must be extended to collateral proceedings to attach the decree passed, Nane Narasımham v. Donepudi Subramaniam, 98 I C 446. 1927 A.I R. 201 (Madras), see also the same case at a later stage reported in 1929 A.I.R. 323 (Madras).

Application.-This section does not apply where the valuation is fixed by Rules having the force of law and is not discretionary. Khuda Yar v Wahab Din, 47 P.L.R. 1901: 35 PR 1901, Sanga v Malt, 214 P.R. 1910

This section is applicable whether the under-valuation of over-valuation is due to a mistake in estimating the value of the subject-matter or due to a mistake m principle, Krishnasami v.

Kanakasahai, 14 Mad 183: 1 M L.J 234

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act applies only to those cases where the valuation of suit is in the discretion of the parties at Court and not to those cases where the valuation is fixed by the rules, and in the latter class of cases section 11 of the Suits-Valuation Act does not cure the defect of over-valuation and under-valuation and the disposal of suit by a wrong Court is without jurisdiction, Mahomed Shah v. Abdulla Shah, 56 Ind Cas 918

Effect of the section.—The effect of this section is simply to treat the over-valuation or under-valuation as a mere irregularity contemplated under section 578 (section 99 of the present Code) of the Code of Civil Procedure. The objection should be taken at the earliest opportunity, Raghavacharior v. Raghavacharior, 20 M.I. J. 726

Section 11 of the Sints Valuation Act has the effect of curing a want of jurisdiction caused by improper valuation not only in cases when there has been a final disposal by the lower appellate Court, but also when there has been a remaind to the original Court for a finding, Raman v Secretary of State for India in Council, 24 Mad 427 11 M L J 215

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act governs all cases of erroneous valuation irrespective of the question whether the valuation is determined by rules having the force of law or in any other manner (132 PR 1894 and 35 PR 1901: 4 PL R, 1901 overruled), Sardar Khan v Mt Aisha Bibi, 1925 A LR. 290 (L): 1 LR 6 Lah 105: 88 I C 72 F B

Where no objection was taken at earlier stages of a suit and it did not appear that the party was prejudically affected by the decision, the case is covered by see 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Budha Mal v Rallia Ram, 107 I C 620: I L.R. 9. Lahore 418: 1928 A IR 825 (Cal)

Clause (2).—Section 11 of the Sutts Valuation Act prohibits an appellate Court from entertaining an objection that by reason of the under-valuation of a suit a Court not having jurisdiction to try the same exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto, unless the objection was taken in the Court of the first instance at or before the date on which the issues were framed or the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit was under-valued and that the under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, and it has before it the materials necessary for the decision of the appeal; it is authorised by d 2 of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act to dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance, Syd Musa Imran v. Bhogwan Das, 100 I.C. 546: 1927 A.I.R 359 (Allahabad)

Under cl (2) of see 11 of the Suits Valuation Act even if objection to jurisdiction be taken at an early stage in the trial Court, the appellate Court is required to dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction, unless it is satisfied that the over-valuation or under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits, V S Aiyen v Moung Nyum and another, 1929 AIR 228 (Rang)

Clause (3) .- Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act provides inter also that if a Court has decided a suit which it was not competent to decide, owing to an under-valuation thereof, then, if the appellate Court is satisfied that an objection as to valuation of the suit was raised in the trial Court and that the determination of the suit by a Court which was not competent to try it, has prejudiced the defendant, then such Court shall hear the appeal, if there is sufficient material on the record to enable it to dispose of the appeal If, however, the Court finds it necessary to have further evidence recorded or to remand the ease, then the further evidence shall be recorded by and the remand shall be made to the Court which was competent to hear the suit. The law nowhere authorises an appellate Court to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court at the stage at which the learned District Judge returned it, Rajuant Sing and others v. Mutalli and others, 116 I.C. 209.

Prejudicially affected.—The appeal Court cannot interfere unless it is shown that the under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the case, Dinesh Chandra v. Sariannovi Debi, 1 CW.N. 136, Bishnu v. Dal Singh, 71 P L.R. 1906: 55 P.R. 1906

Decision by inferior Court.—Where a Court of inferior inferior of property of the property of the property of the property of the parties are prejudically affected, Cheloo v. Kolidas, 21 P.R. 1918: 44 Ind Cas. 816

A party to a suit cannot be said to have been prejudicially affected within the meaning of sec. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, merely because of a change in the forum of appeal consequent upon the under-valuation.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act when referring to an under-valuation or over-valuation "prejudicially affection, the disposal of suit or appeal on its merits" is not considering at all the different rules of procedure that there may be an appeal from one Court to another.

A trial of a suit by a District Munsiff instead of a Sub-Judge owing to an under-valuation, cannot be deemed to be "prejudice" within the meaning of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act to the unsuccessful party on account of the party having a right of 2nd appeal to the High Court on a question of law only, instead of a regular appeal on questions of facts also, Noducil Edom Karnacun and others v Cheriya Parvathi Nethia and others, 73 Ind Cas. 87: (1924) A.I.R. 6 (Mad.) 46 Mad 631: 45 M.I. 135: 1923 M.W. N. 489: 18 L.W. 1

The question whether a disposal of a suit has naturally prejudiced a party is to be decided on the facts of each case.

The word used is "disposal" and not "decision".

The disposal of a suit on the merits is prejudicially affected when that disposal is made by a District Judge instead of being made by a bench of two judges of the Court of the highest jurisdiction in a province and that such lack of jurisdiction cannot be cured by section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Sheoraj Singh v Musst Phulbasa Kuar and another, 1925 A I R 561 (Ondh): 28 O C 203. 85 I C 445 See also Syed Muss Imran v. Bhaguan Das, 100 I C 546: 1927 A I.R 359 (Allahabad)

A suit was valued at less than Rs 5,000 which was found on evidence by the trial Court as correct The sunt was decreed and an appeal was preferred before the District Judge who decreed the appeal and dismissed the suit On a further appeal to District Judge the High Court held that the suit is above Rs. 5,000, hence the appeal as to the District Judge is incompetent and the decree passed by him is without jurisdiction, held further, that the hearing of the appeal by the District Judge had prejudicially affected the decision of the case on the ments within the meaning of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, inasmuch as if the appeal had been filed in the High Court. it would have gone into evidence in the case and dealt with the questions of fact, whereas it was precluded from doing so in a second appeal if the case be heard by the District Judge in the first instance, Mahanta Rukmin Das v Deva Singh alias Mahanta Deva Das, ILR 5 Patna 505 · 7 PLT 407. 96 IC 242. 1927 AIR 351 (Patna).

The mere fact that a party was deprived of the right of appeal on facts before the High Court cannot be held to prejudicially affect the disposal of the appeal on the ments within the terms of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Nane Narasinham v Donepudi Subramaniam, 98 I C 446- 1927 A I R 201 (Madras)

There is no ground for holding that a party has been prejudiced merely because the appeal has been heard by an inferior instead of a superior Court, Banni v. Mangu, 114 I C. 440

[Sec. 1]

Valuation.—(over-valuatian and under-valuation).—If the valuation of the suit put on the plaint is contested it is the dut of the Court to adjudicate and find what the correct valuation is, Mohum Moham Missr v Gour Chandra, 5 Pat.L.J. 397 1921 Pat. C. W.N. 195: 1 Pat.L.T. 390: 56 Ind. Cas. 762.

The question whether or not a suit has been under-value, should be decided on evidence, and documents which contain description are not a safe criterion, Ram Das v Ajudhia, 63 Ind

Cas 685.

Arbitrary valuatian—In Aklemunnessa Bibee v. Mahoma Hatun, 31 Cal 849: 8 C.W.N. 705 (759) the Calcutta High Court said:—

"It seems to us to be clear, by the phrases 'over-valuation and 'under-valuation' the legislature intended to include all cases of erroneous valuation and that the language of section 11 is comprehensive enough to cover a case like the present, if which the Court exercised jurisdiction by reason of an arbitrary valuation where no valuation ought to have been made, because the suit is incapable of valuation.

Bona fide over-valuation—In case of bona fide overvaluation the mere fact that the suit has been over-valued docs not deprive the Court in which it is brought, of jurisdiction and alter the jurisdiction of the appellate Court, Rajendra Laf Gossami v Shama Charan Lahari, 5 Cal 188: 4 C.L.R. 417. But the whole suit should not be dismissed because in the

But the whole suit should not be dismissed because in the opinion of the lower appellate Court, it would have been instituted in some other Court. Mohee Lal v. Khetraram Marcari, Mistake.—An erroneous assumption, of jurisdiction, through over-valuation does not by itself vitiate the proceedings, Krishaasann v. Savoy Vijia Raghunatha, 1 M.L.J. 234.

Exaggerated valuation—Where the Subordinate Judge on appeal, was of opinion that claim had been designedly exaggerated and therefore ordered the plaint to be returned to be presented to the Small Cause Court, held, as the suit was tried by the first Court and as the lower appellate Court did not find that over-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of suit on its ments, the objection as to jurisdiction should not have been given effect to and the lower appellate Court was wrong in directing the return of plaint, Hamidinnissa Bibi v. Gopalchandra Malakar, 24 Cal 661; Mahammad Sharaftulis v. Hira Lal, 16 O.C. 257, 21 Ind Cas. 52.

Deliberate exaggeration—Where the trial Court tried the suit on the merits and gave a partial decree to the plaintiff, the appeal Court, on appeal preferred by the defendants cannot without finding that the disposal of the suit has been prejudicially affected by such trial, entertain the objection as to jurisduction and should not have given effect to it. Hamidinmissa Bibee v. Gopol Chondra Molakar, 24 Cal. 661: 1 C W.N 556 See also Kali Pujari v. Manyaya, 21 Mad 271

Under-valuation —See Mewah Lal v Behary Lal, 14 W R. 195; Augo Pura Chowdhury v Meah Bibee, 10 W R. 207, Sheikh Muzlur Ah v. Mussammat Basoo, 8 W R 46, Brojo Coomar Sen v Ishan Chander Das, 3 C L R 1

Where a suit for pre-emption was under-valued but the suit was tried by the Munsiff, the District Judge on appeal declined to hear the appeal and refused to allow the appellant to make up the deficiency in payment of court-fees as the period of limitation has expired. The Chief Court held, that the District Judge has overlooked the provisions of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act and the proceedings before the Munsiff were not void for want of jurisdiction and "the deficiency in court-fees could be levied after the period has expired" and remanded the case for trial by the Divisional Judge, Ram v. Taja 173 P.I. R. 1903 74 PR 1903

Where the suit was valued at less than Rs 5,000 while its real value was above Rs 5,000 and was heard by the District Judge without objection held, that the High Court in second appeal cannot entertain the objection, Kishen Lal v Rup

Chand, 9 All W N 169

In cases of reckless under-valuation the plaintiff is not entitled to have protection of section 14 of the Limitation Act, Rukiya Bit v Mubarak Ah, 14 Ind Cas 86

The over-valuation or under-valuation of a suit does not affect a decree unless the disposal of the suit on the merits has been prejudically affected, Mool Chand Mot Lal v. Rom Kishen, 55 All 315 1933 A.L.J. 222 143 I.C. 275 1933 A.J.R. 249 (All.) F.B.

Omission to value—Mere omission to value if such omission has not prejudically affected the decision of the case on the ments, will be cured by s 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Maing Nyi Mainday v Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran. 335: 1934 A 1R 268 (Ran.),

Error not affecting jurisdiction—An error in valuation of a sunt is not an error, defect or irregularity which affects the ments of the case and an appellate Court is restrained by section 350, C P C (section 99 of Act V of 1908) from ordering reversal of a decree on such account, Guddadhur Bannerjie v. Premonoyee Debi, 10 WR 286, Rain Gutty v Goona Monce Debia, 11 WR 177

But in cases of under-valuation, the lower appellate Court can modify or reverse the case Section 350, C P C (99 of Act V of 1908) does not prohibit such a modification or reversa Hurry Pandey v Bassaa, 11 WR. 257.

Objection as to jurisdiction.—(a) Not taken in the trice

Where the plaintiff instituted a suit in the Munsiff's Counand made an arbitrary valuation of the suit and the Munsiff secreised jurisdiction without any objection on the part of the defendant, held, that the suit should not be dismissed by a appellate Court, having regard to the provision of section 1 of the Suits Valuation Act, on the ground of want of jurisdiction, Akleminestes Bibl's v. Mald Hatim, 31 Cal. 849; 8 CWN 705, but the above case was dissented from in Jan Mahomman, v. Masher Bibl, 34 Cal. 352: 11 CWN. 458 and Zair Hussin Khan v Khurshed Jan, 28 All. 545.

An objection as to pecuniary jurisdiction raised for the Is time before the High Court in revision cannot be maintained unless it appeared that the under-valuation has not prejudically affected the merits of the case, Naran Chandra Ghose v. Rangela Ghose, 37 C W N 764

An objection as to jurisdiction of a Court must be raised in the trial Court and if not so taken, it cannot be raised after wards, Bankai Sahu v Mosahib Ali, 46 Ind. Cas 892

An objection as to jurisdiction not taken in the written statements nor raised at the time of settlement of issues, cannot be taken at the time of argument, Neroyan Jia Narone, A. Jopin Prasad, 13 Pat 329: 15 P.L.T. 139. 147 I.C. 1222: 1934 A. J. 184 (Pat.) S. B., Musst. Urchan Kurer, v. Musst. Kabuiri, 13 Patna 344· 15 P.L.T. 131: 148 I.C. 579: 1934 A.J.R. 204 (Pat.) S. B.

Where no objection as to jurisdiction was taken by the defendant in the trial Court nor any objection was taken in the lower appellate Court, but on second appeal the stamp reporter of the Patna High Court took objection as to jurisdiction and valuation, and it did not appear that the disposal of the suffus been in any way prejudicially affected; held that the objection cannot be entertained, Kesho Prasod Sing v. Lakhu Rai and others, 75 Ind Cas 305: 1923 A I R S81 (Patna): 4 Pat. I 7523: 1923 Pat. C W N. 258

A objection to jurisdiction can only be raised on appeal if there be found that the wrong valuation has prejudeably affected the ments of the case or the disposal of the suit, Dang's Das v The Municipal Committee, Focilka, 1929 A.J.R. 2/6 (Lah.).

Rules under the Suits Volution Act.—(a) An objection 2 to jurisdiction not taken in the trial Court but on second appeal

before the High Court cannot be entertained even if a higher valuation was required by the rules framed under the Suits Valuation Act, Kalu and others v Sadhu Singh, 100 I.C. 166

(b) Other Cases—An objection as to disposal of appeal by the District Judge cannot be questioned as being without jurisdiction on the ground that the valuation is beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the District Judge unless the disposal of the suit has prejudicially affected the decision of the appeal, Satya Kinkar Salana v. Shiba Prosad Singh, 4 Pat I, J 447

Objections to jurisdiction will not be entertained by the appeal Court unless the erroneous valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit on the ments, Amunal V. Krishin Nici, 62 Ind Cas 715. A Vedoji Baskara Turunal Rao v Subramania Gurukhal, 52 Ind Cas 992. See also Syed Musa Imman. Bhagiwan Das, 100 I C 546: 1927 A I R 359 (Allahabal)

Note —It is doubtful if the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act can override the pecuniary limits of jurisdiction of various Courts as fixed in the Civil Courts Acts in the various Provinces

(c) Objection in execution proceedings—An objection as to under-valuation, if not taken in the sun, cannot be taken in execution proceedings, Musis Jaglaran Kuer v Musis Munder Kere, 13 Patna 290 150 IC 378 1934 A IR 240 (Patna), Gran Chand v Charanji Lal, 36 PLR 238 1934 A IR 804

Effect of action by the plaintiff.—The plaintiff who in a suft for pre-emption noiwillistanding the objection of the defendant as to the valuation of the sun, actively prosecuted it and neglected to go into the question as to jurisdiction, cannot be heard to say in appeal that the trial Court had no jurisdiction to try the sun. The High Court said that even if the objection was raised at the proper time, the appellate Court must be satisfied that the under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the sun, before the objection can be given effect to, Sankar Nath v. Trilok Singh and another, 11 Lah. 15—123 I.C. 122—1929 A.I.R. 509 (Lah.)

Where it is open to the plaintiff to put his own valuation on his suit, and he elects to value it at an amount which is within the jurisdiction of the particular class of Court, it is not open to him afterwards to say that it is of a higher value so that it may fulfil the requirements of sec 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Lallubhai Prag v. Bhimbhai Dajibhai, 1929 A I R. 341 (Bom).

Appellate Court returning planti—Where an appellate Court makes an order returning a plant for presentation to the proper Court, the Court of first instance having heard and decided the suit, it is the duty of the appellate Court under section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, first to find and to record its reasons for so doing, where the error in valuation complained of has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit on the merits, Walitdulleh v Kanhaya Lol, 25 All. 174; Hamiduninista Bibi v Gopal Chandra Malakar, 24 Cal GRaghiniath Charan Singh v Shamo Koeri, 31 Cal 344, Daliy Singh v Kinidan Singh, 36 All 58. 12 All. L.J. 21: 22 Ind Cas. 614, Krishna Sami v. Paramessweran, 6 Mad 140.

When a Court finds that a suit has been under-valued and that the plaintiff has done so intentionally, it may require the plaintiff to make a fresh valuation and pay proper court-tes, but it has not power to amend the valuation itself, Ashiq alix Intias Beginn, 39 All 723 15 ALI, 794.

Consent of parties does not confer jurisdiction.—If the Court had not jurnsdiction at the mutal stage then no consent by parties can confer jurnsdiction, Rajlakshmi Dasse v. Kalyyami Dasse, 38 Cal 639, Ledgard v. Bull, 13 1 A 134; 9 All. 191.

Tounder of causes of action—Where several causes of action are joined together in one suit, which brought the valuation over Rs 1,000 that valuation would confer upon a Subordinate Judge jurisdiction to try the suit, notwithstanding the fast that if these suits were instituted separately a Munsiff will have jurisdiction to try the suit, Mashaollah Khan v. Ram Lel Agarcatallah, 6 Cal 6

- 12. Nothing in Part I or Part II shall be construed

  Proceedings pending at to affect the jurisdiction of any or Part II.
  - (a) with respect to any suit instituted before rules under Part I applicable to the valuation of the suit take effect, or Part II has come into force, as the case may be, or
    - (b) with respect to any appeal arising out of any such suit.

APPENDIX V

Rules for Refund of the Value of Court Fee Stamps.

I G Resolution, No. 132, dated the 11th January, 1888

(Amended in Madras by Notification dated the 27th March, 1929.)

In supersession of all existing orders on the subject, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorise the refun of the value of impressed court-fee stamps and of court-fee adhesive labels in accordance with the following rules:—

 (a) When any person is possessed of impressed court fee stamps for which he has no immediate use, o which have been spoiled or rendered unfit o useless for the purpose intended, or

(b) When any person is possessed of two or more (o in the case of denominations below Rs 5, four 0 more) court-fee adhesive labels which have neve been detached from each other and for which h has no immediate use, the Collector shall, or application, repay to him the value of such stamp or labels in money, deducting one anna in the rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled and proving to the Collector's satis faction that they were purchased by him with bona fide intention to use them, that he has part the full price thereof and that they were so purchased or, in the case of impressed Court-fee stamps, so purchased, spoiled or rendered useless within the period of six months preceding the date on which they are so delivered Provided that Local Governments may, in special cases, allow refunds when application is made within one year from the date of purchase of the stamps or labels or, also in the case of impressed Court-fee stamps, within one year from the date on which the stamps were spoiled or rendered useless The Local Gov. ernments may at their discretion delegate this power to any subordinate authority.

2. When a licensed vendor surrenders his license or diet, the Collector may at his discretion, if he considers that the circumstances justify the application, repay to him or his representatives, as the case may be, the values of stamps and labels.

not spoiled or rendered unfit for use, returned into the Collector's store, deducting one anna in the rupee, or he may issue stamps and labels of other values in exchange, provided that, in the case of adhesive Court-fee labels their value may not be refunded nor stamps and labels of other values issued in exchange, unless, in cases where the value of each label is not less than Rs. 5, there are at least two such labels which have never been detached from each other, and in cases where the value of each label is less than Rs. 5, unless there are at least four such labels which have never been detached from each other.

3. When adhesive labels are attached to impressed sheets of court-fee stamps in accordance with the direction contained in Notification by the Government of India in this Department, No. 361, dated the 18th April, 1883, such labels should be regarded as impressed stamps for the purposes of refund under these rules.

See Chap VII of the Stamp Manual, U P

Refund in cases of hardship.

In Government Order No 19-T dated the 14th August, 1874, it was decided that it is within the power of Government to waive its own rights, and to refund the value of judicial stamps if it thinks proper to do so. It was also laid down that refunds should not, as a rule be allowed, but that they should be permitted only under circumstances of special hardship, each case being separately reported for the orders of Government. In accordance with this decision, the Government of Bengal has thaterto dealt with such applications for refunds except in the case of probates and letters of administration regarding which there are specific provisions in sections 19A to 19B of the Courfees Act, 1870. The Government of Bengal has ruled that the expressly provided for in the rules of Covernment) should in future be expressed by the Board, who will continue to be guided by the principles prescribed in 1874.—Vide Letter No. 210.—T. S. R. Government of Bengal, Financial Dept., dated the 21st June, 1910.
